Me. 37And the Father Himself, who sent Me, [m]has testified of Me. You have neither heard His voice at any time, [n]nor seen His form. 38But you do not have His word abiding in you, because whom He sent, Him you do not believe. 39[o]You search the Scriptures, for in them you think you have eternal life; and [p]these are they which testify of Me. 40[q]But you are not willing to come to Me that you may have life.

41[r]"I do not receive honor from men. 42But I know you, that you do not have the love of God in you. 43I have come in My Father's name, and you do not receive Me; if another comes in his own name, him you will receive. 44[s]How can you believe, who receive honor from one another, and do not seek [t]the honor that comes from the only God? 45Do not think that I shall accuse you to the Father; [u]there is one who accuses you—Moses, in whom you trust. 46For if you believed Moses, you would believe Me; [v]for he wrote about Me. 47But if you [w]do not believe his writings, how will you believe My words?"

Feeding the Five Thousand

6 After [a]these things Jesus went over the Sea of Galilee, which is the Sea of [b]Tiberias. 2Then a great multitude followed Him, because they saw His signs which He performed on those who were [c]diseased. 3And Jesus went up on the mountain, and there He sat with His disciples.

4[d]Now the Passover, a feast of the Jews, was near. 5[e]Then Jesus lifted up His eyes, and seeing a great multitude coming toward Him, He said to [f]Philip, "Where shall we buy bread, that these may eat?" 6But this He said to test him, for He Himself knew what He would do.

7Philip answered Him, [g]"Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may have a little."

8One of His disciples, [h]Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to Him, 9"There is a lad here who has five barley loaves and two small fish, [i]but what are they among so many?"

10Then Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. 11And Jesus took the loaves, and when He had given thanks He distributed them to the disciples, and the disciples* to those sitting down; and likewise of the fish, as much as they wanted. 12So when they were filled, He said to His disciples, "Gather up the fragments that remain, so that nothing is lost." 13Therefore they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves which were left over by those who had eaten. 14Then those men, when they had seen the sign that Jesus did, said, "This is truly [j]the Prophet who is to come into the world."

Jesus Walks on the Sea

15Therefore when Jesus perceived that they were about to come and take Him by force to make Him [k]king, He departed again to the mountain by Himself alone.

16[l]Now when evening came, His disciples went down to the sea, 17got into the boat, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was already dark, and Jesus had not come to them. 18Then the sea arose

* 6:11 NU-Text omits to the disciples, and the disciples.

Jewish legal practice, a person's testimony about himself was not accepted in court. So, in this case, Jesus offered another witness—John the Baptist (v. 33).

5:42 the love of God. This love is not love from God but love for God. Love from God is evidenced in Christ (3:16; Rom. 5:8). Since God loves us, we should love Him (Deut. 6:5; 1 John 4:19).

5:45 you trust. Christ will not have to accuse the people on judgment day because the one in whom they place their trust, Moses, will. The people will be condemned by the very law they professed to keep.

5:46 for he wrote about Me. Moses wrote about Christ in the promises to the patriarchs, in the history of the deliverance from Egypt, in the symbolic institutions of the law, and in the prediction of a Prophet like himself (Luke 24:25–26). If the people had believed Moses, they would have received Jesus gladly. Over 300 Old Testament prophecies were specifically fulfilled in the first coming of Christ.

6:1 Sea of Galilee, which is the Sea of Tiberias. John's use of the name Tiberias is an indication that his Gospel was written for those outside of Palestine. The Jewish people called this body of water the Lake of Gennesaret. The Romans called it Tiberias, after the city built on its western shore by Herod Antipas and named for the Emperor Tiberius.

6:7 Two hundred denarii. One denarius was a day's wage for a laborer or field hand (Matt. 20:2). Two hundred denarii would have been almost two-thirds of a year's wages.

6:9 barley loaves. These were an inexpensive food of the common people and the poor.

6:10–11 in number about five thousand . . . He distributed . . . those sitting down. This is the only miracle of Jesus that is recounted in all four Gospels.

6:15 to make Him king. Moses had not only miraculously provided food for the Israelites, he had also led them out of bondage in Egypt. Perhaps these men felt that Jesus could lead them out of bondage to the Romans. Christ was at the zenith of His popularity, and the temptation to take the kingdom without the cross must have been great (Matt. 4:8–10).

because a great wind was blowing. 19So when they had rowed about three or four miles,* they saw Jesus walking on the sea and drawing near the boat; and they were [m]afraid. 20But He said to them, [n]"It is I; do not be afraid." 21Then they willingly received Him into the boat, and immediately the boat was at the land where they were going.

The Bread from Heaven

22On the following day, when the people who were standing on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except that one which His disciples had entered,* and that Jesus had not entered the boat with His disciples, but His disciples had gone away alone— 23however, other boats came from Tiberias, near the place where they ate bread after the Lord had given thanks— 24when the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, nor His disciples, they also got into boats and came to Capernaum, [o]seeking Jesus. 25And when they found Him on the other side of the sea, they said to Him, "Rabbi, when did You come here?"

26Jesus answered them and said, "Most assuredly, I say to you, you seek Me, not because you saw the signs, but because you ate of the loaves and were filled. 27[p]Do not labor for the food which perishes, but [q]for the food which endures to everlasting life, which the Son of Man will give you, [r]because God the Father has set His seal on Him."

28Then they said to Him, "What shall we do, that we may work the works of God?"

29Jesus answered and said to them, [s]"This is the work of God, that you believe in Him whom He sent."

30Therefore they said to Him, [t]"What sign will You perform then, that we may see it and believe You? What work will You do? 31[u]Our fathers ate the manna in the desert; as it is written, [v]'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'"*

32Then Jesus said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread from heaven, but [w]My Father gives you the true bread from heaven. 33For the bread of God is He who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

34[x]Then they said to Him, "Lord, give us this bread always."

35And Jesus said to them, [y]"I am the bread of life. [z]He who comes to Me shall never hunger, and he who believes in Me shall never [a]thirst. 36[b]But I said to you that you have seen Me and yet [c]do not believe. 37[d]All that the Father gives Me will come to Me, and [e]the one who comes to Me I will by no means cast out. 38For I have come down from heaven, [f]not to do My own will, [g]but the will of Him who sent Me. 39This is the will of the Father who sent Me, [h]that of all He has given Me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up at the last day. 40And this is the will of Him who sent Me, [i]that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him may have everlasting life; and I will raise him up at the last day."

Rejected by His Own

41The Jews then complained about Him, because He said, "I am the bread which came down from heaven." 42And they said, [j]"Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How is it then that He says, 'I have come down from heaven'?"

43Jesus therefore answered and said to them, "Do not murmur among yourselves. 44[k]No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me [l]draws him; and I will raise him up at the last day. 45It is written in the prophets, [m]'And they shall all be taught by God.'"* [n]Therefore everyone who has heard and learned* from the Father comes to Me.

6:19–21 they saw Jesus walking on the sea. This miracle, the fifth sign recorded by John, pointed to Jesus' deity. Only God could walk on water, calm the sea, and supernaturally transport the disciples to their destination.

6:27 Do not labor. The impression that one must work for eternal life is quickly corrected when Jesus adds "which the Son of Man will give you." The Son provides life as a gift (4:10).

6:31 He gave them bread from heaven. There was a tradition that said the Messiah would cause manna to fall from heaven as Moses did (Ex. 16:4,15). The people probably also saw this "miracle worker" as the perpetual provider of physical needs rather than spiritual ones.

6:32 My Father. The crowd misrepresented the truth, so Jesus corrected them. The manna had not come from Moses; it had been provided by God. Moreover, God still gives "true bread"—that is, eternal life (v. 33).

6:39–40 the will of the Father. This is twofold: (1) that all who come to the Son will be received and not lost; (2) that all who see and believe on the Son will have eternal life.

6:42 the son of Joseph. The religious leaders' proof that Jesus was not from heaven was that they knew His parents. To them, there was nothing supernatural about Jesus' origin.

If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and [v]the bread that I shall give is My flesh, which I shall give for the life of the world."

52 The Jews therefore [w]quarreled among themselves, saying, "How can this Man give us His flesh to eat?"

53 Then Jesus said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless [x]you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in you. 54 [y]Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. 55 For My flesh is food indeed,* and My blood is drink indeed. 56 He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood [z]abides in Me, and I in him. 57 As the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, so he who feeds on Me will live because of Me. 58 [a]This is the bread which came down from heaven—not [b]as your fathers ate the manna, and are dead. He who eats this bread will live forever."

59 These things He said in the synagogue as He taught in Capernaum.

Many Disciples Turn Away

60 [c]Therefore many of His disciples, when they heard this, said, "This is a hard saying; who can understand it?"

61 When Jesus knew in Himself that His disciples complained about this, He said to them, "Does this offend you? 62 [d]What then if you should see the Son of Man ascend where He was before? 63 [e]It is the Spirit who gives life; the [f]flesh profits nothing. The [g]words that I speak to you are spirit, and they are life. 64 But [h]there are some of you who do not believe." For [i]Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and who would betray Him. 65 And He said, "Therefore [j]I have said to you that no one can come to Me unless it has been granted to him by My Father."

66 [k]From that time many of His disciples went back and walked with Him no more. 67 Then Jesus said to the twelve, "Do you also want to go away?"

68 But Simon Peter answered Him, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have [l]the words of eternal life. 69 [m]Also we have come to believe and know that You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."*

70 Jesus answered them, [n]"Did I not choose you, the twelve, [o]and one of you is a devil?" 71 He spoke of [p]Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon, for it was he who would [q]betray Him, being one of the twelve.

Jesus' Brothers Disbelieve

7 After these things Jesus walked in Galilee; for He did not want to walk in Judea, [a]because the Jews* sought to kill Him. 2 [b]Now the Jews' Feast of Tabernacles was at hand. 3 [c]His brothers therefore said to Him, "Depart from here and go into Judea, that Your disciples also may see the works that You are doing. 4 For no one does anything in secret while he himself seeks to be known openly. If You do these things, show Yourself to the world." 5 For [d]even His [e]brothers did not believe in Him.

6 Then Jesus said to them, [f]"My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready. 7 [g]The world cannot hate you, but it hates Me [h]because I testify of it that its

6:48–49 I am the bread of life. Those who believe in Him have life (v. 47). The manna in the wilderness did not ultimately sustain life. Those who ate it eventually died because it could not provide eternal life.

6:53–58 eats My flesh and drinks My blood. Jesus had made it abundantly clear in this context that eternal life is gained by believing (vv. 29,35,40,47). These verses teach that the benefits of Jesus' death must be appropriated, by faith, by each individual.

6:60 This is a hard saying. It was hard for the Jewish learners to accept the idea of eating flesh and drinking blood. Jews were forbidden to even taste blood.

6:63 It is the Spirit who gives life. Jesus was trying to get the religious leaders to see beyond the physical aspects of His teaching to the real issue—namely, that if they believed on Him they would have eternal life.

7:2 Feast of Tabernacles. This was one of the three great Jewish religious festivals (Passover and Pentecost were the other two). It was called the Feast of Tabernacles (Booths) because for seven days the people lived in makeshift shelters or lean-tos made of branches and leaves. The feast commemorated the days when the Israelites wandered in the wilderness and lived in tents (Lev. 23:40–43).

7:3–4 His brothers. Jesus' brothers argued, "If You works are evil. 8You go up to this feast. I am not yet* going up to this feast, [i]for My time has not yet fully come." 9When He had said these things to them, He remained in Galilee.

The Heavenly Scholar

10But when His brothers had gone up,
then He also went up to the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret. 11Then [j]the Jews sought Him at the feast, and said, "Where is He?" 12And [k]there was much complaining among the people concerning Him.
[l]Some said, "He is good"; others said, "No,
on the contrary, He deceives the people."
13However, no one spoke openly of Him
[m]for fear of the Jews.

14Now about the middle of the feast
Jesus went up into the temple and [n]taught.
15[o]And the Jews marveled, saying, "How does this Man know letters, having never studied?"

16Jesus* answered them and said, [p]"My doctrine is not Mine, but His who sent Me.
17[q]If anyone wills to do His will, he shall know concerning the doctrine, whether it is from God or whether I speak on My own authority. 18[r]He who speaks from himself seeks his own glory; but He who [s]seeks the glory of the One who sent Him is true, and [t]no unrighteousness is in Him. 19[u]Did not Moses give you the law, yet none of you keeps the law? [v]Why do you seek to kill Me?"

20The people answered and said, [w]"You have a demon. Who is seeking to kill You?"

21Jesus answered and said to them, "I did one work, and you all marvel. 22[x]Moses therefore gave you circumcision (not that it is from Moses, [y]but from the fathers), and you circumcise a man on the Sabbath. 23If
a man receives circumcision on the Sabbath, so that the law of Moses should not be broken, are you angry with Me because [z]I made a man completely well on the Sabbath? 24[a]Do not judge according to appearance, but judge with righteous judgment."

Could This Be the Christ?

25Now some of them from Jerusalem said, "Is this not He whom they seek to [b]kill? 26But look! He speaks boldly, and they say nothing to Him. [c]Do the rulers
know indeed that this is truly* the Christ?
27[d]However, we know where this Man is from; but when the Christ comes, no one knows where He is from."

28Then Jesus cried out, as He taught in the temple, saying, [e]"You both know Me, and you know where I am from; and [f]I have not come of Myself, but He who sent Me [g]is true, [h]whom you do not know. 29But* [i]I know Him, for I am from Him, and He sent Me."

30Therefore [j]they sought to take Him;
but [k]no one laid a hand on Him, because His hour had not yet come. 31And [l]many of the people believed in Him, and said,
"When the Christ comes, will He do more signs than these which this Man has done?"

Jesus and the Religious Leaders

32The Pharisees heard the crowd murmuring these things concerning Him, and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take Him. 33Then Jesus said to them,* [m]"I shall be with you a little while longer, and then I [n]go to Him who sent Me.
34You [o]will seek Me and not find Me, and where I am you [p]cannot come."

35Then the Jews said among themselves,
"Where does He intend to go that we shall not find Him? Does He intend to go to [q]the Dispersion among the Greeks and teach the Greeks? 36What is this thing that He said, 'You will seek Me and not find Me,
and where I am you cannot come'?"

The Promise of the Holy Spirit

37[r]On the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, [s]"If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and are really working miracles and thus claiming to be the Messiah, do not hide in obscure Galilee. If You are doing miracles at all, then do them in Jerusalem at the Feast to convince the whole nation." These words were sarcastic, as verse 5 explains.

7:14 the middle of the feast. This would have been the fourth day of the seven-day feast. During the first half of the festival, Jesus remained in seclusion (v. 10). During the second half, He began to teach publicly. This is the first mention in the Gospel of John of Jesus teaching in the temple.

7:15 having never studied. Jesus never attended a rabbinical school. Similar bewilderment was later expressed regarding Jesus' disciples (Acts 4:13).

7:28–29 You both know Me, and you know where I am from. Jesus reminded the leaders that they knew His origin. Their problem was that they did not know God, who sent Jesus. He explained to them that He knew God, was from God, and was sent by God.

7:32 to take Him. The Jewish leaders decided earlier that they wanted to kill Christ (5:16), but this is the first real attempt on His life.

7:37–39 that great day of the feast. On each day of the feast, the people came with palm branches and marched around the great altar. A priest took

Who Is He?

40Therefore many* from the crowd, when they heard this saying, said, "Truly this is [x]the Prophet." 41Others said, "This is [y]the Christ."

But some said, "Will the Christ come out of Galilee? 42[z]Has not the Scripture said that the Christ comes from the seed of David and from the town of Bethlehem, [a]where David was?" 43So [b]there was a division among the people because of Him. 44Now [c]some of them wanted to take Him, but no one laid hands on Him.

Rejected by the Authorities

45Then the officers came to the chief priests and Pharisees, who said to them, "Why have you not brought Him?"

46The officers answered, [d]"No man ever spoke like this Man!"

47Then the Pharisees answered them, "Are you also deceived? 48Have any of the rulers or the Pharisees believed in Him? 49But this crowd that does not know the law is accursed."

50Nicodemus [e](he who came to Jesus by night,* being one of them) said to them, 51[f]"Does our law judge a man before it hears him and knows what he is doing?"

52They answered and said to him, "Are you also from Galilee? Search and look, for [g]no prophet has arisen* out of Galilee."

An Adulteress Faces the Light of the World

53And everyone went to his own house.*

8 But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.

2Now early* in the morning He came again into the temple, and all the people came to Him; and He sat down and [a]taught them. 3Then the scribes and Pharisees brought to Him a woman caught in adultery. And when they had set her in the midst, 4they said to Him, "Teacher, this woman was caught* in [b]adultery, in the very act. 5[c]Now Moses, in the law, commanded* us that such should be stoned.* But what do You say?"* 6This they said, testing Him, that they [d]might have something of which to accuse Him. But Jesus stooped down and wrote on the ground with His finger, as though He did not hear.*

7So when they continued asking Him, He raised Himself up* and said to them, [e]"He who is without sin among you, let him throw a stone at her first." 8And again He stooped down and wrote on the ground. 9Then those who heard it, [f]being convicted by their conscience,* went out one by one,

a golden pitcher filled with water from the pool of Siloam, carried it to the temple, and poured it on the altar as an offering to God. This dramatic ceremony was a memorial of the water that flowed from the rock when the Israelites traveled through the wilderness. On the last day of the feast, the people marched seven times around the altar in memory of the seven circuits around the walls of Jericho.

7:38 as the Scripture has said. The reference is not to a single passage, but to the general emphasis of such passages as Deuteronomy 18:15, Isaiah 58:11, and Zechariah 14:8. In contrast to the small amount of water poured out each day during the feast, there will be a river of water coming out of those who believe in Christ. Not only will they be satisfied themselves, but they will also become a river so that others may drink and be satisfied (v. 39).

7:40–42 Christ comes from the seed of David. These people knew that the Messiah was to come from Bethlehem (Mic. 5:2). However, they did not know that Jesus had been born there. They thought He was from Galilee. They knew the Scripture, but they did not take the time to know the Messiah (5:39).

8:2 He sat down. Teachers in ancient Israel sat when they taught. Jesus assumed the position of an authoritative teacher.

8:3 a woman caught in adultery. The scribes and Pharisees were not interested in helping the woman, but in using her sinful circumstances to discredit Jesus (v. 6). His refusal to countenance the stoning of the woman does not bring Him into conflict with the law given to Moses, nor does He condone sin. The issue in the encounter was the accusers' blindness to their own sin.

8:4–5 commanded us that such should be stoned. Stoning was specified in certain cases of adultery (Deut. 22:23–24), though not all. (It is not clear why the authorities intended to punish the woman but not the man.) In the Greek text, the pronoun You is emphatic. The religious leaders were trying to trap Jesus into saying something that was contrary to the law.

8:6 testing him. If Jesus had said not to stone her, He would have contradicted Jewish law. If He had said to stone her, He would have run counter to Roman law, which did not permit Jews to carry out their own

11She said, "No one, Lord."

And Jesus said to her, [g]"Neither do I condemn you; go and* [h]sin no more."

12Then Jesus spoke to them again, saying, [i]"I am the light of the world. He who [j]follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but have the light of life."

Jesus Defends His Self-Witness

13The Pharisees therefore said to Him, [k]"You bear witness of Yourself; Your witness is not true."

14Jesus answered and said to them, "Even if I bear witness of Myself, My witness is true, for I know where I came from and where I am going; but [l]you do not know where I come from and where I am going. 15[m]You judge according to the flesh; [n]I judge no one. 16And yet if I do judge, My judgment is true; for [o]I am not alone, but I am with the Father who sent Me. 17[p]It is also written in your law that the testimony of two men is true. 18I am One who bears witness of Myself, and [q]the Father who sent Me bears witness of Me."

19Then they said to Him, "Where is Your Father?"

Jesus answered, [r]"You know neither Me nor My Father. [s]If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also."

20These words Jesus spoke in [t]the treasury, as He taught in the temple; and [u]no one laid hands on Him, for [v]His hour had not yet come.

Jesus Predicts His Departure

21Then Jesus said to them again, "I am going away, and [w]you will seek Me, and [x]will die in your sin. Where I go you cannot come."

22So the Jews said, "Will He kill Himself, because He says, 'Where I go you cannot come'?"

23And He said to them, [y]"You are from beneath; I am from above. [z]You are of this world; I am not of this world. 24[a]Therefore I said to you that you will die in your sins; [b]for if you do not believe that I am He, you will die in your sins."

25Then they said to Him, "Who are You?"

And Jesus said to them, "Just what I [c]have been saying to you from the beginning. 26I have many things to say and to judge concerning you, but [d]He who sent Me is true; and [e]I speak to the world those things which I heard from Him."

27They did not understand that He spoke to them of the Father.

28Then Jesus said to them, "When you [f]lift up the Son of Man, [g]then you will know that I am He, and [h]that I do nothing of Myself; but [i]as My Father taught Me, I speak these things. 29And [j]He who sent Me is with Me. [k]The Father has not left Me alone, [l]for I always do those things that please Him."

30As He spoke these words, [m]many believed in Him.

The Truth Shall Make You Free

31Then Jesus said to those Jews who believed Him, "If you [n]abide in My word, you are My disciples indeed. 32And you shall know the [o]truth, and [p]the truth shall make you free."

executions (18:31). What Jesus wrote on the ground is a matter of conjecture.

8:13 Your witness is not true. This phrase does not mean "false"; it means "not sufficient." The Pharisees challenged Jesus on legal grounds because no man on trial in a Jewish court was allowed to testify on his own behalf. Their point was that, if Jesus were the only one testifying as to who He claimed to be, it would not be enough to prove His case.

8:14 My witness is true. In 5:31 Jesus argued on the basis of legality and offered other witnesses. Sometimes, however, an individual is the only one who knows the facts about himself. Thus, self-disclosure is the only way to truth (7:29; 13:3).

8:15 according to the flesh. This could mean either "according to appearance" or "by human standards." The religious leaders formed conclusions based on human standards and an imperfect, external, and superficial examination. Jesus did not judge according to human standards or outward appearances.

8:24 I am He. This was God's designation of Himself (Ex. 3:14). Jesus was claiming to be God. This assertion was not understood by the religious leaders at this time. Later, Jesus' claim to be the "I am" (v. 58) prompted the Jewish leaders to seek His life (v. 59).

8:31 God's Word Confirms—The Bible establishes the truth in our own hearts in several ways.

1. It confirms our salvation. In Jesus' own words in the Gospel of John: "Most assuredly, I say to you, he who hears My word and believes in Him who sent Me has everlasting life, and shall not come into judgment, but has passed from death into life" (5:24). Compare 3:16; 6:27,35,37,40; 10:27–29; Romans 8:1.
2. It confirms the hand of God in all of life's bitter disappointments. Romans 8:28 provides reassurance and comfort in these crucial situations:

8:11 [g] [John 3:17] [h] [John 5:14] 8:12 [i] John 1:4; 9:5; 12:35 [j] 1 Thess. 5:5 8:13 [k] John 5:31 8:14 [l] John 7:28; 9:29 8:15 [m] John 7:24 [n] [John 3:17; 12:47; 18:36] 8:16 [o] John 16:32 8:17 [p] Deut. 17:6; 19:15 8:18 [q] John 5:37 8:19 [r] John 16:3 [s] John 14:7 8:20 [t] Mark 12:41, 43 [u] John 2:4; 7:30 [v] John 7:8 8:21 [w] John 7:34; 13:33 [x] John 8:24 8:23 [y] John 3:31 [z] 1 John 4:5 8:24 [a] John 8:21 [b] [Mark 16:16] 8:25 [c] John 4:26 8:26 [d] John 7:28 [e] John 3:32; 15:15 8:28 [f] John 3:14; 12:32; 19:18 [g] [Rom. 1:4] [h] John 5:19, 30 [i] John 3:11 8:29 [j] John 14:10 [k] John 8:16; 16:32 [l] John 4:34; 5:30; 6:38 8:30 [m] John 7:31; 10:42; 11:45 8:31 [n] [John 14:15, 23] 8:32 [o] [John 1:14, 17; 14:6] [p] [Rom. 6:14, 18, 22]

33 They answered Him, [a]"We are Abraham's descendants, and have never been in bondage to anyone. How can You say, 'You will be made free'?"

34 Jesus answered them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, [r]whoever commits sin is a slave of sin. 35 And [s]a slave does not abide in the house forever, but a son abides forever. 36 [t]Therefore if the Son makes you free, you shall be free indeed.

Abraham's Seed and Satan's

37 "I know that you are Abraham's descendants, but [u]you seek to kill Me, because My word has no place in you. 38 [v]I speak what I have seen with My Father, and you do what you have seen with* your father."

39 They answered and said to Him, [w]"Abraham is our father."

Jesus said to them, [x]"If you were Abraham's children, you would do the works of Abraham. 40 [y]But now you seek to kill Me, a Man who has told you the truth [z]which I heard from God. Abraham did not do this. 41 You do the deeds of your father."

Then they said to Him, "We were not born of fornication; [a]we have one Father—God."

42 Jesus said to them, [b]"If God were your Father, you would love Me, for [c]I proceeded forth and came from God; [d]nor have I come of Myself, but He sent Me. 43 [e]Why do you not understand My speech? Because you are not able to listen to My word. 44 [f]You are of your father the devil, and the [g]desires of your father you want to [h]do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and [i]does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a liar and the father of it. 45 But because I tell the truth, you do not believe Me. 46 Which of you convicts Me of sin? And if I tell the truth, why do you not believe Me? 47 [j]He who is of God hears God's words; therefore you do not hear, because you are not of God."

Before Abraham Was, I AM

48 Then the Jews answered and said to Him, "Do we not say rightly that You are a Samaritan and [k]have a demon?"

49 Jesus answered, "I do not have a demon; but I honor My Father, and [l]you dishonor Me. 50 And [m]I do not seek My own glory; there is One who seeks and judges. 51 Most assuredly, I say to you, [n]if anyone keeps My word he shall never see death."

52 Then the Jews said to Him, "Now we know that You [o]have a demon! [p]Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and You say, 'If anyone keeps My word he shall never taste death.' 53 Are You greater than our father Abraham, who is dead? And the prophets are dead. [q]Who do You make Yourself out to be?"

54 Jesus answered, [r]"If I honor Myself, My honor is nothing. [s]It is My Father who honors Me, of whom you say that He is your* God. 55 Yet [t]you have not known Him, but I know Him. And if I say, 'I do not know Him,' I shall be a liar like you; but I do know Him and [u]keep His word. 56 Your father Abraham [v]rejoiced to see My day, [w]and he saw it and was glad."

57 Then the Jews said to Him, "You are not yet fifty years old, and have You seen Abraham?"

58 Jesus said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, [x]before Abraham was, [y]I AM."

59 Then [z]they took up stones to throw at Him; but Jesus hid Himself and went out of the temple,* [a]going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

*8:38 NU-Text reads heard from. *8:54 NU-Text and M-Text read our. *8:59 NU-Text omits the rest of this verse.

"And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose."

3. It confirms our forgiveness when we sin. Repeatedly, the Bible assures us that all confessed sin is instantly and eternally forgiven (Ps. 32:5; 103:12; Is. 38:17).

8:33 have never been in bondage to anyone. The Pharisees' objection is startling. In their past, the Israelites had been in bondage to the Egyptians, the Assyrians, and the Babylonians. At the time they spoke, Israel was under the power of Rome.

8:39 Abraham is our father. The Pharisees believed that being a descendant of Abraham guaranteed them a place in heaven.

8:41 We were not born of fornication. From ancient times, this has been interpreted as a sneer, as if to say, "We are not illegitimate children, but You are." Apparently gossip followed Jesus, alleging that He had been conceived out of wedlock.

8:53 Are You greater than our father Abraham. Abraham and the prophets kept God's word and died. Jesus was claiming not that He would prevent physical death, but that He could give eternal life. To the Jewish leaders, this was proof that Jesus was demon-possessed.

8:58–59 I AM. Jesus was not just claiming to have lived before Abraham; He was claiming eternal existence. He was claiming to be God Himself (Ex. 3:14). This time the Jewish leaders understood that Jesus

A Man Born Blind Receives Sight

9 Now as Jesus passed by, He saw a man who was blind from birth. 2And His disciples asked Him, saying, "Rabbi, [a]who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"

3Jesus answered, "Neither this man nor his parents sinned, [b]but that the works of God should be revealed in him. 4[c]I* must work the works of Him who sent Me while it is [d]day; the night is coming when no one can work. 5As long as I am in the world, [e]I am the light of the world."

6When He had said these things, [f]He spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva; and He anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay. 7And He said
to him, "Go, wash [g]in the pool of Siloam" (which is translated, Sent). So [h]he went and washed, and came back seeing.

8Therefore the neighbors and those who previously had seen that he was blind*
said, "Is not this he who sat and begged?"

9Some said, "This is he." Others said,
"He is like him."*

He said, "I am he."

10Therefore they said to him, "How were your eyes opened?"

11He answered and said, [i]"A Man called Jesus made clay and anointed my eyes
and said to me, 'Go to the pool of* Siloam and wash.' So I went and washed, and I received sight."

12Then they said to him, "Where is He?"

He said, "I do not know."

The Pharisees Excommunicate the Healed Man

13They brought him who formerly was blind to the Pharisees. 14Now it was a Sabbath when Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes. 15Then the Pharisees also asked him again how he had received his sight.
He said to them, "He put clay on my eyes,
and I washed, and I see."

16Therefore some of the Pharisees said,
"This Man is not from God, because He does not keep the Sabbath."

Others said, [j]"How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?" And [k]there was a division among them.

17They said to the blind man again,
"What do you say about Him because He opened your eyes?"

He said, [l]"He is a prophet."

18But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind and received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight. 19And they asked them, saying, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?"

20His parents answered them and said, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; 21but by what means he now sees we do not know, or who opened his eyes we do not know.
He is of age; ask him. He will speak for himself." 22His parents said these things
because [m]they feared the Jews, for the Jews had agreed already that if anyone confessed that He was Christ, he [n]would be put out of the synagogue.
23Therefore his parents said, "He is of age;
ask him."

24So they again called the man who was blind, and said to him, [o]"Give God the glory! [p]We know that this Man is a sinner."

25He answered and said, "Whether He is a sinner or not I do not know. One thing I know: that though I was blind, now I see."

26Then they said to him again, "What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?"

27He answered them, "I told you already,
and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become His disciples?"

28Then they reviled him and said, "You are His disciple, but we are Moses' disciples. 29We know that God [q]spoke to [r]Moses; as for this fellow, [s]we do not know where He is from."

was claiming to be God, so they took up stones to stone Him for blasphemy (Lev. 24:16).

9:1 a man who was blind from birth. Most likely he was a beggar. Beggars waited by the gates of the temple for gifts from worshipers. Therefore, it is likely that this scene took place near the temple.

9:2 who sinned. It was commonly supposed that sickness was a result of sin. It would follow that sin committed by a baby still in the womb or sin committed by parents could result in a baby being born with a disease. Jesus rejected both suggestions (v. 3).

9:7 pool of Siloam. Hezekiah had a tunnel cut through solid rock to transport water from Gihon into the city of Jerusalem, to the pool of Siloam (2 Kin. 20:20; 2 Chr. 32:30). John emphasizes that the name Siloam means "sent," because Jesus had just announced that He had been sent by God (v. 4).

9:22 put out of the synagogue. To take this action was a form of excommunication. The Jews had three types of excommunication: one lasting 30 days, during which the person could not come within six feet of anybody else; one for an indefinite time, during which the person was excluded from all fellowship and worship; and one that meant absolute expulsion forever. These judgments were very serious because no one could conduct business with a person who was excommunicated.

has opened my eyes! 31 Now we know that u God does not hear sinners; but if anyone is a worshiper of God and does His will,
He hears him. 32 Since the world began it has been unheard of that anyone opened the eyes of one who was born blind. 33 v If this Man were not from God, He could do nothing."
34 They answered and said to him, w"You were completely born in sins, and are you teaching us?" And they cast him out.

True Vision and True Blindness

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when He had x found him, He said to him, "Do you y believe in z the Son of God?"*
36 He answered and said, "Who is He,
Lord, that I may believe in Him?"
37 And Jesus said to him, "You have both seen Him and a it is He who is talking with you."
38 Then he said, "Lord, I believe!" And he
b worshiped Him.
39 And Jesus said, c"For judgment I have come into this world, d that those who do not see may see, and that those who see may be made blind."
40 Then some of the Pharisees who were with Him heard these words, e and said to Him, "Are we blind also?"
41 Jesus said to them, f"If you were blind,
you would have no sin; but now you say,
'We see.' Therefore your sin remains.

Jesus the True Shepherd

10 "Most assuredly, I say to you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. 2 But he who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. 3 To him the doorkeeper opens, and the sheep hear his voice; and he calls his own sheep by a name and leads them out.
4 And when he brings out his own sheep,
he goes before them; and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. 5 Yet they will by no means follow a b stranger, but will flee from him, for they do not know
the voice of strangers." 6 Jesus used this illustration, but they did not understand the things which He spoke to them.

Jesus the Good Shepherd

7 Then Jesus said to them again, "Most assuredly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. 8 All who ever came before Me*
are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not hear them. 9 c I am the door. If anyone enters by Me, he will be saved, and will go in and out and find pasture. 10 The thief
does not come except to steal, and to kill,
and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly.
11 d"I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd gives His life for the sheep. 12 But a hireling, he who is not the shepherd, one who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf
coming and e leaves the sheep and flees;
and the wolf catches the sheep and scatters
them. 13 The hireling flees because he is a hireling and does not care about the sheep.

9:30–33 unheard of. There is no healing of a blind man recorded anywhere in the Old Testament.
9:38 Lord, I believe. Note the progression throughout this chapter of the healed man's understanding of the person of Christ. First, he called Jesus "a Man" (v. 11); then, "a prophet" (v. 17); and finally, he realized that Jesus is the Son of God (vv. 35–38).
10:1 sheepfold. A sheepfold was a walled enclosure or high fence made with stakes and having one door or gate; often the enclosure was a cave. some other way. The Pharisees had secured their power by illegitimate means.
10:3 the doorkeeper. The doorkeeper was the undershepherd. calls his own sheep by name. The naming of sheep was an ancient practice (Ps. 147:4; Is. 40:26).
10:7 I am the door. In verses 1–5, Jesus is the shepherd; here, He is the door. Some shepherds lay down across the entry of the sheepfold at night to sleep. Wild beasts would be discouraged from entering, and sheep would not exit. Thus, the shepherd was also the door.
10:10 may have it more abundantly. The thieves take life; the shepherd gives it. Abundant life includes salvation, nourishment, healing (v. 9), and much more. Life here refers to eternal life, God's life. It speaks not only of endlessness, but of quality of life. With Christ, life on earth can reach much higher quality, and then in heaven it will be complete and perfect.
10:11 The Ministry of Jesus—Jesus' most important teachings are: the kingdom of God (Matt. 5–7; 24–25); His divine authority over men (Matt. 7:28–29; Mark 2:10); His own role as God and Messiah demonstrated by miracles and signs; the significance of His death and resurrection (Matt. 16:21; Luke 24:26); the relationship which His disciples and subsequent believers are to share with Him (John 13–16); and the urgency of His commission to believers to make disciples (Matt. 28:19–20). The most significant events of His earthly life, His death and resurrection, are central to the entire Christian faith (1 Cor. 15:14).

17"Therefore My Father [l]loves Me, [m]because I lay down My life that I may take it again. 18No one takes it from Me, but I lay it down of Myself. I [n]have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. [o]This command I have received from My Father."

19Therefore [p]there was a division again among the Jews because of these sayings. 20And many of them said, [q]"He has a demon and is mad. Why do you listen to Him?"

21Others said, "These are not the words of one who has a demon. [r]Can a demon [s]open the eyes of the blind?"

The Shepherd Knows His Sheep

22Now it was the Feast of Dedication in Jerusalem, and it was winter. 23And Jesus walked in the temple, [t]in Solomon's porch. 24Then the Jews surrounded Him and said to Him, "How long do You keep us in doubt? If You are the Christ, tell us plainly."

25Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you do not believe. [u]The works that I do in My Father's name, they [v]bear witness of Me. 26But [w]you do not believe, because you are not of My sheep, as I said to you.* 27[x]My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me. 28And I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand. 29[y]My Father, [z]who has given them to Me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of My Father's hand. 30[a]I and My Father are one."

Renewed Efforts to Stone Jesus

31Then [b]the Jews took up stones again to stone Him. 32Jesus answered them, "Many good works I have shown you from My Father. For which of those works do you stone Me?"

33The Jews answered Him, saying, "For a good work we do not stone You, but for [c]blasphemy, and because You, being a Man, [d]make Yourself God."

34Jesus answered them, "Is it not written in your law, [e]'I said, "You are gods"'?* 35If He called them gods, [f]to whom the word of God came (and the Scripture [g]cannot be broken), 36do you say of Him [h]whom the Father sanctified and [i]sent into the world, 'You are blaspheming,' [j]because I said, 'I am [k]the Son of God'? 37[l]If I do not do the works of My Father, do not believe Me; 38but if I do, though you do not believe Me, [m]believe the works, that you may know and believe* [n]that the Father is in Me, and I in Him." 39[o]Therefore they sought again to seize Him, but He escaped out of their hand.

The death of Christ was a humiliating physical death (John 19:18,33) that constituted a spiritual separation from God (Matt. 27:46). Within this moment there occurred the inexplicable mystery of the Father punishing the Son for the sins of the world (2 Cor. 5:21; 1 Pet. 3:18). The greatest crime of human history was in the plan of God (Acts 2:23) and became the basis of salvation for sinners (Is. 53:5). The resurrection of Christ demonstrated that His death, by which believing sinners are justified, was valid (1 Cor. 15:12–20). The historical evidence for the resurrection is plentiful: the many separate accounts of post-resurrection appearances, the empty tomb, and the transformed disciples. It is the power of the resurrection that empowers Christians today to live the Christian life (Eph. 1:19–20; Phil. 3:10).

10:16 other sheep I have. These were not Jews in heathen lands, but Gentiles. The Jewish people had asked if Jesus would go and teach the Gentiles (7:35). Jesus now declared that He had sheep among the despised heathen. one flock. This anticipates the salvation of the Gentiles and the formation of the church, in which converted Jews and Gentiles would form one spiritual body (Gal. 3:28; Eph. 2:16).

10:19–21 many of them said . . . Others said. After Jesus' analogy of the good shepherd, the editorial comment by John is fitting. In the analogy, Jesus was the good shepherd whose sheep hear His voice, implying that there are sheep who do not hear His voice. John's comment indicates that some believe and others do not. This is the same division that occurred in 9:16.

10:22 the Feast of Dedication. This festival was celebrated for eight days. In 167 B.C. Antiochus Epiphanes desecrated the temple in Jerusalem, as prophesied in Daniel 11:31. The Maccabeans restored and purified the temple. In commemoration of the restoration, the Feast of Dedication was instituted. Today it is also known as the Feast of Lights or Hanukkah.

10:27–29 hear . . . follow. The following of the sheep is a metaphor for faith. Other metaphors for faith in this Gospel include drinking water (4:14), eating bread (6:50–51), eating flesh, and drinking blood (6:54).

10:30 I and My Father are one. The Jewish opponents understood that Jesus was claiming to be God (vv. 31,33).

10:34 You are gods. In the Old Testament, judges were called gods. They exercised godlike judicial sovereignty. Psalm 82:6, the verse quoted here, refers to judges who violate the law. Jesus' argument was that,

The Believers Beyond Jordan

40And He went away again beyond the Jordan to the place [p]where John was baptizing at first, and there He stayed. 41Then many came to Him and said, "John performed no sign, [q]but all the things that John spoke about this Man were true." 42And many believed in Him there.

The Death of Lazarus

11 Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus of Bethany, the town of [a]Mary and her sister Martha. 2[b]It was that Mary who anointed the Lord with fragrant oil and wiped His feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick. 3Therefore the sisters sent to Him, saying, "Lord, behold, he whom You love is sick."

4When Jesus heard that, He said, "This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it."

5Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. 6So, when He heard that he was sick, [c]He stayed two more days in the place where He was. 7Then after this He said to the disciples, "Let us go to Judea again."

8*The* disciples said to Him, "Rabbi, lately the Jews sought to [d]stone You, and are You going there again?"

9Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in the day? [e]If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the [f]light of this world. 10But [g]if one walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him." 11These things He said, and after that He said to them, "Our friend Lazarus [h]sleeps, but I go that I may wake him up."

12Then His disciples said, "Lord, if he sleeps he will get well." 13However, Jesus spoke of his death, but they thought that He was speaking about taking rest in sleep.

14Then Jesus said to them plainly, "Lazarus is dead. 15And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, that you may believe. Nevertheless let us go to him."

16Then [i]Thomas, who is called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with Him."

I Am the Resurrection and the Life

17So when Jesus came, He found that he had already been in the tomb four days. 18Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two miles* away. 19And many of the Jews had joined the women around Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20Now Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met Him, but Mary was sitting in the house. 21Now Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died. 22But even now I know that [j]whatever You ask of God, God will give You."

23Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."

24Martha said to Him, [k]"I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day."

25Jesus said to her, "I am [l]the resurrection and the life. [m]He who believes in Me, though he may [n]die, he shall live. 26And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die. Do you believe this?"

27She said to Him, "Yes, Lord, [o]I believe that You are the Christ, the Son of God, who is to come into the world."

Jesus and Death, the Last Enemy

28And when she had said these things, she went her way and secretly called Mary her sister, saying, "The Teacher has come and is calling for you." 29As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly and came to Him. 30Now Jesus had not yet come into the town, but was* in the place where Martha met Him. 31[p]Then the Jews who were with her in the house, and comforting her, when they saw that Mary rose up quickly and went out, followed her, saying, "She is going to the tomb to weep there."*

32Then, when Mary came where Jesus was, and saw Him, she [q]fell down at His feet, saying to Him, [r]"Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died."

33Therefore, when Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her weeping, if the divine name had been applied by God to mere men, there could be neither blasphemy nor folly in its application to the incarnate Son of God Himself.

11:4 not unto death. This phrase means not having death as its final result.

11:6–8 He stayed two more days. God's purpose was to glorify His Son (v. 4) and to cause the disciples to grow (v. 15). Had Jesus immediately rushed to Lazarus' bedside and healed him, Lazarus would not have died and Jesus would not have been able to manifest His glory by raising Lazarus.

11:16 Let us also go, that we may die with Him. While the Lord saw their development in faith, Thomas saw their deaths. Yet, in his loyalty, he followed anyway.

11:33 troubled. This word means to be stirred up,

He groaned in the spirit and was troubled.
34 And He said, "Where have you laid him?"
They said to Him, "Lord, come and see."
35 [s]Jesus wept. 36 Then the Jews said, "See how He loved him!"
37 And some of them said, "Could not this Man, [t]who opened the eyes of the blind, also have kept this man from dying?"

Lazarus Raised from the Dead

38 Then Jesus, again groaning in Himself, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a [u]stone lay against it. 39 Jesus said, "Take away the stone."
Martha, the sister of him who was dead, said to Him, "Lord, by this time there is a stench, for he has been dead four days."
40 Jesus said to her, "Did I not say to you that if you would believe you would [v]see the glory of God?" 41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead man was lying.* And Jesus lifted up His eyes and said, "Father, I thank You that You have heard Me. 42 And I know that You always hear Me, but [w]because of the people who are standing by I said this, that they may believe that You sent Me." 43 Now when He had said these things, He cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come forth!" 44 And he who had died came out bound hand and foot with [x]graveclothes, and [y]his face was wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Loose him, and let him go."

The Plot to Kill Jesus

45 Then many of the Jews who had come to Mary, [z]and had seen the things Jesus did, believed in Him. 46 But some of them went away to the Pharisees and [a]told them the things Jesus did. 47 *b*Then the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered a council and said, [c]"What shall we do? For this Man works many signs. 48 If we let Him alone like this, everyone will believe in Him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and nation."
49 And one of them, [d]Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all, 50 [e]nor do you consider that it is expedient for us* that one man should die for the people, and not that the whole nation should perish." 51 Now this he did not say on his own authority; but being high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus would die for the nation, 52 and [f]not for that nation only, but [g]also that He would gather together in one the children of God who were scattered abroad.
53 Then, from that day on, they plotted to [h]put Him to death. 54 [i]Therefore Jesus no longer walked openly among the Jews, but went from there into the country near the wilderness, to a city called [j]Ephraim, and there remained with His disciples.
55 [k]And the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went from the country up to Jerusalem before the Passover, to [l]purify themselves. 56 [m]Then they sought Jesus, and spoke among themselves as they stood in the temple, "What do you think—that He will not come to the feast?" 57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a command, that if anyone knew where He was, he should report it, that they might [n]seize Him.

The Anointing at Bethany

12 Then, six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, [a]where Lazarus was who had been dead,* whom He had raised from the dead. 2 *b*There they made Him a supper; and Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with Him. 3 Then [c]Mary took a pound of very costly oil of [d]spikenard, anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped His feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the oil.

disturbed. Jesus was moved by the mourning of Mary and indignant at the hypocritical lamentations of His enemies.

11:37 Could not this Man. Some people misinterpreted Jesus' tears as powerlessness. They complained that He had healed others, but now was impotent.

11:43 Lazarus. Augustine once said that, if Jesus had not designated Lazarus by name, all the graves would have been emptied at His command (5:28). Raising Lazarus from the dead is the seventh sign of Jesus' messiahship, the greatest miracle of all, giving life back to the dead.

11:49–52 it is expedient. In the opinion of Caiaphas, Jesus should die rather than plunge the nation into destruction. John adds that by virtue of his office Caiaphas pronounced a message of God unconsciously. Caiaphas was a prophet in spite of himself. John also saw in Caiaphas' words a prophecy that Jesus should die not only for Israel but for the Gentiles as well.

11:53 they plotted to put Him to death. Humanly speaking, the resurrection of Lazarus was a major factor that led to the plot by the Jewish religious leaders to kill Christ. At this point the council decided informally, if not formally, to put Jesus to death. It is ironic that these men believed they could put to death permanently One who could raise the dead.

12:1 six days before the Passover. If the crucifixion took place on a Friday, this dinner occurred during the evening of the previous Saturday. Verse 12 seems to support this conclusion because the Jerusalem entry took place on Sunday.

12:3 very costly oil of spikenard. Judas Iscariot said

4But one of His disciples, [e]Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, who would betray Him, said, 5"Why was this fragrant oil not sold for three hundred denarii* and given to the poor?" 6This he said, not that he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and [f]had the money box; and he used to take what was put in it.

7But Jesus said, "Let her alone; she has kept* this for the day of My burial. 8For [g]the poor you have with you always, but Me you do not have always."

The Plot to Kill Lazarus

9Now a great many of the Jews knew that He was there; and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might also see Lazarus, [h]whom He had raised from the dead. 10[i]But the chief priests plotted to put Lazarus to death also, 11[j]because on account of him many of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus.

The Triumphal Entry

12[k]The next day a great multitude that had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13took branches of palm trees and went out to meet Him, and cried out:

"Hosanna!
[l]*'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!'
The King of Israel!"

14[m]Then Jesus, when He had found a young donkey, sat on it; as it is written:

15 "Fear[n] not, daughter of Zion;
Behold, your King is coming,
*Sitting on a donkey's colt."

16[o]His disciples did not understand these things at first; [p]but when Jesus was glorified, [q]then they remembered that these things were written about Him and that they had done these things to Him.

17Therefore the people, who were with Him when He called Lazarus out of his tomb and raised him from the dead, bore witness. 18[r]For this reason the people also met Him, because they heard that He had done this sign. 19The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, [s]"You see that you are accomplishing nothing. Look, the world has gone after Him!"

The Fruitful Grain of Wheat

20Now there [t]were certain Greeks among those [u]who came up to worship at the feast. 21Then they came to Philip, [v]who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus."

22Philip came and told Andrew, and in turn Andrew and Philip told Jesus.

23But Jesus answered them, saying, [w]"The hour has come that the Son of Man should be glorified. 24Most assuredly, I say to you, [x]unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it produces much grain. 25[y]He who loves his life will lose it, and he who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. 26If anyone serves Me, let him [z]follow Me; and [a]where I am, there My servant will be also. If anyone serves Me, him My Father will honor.

Jesus Predicts His Death on the Cross

27[b]"Now My soul is troubled, and what shall I say? 'Father, save Me from this hour'? [c]But for this purpose I came to this hour. 28Father, glorify Your name."

The custom of that time was to anoint the heads of guests. Anointing Jesus' head was an act of honor; anointing His feet was a display of devotion.

12:10–11 the chief priests plotted to put Lazarus to death also. The chief priests were mostly Sadducees. They had an additional reason to kill Lazarus. He was a living refutation of their doctrine that there was no resurrection (11:57; Acts 23:8). Yet this was not a meeting of the Jewish council, nor was it a formal sentence of death. The ultimate motivation for wanting to kill Lazarus was that because of him many were believing in Jesus.

12:13–15 The King of Israel. Until this point, Jesus had discouraged expressions of support from the people (6:15; 7:1–8). Here, He allowed public enthusiasm. He entered Jerusalem on the back of a young donkey. This act fulfilled prophecy (Zech. 9:9) and as such was a symbolic proclamation that Jesus is the Messiah.

12:20 to worship at the feast. This verse indicates that these Greeks were Jewish proselytes. By recording this incident, perhaps John was hinting that the salvation rejected by many of the Jews was already passing to the Gentiles.

12:24 unless a grain of wheat . . . dies. When a seed dies, it produces fruit. Life comes by death. This principle is not only true in nature, but it is also true spiritually. Jesus was speaking first and foremost of Himself. He is the grain of wheat. His death would produce much fruit and would result in many living for God.

12:27 Now My soul is troubled. Jesus' agony over His impending death was not confined to Gethsemane,

[d]Then a voice came from heaven, saying, "I have both glorified it and will glorify it again."
29 Therefore the people who stood by and heard it said that it had thundered. Others said, "An angel has spoken to Him."
30 Jesus answered and said, [e]"This voice did not come because of Me, but for your sake. 31 Now is the judgment of this world; now [f]the ruler of this world will be cast out. 32 And I, [g]if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw [h]all peoples to Myself." 33 [i]This He said, signifying by what death He would die.
34 The people answered Him, [j]"We have heard from the law that the Christ remains forever; and how can You say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up'? Who is this Son of Man?"
35 Then Jesus said to them, "A little while longer [k]the light is with you. [l]Walk while you have the light, lest darkness overtake you; [m]he who walks in darkness does not know where he is going. 36 While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become [n]sons of light." These things Jesus spoke, and departed, and [o]was hidden from them.

Who Has Believed Our Report?

37 But although He had done so many [p]signs before them, they did not believe in Him, 38 that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke:

> [q]"Lord, who has believed our report?
> And to whom has the arm of the LORD
> *been revealed?"

39 Therefore they could not believe, because Isaiah said again:

> 40 "He[r] has blinded their eyes and
> hardened their hearts,
> [s]Lest they should see with their eyes,
> Lest they should understand with their
> hearts and turn,
> *So that I should heal them."

41 [t]These things Isaiah said when* he saw His glory and spoke of Him.

Walk in the Light

42 Nevertheless even among the rulers many believed in Him, but [u]because of the Pharisees they did not confess Him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue; 43 [v]for they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.
44 Then Jesus cried out and said, [w]"He who believes in Me, [x]believes not in Me [y]but in Him who sent Me. 45 And [z]he who sees Me sees Him who sent Me. 46 [a]I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in Me should not abide in darkness. 47 And if anyone hears My words and does not believe,* [b]I do not judge him; for [c]I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. 48 [d]He who rejects Me, and does not receive My words, has that which judges him—[e]the word that I have spoken will judge him in the last day. 49 For [f]I have not spoken on My own authority; but the Father who sent Me gave Me a command, [g]what I should say and what I should speak. 50 And I know that His command is everlasting life. Therefore, whatever I speak, just as the Father has told Me, so I [h]speak."

Jesus Washes the Disciples' Feet

13 Now [a]before the Feast of the Passover, when Jesus knew that [b]His hour had come that He should depart from this world to the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He [c]loved them to the end.
2 And supper being ended,* [d]the devil having already put it into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray Him, 3 Jesus, knowing [e]that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He [f]had come from God and [g]was going to God, 4 [h]rose from supper and laid aside His garments, took a towel and girded Himself. 5 After that, He poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet, and where He prayed for the cup to pass from Him (Matt. 26:39). He felt the agony and expressed it almost a week before Gethsemane.

12:35–36 while you have the light. Instead of answering the people's questions (v. 34), Jesus gave them a warning. Jesus is the light. He wanted the people to believe and abide in Him (v. 46).

12:42–43 Nevertheless. This word marks a stark contrast between these believers and the unbelief spoken of in verses 37–41. These men were genuine believers. Their problem was that they feared the opinions of their fellow leaders. Such believers will be ashamed at Christ's return (1 John 2:28).

12:47 I do not judge him. Christ will judge, but at His first coming He did not come to judge but to save (3:17).

13:1 to the end. This phrase means either "to the last" or "utterly and completely." What follows in verses 1–11 demonstrates Jesus' complete love. Jesus loved His disciples, even though He knew that one would betray Him, another would deny Him, and all would desert Him for a time.

to wipe them with the towel with which He was girded. 6Then He came to Simon Peter. And Peter said to Him, [i]"Lord, are You washing my feet?"

7Jesus answered and said to him, "What I am doing you [j]do not understand now, [k]but you will know after this."

8Peter said to Him, "You shall never wash my feet!"

Jesus answered him, [l]"If I do not wash you, you have no part with Me."

9Simon Peter said to Him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head!"

10Jesus said to him, "He who is bathed needs only to wash his feet, but is completely clean; and [m]you are clean, but not all of you." 11For [n]He knew who would betray Him; therefore He said, "You are not all clean."

12So when He had washed their feet, taken His garments, and sat down again, He said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? 13[o]You call Me Teacher and Lord, and you say well, for so I am. 14[p]If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, [q]you also ought to wash one another's feet. 15For [r]I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done to you. 16[s]Most assuredly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master; nor is he who is sent greater than he who sent him. 17[t]If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them.

Jesus Identifies His Betrayer

18"I do not speak concerning all of you. I know whom I have chosen; but that the [u]Scripture may be fulfilled, [v]'He who eats bread with Me has lifted up his heel against Me.' 19[w]Now I tell you before it comes, that when it does come to pass, you may believe that I am He. 20[x]Most assuredly, I say to you, he who receives whomever I send receives Me; and he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me."

21[y]When Jesus had said these things, [z]He was troubled in spirit, and testified and said, "Most assuredly, I say to you, [a]one of you will betray Me." 22Then the disciples looked at one another, perplexed about whom He spoke.

23Now [b]there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of His disciples, whom Jesus loved. 24Simon Peter therefore motioned to him to ask who it was of whom He spoke.

25Then, leaning back* on Jesus' breast, he said to Him, "Lord, who is it?"

26Jesus answered, "It is he to whom I shall give a piece of bread when I have dipped it." And having dipped the bread, He gave it to [c]Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. 27[d]Now after the piece of bread, Satan entered him. Then Jesus said to him, "What you do, do quickly." 28But no one at the table knew for what reason He said this to him. 29For some thought, because [e]Judas had the money box, that Jesus had said to him, "Buy those things we need for the feast," or that he should give something to the poor.

30Having received the piece of bread, he then went out immediately. And it was night.

The New Commandment

31So, when he had gone out, Jesus said, [f]"Now the Son of Man is glorified, and [g]God is glorified in Him. 32If God is glorified in Him, God will also glorify Him in Himself, and [h]glorify Him immediately. 33Little children, I shall be with you a [i]little while longer. You will seek Me; [j]and as I said to the Jews, 'Where I am going, you cannot come,' so now I say to you. 34[k]A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another. 35[l]By this all will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another."

* 13:18 NU-Text reads My bread. • Psalm 41:9
* 13:25 NU-Text and M-Text add thus.

13:8 no part with Me. The washing was a symbol of spiritual cleansing (vv. 10–11). If Peter did not participate in the cleansing, he would not enjoy fellowship with Christ (1 John 1:9).

13:13 Teacher and Lord. These were the ordinary titles of respect given to a rabbi.

13:18 has lifted up his heel. Jesus quoted Psalm 41:9 to explain the action of Judas. Lifting up one's heel was a gesture of insult or a preparation to kick. The blow had not yet been given. This was the attitude of Judas at that moment. He was eating with the disciples, but he was ready to strike.

13:23 leaning on Jesus' bosom. At this time people did not generally sit at a table to eat. They reclined on the left side of a low platform, resting on the left elbow and eating with the right hand, their feet extended outward. Reclining in such a way, a man's head was near the chest of the person on his left. whom Jesus loved. The disciple is never named in Scripture, but the tradition of the early church designates him as John, the author of this Gospel.

13:33 Little children is an expression of tender affection used nowhere else in the Gospels. John did not forget the expression; he used it repeatedly in 1 John.

13:34 love one another. One of the dominant themes in the apostle John's writings is love. God loves the whole world (3:16). Jesus repeatedly demonstrates His compassion for people in general and His love for His disciples in particular (10:11; 11:3; 13:1; 15:9).

13:35 By this. Unbelievers recognize Jesus' disciples

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

36 Simon Peter said to Him, "Lord, where are You going?"

Jesus answered him, "Where I [m]am going you cannot follow Me now, but [n]you shall follow Me afterward."

37 Peter said to Him, "Lord, why can I not follow You now? I will [o]lay down my life for Your sake."

38 Jesus answered him, "Will you lay down your life for My sake? Most assuredly, I say to you, the rooster shall not [p]crow till you have denied Me three times.

The Way, the Truth, and the Life

14 "Let [a]not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me. 2 In My Father's house are many mansions;* if it were not so, I would have told you. [b]I go to prepare a place for you.* 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, [c]I will come again and receive you to Myself; that [d]where I am, there you may be also. 4 And where I go you know, and the way you know."

5 [e]Thomas said to Him, "Lord, we do not know where You are going, and how can we know the way?"

6 Jesus said to him, "I am [f]the way, [g]the truth, and [h]the life. [i]No one comes to the Father [j]except through Me.

The Father Revealed

7 [k]"If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also; and from now on you know Him and have seen Him."

8 Philip said to Him, "Lord, show us the Father, and it is sufficient for us."

9 Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you so long, and yet you have not known Me, Philip? [l]He who has seen Me has seen the Father; so how can you say, 'Show us the Father'? 10 Do you not believe that [m]I am in the Father, and the Father in Me? The words that I speak to you [n]I do not speak on My own authority; but the Father who dwells in Me does the works. 11 Believe Me that I am in the Father and the Father in Me, [o]or else believe Me for the sake of the works themselves.

The Answered Prayer

12 [p]"Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do, because I go to My Father. 13 [q]And whatever you ask in My name, that I will do, that the Father may be [r]glorified in the Son. 14 If you ask* anything in My name, I will do it.

Jesus Promises Another Helper

15 [s]"If you love Me, keep* My commandments. 16 And I will pray the Father, and [t]He will give you another Helper, that He may abide with you forever— 17 [u]the Spirit of truth, [v]whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees Him nor knows Him; but you know Him, for He dwells with you [w]and will be in you. 18 [x]I will not leave you orphans; [y]I will come to you.

* 14:2 Literally dwellings • NU-Text adds a word which would cause the text to read either if it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? or if it were not so I would have told you; for I go to prepare a place for you. * 14:14 NU-Text adds Me. * 14:15 NU-Text reads you will keep.

not by their doctrinal distinctives, nor by dramatic miracles, nor even by their love for the lost. They recognize His disciples by their deeds of love for one another.

13:36 Lord, where are You going? This question Jesus had already addressed twice before, indicating that Peter completely missed the point of what Jesus said in verses 34 and 35.

13:37 I will lay down my life for Your sake. Peter was ready to die for Jesus. Unfortunately, he was not ready, at this point, to live for Him. Later Peter would die for Christ (21:18–19). Church tradition states that Peter was crucified upside down, at his request, for he felt himself unworthy to be crucified like his Lord.

14:3 I will come again and receive you. Peter may have failed Jesus (13:38), but Christ will not fail to return for Peter and for everyone else who has believed in Him (1 Thess. 4:16–17).

14:6 the way, the truth, and the life. Through His death and resurrection, Jesus is the way to the Father. He is also the truth and the life. As truth, He is the revelation of God. As life, He is the source of our very beings.

14:12 greater works. Jesus had accomplished the greatest works possible, including raising the dead. How could He say that believers would do greater works? The answer is seen in the extent of what the apostles did. Jesus' work on earth was confined to Palestine; the apostles would preach everywhere and see the conversion of thousands. Peter's message at Pentecost brought more followers to Jesus than did Jesus' entire earthly ministry. The disciples were able to do this work because Christ would go to the Father and send the Holy Spirit to empower them.

14:17 the Spirit of truth. This is another name for the Holy Spirit because He is truth and guides us into all truth (1 Cor. 2:13; 2 Pet. 1:21).

14:18 orphans. He would not abandon them. He would come to them. There are three suggested interpretations as to when that statement would be fulfilled: (1) after the resurrection, (2) at Pentecost, in the person of the Holy Spirit, and (3) at the second coming.

Indwelling of the Father and the Son

19 "A little while longer and the world will see Me no more, but [z]you will see Me. [a]Because I live, you will live also. 20 At that day you will know that [b]I am in My Father, and you in Me, and I in you. 21 [c]He who has My commandments and keeps them, it is he who loves Me. And he who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and manifest Myself to him."

22 [d]Judas (not Iscariot) said to Him, "Lord, how is it that You will manifest Yourself to us, and not to the world?"

23 Jesus answered and said to him, "If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word; and My Father will love him, [e]and We will come to him and make Our home with him. 24 He who does not love Me does not keep My words; and [f]the word which you hear is not Mine but the Father's who sent Me.

The Gift of His Peace

25 "These things I have spoken to you while being present with you. 26 But [g]the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will [h]send in My name, [i]He will teach you all things, and bring to your [j]remembrance all things that I said to you. 27 [k]Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. 28 You have heard Me [l]say to you, 'I am going away and coming back to you.' If you loved Me, you would rejoice because I said,* [m]'I am going to the Father,' for [n]My Father is greater than I.

29 "And [o]now I have told you before it comes, that when it does come to pass, you may believe. 30 I will no longer talk much with you, [p]for the ruler of this world is coming, and he has [q]nothing in Me. 31 But that the world may know that I love the Father, and [r]as the Father gave Me commandment, so I do. Arise, let us go from here.

The True Vine

15 "I am the true vine, and My Father is the vinedresser. 2 [a]Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit He takes away;* and every branch that bears fruit He prunes, that it may bear [b]more fruit. 3 [c]You are already clean because of the word which I have spoken to you. 4 [d]Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in Me.

5 "I am the vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much [e]fruit; for without Me you can do [f]nothing. 6 If anyone does not abide in Me, [g]he is cast out as a branch and is withered; and they gather them and throw them into the fire, and they are burned. 7 If you abide in Me, and My words [h]abide in you, [i]you will* ask what you desire, and it shall be done for you. 8 [j]By this My Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit; [k]so you will be My disciples.

Love and Joy Perfected

9 "As the Father [l]loved Me, I also have loved you; abide in My love. 10 [m]If you keep My commandments, you will abide in My love, just as I have kept My Father's commandments and abide in His love.

11 "These things I have spoken to you, that My joy may remain in you, and [n]that your joy may be full. 12 [o]This is My [p]commandment, that you love one another as I

* 15:7 NU-Text omits you will.

14:23 If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word. In response to Judas' question (v. 22), Jesus explained that His manifestation to the disciples would be in response to their love and obedience. make Our home with him. If a believer loves and obeys the Lord, he or she will experience fellowship with God.

14:24 He who does not love Me. If a person does not love Jesus, he or she will not obey Him. Disobedience is a serious matter, for Jesus' words are the words of God.

14:30 has nothing in Me. These words indicate Jesus' sinlessness. Jesus' yielding to what was about to happen did not mean that Satan had any power over Him. Jesus would soon voluntarily yield to the death of the cross, in loving obedience to the Father (v. 31).

15:2 Every branch in Me. The emphasis of "in Me" in this passage is on deep, abiding fellowship. Jesus' purpose was to move His disciples from servants to friends (vv. 13–15). This would involve a process of discipline in regard to His commandments. prunes. This word means "cleanses." Once the fruit is on the vine, the vinedresser cleanses the fruit of bugs and diseases. The spiritual counterpart is cleansing which is done through the Word (v. 3).

15:6 If anyone does not abide. Not abiding in Christ has serious consequences: (1) the person is cast out as a branch, indicating the loss of fellowship; (2) the person is withered, indicating a loss of vitality; (3) the person is burned, indicating a loss of reward.

15:8 By this. Notice the striking parallel between this verse and 13:35. fruit. The love of 13:35 is pictured here. The text has come full circle in showing how strategic it is for disciples to love each other, as Christ's method of evangelizing the lost. Where there is good fruit, there are also seeds for propagation.

15:11 that your joy may be full. This phrase is an

have loved you. 13[q]Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends. 14[r]You are My friends if you do whatever I command you. 15No longer do I call you servants, for a servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, [s]for all things that I heard from My Father I have made known to you. 16[t]You did not choose Me, but I chose
you and [u]appointed you that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain, that whatever you ask the Father [v]in My name He may give you. 17These things
I command you, that you love one another.

The World's Hatred

18[w]"If the world hates you, you know that it hated Me before it hated you. 19[x]If you were of the world, the world would love its own. Yet [y]because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore
the world hates you. 20Remember the word that I said to you, [z]'A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. [a]If they kept
My word, they will keep yours also. 21But [b]all these things they will do to you for My name's sake, because they do not know Him who sent Me. 22[c]If I had not come and spoken to them, they would have no sin, [d]but now they have no excuse for their sin. 23[e]He who hates Me hates My Father also. 24If I had not done among them [f]the works which no one else did, they would have no sin; but now they have [g]seen and also hated both Me and My Father. 25But this happened that the word might be fulfilled which is written in their law, [h]'They hated Me without a cause.'*

The Coming Rejection

26[i]"But when the Helper comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, [j]He will testify of Me. 27And [k]you also will bear witness, because [l]you have been with Me
from the beginning.

16 "These things I have spoken to you, that you [a]should not be made to stumble. 2[b]They will put you out of the synagogues; yes, the time is coming [c]that whoever kills you will think that he offers God service. 3And [d]these things they will do to you* because they have not known the Father nor Me. 4But these things I have told you, that when the* time comes, you may remember that I told you of them.

"And these things I did not say to you
at the beginning, because I was with you.

The Work of the Holy Spirit

5"But now I [e]go away to Him who sent Me, and none of you asks Me, 'Where are You going?' 6But because I have said these things to you, [f]sorrow has filled your heart.
7Nevertheless I tell you the truth. It is to your advantage that I go away; for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you; but [g]if I depart, I will send Him to you. 8And when He has [h]come, He will convict the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:
9[i]of sin, because they do not believe in Me;
10[j]of righteousness, [k]because I go to My Father and you see Me no more; 11[l]of judgment,
because [m]the ruler of this world is judged.

expression peculiar to John (3:29; 16:24; 17:13; 1 John 1:4; 2 John 12). It describes a believer's experience of Christ's love: complete joy.

15:14 if you do. Jesus is our model for love (v. 13). Intimacy with Him is the motive for loving as He loves. If believers obey His command to love, they enjoy the intimacy of His friendship. Not that friendship, unlike sonship, is a once-for-all gift, but develops as the result of obeying Jesus' command to love.

15:15 call you servants. Until this point, Jesus had called His disciples servants (12:26; 13:13–16). A servant does what he is told and sees what his master does, but does not necessarily know the meaning or purpose of it. friends. A friend knows what is happening because friends develop deep fellowship by communicating with one another.

15:22–23 have no sin . . . no excuse for their sin. The world's hatred of Jesus was a sin against God, for He revealed the Father Himself to them.

15:26–27 He will testify. As the disciples spoke, the Holy Spirit would bring inner conviction to unbelievers concerning Christ. This in turn would make the disciples witnesses for Jesus.

16:2 They will put you out of the synagogues. The persecution that the disciples would face included excommunication and even execution. Excommunication had economic as well as religious implications because much of the life of an ancient Jew revolved around the synagogue.

16:7 It is to your advantage. The disciples must have thought, "How can it be advantageous for us to be alone? The Romans hate us because they see us as disturbers of the peace. The Jewish leaders hate us because they see us as blasphemers." Jesus explained the benefits of His departure. When Jesus left, the believers would have (1) the provision of the Holy Spirit (vv. 7–15); (2) the potential of full joy (vv. 16–24); (3) the possibility of fuller knowledge (vv. 25–28); and (4) the privilege of peace (vv. 29–33).

16:8 convict. The Holy Spirit would demonstrate the truth of Christ beyond the fear of contradiction. The Holy Spirit convicts unbelievers through believers who witness about Christ (15:26–27). Believers are the mouthpiece for God's voice.

16:11 of judgment. Satan, the ruler of the world,

12 "I still have many things to say to you,
[n]but you cannot bear them now. 13However, when He, [o]the Spirit of truth, has come,
[p]He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come. 14[q]He will glorify Me, for He will take of what is Mine and declare it to you. 15[r]All things that the Father has are Mine. Therefore I said that He will take of Mine and declare it to you.*

Sorrow Will Turn to Joy

16 "A [s]little while, and you will not see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me, [t]because I go to the Father."

17 Then some of His disciples said among themselves, "What is this that He says to us, 'A little while, and you will not see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me'; and, 'because I go to the Father'?" 18 They said therefore, "What is this that He says, 'A little while'? We do not know what He is saying."

19 Now Jesus knew that they desired to ask Him, and He said to them, "Are you inquiring among yourselves about what I said, 'A little while, and you will not see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me'? 20 Most assuredly, I say to you that you will weep and [u]lament, but the world will rejoice; and you will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into [v]joy. 21[w]A woman, when she is in labor, has sorrow because her hour has come; but as soon as she has given birth to the child, she no longer remembers the anguish, for joy that a human being has been born into the world. 22 Therefore you now have sorrow; but I will see you again and [x]your heart will rejoice, and your joy no one will take from you.

23 "And in that day you will ask Me nothing. [y]Most assuredly, I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in My name He will give you. 24 Until now you have asked nothing in My name. Ask, and you will receive, [z]that your joy may be [a]full.

Jesus Christ Has Overcome the World

25 "These things I have spoken to you in figurative language; but the time is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figurative language, but I will tell you [b]plainly about the Father. 26 In that day you will ask in My name, and I do not say to you that I shall pray the Father for you; 27[c]for the Father Himself loves you, because you have loved Me, and [d]have believed that I came forth from God. 28[e]I came forth from the Father and have come into the world. Again, I leave the world and go to the Father."

29 His disciples said to Him, "See, now You are speaking plainly, and using no figure of speech! 30 Now we are sure that [f]You know all things, and have no need that anyone should question You. By this [g]we believe that You came forth from God."

31 Jesus answered them, "Do you now believe? 32[h]Indeed the hour is coming, yes, has now come, that you will be scattered, [i]each to his own, and will leave Me alone. And [j]yet I am not alone, because the Father rules in the hearts of unregenerate people and blinds their minds (1 Cor. 2:6–8). Satan was judged at the cross, and the Holy Spirit would convince people of the judgment to come. Satan has been judged, so all who side with him will be judged with him.

16:12 you. Here, this refers to the apostles. Technically, what the Lord says about the ministry of the Holy Spirit in verses 12–15 applies primarily to the apostles. That ministry was threefold: (1) He would guide them into all truth (v. 13); (2) He would tell them of the future (v. 13); and (3) He would help them glorify Christ (vv. 14–15). Jesus' words were fulfilled in the apostles' preaching and writings.

16:13 Spirit of truth. The phrase means that the Holy Spirit is the source of truth (14:17; 15:26). guide. The Holy Spirit would not compel or carry the disciples into truth. He would lead; their job was to follow.

16:14 glorify Me. The Holy Spirit glorifies Christ by declaring Him or making Him known. It is the work of the Holy Spirit to throw light on Jesus Christ, who is the image of the invisible God. Christ is to be on center stage; that is the desire of both the Father and the Spirit. The apostles received truth from the Holy Spirit, truth about things to come, and truth about Christ. Then, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, they wrote those truths in documents known today as the New Testament.

16:18 A little while. The biggest question weighing on the disciples' minds was the time factor. They simply did not understand the strange intervals marked by their separation from Jesus.

16:21 A woman, when she is in labor. Jesus used the example of a pregnant woman whose sorrow is transformed into joy in the birth of a child.

16:26 I shall pray the Father for you. Because Jesus provides forgiveness of sins through His death and now intercedes for all believers at the right hand of the Father (Heb. 7:25), we have direct access to the Father. We do not need the intercession of a priest, because Jesus acts as our High Priest before God.

16:31 Do you now believe? We continue in the Christian life the same way we begin, by believing in Jesus. The more we learn of Christ, the more we have to believe. The more we place our trust in Jesus, the more we receive. The more we receive, the more we can accomplish for His glory.

Jesus Prays for Himself

17 Jesus spoke these words, lifted up His eyes to heaven, and said: "Father, [a]the hour has come. Glorify Your Son, that Your Son also may glorify You, 2[b]as You have given Him authority over all flesh, that He should* give eternal life to as many [c]as You have given Him. 3And [d]this is eternal life, that they may know You, [e]the only true God, and Jesus Christ [f]whom You have sent. 4[g]I have glorified You on the earth. [h]I have finished the work [i]which You have given Me to do. 5And now, O Father, glorify Me together with Yourself, with the glory [j]which I had with You before the world was.

Jesus Prays for His Disciples

6[k]"I have manifested Your name to the men [l]whom You have given Me out of the world. [m]They were Yours, You gave them to Me, and they have kept Your word. 7Now they have known that all things which You have given Me are from You. 8For I have given to them the words [n]which You have given Me; and they have received them, [o]and have known surely that I came forth from You; and they have believed that [p]You sent Me.

9"I pray for them. [q]I do not pray for the world but for those whom You have given Me, for they are Yours. 10And all Mine are Yours, and [r]Yours are Mine, and I am glorified in them. 11[s]Now I am no longer in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to You. Holy Father, [t]keep through Your name those whom You have given Me,* that they may be one [u]as We are. 12While I was with them in the world,* [v]I kept them in Your name. Those whom You gave Me I have kept;* and [w]none of them is lost [x]except the son of perdition, [y]that the Scripture might be fulfilled. 13But now I come to You, and these things I speak in the world, that they may have My joy fulfilled in themselves. 14I have given them Your word; [z]and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, [a]just as I am not of the world. 15I do not pray that You should take them out of the world, but [b]that You should keep them from the evil one. 16They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. 17[c]Sanctify them by Your truth. [d]Your word is truth. 18[e]As You sent Me into the world, I also have sent them into the world. 19And [f]for their sakes I sanctify Myself, that they also may be sanctified by the truth.

Jesus Prays for All Believers

20"I do not pray for these alone, but also for those who will* believe in Me through their word; 21[g]that they all may be one, as [h]You, Father, are in Me, and I in You; that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me. 22And the [i]glory which You gave Me I have given them, [j]that they may be one just as We are

17:1–2 the hour has come. Throughout the Gospel of John, Jesus referred to the cross as His "hour" (2:4; 7:30; 8:20; 12:23; 13:1). The time for Him to die had arrived. Glorify Your Son. Jesus was asking that His mission to the world would be made known through the cross. The reasons for this request are twofold: (1) that Your Son also may glorify You. In the cross, Jesus reveals the Father to the world, that is, His love and justice, and (2) that, through Jesus' death on the cross, God would provide forgiveness of sins and give eternal life to all those who believe in His Son.

17:3 that they may know You. Eternal life consists of a growing knowledge of the only true God as opposed to false gods.

17:11 keep through Your name. This verse reveals Jesus' sensitivity to the plight of His disciples brought on by His departure. He was going to the Father, but they would be left behind. Jesus asked the Father to keep them true to the revelation of God that Jesus had given to them while He was with them. The disciples would have a new union with the Father and Son through the future indwelling of the Holy Spirit.

17:14–16 of the world. This verse has profound implications for discipleship. Our desire should not be to isolate ourselves from the world, but to use Christ's Word and the Holy Spirit's power to serve Him while our life lasts. Yet, at the same time, we should not become like the world, succumbing to the evil influences of the world.

17:17 Sanctify them. This means "to set apart." There are two ways to understand this statement: (1) as separate for holiness, or (2) as set apart for service. According to the first view, Jesus was praying not only that the disciples should be kept from evil, but that they should advance in holiness.

17:21 that they all may be one. The present tense of the verb "to be" indicates that Jesus was praying for the unity that takes place through the sanctification of believers. This is what Jesus was commanding in 13:34–35.

17:22 the glory. This is the revelation of Jesus Christ

Betrayal and Arrest in Gethsemane

18 When Jesus had spoken these words,
[a]He went out with His disciples over [b]the Brook Kidron, where there was a garden, which He and His disciples entered.
2 And Judas, who betrayed Him, also knew the place; [c]for Jesus often met there with His disciples. 3 [d]Then Judas, having received a detachment of troops, and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, came
there with lanterns, torches, and weapons.
4 Jesus therefore, [e]knowing all things that would come upon Him, went forward and said to them, "Whom are you seeking?"
5 They answered Him, [f]"Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus said to them, "I am He." And Judas, who [g]betrayed Him, also stood with them. 6 Now when He said to them, "I am
He," they drew back and fell to the ground.
7 Then He asked them again, "Whom are you seeking?"
And they said, "Jesus of Nazareth."
8 Jesus answered, "I have told you that I am He. Therefore, if you seek Me, let these go their way," 9 that the saying might be fulfilled which He spoke, [h]"Of those whom You gave Me I have lost none."
10 [i]Then Simon Peter, having a sword,
drew it and struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.
11 So Jesus said to Peter, "Put your sword into the sheath. Shall I not drink [j]the cup which My Father has given Me?"

Before the High Priest

12 Then the detachment of troops and the captain and the officers of the Jews arrested Jesus and bound Him. 13 And [k]they led Him away to [l]Annas first, for he was the father-in-law of [m]Caiaphas who was high priest that year. 14 [n]Now it was Caiaphas
who advised the Jews that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

Peter Denies Jesus

15 [o]And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did [p]another* disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and went with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest.
16 [q]But Peter stood at the door outside. Then the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought Peter in. 17 Then the servant girl who kept the door said to Peter, "You are not also one of this Man's disciples, are you?"
He said, "I am [r]not."
18 Now the servants and officers who had made a fire of coals stood there, for it was cold, and they warmed themselves. And Peter stood with them and warmed himself.

Jesus Questioned by the High Priest

19 The high priest then asked Jesus about
His disciples and His doctrine.
20 Jesus answered him, [s]"I spoke openly to the world. I always taught [t]in synagogues and [u]in the temple, where the Jews
always meet,* and in secret I have said nothing. 21 Why do you ask Me? Ask [v]those who have heard Me what I said to them.
Indeed they know what I said."

through His disciples and is the means to unity. Such unity begins with belief and correct thinking about Jesus and God the Father, that is, with doctrine. But correct belief must bear fruit—a life that demonstrates God's love and produces unity between all believers.

17:23 I in them, and You in me. The mutual indwelling of the Father in the Son and the Son in the church is also the means to unity, the ultimate expression of God's love (13:35; Rom. 8:17).

18:1 Brook Kidron. A brook was located in a ravine that was between Jerusalem and the Mount of Olives.

18:3 officers. These were members of the temple police under the command of the Jewish council, the Sanhedrin.

18:13 Annas. Annas was high priest from A.D. 7 to 14. He was deposed by the Romans. Then Caiaphas, Annas' son-in-law, was appointed to the position and served from A.D. 18 to 37. However, according to Jewish law the high priest was a lifetime position, so the Jews still considered Annas to be high priest. Therefore, they took Jesus to Annas first.

18:15 another disciple. Although this other disciple is never identified, the consensus is that he was John, the author of this Gospel.

18:21 Ask those who have heard. According to the law, the witnesses for the defense had to be called

22And when He had said these things,
one of the officers who stood by [w]struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying,
"Do You answer the high priest like that?"
23Jesus answered him, "If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil; but if well,
why do you strike Me?"
24[x]Then Annas sent Him bound to [y]Caiaphas the high priest.

Peter Denies Twice More

25Now Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. [z]Therefore they said to him, "You are not also one of His disciples, are you?"
He denied it and said, "I am not!"
26One of the servants of the high priest, a relative of him whose ear Peter cut off, said,
"Did I not see you in the garden with Him?" 27Peter then denied again; and [a]immediately a rooster crowed.

In Pilate's Court

28[b]Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the Praetorium, and it was early morning.
[c]But they themselves did not go into the Praetorium, lest they should be defiled, but that they might eat the Passover. 29[d]Pilate
then went out to them and said, "What accusation do you bring against this Man?" 30They answered and said to him, "If He were not an evildoer, we would not have delivered Him up to you."
31Then Pilate said to them, "You take Him and judge Him according to your law." Therefore the Jews said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death," 32[e]that the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled which He spoke, [f]signifying by what death He would die.

33[g]Then Pilate entered the Praetorium again, called Jesus, and said to Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?"
34Jesus answered him, "Are you speaking for yourself about this, or did others tell you this concerning Me?" 35Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests have delivered You to me. What have You done?" 36[h]Jesus answered, [i]"My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My servants would fight, so that I should not be delivered to the Jews; but now My kingdom is not from here." 37Pilate therefore said to Him, "Are You a king then?"
Jesus answered, "You say rightly that I am a king. For this cause I was born, and for this cause I have come into the world, [j]that I should bear [k]witness to the truth.
Everyone who [l]is of the truth [m]hears My voice."
38Pilate said to Him, "What is truth?"
And when he had said this, he went out again to the Jews, and said to them, [n]"I find no fault in Him at all.

Taking the Place of Barabbas

39[o]"But you have a custom that I should release someone to you at the Passover. Do you therefore want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"
40[p]Then they all cried again, saying,
"Not this Man, but Barabbas!" [q]Now
Barabbas was a robber.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

19 So then [a]Pilate took Jesus and scourged Him. 2And the soldiers

first. Jesus should not have been questioned until witnesses had testified.

18:27 Peter then denied again. For the third time, Peter denied the Lord, as Jesus had said he would (13:38). In the upper room, Peter had boasted that he would remain true to the Lord to the end (13:37; Matt. 26:33,35). In the garden he surrendered to the desires of his body by sleeping three times when the Lord had commanded the disciples to stay up in prayer (Mark 14:34–42). Now he submitted to the pressure of the world and denied the Lord three times.

18:28 the Praetorium. This was probably the Roman governor's official residence, the Fortress Antonia near the temple.

18:29–30 What accusation. Pilate was not ignorant of the accusation. He was merely requesting that it be formally stated.

18:31 It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death. The Romans did not allow the Jews to impose capital punishment. These Jewish leaders had no interest in a just trial; they simply wanted permission from Rome to have Jesus executed.

18:34 Are you speaking for yourself. In reply to Pilate, Jesus gave no violent protest of innocence, nor was He sullenly defiant. Jesus politely but directly asked whether Pilate was asking on his own initiative or whether the charge was secondhand. If Pilate's question originated with him, he was using king in the Roman sense of political ruler. If not, then king was being used in the Jewish sense of the messianic king.

18:38 What is truth? This question has been interpreted as (1) a cynical denial of the possibility of knowing truth; (2) a contemptuous jest at anything so impractical as abstract truth; and (3) a desire to know what no one had been able to tell him. no fault. This is a legal term meaning that there were no grounds for a criminal charge.

18:39 you have a custom. It appears that some in the crowd suggested that a prisoner should be released in honor of the Passover (Mark 15:8,11). Pilate jumped at the possible compromise. By promising to release Jesus on account of the custom rather than by proclaiming Him innocent, Pilate would avoid insulting the Jewish leaders, who had already pronounced Him guilty.

twisted a crown of thorns and put it on His head, and they put on Him a purple robe.
3 Then they said,* "Hail, King of the Jews!" And they [b]struck Him with their hands.

4 Pilate then went out again, and said to them, "Behold, I am bringing Him out to you, [c]that you may know that I find no fault in Him."

Pilate's Decision

5 Then Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And Pilate said to them, "Behold the Man!"

6 [d]Therefore, when the chief priests and officers saw Him, they cried out, saying, "Crucify Him, crucify Him!"

Pilate said to them, "You take Him and crucify Him, for I find no fault in Him."

7 The Jews answered him, [e]"We have a law, and according to our* law He ought to die, because [f]He made Himself the Son of God."

8 Therefore, when Pilate heard that saying, he was the more afraid, 9 and went again into the Praetorium, and said to Jesus, "Where are You from?" [g]But Jesus gave him no answer.

10 Then Pilate said to Him, "Are You not speaking to me? Do You not know that I have power to crucify You, and power to release You?"

11 Jesus answered, [h]"You could have no power at all against Me unless it had been given you from above. Therefore [i]the one who delivered Me to you has the greater sin."

12 From then on Pilate sought to release Him, but the Jews cried out, saying, "If you let this Man go, you are not Caesar's friend. [j]Whoever makes himself a king speaks against Caesar."

13 [k]When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus out and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called The Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha.
14 Now [l]it was the Preparation Day of the Passover, and about the sixth hour. And he said to the Jews, "Behold your King!"

15 But they cried out, "Away with Him, away with Him! Crucify Him!"

Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?"

The chief priests answered, [m]"We have no king but Caesar!"

16 [n]Then he delivered Him to them to be crucified. Then they took Jesus and led Him away.*

The King on a Cross

17 [o]And He, bearing His cross, [p]went out to a place called the Place of a Skull, which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha, 18 where they crucified Him, and [q]two others with Him, one on either side, and Jesus in the center.
19 [r]Now Pilate wrote a title and put it on the cross. And the writing was:

JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 Then many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, Greek, and Latin.

21 Therefore the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but, 'He said, "I am the King of the Jews."'"

22 Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."

23 [s]Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took His garments and made four parts, to each soldier a part, and also the tunic. Now the tunic was without seam, woven from the top in one piece. 24 They said therefore among themselves, "Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be," that the Scripture might be fulfilled which says:

* 19:3 NU-Text reads And they came up to Him and said. * 19:7 NU-Text reads the law.
* 19:16 NU-Text omits and led Him away.

19:4 I am bringing Him out to you. Perhaps Pilate was appealing to the people's compassion so that he could release Jesus.

19:7 We have a law. The Jewish leaders were telling Pilate, "If you are appealing to us, we say that, according to our law, He must die." As governor, Pilate was bound by Roman custom to respect Jewish law. He made Himself the Son of God. The Jewish leaders were accusing Jesus of violating the laws against blasphemy (Lev. 24:16).

19:9 Jesus gave him no answer. Three times Pilate had publicly pronounced Jesus innocent (18:38; 19:4,6).

19:12 you are not Caesar's friend. The Jews shifted their focus from the religious charge (v. 7) to the political charge (18:33), which they backed up with an appeal to Caesar's own political interest. This new plea forced Pilate to choose between yielding to an indefinite sense of right or escaping the danger of an accusation from Rome.

19:19 wrote a title. It was a Roman custom to write the name of the condemned person and his crime on a plaque to be placed above his head at execution.

19:20 written in Hebrew, Greek, and Latin. Multilingual inscriptions were common. The title was written in the local, common, and official languages of the day. Everyone could read the message in his or her own language.

19:23 the soldiers. According to Roman law, the garments of a condemned criminal belonged to the executioners. Jesus had two items of clothing. The cloak was a large, loose garment. The tunic was a close-fitting garment that went from the neck to the knees.

19:24 cast lots. The outer garment could be

[t]"They divided My garments among them,
*And for My clothing they cast lots."

Therefore the soldiers did these things.

Behold Your Mother

25[u]Now there stood by the cross of Jesus
His mother, and His mother's sister, Mary
the wife of [v]Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.
26When Jesus therefore saw His mother,
and [w]the disciple whom He loved standing by, He said to His mother, [x]"Woman, behold
your son!" 27Then He said to the disciple,
"Behold your mother!" And from that hour
that disciple took her [y]to his own home.

It Is Finished

28After this, Jesus, knowing* that all things were now accomplished, [z]that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said, "I thirst!"
29Now a vessel full of sour wine was sitting
there; and [a]they filled a sponge with sour wine, put it on hyssop, and put it to His mouth. 30So when Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, [b]"It is finished!" And bowing His head, He gave up His spirit.

Jesus' Side Is Pierced

31[c]Therefore, because it was the Preparation Day, [d]that the bodies should not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a [e]high day), the Jews
asked Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.
32Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and of the other who was crucified with Him. 33But when they came to Jesus and saw that He was already dead, [f]they did not break His legs. 34But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear,
and immediately [g]blood and water came
out. 35And he who has seen has testified,
and his testimony is [h]true; and he knows that he is telling the truth, so that you may [i]believe. 36For these things were done that the Scripture should be fulfilled, [j]"Not one of His bones shall be broken." 37And again another Scripture says, [k]"They shall look on Him whom they pierced."

Jesus Buried in Joseph's Tomb

38[l]After this, Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly, [m]for fear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus; and Pilate gave him permission. So he came and took the body of Jesus. 39And [n]Nicodemus, who at first came to Jesus by night, also came,
bringing a mixture of [o]myrrh and aloes,
about a hundred pounds. 40Then they took the body of Jesus, and [p]bound it in strips of linen with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury. 41Now in the place where He was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one had yet been laid. 42So [q]there they laid Jesus, [r]because of the Jews' Preparation
Day, for the tomb was nearby.

The Empty Tomb

20 Now the [a]first day of the week Mary Magdalene went to the tomb early,
while it was still dark, and saw that the [b]stone had been taken away from the tomb.
2Then she ran and came to Simon Peter,
and to the [c]other disciple, [d]whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him."
3[e]Peter therefore went out, and the other disciple, and were going to the tomb. 4So they both ran together, and the other disciple outran Peter and came to the tomb
first. 5And he, stooping down and looking in, saw [f]the linen cloths lying there; yet he conveniently divided, but the inner garment could not. Thus, the soldiers divided the outer one and cast lots for the inner one. Unknowingly, the soldiers fulfilled David's prophecy in Psalm 22:18.

19:30 It is finished. Having fulfilled every command of the Father and every prophecy of Scripture, Jesus voluntarily died. This was not a cry of exhaustion, but of completion. Jesus had done what He had agreed to do.

19:31 the Preparation Day. This day was Friday, the day before the Sabbath. Bodies should not remain on the cross. It is ironic that in the midst of a deliberate judicial murder the Jews were scrupulous about keeping the ceremonial law. According to Jewish law (Deut. 21:23), it was necessary to remove the bodies of executed criminals before sunset. To avoid breaking the law, the Jews requested that the legs of the condemned be broken so that the men would die quickly and could be removed from their crosses. With his legs broken, a victim could no longer lift his body in order to breathe and would soon suffocate.

19:34 one of the soldiers pierced His side. After the soldier did this, blood and water came out, indicating that Jesus was already dead. Only blood would have flowed from a living body.

19:35 he who has seen. John's words can be trusted because he is giving an eyewitness account, so that his readers will believe that Jesus is the Savior.

20:2 They have taken away the Lord. Mary Magdalene jumped to the wrong conclusion.

20:5 the linen cloths lying. No one who came to

did not go in. 6Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb; and he saw the linen cloths lying there, 7and [g]the handkerchief that had been around His head, not lying with the linen cloths, but folded together in a place by itself. 8Then the [h]other disciple, who came to the tomb first, went in also; and he saw and believed. 9For as yet they did not know the [i]Scripture, that He must rise again from the dead. 10Then the disciples went away again to their own homes.

Mary Magdalene Sees the Risen Lord

11[j]But Mary stood outside by the tomb weeping, and as she wept she stooped down and looked into the tomb. 12And she saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. 13Then they said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?"

She said to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid Him."

14[k]Now when she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, and [l]did not know that it was Jesus. 15Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?"

She, supposing Him to be the gardener, said to Him, "Sir, if You have carried Him away, tell me where You have laid Him, and I will take Him away."

16Jesus said to her, [m]"Mary!"

She turned and said to Him,* "Rabboni!" (which is to say, Teacher).

17Jesus said to her, "Do not cling to Me, for I have not yet [n]ascended to My Father; but go to [o]My brethren and say to them, [p]'I am ascending to My Father and your Father, and to [q]My God and your God.'"

18[r]Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord,* and that He had spoken these things to her.

The Apostles Commissioned

19[s]Then, the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled,* for [t]fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said to them, [u]"Peace be with you." 20When He had said this, He [v]showed them His hands and His side. [w]Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord.

21So Jesus said to them again, "Peace to you! [x]As the Father has sent Me, I also send you." 22And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. 23[y]If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

Seeing and Believing

24Now Thomas, [z]called the Twin, one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. 25The other disciples therefore said to him, "We have seen the Lord."

So he said to them, "Unless I see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe."

26And after eight days His disciples were again inside, and Thomas with them. Jesus came, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, "Peace to you!" 27Then He said to Thomas, "Reach your finger here, and look at My hands; and [a]reach your hand here, and put it into My side. Do not be [b]unbelieving, but believing."

28And Thomas answered and said to Him, "My Lord and my God!"

29Jesus said to him, "Thomas,* because you have seen Me, you have believed. [c]Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed."

That You May Believe

30And [d]truly Jesus did many other signs in the presence of His disciples, which are

steal the body would have taken the time to unwrap it and leave the clothes behind.

20:6 saw the linen cloths. The Greek term implies an intense stare, in contrast to the more casual look described in verse 5. Peter went into the tomb to get a good look. He carefully examined the place where Jesus' body had been.

20:9 they did not know the Scripture. The disciples believed because of what they saw in the tomb (v. 8), not because of what they knew from Old Testament passages describing the Savior's resurrection (Luke 24:25–27). Jesus had prophesied His death and resurrection in the disciples' presence, but the disciples had not understood what He was talking about.

20:17 Do not cling to Me. This means "to fasten oneself to" or "to hold." Mary had grabbed Christ and was holding on to Him as if she would never turn Him loose.

20:19 Jesus came and stood in the midst. Christ's appearance was miraculous because the doors were shut. Jesus, as God, could perform a variety of miracles without requiring a change in His humanity. Here Christ's body was a physical body, the same body in which He died and was buried. The difference is that His flesh had been changed to take on immortality and incorruptibility (1 Cor. 15:53).

not written in this book; 31[e]but these are written that [f]you may believe that Jesus [g]is the Christ, the Son of God, [h]and that believing you may have life in His name.

Breakfast by the Sea

21 After these things Jesus showed Himself again to the disciples at the [a]Sea of Tiberias, and in this way He showed Himself: 2Simon Peter, [b]Thomas called the Twin, [c]Nathanael of [d]Cana in Galilee, [e]the sons of Zebedee, and two others of His disciples were together. 3Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing."

They said to him, "We are going with you also." They went out and immediately* got into the boat, and that night they caught nothing. 4But when the morning had now come, Jesus stood on the shore; yet the disciples [f]did not know that it was Jesus. 5Then [g]Jesus said to them, "Children, have you any food?"

They answered Him, "No."

6And He said to them, [h]"Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast, and now they were not able to draw it in because of the multitude of fish.

7Therefore [i]that disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his outer garment (for he had removed it), and plunged into the sea. 8But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from land, but about two hundred cubits), dragging the net with fish. 9Then, as soon as they had come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and bread. 10Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have just caught."

11Simon Peter went up and dragged the net to land, full of large fish, one hundred and fifty-three; and although there were so many, the net was not broken. 12Jesus said to them, [j]"Come and eat breakfast." Yet none of the disciples dared ask Him, "Who are You?"—knowing that it was the Lord. 13Jesus then came and took the bread and gave it to them, and likewise the fish.

14This is now [k]the third time Jesus showed Himself to His disciples after He was raised from the dead.

Jesus Restores Peter

15So when they had eaten breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of Jonah,* do you love Me more than these?"

He said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You."

He said to him, [l]"Feed My lambs."

16He said to him again a second time, "Simon, son of Jonah,* do you love Me?"

He said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You."

[m]He said to him, "Tend My [n]sheep."

17He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of Jonah,* do you love Me?" Peter was grieved because He said to him the third time, "Do you love Me?"

And he said to Him, "Lord, [o]You know all things; You know that I love You."

Jesus said to him, "Feed My sheep. 18[p]Most assuredly, I say to you, when you were younger, you girded yourself and walked where you wished; but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will gird you and carry you where you do not wish." 19This He spoke, signifying [q]by what death he would glorify God. And when He had spoken this, He said to him, [r]"Follow Me."

The Beloved Disciple and His Book

20Then Peter, turning around, saw the disciple [s]whom Jesus loved following, [t]who also had leaned on His breast at the supper, and said, "Lord, who is the one who betrays You?" 21Peter, seeing him, said to Jesus, "But Lord, what about this man?"

22Jesus said to him, "If I will that he remain [u]till I come, what is that to you? You follow Me."

23Then this saying went out among the brethren that this disciple would not die. Yet Jesus did not say to him that he would not die, but, "If I will that he remain till I come, what is that to you?"

20:31 that you may believe. John states the purpose of his book, which was to convince his readers that Jesus is the Christ, the Messiah who fulfilled God's promises to Israel. Jesus is the Son of God, God in the flesh. By believing these things, a person obtains eternal life (1:12).

21:4 the disciples did not know. Perhaps the apostles did not recognize Jesus because they were preoccupied with their work, as Mary Magdalene had been with her sorrow (20:14). In addition, there was not much light at this time of day.

21:7 Peter . . . plunged into the sea. John was the first to recognize the Lord; Peter was the first to act.

21:17 You know that I love You. Peter denied the Lord at least three times. Here, he affirmed his love for the third time.

21:20–21 the disciple whom Jesus loved. This is commonly considered to be John, the author of this Gospel.

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

▶ AUTHOR: There are many "we" sections in Acts that imply the author was present for these events (16:10–17; 20:5—21:18; 27:1—28:16). These sections of Acts are the historical record of an eyewitness. For the remainder of this book, Luke no doubt followed the same careful investigative procedures that he used in writing his Gospel (Luke 1:1–4). As a close traveling companion of Paul, Luke had access to the principal eyewitness for chapters 13–18. It is also likely that he had opportunities to interview such key witnesses in Jerusalem as Peter and John for the information in chapters 13–28. Modern archaeological discoveries have strikingly confirmed the trustworthiness and precision of Luke as an historian.

▶ TIME: c. A.D. 33–62 ▶ KEY VERSES: Acts 2:42–47

▶ THEME: Acts is the record of how the events surrounding Jesus' life and death and resurrection resulted in this worldwide movement called the church. The book is certainly not a comprehensive history. Acts is more like a photo album of snapshots. It is the record of an eyewitness who wrote about what he saw and what seemed to be the critical events in the beginnings of the church and its movement out of Jerusalem to the rest of the world. One could say that the Book of Acts is an elaboration on Acts 1:8: "But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth."

Prologue

1 The former account I made, O [a]Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach, [2][b]until the day in which He was taken up, after He through the Holy Spirit [c]had given commandments to the apostles whom He had chosen, [3][d]to whom He also presented Himself alive after His suffering
by many infallible proofs, being seen by them during forty days and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God.

The Holy Spirit Promised

[4][e]And being assembled together with them, He commanded them not to depart
from Jerusalem, but to wait for the Promise of the Father, "which," He said, "you have [f]heard from Me; [5][g]for John truly baptized with water, [h]but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now."
[6]Therefore, when they had come together,
they asked Him, saying, "Lord, will You at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?" [7]And He said to them, [i]"It is not for you to [j]know times or seasons which the Father has put in His own authority. [8][k]But you shall receive power [l]when the Holy Spirit
has come upon you; and [m]you shall be witnesses to Me* in Jerusalem, and in all Judea
and [n]Samaria, and to the [o]end of the earth."

* 1:8 NU-Text reads My witnesses.

1:3 many infallible proofs. This is the only time the Greek word tekmerion occurs, emphasizing the certainty of the resurrection.

1:5 Baptism—The promised Holy Spirit (Is. 32:15; Joel 2:28–32) is a gift to believers after the glorification of Jesus (John 7:39). John baptized for forgiveness of sins, but the outpouring of the Spirit resulted from Christ's victory and exaltation to God's right hand (2:33). Believers are sealed until redemption (Eph. 1:13), made one body, and caused to drink of one Spirit (1 Cor. 12:13). The baptism of the Spirit is the immersion in the Spirit and uniting of believers into one body.

1:8 Living by Faith—God designed the Christian life to be one lived in the power of the Holy Spirit. Believers must appropriate daily, by faith, the power of the Holy Spirit to live as Christians (Rom. 8:4–5). This means that the believer trusts the Spirit to empower him in specific instances such as resisting temptation, being faithful, and sharing one's faith. There is no secret formula that makes the Spirit's power operational in our lives. Scripture tells us that the Spirit dwells and operates in us (1 Cor. 6:9). We have to learn by experience through interaction with God to understand how that dynamic works. First the disciples received the Holy Spirit. Then He gave them

Jesus Ascends to Heaven

9 [p]Now when He had spoken these things, while they watched, [q]He was taken up, and a cloud received Him out of their sight. 10 And while they looked steadfastly toward heaven as He went up, behold, two men stood by them [r]in white apparel, 11 who also said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, [s]will so come in like manner as you saw Him go into heaven."

The Upper Room Prayer Meeting

12 [t]Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey. 13 And when they had entered, they went up [u]into the upper room where they were staying: [v]Peter, James, John, and Andrew; Philip and Thomas; Bartholomew and Matthew; James the son of Alphaeus and [w]Simon the Zealot; and [x]Judas the son of James. 14 [y]These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication,* with [z]the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with [a]His brothers.

Matthias Chosen

15 And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples* (altogether the number [b]of names was about a hundred and twenty), and said, 16 "Men and brethren, this Scripture had to be fulfilled, [c]which the Holy Spirit spoke before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, [d]who became a guide to those who arrested Jesus; 17 for [e]he was numbered with us and obtained a part in [f]this ministry."

18 [g](Now this man purchased a field with [h]the wages of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst open in the middle and all his entrails gushed out. 19 And it became known to all those dwelling in Jerusalem; so that field is called in their own language, Akel Dama, that is, Field of Blood.)

20 "For it is written in the Book of Psalms:

> [i]'Let his dwelling place be desolate,
> *And let no one live in it';

and,

21 "Therefore, of these men who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, 22 beginning from the baptism of John to that day when [k]He was taken up from us, one of these must [l]become a witness with us of His resurrection."

23 And they proposed two: Joseph called [m]Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. 24 And they prayed and said, "You, O Lord, [n]who know the hearts of all, show which of these two You have chosen 25 [o]to take part in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place." 26 And they cast their lots, and the lot fell on Matthias. And he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

Coming of the Holy Spirit

2 When [a]the Day of Pentecost had fully come, [b]they were all with one accord* in one place. 2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it [c]filled the whole house where they were sitting. 3 Then there appeared to them divided tongues, as of fire, and one sat upon each of them. 4 And [d]they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began [e]to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

The Crowd's Response

5 And there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, [f]devout men, from every nation under heaven. 6 And when this sound occurred, the [g]multitude came together, and were confused, because everyone heard them speak in his own language. 7 Then they were all amazed and marveled, saying to one another, "Look, are not all these who speak [h]Galileans? 8 And how is it that we hear, each in our own language in which we were born? 9 Parthians and Medes and Elamites, those dwelling in Mesopotamia, Judea and [i]Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, 10 Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya adjoining Cyrene, visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretans and Arabs—we hear them speaking in our own tongues the wonderful works of God." 12 So they were all power and finally the disciples were told they would be Christ's witness to the very ends of the earth. Effective witness requires that we first learn to rely on the Spirit to help us.

1:14 with one accord. The disciples were like-minded; the people put aside personal positions and took on a common goal. True unity is an act of grace.

2:4 tongues. This means "diverse languages" and was essential to the rapid worldwide spread of the gospel. Those gathered for Pentecost came from around the known world and had various "mother tongues."

amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "Whatever could this mean?"
13 Others mocking said, "They are full of new wine."

Peter's Sermon

14 But Peter, standing up with the eleven, raised his voice and said to them, "Men of Judea and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and heed my words.
15 For these are not drunk, as you suppose, [j]since it is only the third hour of the day.
16 But this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:

17 'And[k] it shall come to pass in the last days, says God,
[l]That I will pour out of My Spirit on all flesh;
Your sons and [m]your daughters shall prophesy,
Your young men shall see visions,
Your old men shall dream dreams.
18 And on My menservants and on My maidservants
I will pour out My Spirit in those days;
[n]And they shall prophesy.
19 [o]I will show wonders in heaven above
And signs in the earth beneath:
Blood and fire and vapor of smoke.
20 [p]The sun shall be turned into darkness,
And the moon into blood,
Before the coming of the great and awesome day of the LORD.
21 And it shall come to pass
That [q]whoever calls on the name of the LORD
*Shall be saved.'

22 "Men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a Man attested by God to you [r]by miracles, wonders, and signs which God did through Him in your midst, as you yourselves also know— 23 Him, [s]being delivered by the determined purpose and foreknowledge of God, [t]you have taken* by lawless hands, have crucified, and put to death; 24 [u]whom God raised up, having loosed the pains of death, because it was not possible that He should be held by it.
25 For David says concerning Him:

[v]'I foresaw the LORD always before my face,
For He is at my right hand, that I may not be shaken.
26 Therefore my heart rejoiced, and my tongue was glad;
Moreover my flesh also will rest in hope.
27 For You will not leave my soul in Hades,
Nor will You allow Your Holy One to see [w]corruption.
28 You have made known to me the ways of life;
*You will make me full of joy in Your presence.'

29 "Men and brethren, let me speak freely to you [x]of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. 30 Therefore, being a prophet, [y]and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that of the fruit of his body, according to the flesh, He would raise up the Christ to sit on his throne,* 31 he, foreseeing this, spoke concerning the resurrection of the Christ, [z]that His soul was not left in Hades, nor did His flesh see corruption.
32 [a]This Jesus God has raised up, [b]of which we are all witnesses. 33 Therefore [c]being exalted to [d]the right hand of God, and [e]having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, He [f]poured out this which you now see and hear.
34 "For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he says himself:

[g]'The LORD said to my Lord,
"Sit at My right hand,
35 *Till I make Your enemies Your footstool."'

36 "Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly that God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ."
37 Now when they heard this, [h]they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Men and brethren, what shall we do?"
38 Then Peter said to them, [i]"Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins; and you shall receive the gift of the

2:37 Conviction of the Holy Spirit—Peter's preaching was extremely effective, for it came "in power, and in the Holy Spirit and in much assurance" (1 Thess. 1:5). The result was they were "cut to the heart." Their response was, "brethren, what shall we do?" The reality was that conviction by the Holy Spirit brought about a real search for an answer. Such a consciousness of sin is an indispensable prerequisite to conversion.

2:38 Repent. Peter called the Jews to turn their backs on their former lives and change. Faith involves an action of belief by those who accept Jesus.

Holy Spirit. 39For the promise is to you and [j]to your children, and [k]to all who are afar off, as many as the Lord our God will call."

A Vital Church Grows

40And with many other words he testified and exhorted them, saying, "Be saved from this perverse generation." 41Then those who gladly* received his word were baptized; and that day about three thousand souls were added to them. 42[l]And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in prayers. 43Then fear came upon every soul, and [m]many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. 44Now all who believed were together, and [n]had all things in common, 45and sold their possessions and goods, and [o]divided them among all, as anyone had need.

46[p]So continuing daily with one accord [q]in the temple, and [r]breaking bread from house to house, they ate their food with gladness and simplicity of heart, 47praising God and having favor with all the people. And [s]the Lord added to the church* daily those who were being saved.

A Lame Man Healed

3 Now Peter and John went up together [q]to the temple at the hour of prayer, [b]the ninth hour. 2And [c]a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, [d]to ask alms from those who entered the temple; 3who, seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked for alms. 4And fixing his eyes on him, with John, Peter said, "Look at us." 5So he gave them his attention, expecting to receive something from them. 6Then Peter said, "Silver and gold I do not have, but what I do have I give you: [e]In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk." 7And he took him by the right hand and lifted him up, and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength. 8So he, [f]leaping up, stood and walked and entered the temple with them—walking, leaping, and praising God. 9[g]And all the people saw him walking and praising God. 10Then they knew that it was he who [h]sat begging alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

Preaching in Solomon's Portico

11Now as the lame man who was healed held on to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch [i]which is called Solomon's, greatly amazed. 12So when Peter saw it, he responded to the people: "Men of Israel, why do you marvel at this? Or why look so intently at us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made this man walk? 13[j]The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers, [k]glorified His Servant Jesus, whom you [l]delivered up and [m]denied in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let Him go. 14But you denied [n]the Holy One [o]and the Just, and [p]asked for a murderer to be granted to you, 15and killed the Prince of life, [q]whom God raised from the dead, [r]of which we are witnesses. 16[s]And His name, through faith in His name, has made this man strong, whom you see and know. Yes, the faith which comes through Him has given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17"Yet now, brethren, I know that [t]you did it in ignorance, as did also your rulers. 18But [u]those things which God foretold [v]by the mouth of all His prophets, that the Christ would suffer, He has thus fulfilled. 19[w]Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, 20and that He may send Jesus Christ, who was preached to you before,* 21[x]whom heaven must receive until the times of [y]restoration of all things, [z]which God has spoken by the mouth of all His

2:42–47 Being in the Church—Converts were apparently immediately incorporated into the body of believers that became the church. Being involved in the Jerusalem church clearly must have changed the lives of these new believers dramatically. This was manifested in several ways: (1) they devoted themselves to new teaching; (2) they thought differently about all their possessions; (3) they became people of prayer; and (4) they ate and worshiped together with unified hearts. They weren't just saved from sin. They were saved to Christ and to this new body called the church, which of course is also His. We are called to be a part of one another's lives. We are to learn, share, pray, and worship together. As a body of believers, God expects us to have great concern for our fellow believers and to help one another mature.

3:7 strength. This account is told by a physician who describes instant healing. Before their eyes strength is given to muscles and bones. The man's feet could instantly hold his weight.

3:19 Repent therefore and be converted. Peter challenges all to change their minds and change their courses. Not only is their sin addressed but their closed minds.

holy prophets since the world began. 22For Moses truly said to the fathers, [a]'The LORD your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from your brethren. Him you shall hear in all things, whatever He says to you. 23*And it shall be that every soul who will not hear that Prophet shall be utterly destroyed from among the people.' 24Yes, and [b]all the prophets, from Samuel and those who follow, as many as have spoken, have also foretold* these days. 25[c]You are sons of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, [d]*'And in your seed all the families of the earth shall be blessed.' 26To you [e]first, God, having raised up His Servant Jesus, sent Him to bless you, [f]in turning away every one of you from your iniquities."

Peter and John Arrested

4 Now as they spoke to the people, the priests, the captain of the temple, and the [a]Sadducees came upon them, 2being greatly disturbed that they taught the people and preached in Jesus the resurrection from the dead. 3And they laid hands on them, and put them in custody until the next day, for it was already evening. 4However, many of those who heard the word believed; and the number of the men came to be about five thousand.

Addressing the Sanhedrin

5And it came to pass, on the next day, that their rulers, elders, and scribes, 6as well as [b]Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the family of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem. 7And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, [c]"By what power or by what name have you done this?"

8[d]Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders of Israel: 9If we this day are judged for a good deed done to a helpless man, by what means he has been made well, 10let it be known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, [e]that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, [f]whom God raised from the dead, by Him this man stands here before you whole. 11This is the [g]*'stone which was rejected by you builders, which has become the chief cornerstone.' 12[h]Nor is there salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved."

The Name of Jesus Forbidden

13Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, [i]and perceived that they were uneducated and untrained men, they marveled. And they realized that they had been with Jesus. 14And seeing the man who had been healed [j]standing with them, they could say nothing against it. 15But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, 16saying, [k]"What shall we do to these men? For, indeed, that a notable miracle has been done through them is [l]evident to all who dwell in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it. 17But so that it spreads no further among the people, let us severely threaten them, that from now on they speak to no man in this name."

18[m]So they called them and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus. 19But Peter and John answered and said to them, [n]"Whether it

3:22 Messiah—Peter draws on the witness of the prophets who foretold the suffering of Christ. He quotes Moses, who spoke of a prophet like himself from among the Jews (Deut. 18:15–17). The crucified, risen, and ascended Jesus has fulfilled this role perfectly as God's anointed Servant sent to atone for humans. Jesus carried God's authority; the words of Jesus must be heeded since they give life to the dying sinner. A person greater than Moses has come to fulfill the prophets. Peter is proclaiming that Jesus is the deliberate fulfillment of God's promise for redemption.

4:1 Sadducees. The Sadducees were skeptics who rejected all of the Old Testament except the books of Moses, and who denied the resurrection from the dead. Peter's teaching about the resurrection challenged their beliefs and teaching.

4:5 rulers, elders, and scribes. The Sanhedrin, which consisted of 70 men plus the high priest, was the highest Jewish court. The group consisted of the wealthiest, most educated, and most powerful Jewish men in Israel.

4:8 The Filling of the Holy Spirit—This is the second description in the Book of Acts of someone being filled with the Holy Spirit (see 2:4; 4:31; 9:17; 13:9). The initial filling accompanies the baptism in the Spirit. This filling brought boldness for God's work. Jesus had promised His disciples that they would stand before kings and rulers and that the Spirit of God within them would implant in their minds exactly what to say to these leaders (Matt. 10:16–20).

4:19 listen to you more than to God. There is no authority apart from God. When human authority rejects God's authority, it becomes twisted and loses its right to demand compliance (5:29). God's people are responsible to obey the government because it has been set in place by God, but when government directs against God's will, the Author of authority has the higher claim on our allegiance. We must resist any command that is against God's will (Ex. 1; Dan. 3; Heb. 11:23).

is right in the sight of God to listen to you more than to God, you judge. 20[o]For we cannot but speak the things which [p]we have seen and heard." 21So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way of punishing them, [q]because of the people, since they all [r]glorified God for [s]what had been done. 22For the man was over forty years old on whom this miracle of healing had been performed.

Prayer for Boldness

23And being let go, [t]they went to their own companions and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them. 24So when they heard that, they raised their voice to God with one accord and said: "Lord, [u]You are God, who made heaven and earth and the sea, and all that is in them, 25who by the mouth of Your servant David* have said:

[v]'Why did the nations rage,
And the people plot vain things?
26 The kings of the earth took their stand,
And the rulers were gathered together
Against the LORD *and against His Christ.'

27"For [w]truly against [x]Your holy Servant Jesus, [y]whom You anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, were gathered together 28[z]to do whatever Your hand and Your purpose determined before to be done. 29Now, Lord, look on their threats, and grant to Your servants [a]that with all boldness they may speak Your word, 30by stretching out Your hand to heal, [b]and that signs and wonders may be done [c]through the name of [d]Your holy Servant Jesus."

31And when they had prayed, [e]the place where they were assembled together was shaken; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, [f]and they spoke the word of God with boldness.

Sharing in All Things

32Now the multitude of those who believed [g]were of one heart and one soul; [h]neither did anyone say that any of the things he possessed was his own, but they had all things in common. 33And with [i]great power the apostles gave [j]witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. And [k]great grace was upon them all. 34Nor was there anyone among them who lacked; [l]for all who were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of the things that were sold, 35[m]and laid them at the apostles' feet; [n]and they distributed to each as anyone had need.

36And Joses,* who was also named Barnabas by the apostles (which is translated Son of Encouragement), a Levite of the country of Cyprus, 37[o]having land, sold it, and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet.

Lying to the Holy Spirit

5 But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession. 2And he kept back part of the proceeds, his wife also being aware of it, and brought a certain part and laid it at the apostles' feet. 3[a]But Peter said, "Ananias, why has [b]Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and keep back part of the price of the land for yourself? 4While it remained, was it not your own? And after it was sold, was it not in your own control? Why have you conceived this thing in your heart? You have not lied to men but to God."

5Then Ananias, hearing these words, [c]fell down and breathed his last. So great fear came upon all those who heard these things. 6And the young men arose and [d]wrapped him up, carried him out, and buried him.

7Now it was about three hours later when his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. 8And Peter answered her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much?"

She said, "Yes, for so much."

9Then Peter said to her, "How is it that you have agreed together [e]to test the Spirit of the Lord? Look, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out." 10[f]Then immediately she fell down at his feet and breathed her last. And the young men came in and found her dead, and carrying

5:3 Filled with Satan—Satan is the father of lies (John 8:44). When Ananias and Sapphira deliberately lied, they took upon themselves the moral character of the one who is behind all lies, the devil himself. A person who is listening to Satan begins to act like Satan; his or her thoughts and actions are "filled with Satan" rather than reflecting the filling and direction of the Holy Spirit. Satan or a demon cannot possess someone who is filled with the Holy Spirit, but by listening to Satan rather than the Holy Spirit a believer can behave like one who belongs to Satan rather than one who belongs to God.

5:4 Holy Spirit—This passage confirms the deity of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is the third Person of the triune Godhead. To lie to Him (v. 3) is to lie to God.

her out, buried her by her husband. 11[g]So great fear came upon all the church and upon all who heard these things.

Continuing Power in the Church

12And [h]through the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were done among the people. [i]And they were all with one accord in Solomon's Porch. 13Yet [j]none of the rest dared join them, [k]but the people esteemed them highly. 14And believers were increasingly added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and women, 15so that they brought the sick out into the streets and laid them on beds and couches, [l]that at least the shadow of Peter passing by might fall on some of them. 16Also a multitude gathered from the surrounding cities to Jerusalem, bringing [m]sick people and those who were tormented by unclean spirits, and they were all healed.

Imprisoned Apostles Freed

17[n]Then the high priest rose up, and all those who were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with indignation, 18[o]and laid their hands on the apostles and put them in the common prison. 19But at night [p]an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors and brought them out, and said, 20"Go, stand in the temple and speak to the people [q]all the words of this life."

21And when they heard that, they entered the temple early in the morning and taught. [r]But the high priest and those with him came and called the council together, with all the elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

Apostles on Trial Again

22But when the officers came and did not find them in the prison, they returned and reported, 23saying, "Indeed we found the prison shut securely, and the guards standing outside* before the doors; but when we opened them, we found no one inside!" 24Now when the high priest,* [s]the captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these things, they wondered what the outcome would be. 25So one came and told them, saying,* "Look, the men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people!"

29But Peter and the other apostles answered and said: [x]"We ought to obey God rather than men. 30[y]The God of our fathers raised up Jesus whom you murdered by [z]hanging on a tree. 31[a]Him God has exalted to His right hand to be [b]Prince and [c]Savior, [d]to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. 32And [e]we are His witnesses to these things, and so also is the Holy Spirit [f]whom God has given to those who obey Him."

Gamaliel's Advice

33When they heard this, they were [g]furious and plotted to kill them. 34Then one in the council stood up, a Pharisee named [h]Gamaliel, a teacher of the law held in respect by all the people, and commanded them to put the apostles outside for a little while. 35And he said to them: "Men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what you intend to do regarding these men. 36For some time ago Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody. A number of men, about four hundred, joined him. He was slain, and all who obeyed him were scattered and came to nothing. 37After this man, Judas of Galilee rose up in the days of the census, and drew away many people after him. He also perished, and all who obeyed him were dispersed. 38And now I say to you, keep away from these men and let them alone; for if this plan or this work is of men, it will come to nothing; 39[i]but if it is of God, you cannot overthrow it—lest you even be found [j]to fight against God."

5:12 signs and wonders. These are miraculous occurrences that point to a warning, instruction, or encouragement from God. The signs and wonders which were done among the people at this time gave credibility to the apostles as messengers from God.

5:19 Angels—The word "angel" simply means "messenger." The phrase "angel of the Lord" is commonly used in the Old Testament to refer to spiritual messengers of God.

5:32 witnesses to these things. The witness of the believer is vitally related to the Holy Spirit. Jesus had said that the Holy Spirit would be a witness and that the apostles would be witnesses. The apostles were conscious that they were indwelt by the Holy Spirit of God, and that their witness depended upon this filling. There is a tremendous lesson here for every believer. No one can be a witness for Christ and a herald of the gospel by individual initiative. Empowerment must come from the Holy Spirit.

40 And they agreed with him, and when they had [k]called for the apostles [l]and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. 41 So they departed from the presence of the council, [m]rejoicing that they

ing and preaching Jesus as the Christ.

Seven Chosen to Serve

6 Now in those days, [a]when the number of the disciples was multiplying, there arose a complaint against the Hebrews
by the [b]Hellenists,* because their widows
were neglected [c]in the daily distribution.
2 Then the twelve summoned the multitude of the disciples and said, [d]"It is not desirable that we should leave the word of God and serve tables. 3 Therefore, brethren, [e]seek out from among you seven men of good reputation, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this [f]business; 4 but we [g]will give ourselves continually to prayer and to the ministry of the word."

5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude. And they chose Stephen, [h]a man full of faith and the Holy Spirit, and [i]Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas,
and [j]Nicolas, a proselyte from Antioch,
6 whom they set before the apostles; and [k]when they had prayed, [l]they laid hands on them.

7 Then [m]the word of God spread, and the number of the disciples multiplied greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many [n]of the priests were obedient to the faith.

Stephen Accused of Blasphemy

8 And Stephen, full of faith* and power, did great [o]wonders and signs among the people. 9 Then there arose some from what is called the Synagogue of the Freedmen (Cyrenians, Alexandrians, and those from Cilicia and Asia), disputing with Stephen.
10 And [p]they were not able to resist the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke.
11 [q]Then they secretly induced men to say,
"We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God." 12 And they stirred up the people, the elders, and the scribes; and they came upon him, seized him, and brought him to the council.
13 They also set up false witnesses who said, "This man does not cease to speak blasphemous* words against this holy place and the law; 14 [r]for we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place and change the customs which Moses delivered to us." 15 And all who sat in the council, looking steadfastly at him, saw his face as the face of an angel.

Stephen's Address: The Call of Abraham

7 Then the high priest said, "Are these things so?"

2 And he said, [a]"Brethren and fathers, listen: The [b]God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in [c]Haran, 3 and said to him, [d]'Get out of your country and from your relatives, and come to a land
*that I will show you.' 4 Then [e]he came out of the land of the Chaldeans and dwelt in Haran. And from there, when his father was [f]dead, He moved him to this land in which you now dwell. 5 And God gave him
no inheritance in it, not even enough to set his foot on. But even when Abraham had no child, [g]He promised to give it to him for a possession, and to his descendants after him. 6 But God spoke in this way: [h]that his descendants would dwell in a foreign land,
and that they would bring them into [i]bondage and oppress them four hundred years.
7 [j]'And the nation to whom they will be in bondage I will [k]judge,' said God, [l]'and af-* ter that they shall come out and serve Me in *this place.' 8 [m]Then He gave him the covenant of circumcision; [n]and so Abraham
begot Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day; [o]and Isaac begot Jacob, and [p]Jacob begot the twelve patriarchs.

6:3 full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom. The men's lives were consistent with their confession of faith. They knew the will of God and understood how to carry it out in their lives (Eph. 5:15–18). They could be trusted with responsibility and authority.

6:6 laid hands on them. This was not done in order for the men to receive the Holy Spirit, because the seven men were already "full of the Holy Spirit" (vv. 3,5). Instead the apostles were conferring on these men the responsibility of carrying out the ministry. The laying on of hands was a meaningful tradition that dated back to the days of Moses (Num. 27:23); it identified people with the ministries to be performed.

6:8 full of faith and power. Stephen had the gifts, the boldness, and the brilliance to be a powerful witness; yet even his witness would be rejected by the religious leaders. Hearts are opened only by God, not by our gifts, boldness, or brilliance.

The Patriarchs in Egypt

9 [q]"And the patriarchs, becoming envious, [r]sold Joseph into Egypt. [s]But God was with him 10 and delivered him out of all his troubles, [t]and gave him favor and wisdom in the presence of Pharaoh, king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house. 11 [u]Now a famine and great trouble came over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and our fathers found no sustenance. 12 [v]But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first. 13 And the [w]second time Joseph was made known to his brothers, and Joseph's family became known to the Pharaoh. 14 [x]Then Joseph sent and called his father Jacob and [y]all his relatives to him, seventy-five* people. 15 [z]So Jacob went down to Egypt; [a]and he died, he and our fathers. 16 And [b]they were carried back to Shechem and laid in [c]the tomb that Abraham bought for a sum of money from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem.

God Delivers Israel by Moses

17 "But when [d]the time of the promise drew near which God had sworn to Abraham, [e]the people grew and multiplied in Egypt 18 till another king [f]arose who did not know Joseph. 19 This man dealt treacherously with our people, and oppressed our forefathers, [g]making them expose their babies, so that they might not live. 20 [h]At this time Moses was born, and [i]was well pleasing to God; and he was brought up in his father's house for three months. 21 But [j]when he was set out, [k]Pharaoh's daughter took him away and brought him up as her own son. 22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was [l]mighty in words and deeds.

23 [m]"Now when he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren, the children of Israel. 24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended and avenged him who was oppressed, and struck down the Egyptian. 25 For he supposed that his brethren would have understood that God would deliver them by his hand, but they did not understand. 26 And the next day he appeared to two of them as they were fighting, and tried to reconcile them, saying, 'Men, you are brethren; why do you wrong one another?' 27 But he who did his neighbor wrong pushed him away, saying, [n]*'Who made you a ruler and a judge over us? 28 Do you want to kill me as you did the Egyptian yesterday?' 29 [o]Then, at this saying, Moses fled and became a dweller in the land of Midian, where he [p]had two sons.

30 [q]"And when forty years had passed, an Angel of the Lord* appeared to him in a flame of fire in a bush, in the wilderness of Mount Sinai. 31 When Moses saw it, he marveled at the sight; and as he drew near to observe, the voice of the Lord came to him, 32 saying, [r]'I am the God of your fathers—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' And Moses trembled and dared not look. 33 [s]'Then the LORD said to him, "Take your sandals off your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground. 34 I have surely [t]seen the oppression of My people who are in Egypt; I have heard their groaning and have come down to deliver them. And now come, I will [u]send you to Egypt."' 35 "This Moses whom they rejected, saying, [v]*'Who made you a ruler and a judge?' is the one God sent to be a ruler and a deliverer [w]by the hand of the Angel who appeared to him in the bush. 36 [x]He brought them out, after he had [y]shown wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, [z]and in the Red Sea, [a]and in the wilderness forty years.

symbol were given to Abraham that he might never forget God's promise to bless him. Abraham was saved by faith in God (Gen. 15:6); the symbol of circumcision was an outward sign of the inward reality of his faith. God's blessing was not based on the physical fact of circumcision but on genuine faith.

7:16 Shechem. At the time of Stephen's defense, Shechem was the center of Samaritan life. Mount Gerizim, the Samaritan worship center, was located nearby. Stephen's point was not to speak against the temple in Jerusalem, but to point out that God had been speaking and moving in the lives of His people not only in Jerusalem or the temple. The most important address God made to His people was at Mount Sinai, which is nowhere near Jerusalem.

7:19 Persecution—Pharaoh enslaved and mistreated the Hebrews, and at the same time he feared their strength. It was his fear that led him to seek their destruction, persecuting them and destroying their children. It is easy to recognize the enormity and evil of the Egyptian persecution of the Jews as a race and a nation, but the ancient Egyptians are not the only ones guilty of such sin. Some of those claiming the name of Christ in recent times have been guilty of mistreating or even enslaving those of a different ethnic background. Feelings of racial superiority have no place in the heart of a Christian.

Israel Rebels Against God

37 "This is that Moses who said to the children of Israel,* [b]'The LORD your God
will raise up for you a Prophet like me from your brethren. [c]Him you shall hear.'* 38 [d]"This is he who was in the congregation in the wilderness with [e]the Angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers, [f]the one who received the living [g]oracles to give to us, 39whom our fathers [h]would not obey, but rejected. And in their hearts they turned back to Egypt, 40[i]saying to Aaron, 'Make us gods to go before us; as
for this Moses who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.'* 41[j]And they made a calf
in those days, offered sacrifices to the idol,
and [k]rejoiced in the works of their own hands. 42Then [l]God turned and gave them up to worship [m]the host of heaven, as it is written in the book of the Prophets:

[n]'Did you offer Me slaughtered animals
and sacrifices during forty years
in the wilderness,
O house of Israel?
43 You also took up the tabernacle of Moloch,
And the star of your god Remphan,
Images which you made to worship;
And [o]I will carry you away beyond Babylon.'*

God's True Tabernacle

44 "Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as He appointed, instructing Moses [p]to make it according to the pattern that he had seen, 45[q]which our fathers, having received it in turn, also brought with Joshua into the land possessed by the Gentiles, [r]whom God drove out before the face of our fathers until the [s]days of David, 46[t]who found favor before God and [u]asked to find a dwelling for the God of Jacob. 47[v]But Solomon built Him a house.
48 "However, [w]the Most High does not dwell in temples made with hands, as the prophet says:

49 'Heaven[x] is My throne,
And earth is My footstool.
What house will you build for Me?
says the LORD,
Or what is the place of My rest?
50 Has My hand not [y]made all these things?'*

Israel Resists the Holy Spirit

51 "You [z]stiff-necked and [a]uncircumcised in heart and ears! You always resist the Holy Spirit; as your fathers did, so do you.
52[b]Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? And they killed those who foretold the coming of [c]the Just One, of whom you now have become the betrayers
and murderers, 53[d]who have received the law by the direction of angels and have not kept it."

Stephen the Martyr

54[e]When they heard these things they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed at him with their teeth. 55But he, [f]being full of the Holy Spirit, gazed into heaven and saw the [g]glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God, 56and said, "Look! [h]I see the heavens opened and the [i]Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!" 57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, stopped their ears, and ran at him with one accord; 58and they cast him out of the city and stoned him. And [j]the witnesses laid down their clothes at the feet of a young

7:38 The Meaning of the Church—In modern English the word church is used five ways: (1) a building designated as a place of worship; (2) all who profess faith in Christ; (3) a denomination; (4) a single organized local church; and (5) the body of Christ, that is, the universal church. While all of these may be legitimate uses for modern English, the word church is used in the New Testament in only the last two senses—a local congregation or the body of Christ, the universal church. At its root, the word church means a "called-out group." It is used for the nation of Israel (7:38), which was a group of people who were called out of the rest of the world to have a special national relationship to God. It is used for a local church (1 Thess. 1:1; Rev. 2:1) and for the universal church, the body of Christ (Col. 1:18). The universal church comprises all believers from the Day of Pentecost until God completes His plan for the world. The local church is a local, visible, temporal manifestation of the universal church.

7:44 tabernacle. The ancient tabernacle had been the focus of the Israelites' national worship. Even after the miraculous deliverance from Egypt there was a tendency among the people to forget God. The tabernacle was a constant testimony of God's presence no matter where the people went. Paul tells us that we are the tabernacle, the temple of God (1 Cor. 3:16). We can never move beyond God's reach, for we carry His presence with us.

7:58 cast him out of the city. Because Jewish law did not allow an execution within the walls of the holy city, the religious leaders took Stephen outside the city. Jerusalem is situated in a stony area and this made Stephen's hasty (and illegal) execution easy. His executioners had plenty of rocks at hand, they only had to bend over and pick them up (see John 10:31).

man named Saul. 59And they stoned Stephen as he was calling on God and saying, "Lord Jesus, [k]receive my spirit." 60Then he knelt down and cried out with a loud voice, [l]"Lord, do not charge them with this sin." And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

Saul Persecutes the Church

8 Now Saul was consenting to his death.
At that time a great persecution arose against the church which was at Jerusalem; and [a]they were all scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles. 2And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and [b]made great lamentation over him.

3As for Saul, [c]he made havoc of the church, entering every house, and dragging off men and women, committing them to prison.

Christ Is Preached in Samaria

4Therefore [d]those who were scattered went everywhere preaching the word. 5Then [e]Philip went down to the* city of Samaria and preached Christ to them. 6And the multitudes with one accord heeded the things spoken by Philip, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did. 7For [f]unclean spirits, crying with a loud voice, came out of many who were possessed; and many who were paralyzed and lame were healed. 8And there was great joy in that city.

The Sorcerer's Profession of Faith

9But there was a certain man called Simon, who previously [g]practiced sorcery in the city and [h]astonished the people of Samaria, claiming that he was someone great, 10to whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, "This man is the great power of God." 11And they heeded him because he had astonished them with his sorceries for a long time. 12But when they believed Philip as he preached the things [i]concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, both men and women were baptized. 13Then Simon himself also believed; and when he was baptized he continued with Philip, and was amazed, seeing the miracles and signs which were done.

The Sorcerer's Sin

14Now when the [j]apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them, 15who, when they had come down, prayed for them [k]that they might receive the Holy Spirit. 16For [l]as yet He had fallen upon none of them. [m]They had only been baptized in [n]the name of the Lord Jesus. 17Then [o]they laid hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

18And when Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money, 19saying, "Give me this power also, that anyone on whom I lay hands may receive the Holy Spirit."

20But Peter said to him, "Your money perish with you, because [p]you thought that [q]the gift of God could be purchased with money! 21You have neither part nor portion in this matter, for your [r]heart is not right in the sight of God. 22Repent therefore of this your wickedness, and pray God [s]if perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven you. 23For I see that you are [t]poisoned by bitterness and bound by iniquity."

24Then Simon answered and said, [u]"Pray to the Lord for me, that none of the things which you have spoken may come upon me."

25So when they had testified and

7:59–60 Death—Scripture affirms, and experience confirms, the universality of death. It comes to kings and commoners, saints and sinners alike. Christians die, as well as unbelievers. No one likes to think of dying violently, but Stephen's death shows that even this end can be met with courage and peace. In both life and death Stephen sought to imitate his Lord, and he departed without resentment, praying for the pardon of his foes.

8:5 Samaria. In the first century, the Jews and Samaritans despised one another. The Jews considered the Samaritans half-breeds and religious deviants. Following the fall of the northern kingdom of Israel in 722 B.C., Samaria had been resettled by colonists brought to the land by the Assyrians. These colonists intermarried with the remaining Jews, and the Samaritans of the New Testament era were descendants of these mixed marriages. Because of their mixed heritage and their rejection of the temple in Jerusalem and most of the Old Testament Scriptures (the Samaritans only accepted the five books of Moses), the Jews considered them to be unclean. The amazing work of the Holy Spirit in forming one fellowship out of Jewish and Samaritan believers indicates that there is no room for racial or ethnic division in His church (Gal. 3:26–28).

8:14–15 that they might receive the Holy Spirit. This episode clearly showed the Samaritans that salvation did come through the Jews, and that the Scriptures they had previously rejected were actually God's message. It also showed the Jewish believers that God had accepted the Samaritan believers fully into His family. The dependence of the Samaritans upon the Jews to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit was the healing sign that the two sides were to become one.

preached the word of the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem, preaching the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

Christ Is Preached to an Ethiopian

26 Now an angel of the Lord spoke to [v]Philip, saying, "Arise and go toward the south along the road which goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." This is desert. 27 So he arose and went. And behold, [w]a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace the queen of the Ethiopians, who had charge of all her treasury, and [x]had come to Jerusalem to worship, 28 was returning. And sitting in his chariot, he was reading Isaiah the prophet. 29 Then the Spirit said to Philip, "Go near and overtake this chariot."

30 So Philip ran to him, and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

31 And he said, "How can I, unless someone guides me?" And he asked Philip to come up and sit with him. 32 The place in the Scripture which he read was this:

[y]"He was led as a sheep to the slaughter;
And as a lamb before its shearer is silent,
[z]So He opened not His mouth.
33 In His humiliation His [a]justice was taken away,
And who will declare His generation?
For His life is [b]taken from the earth."*

34 So the eunuch answered Philip and said, "I ask you, of whom does the prophet say this, of himself or of some other man?" 35 Then Philip opened his mouth, [c]and beginning at this Scripture, preached Jesus to him. 36 Now as they went down the road, they came to some water. And the eunuch said, "See, here is water. [d]What hinders me from being baptized?"

37 Then Philip said, [e]"If you believe with all your heart, you may."

And he answered and said, [f]"I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God."*

38 So he commanded the chariot to stand still. And both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and he baptized him. 39 Now when they came up out of the water, [g]the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, so that the eunuch saw him no more; and he went on his way rejoicing. 40 But Philip was found at Azotus. And passing through, he preached in all the cities till he came to [h]Caesarea.

The Damascus Road: Saul Converted

9 Then [a]Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest 2 and asked [b]letters from him to the synagogues of Damascus, so that if he found any who were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.

3 [c]As he journeyed he came near Damascus, and suddenly a light shone around him from heaven. 4 Then he fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, [d]why are you persecuting Me?"

5 And he said, "Who are You, Lord?"

Then the Lord said, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.* It is hard for you to kick against the goads."

6 So he, trembling and astonished, said, "Lord, what do You want me to do?"

Then the Lord said to him, "Arise and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do."

8:27 had come to Jerusalem to worship. Many Gentiles in the first century had grown weary of the multiple gods and loose morals of their own cultures. In their search for something more, some of them came to Judaism. One who accepted Judaism, obeying all the law of Moses (including circumcision and baptism), was called a proselyte. Gentiles who did not become proselytes but did attend the Jewish synagogues to listen to the Scriptures were called God-fearers. We cannot be sure which category the Ethiopian eunuch fell into.

8:35 preached Jesus to him. First-century Jews did not speak much about a suffering Messiah. The Jewish people, facing the yoke of Roman rule, believed that the Messiah would come as the Lion of Judah, a delivering king, not a weak lamb. They believed and taught that the suffering One spoken of by Isaiah was the suffering nation of Israel. Philip's explanation of the passage gave a very different view, showing Jesus as the Messiah who came to suffer and die in order to redeem sinners.

9:2 synagogues. The early Jewish believers in Jesus were still attending the synagogues, gathering places where Jews came together to hear the Scriptures read and expounded upon. Part of Saul's mission was apparently to let the Damascus synagogues know beyond any doubt that the followers of "the Way" did not have the approval of the Sanhedrin.

9:4–5 Messiah—Apparently unimpressed by the witness of the dying Stephen (7:59), Saul needed a more serious, personal jolt to awaken his spiritual awareness. The light that blinded Saul prepared him to receive the True Light that came into the world to dispel the darkness of sin. This personal encounter with the risen Christ changed Saul from a fire-breathing persecutor into a dynamic preacher who was not ashamed to publicly claim the crucified Man from Galilee as his Lord and Savior.

7And [e]the men who journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice but seeing no one. 8Then Saul arose from the ground, and when his eyes were opened he saw no one. But they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. 9And he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

Ananias Baptizes Saul

10Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus [f]named Ananias; and to him the Lord said in a vision, "Ananias."

And he said, "Here I am, Lord."

11So the Lord said to him, "Arise and go to the street called Straight, and inquire at the house of Judas for one called Saul [g]of Tarsus, for behold, he is praying. 12And in a vision he has seen a man named Ananias coming in and putting his hand on him, so that he might receive his sight."

13Then Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, [h]how much harm he has done to Your saints in Jerusalem. 14And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all [i]who call on Your name."

15But the Lord said to him, "Go, for [j]he is a chosen vessel of Mine to bear My name
before [k]Gentiles, [l]kings, and the [m]children of Israel. 16For [n]I will show him how many things he must suffer for My [o]name's sake."

17[p]And Ananias went his way and entered the house; and [q]laying his hands on him he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus,* who appeared to you on the road as you came,
has sent me that you may receive your sight
and [r]be filled with the Holy Spirit." 18Immediately there fell from his eyes something like scales, and he received his sight at once;
and he arose and was baptized.

19So when he had received food, he was strengthened. [s]Then Saul spent some days
with the disciples at Damascus.

Saul Preaches Christ

20Immediately he preached the Christ* in the synagogues, that He is the Son of God.

21Then all who heard were amazed, and said, [t]"Is this not he who destroyed those who called on this name in Jerusalem, and has come here for that purpose, so that he might bring them bound to the chief priests?"

22But Saul increased all the more in strength, [u]and confounded the Jews who dwelt in Damascus, proving that this Jesus is the Christ.

Saul Escapes Death

23Now after many days were past, [v]the Jews plotted to kill him. 24[w]But their plot became known to Saul. And they watched the gates day and night, to kill him. 25Then
the disciples took him by night and [x]let him
down through the wall in a large basket.

Saul at Jerusalem

26And [y]when Saul had come to Jerusalem, he tried to join the disciples; but they were all afraid of him, and did not believe that he was a disciple. 27[z]But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles. And he declared to them how he had seen the Lord on the road, and that He had spoken to him, [a]and how he had preached boldly
at Damascus in the name of Jesus. 28So [b]he was with them at Jerusalem, coming in and going out. 29And he spoke boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus and disputed against the [c]Hellenists, [d]but they attempted to kill him. 30When the brethren found out,
they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him out to Tarsus.

The Church Prospers

31[e]Then the churches* throughout all Judea, Galilee, and Samaria had peace and were [f]edified. And walking in the [g]fear of the Lord and in the [h]comfort of the Holy Spirit, they were [i]multiplied.

Aeneas Healed

32Now it came to pass, as Peter went [j]through all parts of the country, that he also came down to the saints who dwelt in Lydda. 33There he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden eight years and was paralyzed. 34And Peter said to him, "Aeneas, [k]Jesus the Christ heals you. Arise and make your bed." Then he arose immediately. 35So all who dwelt at 9:17 Jesus, who appeared to you. Saul was not dreaming on the road to Damascus but instead had seen the resurrected Lord.

9:30 Tarsus. Saul's hometown was about three hundred miles north of Jerusalem and about ten miles inland from the Mediterranean Sea. Tarsus was a well-known university city, surpassed in educational opportunities only by Athens and Alexandria.

9:31 peace. This peace was not due solely to Saul's conversion. Tiberius, the emperor of Rome, died around this time. He was replaced by Caligula, who wanted to erect a statue of himself in the temple at Jerusalem. The attention of the Jewish religious leaders was directed towards this new threat, and the emerging church was given a short season of respite.

Dorcas Restored to Life

36At Joppa there was a certain disciple named Tabitha, which is translated Dorcas. This woman was full [n]of good works and charitable deeds which she did. 37But it happened in those days that she became sick and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in [o]an upper room. 38And since Lydda was near Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent two men to him, imploring him not to delay in coming to them. 39Then Peter arose and went with them. When he had come, they brought him to the upper room. And all the widows stood by him weeping, showing the tunics and garments which Dorcas had made while she was with them. 40But Peter [p]put them all out, and [q]knelt down and prayed. And turning to the body he [r]said, "Tabitha, arise." And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter she sat up. 41Then he gave her his hand and lifted her up; and when he had called the saints and widows, he presented her alive. 42And it became known throughout all Joppa, [s]and many believed on the Lord. 43So it was that he stayed many days in Joppa with [t]Simon, a tanner.

Cornelius Sends a Delegation

10 There was a certain man in [a]Caesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of what was called the Italian Regiment, 2[b]a devout man and one who [c]feared God with all his household, who gave alms generously to the people, and prayed to God always. 3About the ninth hour of the day [d]he saw clearly in a vision an angel of God coming in and saying to him, "Cornelius!"

4And when he observed him, he was afraid, and said, "What is it, lord?"

So he said to him, "Your prayers and your alms have come up for a memorial before God. 5Now [e]send men to Joppa, and send for Simon whose surname is Peter. 6He is lodging with [f]Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea.* [g]He will tell you what you must do." 7And when the angel who spoke to him had departed, Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier from among those who waited on him continually. 8So when he had explained all these things to them, he sent them to Joppa.

Peter's Vision

9The next day, as they went on their journey and drew near the city, [h]Peter went up on the housetop to pray, about the sixth hour. 10Then he became very hungry and wanted to eat; but while they made ready, he fell into a trance 11and [i]saw heaven opened and an object like a great sheet bound at the four corners, descending to him and let down to the earth. 12In it were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, creeping things, and birds of the air. 13And a voice came to him, "Rise, Peter; kill and eat."

14But Peter said, "Not so, Lord! [j]For I have never eaten anything common or unclean."

15And a voice spoke to him again the second time, [k]"What God has cleansed you must not call common." 16This was done three times. And the object was taken up into heaven again.

Summoned to Caesarea

17Now while Peter wondered within himself what this vision which he had seen meant, behold, the men who had been sent from Cornelius had made inquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate. 18And they called and asked whether Simon, whose surname was Peter, was lodging there.

19While Peter thought about the vision, [l]the Spirit said to him, "Behold, three men are seeking you. 20[m]Arise therefore, go down and go with them, doubting nothing; for I have sent them."

21Then Peter went down to the men who had been sent to him from Cornelius,* and said, "Yes, I am he whom you seek. For what reason have you come?"

22And they said, "Cornelius the centurion, a just man, one who fears God and [n]has a good reputation among all the nation of 10:1—11:18 The following two chapters mark an important turning point in the Book of Acts. Those who were scattered by persecution from Jerusalem had been preaching the gospel only to Jews (11:19). At this point, they began to overcome their prejudices and carry the message of Christ to the Gentiles.

10:6 Simon, a tanner. God cut away Peter's prejudices by having him stay for many days with one whose trade Peter likely considered repulsive. Since a tanner (one who makes leather) is constantly working with animals dead from various causes, he would spend much of his life ceremonially "unclean."

10:15 What God has cleansed you must not call common. Food may have been his first consideration, but Peter would soon understand the greater message. The vision was a sign from heaven that Jews were no longer to call Gentiles unclean.

the Jews, was divinely instructed by a holy angel to summon you to his house, and to hear words from you." 23Then he invited them in and lodged them.

On the next day Peter went away with them, [o]and some brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

Peter Meets Cornelius

24And the following day they entered Caesarea. Now Cornelius was waiting for them, and had called together his relatives and close friends. 25As Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him and fell down at his feet and worshiped him. 26But Peter lifted him up, saying, [p]"Stand up; I myself am also a man." 27And as he talked with him, he went in and found many who had come together. 28Then he said to them, "You know how [q]unlawful it is for a Jewish man to keep company with or go to one of another nation. But [r]God has shown me that I should not call any man common or unclean. 29Therefore I came without objection as soon as I was sent for. I ask, then, for what reason have you sent for me?"

30So Cornelius said, "Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour* I prayed in my house, and behold, [s]a man stood before me [t]in bright clothing, 31and said, 'Cornelius, [u]your prayer has been heard, and [v]your alms are remembered in the sight of God. 32Send therefore to Joppa and call Simon here, whose surname is Peter. He is lodging in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the sea.* When he comes, he will speak to you.' 33So I sent to you immediately, and you have done well to come. Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God."

Preaching to Cornelius' Household

34Then Peter opened his mouth and said: [w]"In truth I perceive that God shows no partiality. 35But [x]in every nation whoever fears Him and works righteousness is [y]accepted by Him. 36The word which God sent to the children of Israel, [z]preaching peace through Jesus Christ—[a]He is Lord of all— 37that word you know, which was proclaimed throughout all Judea, and [b]began from Galilee after the baptism which John preached: 38how [c]God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, who [d]went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, [e]for God was with Him. 39And we are [f]witnesses of all things which He did both in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem, whom they* [g]killed by hanging on a tree. 40Him [h]God raised up on the third day, and showed Him openly, 41[i]not to all the people, but to witnesses chosen before by God, even to us [j]who ate and drank with Him after He arose from the dead. 42And [k]He commanded us to preach to the people, and to testify [l]that it is He who was ordained by God to be Judge [m]of the living and the dead. 43[n]To Him all the prophets witness that, through His name, [o]whoever believes in Him will receive [p]remission of sins."

The Holy Spirit Falls on the Gentiles

44While Peter was still speaking these words, [q]the Holy Spirit fell upon all those who heard the word. 45[r]And those of the circumcision who believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, [s]because the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out on the Gentiles also. 46For they heard them speak with tongues and magnify God.

Then Peter answered, 47"Can anyone forbid water, that these should not be baptized who have received the Holy Spirit [t]just as we have?" 48[u]And he commanded them to be baptized [v]in the name of the Lord. Then they asked him to stay a few days.

Peter Defends God's Grace

11 Now the apostles and brethren who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God. 2And when Peter came up to Jerusalem, [a]those of the circumcision contended with him, 3saying, [b]"You went in to uncircumcised men [c]and ate with them!"

4But Peter explained it to them [d]in order from the beginning, saying: 5[e]"I was in the city of Joppa praying; and in a trance I saw a vision, an object descending like a great sheet, let down from heaven by

10:44 the Holy Spirit fell upon all those who heard the word. Following the plan laid out by Jesus before His ascension (1:8), the good news had reached the Jews, the Samaritans, and now the Gentiles. All were united by the same faith in the same Lord with the same gift of the Holy Spirit.

11:2 those of the circumcision. This term refers to Jewish believers in Jesus who taught that Gentiles had to become Jews (be circumcised and keep the law of Moses) in order to become Christians.

four corners; and it came to me. 6When I observed it intently and considered, I saw four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, creeping things, and birds of the air. 7And I heard a voice saying to me, 'Rise, Peter; kill and eat.' 8But I said, 'Not so, Lord! For nothing common or unclean has at any time entered my mouth.' 9But the voice answered me again from heaven, 'What God has cleansed you must not call common.' 10Now this was done three times, and all were drawn up again into heaven. 11At that very moment, three men stood before the house where I was, having been sent to me from Caesarea. 12Then [f]the Spirit told me to go with them, doubting nothing. Moreover [g]these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered the man's house. 13[h]And he told us how he had seen an angel standing in his house, who said to him, 'Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter, 14who will tell you words by which you and all your household will be saved.' 15And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them, [i]as upon us at the beginning. 16Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how He said, [j]'John indeed baptized with water, but [k]you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit.' 17[l]If therefore God gave them the same gift as He gave us when we believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, [m]who was I that I could withstand God?"

18When they heard these things they became silent; and they glorified God, saying, [n]"Then God has also granted to the Gentiles repentance to life."

Barnabas and Saul at Antioch

19[o]Now those who were scattered after the persecution that arose over Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to no one but the Jews only. 20But some of them were men from Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to [p]the Hellenists, preaching the Lord Jesus. 21And [q]the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and [r]turned to the Lord.

22Then news of these things came to the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent out [s]Barnabas to go as far as Antioch. 23When he came and had seen the grace of God, he was glad, and [t]encouraged them all that with purpose of heart they should continue with the Lord. 24For he was a good man, [u]full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. [v]And a great many people were added to the Lord.

25Then Barnabas departed for [w]Tarsus to seek Saul. 26And when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. So it was that for a whole year they assembled with the church and taught a great many people. And the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.

Relief to Judea

27And in these days [x]prophets came from Jerusalem to Antioch. 28Then one of them, named [y]Agabus, stood up and showed by the Spirit that there was going to be a great famine throughout all the world, which also happened in the days of [z]Claudius Caesar. 29Then the disciples, each according to his ability, determined to send [a]relief to the brethren dwelling in Judea. 30[b]This they also did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

Herod's Violence to the Church

12 Now about that time Herod the king stretched out his hand to harass some from the church. 2Then he killed James [a]the brother of John with the sword. 3And because he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to seize Peter also. Now it was during [b]the Days of Unleavened Bread. 4So [c]when he had arrested him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four squads of soldiers to keep him, intending to bring him before the people after Passover.

11:16 baptized with the Holy Spirit. This is found seven times in the New Testament (1:5; Matt. 3:11; Mark 1:8; Luke 3:16; John 1:33; 1 Cor. 12:13) and refers to an act by Christ for believers.

11:22–23 Antioch. Seleucus I founded the city of Antioch, naming it after his father. The city was cosmopolitan, attracting people of various cultures and ethnic backgrounds—including people from Persia, India, and even China. The gospel proclaimed in Antioch would have tremendous potential for reaching other areas of the world.

11:26 called Christians. Originally, the believers had called themselves "followers of the Way." Although the term "Christian" was apparently given to them by nonbelievers, they adopted it for themselves. Its essential meaning, "Christ-follower" is appropriate for those who have given their lives into the keeping of Jesus, the Messiah.

11:29–30 Benevolence—Christians must exercise responsibility and charity (love) towards all men, and especially to other believers (Gal. 6:10). The Christians at Antioch are an example of well implemented Christian giving. All gave in accordance with their means (2 Cor. 8:3). The gifts were placed in the charge of trustworthy Christians (2 Cor. 8:20–21), who could ensure a responsible delivery and administration of the gifts.

12:1–3 Herod the king. This is Herod Agrippa I, the nephew of Herod Antipas who murdered John the

Peter Freed from Prison

5 Peter was therefore kept in prison, but constant* prayer was offered to God for him by the church. 6 And when Herod was about to bring him out, that night Peter was sleeping, bound with two chains between two soldiers; and the guards before the door were keeping the prison. 7 Now behold, [d]an angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shone in the prison; and he struck Peter on the side and raised him up, saying, "Arise quickly!" And his chains fell off his hands. 8 Then the angel said to him, "Gird yourself and tie on your sandals"; and so he did. And he said to him,
"Put on your garment and follow me." 9 So he went out and followed him, and [e]did not know that what was done by the angel was real, but thought [f]he was seeing a vision.
10 When they were past the first and the second guard posts, they came to the iron gate that leads to the city, [g]which opened to them of its own accord; and they went out and went down one street, and immediately the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter had come to himself,
he said, "Now I know for certain that [h]the Lord has sent His angel, and [i]has delivered me from the hand of Herod and from all the expectation of the Jewish people."

12 So, when he had considered this, [j]he came to the house of Mary, the mother of [k]John whose surname was Mark, where many were gathered together [l]praying.
13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a girl named Rhoda came to answer.
14 When she recognized Peter's voice, because of her gladness she did not open the gate, but ran in and announced that Peter stood before the gate. 15 But they said to her,
"You are beside yourself!" Yet she kept insisting that it was so. So they said, [m]"It is his angel."

16 Now Peter continued knocking; and when they opened the door and saw him,
they were astonished. 17 But [n]motioning to them with his hand to keep silent, he declared to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, "Go, tell these things to James and to the brethren." And he departed and went to another place.

18 Then, as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers about what had become of Peter. 19 But when Herod had searched for him and not found him, he examined the guards and commanded that they should be put to death.

And he went down from Judea to Caesarea, and stayed there.

Herod's Violent Death

20 Now Herod had been very angry with the people of [o]Tyre and Sidon; but they came to him with one accord, and having made Blastus the king's personal aide their friend, they asked for peace, because [p]their country was supplied with food by the king's country.

21 So on a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat on his throne and gave an oration to them. 22 And the people kept shouting, "The voice of a god and not of a man!" 23 Then immediately an angel of the Lord [q]struck him, because [r]he did not give glory to God. And he was eaten by worms and died.

24 But [s]the word of God grew and multiplied.

Barnabas and Saul Appointed

25 And [t]Barnabas and Saul returned from* Jerusalem when they had [u]fulfilled their ministry, and they also [v]took with them [w]John whose surname was Mark.

13 Now [a]in the church that was at Antioch there were certain prophets and teachers: [b]Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, [c]Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. 2 As they ministered to the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, [d]"Now separate to Me Barnabas and Saul
for the work [e]to which I have called them."
3 Then, [f]having fasted and prayed, and laid hands on them, they sent them away.

Baptist, and the grandson of Herod the Great who had the children of Bethlehem put to death in his search for Jesus. Herod was not a Jew but an Edomite. The Jews resented the fact that a son of Edom was given the position of king of the Jews.

12:11 delivered me from the hand of Herod. Why was Peter's life spared while James' life was taken? The answer is the sovereign will of God. If we believe that God is good and wise, we can trust that what He allowed to happen was part of His wise plan for the good of all His people.

12:22 The voice of a god. The Jewish historian Josephus also provides an account of this display, informing us that in an attempted appeasement of the king the people confessed that he was "more than mortal."

13:2–4 Holy Spirit—God reveals His will to those who are sensitive to His leading. The believers in Antioch heard from the Lord as they were praying and fasting. Most often, God does not speak to us out of the blue. He speaks to us when we are listening. The Holy Spirit gave distinct direction to the listening, sensitive believers of the first century, and He leads believers in the same way today.

13:3 laid hands on them. The laying on of hands was

Preaching in Cyprus

4So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit,
they went down to Seleucia, and from there they sailed to [g]Cyprus. 5And when they arrived in Salamis, [h]they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. They also had [i]John as their assistant.

6Now when they had gone through the island* to Paphos, they found [j]a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew whose name was Bar-Jesus, 7who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. This man called for Barnabas and Saul and sought to hear the word of God.
8But [k]Elymas the sorcerer (for so his name is translated) withstood them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith.
9Then Saul, who also is called Paul, [l]filled with the Holy Spirit, looked intently at him 10and said, "O full of all deceit and all fraud, [m]you son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease
perverting the straight ways of the Lord?
11And now, indeed, [n]the hand of the Lord is upon you, and you shall be blind, not seeing the sun for a time."

And immediately a dark mist fell on him, and he went around seeking someone to lead him by the hand. 12Then the procon-sul believed, when he saw what had been done, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

At Antioch in Pisidia

13Now when Paul and his party set sail
from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia; and [o]John, departing from them, returned to Jerusalem. 14But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and [p]went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day and sat down. 15And [q]after the reading of the Law and the Prophets,
the rulers of the synagogue sent to them,
saying, "Men and brethren, if you have [r]any word of exhortation for the people, say on."

16Then Paul stood up, and motioning
with his hand said, "Men of Israel, and [s]you who fear God, listen: 17The God of this people Israel* [t]chose our fathers, and exalted
the people [u]when they dwelt as strangers
in the land of Egypt, and with an uplifted arm He [v]brought them out of it. 18Now [w]for a time of about forty years He put up with their ways in the wilderness. 19And when He had destroyed [x]seven nations in the land of Canaan, [y]He distributed their land
to them by allotment.

20"After that [z]He gave them judges for about four hundred and fifty years, [a]until Samuel the prophet. 21[b]And afterward they asked for a king; so God gave them [c]Saul
the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years. 22And [d]when He had removed him, [e]He raised up for them David as king, to whom also He gave testimony and said, [f]'*I have found David the son of Jesse, [g]a man after My own heart, who will do all My will.'* 23[h]From this man's seed,
according [i]to the promise, God raised up for Israel [j]a Savior—Jesus—* 24[k]after John had first preached, before His coming, the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. 25And as John was finishing his course, he said, [l]'Who do you think I am? I am not He. But behold, [m]there comes One after me, the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to loose.'

26"Men and brethren, sons of the family of Abraham, and [n]those among you who fear God, [o]to you the word of this salvation
has been sent. 27For those who dwell in Jerusalem, and their rulers, [p]because they did not know Him, nor even the voices of the Prophets which are read every Sabbath, have fulfilled them in condemning
Him. 28[q]And though they found no cause for death in Him, they asked Pilate that He should be put to death. 29[r]Now when they had fulfilled all that was written concerning Him, [s]they took Him down from the tree and laid Him in a tomb. 30[t]But God raised Him from the dead. 31[u]He was seen for many days by those who came up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are His witnesses to the people. 32And we declare to you glad tidings—[v]that promise which was made to the fathers. 33God has fulfilled this for us their children, in that He has raised up Jesus. As it is also written in the second Psalm:

*Today I have begotten You.'

13:6–12 Sergius Paulus. Luke presents this man as the first Gentile ruler to believe the gospel. There is no evidence that Sergius Paulus was a God-fearer or had ever shown any interest in Judaism prior to this time. This pagan government official was amazed at the power of God and believed the truth.

Man is preached to you the forgiveness of sins; 39 and [b] by Him everyone who believes is justified from all things from which you could not be justified by the law of Moses.

ken in the prophets come upon you:

A work which you will by no means believe,

Blessing and Conflict at Antioch

42 So when the Jews went out of the synagogue,* the Gentiles begged that these words might be preached to them the next Sabbath. 43 Now when the congregation had broken up, many of the Jews and devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who, speaking to them, [d] persuaded them to continue in [e] the grace of God.

44 On the next Sabbath almost the whole city came together to hear the word of God.
45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes,
they were filled with envy; and contradicting and blaspheming, they [f] opposed the things spoken by Paul. 46 Then Paul and Barnabas grew bold and said, [g] "It was necessary that the word of God should be spoken to you first; but [h] since you reject
it, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, behold, [i] we turn to the Gentiles.
47 For so the Lord has commanded us:

[j] 'I have set you as a light to the Gentiles,
That you should be for salvation to the *ends of the earth.'"

48 Now when the Gentiles heard this,
they were glad and glorified the word of the Lord. [k] And as many as had been appointed to eternal life believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was being spread throughout all the region. 50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and prominent women and the chief men of the city, [l] raised up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their region. 51 [m] But they shook off the dust from their feet against them, and came to Iconium. 52 And the disciples [n] were filled with joy and [o] with the Holy Spirit.

At Iconium

14 Now it happened in Iconium that they went together to the synagogue of the Jews, and so spoke that a great multitude both of the Jews and of the [a] Greeks believed. 2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brethren. 3 Therefore they stayed there a long time, speaking boldly
in the Lord, [b] who was bearing witness to the word of His grace, granting signs and [c] wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was [d] divided: part sided with the Jews, and part with the [e] apostles. 5 And when a violent attempt was made by both the Gentiles and Jews,
with their rulers, [f] to abuse and stone them,
6 they became aware of it and [g] fled to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and to the surrounding region. 7 And they were preaching the gospel there.

Idolatry at Lystra

8 [h] And in Lystra a certain man without strength in his feet was sitting, a cripple
from his mother's womb, who had never walked. 9 This man heard Paul speaking.

13:39 everyone who believes is justified from all things. "Justified" is a technical legal term declaring that a person is acquitted and absolved. Because of Jesus' death on the cross, our sin debt has been paid. Everyone who accepts this payment is justified before God, considered righteous through the blood of Christ.

13:45 the Jews. When Luke refers to "the Jews," he is not speaking of all Jewish people, but rather of the Jewish religious establishment, which opposed the gospel.

13:52 Joy—The pursuit of happiness doesn't always lead to the possession of joy. Joy does not come from circumstances but from the presence of God. It is a fruit of the Spirit, poured into a believer's life by the grace of God. The believers in this passage were not filled with joy because their lives were comfortable, or because they were wealthy or powerful, but because they saw God working and had His Holy Spirit in their lives.

Paul, observing him intently and seeing that he had faith to be healed, 10said with a loud voice, [i]"Stand up straight on your feet!" And he leaped and walked. 11Now
when the people saw what Paul had done,
they raised their voices, saying in the Ly-caonian language, [j]"The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!" 12And Barnabas they called Zeus, and Paul, Hermes, because he was the chief speaker.
13Then the priest of Zeus, whose temple was in front of their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, [k]intending to sacrifice with the multitudes.

14But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard this, [l]they tore their clothes
and ran in among the multitude, crying out 15and saying, "Men, [m]why are you doing these things? [n]We also are men with the same nature as you, and preach to you that you should turn from [o]these useless things [p]to the living God, [q]who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and all things that are in them, 16[r]who in bygone generations allowed all nations to walk in their own ways. 17[s]Nevertheless He did not leave Himself without witness, in that He did good, [t]gave us rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with [u]food
and gladness." 18And with these sayings
they could scarcely restrain the multitudes
from sacrificing to them.

Stoning, Escape to Derbe

19[v]Then Jews from Antioch and Iconium came there; and having persuaded the multitudes, [w]they stoned Paul and dragged him
out of the city, supposing him to be [x]dead.
20However, when the disciples gathered around him, he rose up and went into the city. And the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

Strengthening the Converts

21And when they had preached the gospel to that city [y]and made many disciples,
they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch, 22strengthening the souls of the disciples, [z]exhorting them to continue in the faith, and saying, [a]"We must through many tribulations enter the kingdom of God." 23So when they had [b]appointed elders in every church, and prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord in whom they had believed. 24And after they had passed through Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.
25Now when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia. 26From
there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God
for the work which they had completed.

27Now when they had come and gathered the church together, [c]they reported all that God had done with them, and that He had [d]opened the door of faith to the Gentiles. 28So they stayed there a long time with the disciples.

Conflict over Circumcision

15 And [a]certain men came down from Judea and taught the brethren, [b]"Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved." 2Therefore, when Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and dispute with them,
they determined that [c]Paul and Barnabas and certain others of them should go up to Jerusalem, to the apostles and elders,
about this question.

3So, [d]being sent on their way by the church, they passed through Phoenicia
and Samaria, [e]describing the conversion of the Gentiles; and they caused great joy
to all the brethren. 4And when they had come to Jerusalem, they were received by the church and the apostles and the elders;
and they reported all things that God had done with them. 5But some of the sect of the Pharisees who believed rose up, saying, "It is necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses."

The Jerusalem Council

6Now the apostles and elders came together to consider this matter. 7And when there had been much dispute, Peter rose up and said to them: [f]"Men and brethren,
you know that a good while ago God chose among us, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel and believe. 8So God, [g]who knows the heart, acknowledged them by [h]giving them the Holy Spirit, just as He did to us, 9[i]and made no distinction between us and them, [j]purifying their hearts by faith. 10Now therefore,

14:11 The gods have come down. The Roman poet Ovid told of an ancient legend in which Zeus and Hermes came to the Phrygian hill country disguised as mortals seeking lodging. After being turned away from a thousand homes, they found refuge in the humble cottage of an elderly couple. In appreciation for the couple's hospitality, the gods transformed the cottage into a splendid temple and then destroyed all the houses of the inhospitable people. The people probably remembered this ancient legend, and wanted to make sure they did not make the same mistake their ancestors did.

14:23 appointed elders. The process outlined in 6:1–7 for selecting the seven men to serve the Jerusalem believers may provide a clue to the process used for selecting elders here. Both the assembly and the apostles were involved in the selection process.

why do you test God [k]by putting a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? 11But [l]we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ* we shall be saved in the same manner as they."

12Then all the multitude kept silent and listened to Barnabas and Paul declaring how many miracles and wonders God had [m]worked through them among the Gentiles. 13And after they had become silent, [n]James answered, saying, "Men and brethren, listen to me: 14[o]Simon has declared how God at the first visited the Gentiles to take out of them a people for His name. 15And with this the words of the prophets agree, just as it is written:

16 'After[p] this I will return
And will rebuild the tabernacle of David, which has fallen down;
I will rebuild its ruins,
And I will set it up;
17 So that the rest of mankind may seek
the LORD,
Even all the Gentiles who are called by
My name,
Says the LORD who does all these
*things.'

18"Known to God from eternity are all His works.* 19Therefore [q]I judge that we should not trouble those from among the Gentiles who [r]are turning to God, 20but that we [s]write to them to abstain [t]from things polluted by idols, [u]from sexual immorality,* [v]from things strangled, and from blood. 21For Moses has had throughout many generations those who preach him in every city, [w]being read in the synagogues every Sabbath."

The Jerusalem Decree

22Then it pleased the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas, namely, Judas who was also named [x]Barsabas,* and Silas, leading men among the brethren.

23They wrote this letter by them:

The apostles, the elders, and the brethren,

To the brethren who are of the Gentiles in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia:

Greetings.

24 Since we have heard that [y]some who went out from us have troubled you with words, [z]unsettling your souls, saying, "You must be circumcised and keep the law"*—to whom we gave no such commandment— 25it seemed good to us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, 26[a]men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 27We have therefore sent Judas and Silas, who will also report the same things by word of mouth. 28For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things: 29[b]that you abstain from things offered to idols, [c]from blood, from things strangled, and from [d]sexual immorality.* If you keep yourselves from these, you will do well.

Farewell.

15:11 through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved. These are the last words of Peter in the Book of Acts. He leaves us with the eternal truth that we are saved through faith by grace alone. The emphasis in the narrative now moves from Peter to Paul, and his outreach to the Gentiles.

15:13 James. James was the leader of the church in Jerusalem until he was stoned to death at the insistence of the high priest in A.D. 62. It is believed that this James is the Lord's brother, the son of Mary and Joseph, who did not believe until the Lord appeared to him privately after the Resurrection (1 Cor. 15:7).

15:19–20 abstain from things polluted by idols. The Jerusalem council understood that it was not necessary for Gentiles to keep the whole of the law in order to be believers in Jesus, but also recognized that they did not have the background of moral teaching the Jewish believers had. They needed both reassurance as to their acceptance as true Christians and teaching for a godly life. In looking at the present application of these requirements, it is important to remember that Acts is a transitional book, documenting the beginning of the Christian movement. Sexual purity and food regulations are both addressed more thoroughly elsewhere in the New Testament (1 Cor. 6–8).

15:20 Fornication—Illicit sexual relationships were not a matter of shame or sin among the Gentiles as they were among the Jews. In fact, many pagan religious practices included prostitution and sexual orgies. This made the need for teaching on sexual purity doubly urgent for the new Gentile believers. They would be constantly presented with temptation, not only for sexual sin but for returning to their old ways of worship. They needed to hear God's strict prohibition of such behavior.

the multitude together, they delivered the letter. 31When they had read it, they rejoiced over its encouragement. 32Now Judas and Silas, themselves being [e]prophets also, [f]exhorted and strengthened the brethren with many words. 33And after they had stayed there for a time, they were [g]sent back with greetings from the brethren to the apostles.*

34However, it seemed good to Silas to remain there.* 35[h]Paul and Barnabas also remained in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

Division over John Mark

36Then after some days Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us now go back and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they are doing." 37Now Barnabas was determined to take with them [i]John called Mark. 38But Paul insisted that they should not take with them [j]the one who had departed from them in Pamphylia, and had not gone with them to the work. 39Then the contention became so sharp that they parted from one another. And so Barnabas took Mark and sailed to [k]Cyprus; 40but Paul chose Silas and departed, [l]being commended by the brethren to the grace of God. 41And he went through Syria and Cilicia, [m]strengthening the churches.

Timothy Joins Paul and Silas

16 Then he came to [a]Derbe and Lystra. And behold, a certain disciple was there, [b]named Timothy, [c]the son of a certain Jewish woman who believed, but his father was Greek. 2He was well spoken of by the brethren who were at Lystra and Iconium. 3Paul wanted to have him go on with him. And he [d]took him and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in that region, for they all knew that his father was Greek. 4And as they went through the cities, they delivered to them the [e]decrees to keep, [f]which were determined by the apostles and elders at Jerusalem. 5[g]So the churches were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number daily.

The Macedonian Call

6Now when they had gone through Phrygia and the region of [h]Galatia, they were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to preach the word in Asia. 7After they had come to Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit* did not permit them. 8So passing by Mysia, they [i]came down to Troas. 9And a vision appeared to Paul in the night. A [j]man of Macedonia stood and pleaded with him, saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." 10Now after he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go [k]to Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to preach the gospel to them.

Lydia Baptized at Philippi

11Therefore, sailing from Troas, we ran a straight course to Samothrace, and the next day came to Neapolis, 12and from there to [l]Philippi, which is the foremost city of that part of Macedonia, a colony. And we were staying in that city for some days. 13And on the Sabbath day we went out of the city to the riverside, where prayer was customarily made; and we sat down and spoke to the women who met there. 14Now a certain woman named Lydia heard us. She was a seller of purple from the city of [m]Thyatira, who worshiped God. [n]The Lord opened her heart to heed the things spoken by Paul. 15And when she and her household were baptized, she begged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come to my house and stay." So [o]she persuaded us.

* 15:33 NU-Text reads to those who had sent them.
* 15:34 NU-Text and M-Text omit this verse.
* 16:7 NU-Text adds of Jesus.

15:39 that they parted from one another. Even though Paul and Barnabas had a heated disagreement, it is important to note that they did not bring their disagreement into the church fellowship, forcing others to take sides and causing more dissension. Instead, they simply parted ways, each continuing to faithfully serve the Lord. Later, the disagreement was apparently resolved, for Paul wrote to Timothy when he was imprisoned, asking for Mark to be sent to him, "for he is useful to me for ministry" (2 Tim. 4:11).

16:3 circumcised him. According to Jewish law, Timothy should have been circumcised and raised a Jew, even with a Gentile father. For whatever reason, this had not happened, and the fact that he was an uncircumcised Jew would limit his effectiveness with Jewish Christians. The issue was not law but effectiveness.

16:12 Philippi. Named after the father of Alexander the Great, Philippi was a Roman colony loyal to the empire. The city itself was organized by the state of Rome and functioned as a military outpost. Because of its proximity to the sea as well as to one of the major roads to Europe, Philippi was a commercial center in Macedonia. Its influence throughout the region made it a good place to begin preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ.

16:13 where prayer was customarily made. According to Jewish custom, a congregation consisted of ten households. If ten male household heads could be found in a city, a synagogue was formed. If not, a place of prayer was established. Philippi did not have a synagogue, but Paul was still able to find the God-fearers of the city.

Paul and Silas Imprisoned

16 Now it happened, as we went to prayer,
that a certain slave girl [p]possessed with a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters [q]much profit by fortune-telling.
17 This girl followed Paul and us, and cried out, saying, "These men are the servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to us
the way of salvation." 18 And this she did for many days.

But Paul, [r]greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her."
[s]And he came out that very hour. 19 But [t]when her masters saw that their hope of profit was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and [u]dragged them into the marketplace to the authorities.

20 And they brought them to the magistrates, and said, "These men, being Jews, [v]exceedingly trouble our city; 21 and they teach customs which are not lawful for us, being Romans, to receive or observe." 22 Then the multitude rose up together against them; and the magistrates tore off their clothes [w]and commanded them
to be beaten with rods. 23 And when they had laid many stripes on them, they threw them into prison, commanding the jailer
to keep them securely. 24 Having received such a charge, he put them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.

The Philippian Jailer Saved

25 But at midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. 26 [x]Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken;
and immediately [y]all the doors were opened and everyone's chains were loosed. 27 And the keeper of the prison, awaking from sleep and seeing the prison doors open, supposing the prisoners had fled, drew his sword and was about to kill himself. 28 But Paul called with a loud voice, saying, "Do yourself no harm, for we are all here."

29 Then he called for a light, ran in, and fell down trembling before Paul and Silas.
30 And he brought them out and said, [z]"Sirs,
what must I do to be saved?"

31 So they said, [a]"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household." 32 Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. 33 And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their stripes. And immediately he and all his family were baptized. 34 Now when he had brought them into his house, [b]he set food
before them; and he rejoiced, having believed in God with all his household.

Paul Refuses to Depart Secretly

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the officers, saying, "Let those men go."

36 So the keeper of the prison reported these words to Paul, saying, "The magistrates have sent to let you go. Now therefore depart, and go in peace."

37 But Paul said to them, "They have beaten us openly, uncondemned [c]Romans, and have thrown us into prison. And now do they put us out secretly? No indeed! Let them come themselves and get us out."

38 And the officers told these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid
when they heard that they were Romans.
39 Then they came and pleaded with them and brought them out, and [d]asked them to depart from the city. 40 So they went out of the prison [e]and entered the house of Lydia;
and when they had seen the brethren, they encouraged them and departed.

16:25 Praise—Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns of praise to God at midnight in spite of the fact that they had been arrested, stripped naked, and beaten, confined to an inner cell and clamped into an uncomfortable position. They could praise God because their joy was not based on circumstances but on a relationship. Jesus Christ and His love and grace are the same, no matter where you are or what is happening to you.

16:31 It Begins with Faith—Paul and Silas's answer to the Philippian jailer's question is the essence of salvation: "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved." This verse raises two questions: What does it mean to believe, and what does it mean to be saved? Belief includes but is more than just an intellectual assent. Belief includes the idea of total trust, dependence, and submission of oneself to Christ as Lord (King, Master). To be saved is to be delivered. We are delivered from the very presence of sin and evil (Satan and hell) and will be delivered into the very presence of God (Christ and heaven). We receive this new life by faith—believing that we are sinful, that Jesus died for our sins, that His death was in our place, and that His payment for sin is fully acceptable in God's sight. Faith can be summarized in the acrostic:

Forsaking
All
I Take Him

16:33–34 Family—This man assumed spiritual leadership of his family by being the first to repent, to humble himself before God and ask for forgiveness and a change of life. By his example, the rest of his family was won. In the same way, every believing father has the responsibility to set the example of spiritual commitment, and to teach his family all he knows of following Christ.

16:37 Romans. Paul was not simply seeking self-justification, he was protecting the infant church in

Preaching Christ at Thessalonica

17 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to [a]Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews. 2Then Paul, as his custom was, [b]went in to them, and for three Sabbaths [c]reasoned with them from the Scriptures, 3explaining and demonstrating [d]that the Christ had to suffer and rise again from the dead, and saying, "This Jesus whom I preach to you is the Christ." 4[e]And some of them were persuaded; and a great multitude of the devout Greeks, and not a few of the leading women, joined Paul and [f]Silas.

Assault on Jason's House

5But the Jews who were not persuaded, becoming [g]envious,* took some of the evil men from the marketplace, and gathering a mob, set all the city in an uproar and attacked the house of [h]Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people. 6But when they did not find them, they dragged Jason and some brethren to the rulers of the city, crying out, [i]"These who have turned the world upside down have come here too. 7Jason has harbored them, and these are all acting contrary to the decrees of Caesar, [j]saying there is another king—Jesus." 8And they troubled the crowd and the rulers of the city when they heard these things. 9So when they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go.

Ministering at Berea

10Then [k]the brethren immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Berea. When they arrived, they went into the synagogue of the Jews. 11These were more fair-minded than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness, and [l]searched the Scriptures daily to find out whether these things were so. 12Therefore many of them believed, and also not a few of the Greeks, prominent women as well as men. 13But when the Jews from Thessalonica learned that the word of God was preached by Paul at Berea, they came there also and stirred up the crowds. 14[m]Then immediately the brethren sent Paul away, to go to the sea; but both Silas and Timothy remained there. 15So those who conducted Paul brought him to Athens; and [n]receiving a command for Silas and Timothy to come to him with all speed, they departed.

The Philosophers at Athens

16Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, [o]his spirit was provoked within him when he saw that the city was given over to idols. 17Therefore he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and with the Gentile worshipers, and in the marketplace daily with those who happened to be there. 18Then* certain Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some said, "What does this babbler want to say?"

Others said, "He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign gods," because he preached to them [p]Jesus and the resurrection.

19And they took him and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new doctrine is of which you speak? 20For you are bringing some strange things to our ears. Therefore we want to know what these things mean." 21For all the Athenians and the foreigners who were there spent their time in nothing else but either to tell or to hear some new thing.

Addressing the Areopagus

22Then Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus and said, "Men of Athens, I perceive that in all things you are very religious; 23for as I was passing through and considering the objects of your worship, I even found an altar with this inscription:

TO THE UNKNOWN GOD.

Philippi. By forcing a public statement of their innocence, he minimized the possibility that the new believers would be regarded as "friends of criminals and troublemakers."

17:7 acting contrary to the decrees of Caesar. In A.D. 49 the Roman emperor Caligula expelled all Jews from Rome due to riots ignited by a group of zealous Jews. Paul's accusers were trying to paint him as a revolutionary who was bringing sedition to Thessalonica.

17:18 this babbler. This word is literally "seed picker." The philosophers were saying that Paul was like a gutter sparrow, picking up bits and scraps of knowledge without fully digesting or thinking about what he taught.

17:19 Areopagus. Just southwest of the Acropolis in Athens was a hill called the Hill of Ares (Mars, in Latin), the god of war. This was where court was held concerning questions of religion and morals. In Athens, the gospel message was examined by the supposed experts of philosophy and religion.

17:23 An Unknown God—In the sixth century B.C. it was said that a poet from Crete name Epimenides turned aside a horrible plague from the people of Athens by appealing to a god of whom the people had never heard. An altar was built to honor this god, and its inscription caught Paul's attention. Knowing that the Athenians had no background in 24 [q]God, who made the world and everything in it, since He is [r]Lord of heaven and earth, [s]does not dwell in temples made with hands. 25 Nor is He worshiped with men's hands, as though He needed anything, since He [t]gives to all life, breath, and all things. 26 And He has made from one blood* every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, and has determined their preappointed times and [u]the boundaries of their dwellings, 27 [v]so that they should seek the Lord, in the hope that they might grope for Him and find Him, [w]though He is not far from each one of us; 28 for [x]in Him we live and move and have our being, [y]as also some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also His offspring.' 29 Therefore, since we are the offspring of God, [z]we ought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold or silver or stone, something shaped by art and man's devising. 30 Truly, [a]these times of ignorance God overlooked, but [b]now commands all men everywhere to repent, 31 because He has appointed a day on which [c]He will judge the world in righteousness by the Man whom He has ordained. He has given assurance of this to all by [d]raising Him from the dead."

32 And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked, while others said, "We will hear you again on this matter." 33 So Paul departed from among them. 34 However, some men joined him and believed, among them Dionysius the Areopagite, a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Ministering at Corinth

18 After these things Paul departed from Athens and went to Corinth. 2 And he found a certain Jew named [a]Aquila, born in Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla (because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome); and he came to them. 3 So, because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them [b]and worked; for by occupation they were tentmakers. 4 [c]And he reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, and persuaded both Jews and Greeks.

5 [d]When Silas and Timothy had come from Macedonia, Paul was [e]compelled by the Spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus is the Christ. 6 But [f]when they opposed him and blasphemed, [g]he shook his garments and said to them, [h]"Your blood be upon your own heads; [i]I am clean. [j]From now on I will go to the Gentiles." 7 And he departed from there and entered the house of a certain man named Justus,* one who worshiped God, whose house was next door to the synagogue. 8 [k]Then Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his household. And many of the Corinthians, hearing, believed and were baptized.

9 Now [l]the Lord spoke to Paul in the night by a vision, "Do not be afraid, but speak, and do not keep silent; 10 [m]for I am with you, and no one will attack you to hurt you; for I have many people in this city." 11 And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 When Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him to the judgment seat, 13 saying, "This fellow persuades men to worship God contrary to the law."

14 And when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If it were a matter of wrongdoing or wicked crimes, O Jews, there would be reason why I should

the Old Testament Scriptures as did the Jews in the synagogues, Paul began his discourse with what they were already familiar with: their own legends and observation.

17:31 Resurrection—Christ has been raised from the dead not only for the purpose of returning to heaven and resuming His fellowship with the Father, a fellowship interrupted only by the alienation and abandonment at the cross; He has gone from His tomb to the right hand of His Father to intercede for us. And one day the mantle of Judge will be placed on Him, and everyone will stand before Him. The world has yet to see the last of Jesus Christ.

17:32 some mocked. Though they embraced the idea of the soul living on, the Greeks were repulsed by the idea of a bodily resurrection because they considered the body to be evil. This idea, known as dualism, was derived from the teachings of Socrates and Plato. It held that everything physical is evil and everything spiritual is good. Therefore, they believed the body and what is done with it is not important because it will be discarded at the end of life.

18:1 Corinth. Corinth was the political capital of Achaia. It was also a center for the worship of Aphrodite, the goddess of fertility, and it housed the major temple of Apollo. Because of the sensuous nature of the religious cult of Aphrodite, Corinth had a reputation for being a city of immorality. Beginning in the fifth century B.C., the Greeks used a word meaning "to act like a Corinthian" as a symbol for sexual immorality.

18:3 tentmakers. All young rabbinical students had to learn a trade. The province of Cilicia, from which Paul came, was noted for its cloth made from goats' hair. It is likely that Paul's skill involved making such cloth.

18:7 Justus. Most Romans had three names. This man's name was Titius Justus. Based on Paul's letter to the Corinthians, it is likely that Justus was the man called Gaius mentioned in 1 Corinthians 1:14.

But Gallio took no notice of these things.

Paul Returns to Antioch

18So Paul still remained a good while. Then he took leave of the brethren and sailed for Syria, and Priscilla and Aquila were with him. [p]He had his hair cut off at [q]Cenchrea, for he had taken a vow. 19And he came to Ephesus, and left them there; but he himself entered the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews. 20When they asked him to stay a longer time with them, he did not consent, 21but took leave of them, saying, [r]"I must by all means keep this coming feast in Jerusalem;* but I will return again to you, [s]God willing." And he sailed from Ephesus.

22And when he had landed at [t]Caesarea, and gone up and greeted the church, he went down to Antioch. 23After he had spent some time there, he departed and went over the region of [u]Galatia and Phrygia in order, [v]strengthening all the disciples.

Ministry of Apollos

24[w]Now a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man and mighty in the Scriptures, came to Ephesus. 25This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being [x]fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things of the Lord, [y]though he knew only the baptism of John. 26So he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. When Aquila and Priscilla heard him, they took him aside and explained to him the way of God more accurately. 27And when he desired to cross to Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him; and when he arrived, [z]he greatly helped those who had believed through grace; 28for he vigorously refuted the Jews publicly, [a]showing from the Scriptures that Jesus is the Christ.

Paul at Ephesus

19 And it happened, while [a]Apollos was at Corinth, that Paul, having passed through [b]the upper regions, came to Ephesus. And finding some disciples 2he said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?"

So they said to him, [c]"We have not so much as heard whether there is a Holy Spirit."

3And he said to them, "Into what then were you baptized?"

So they said, [d]"Into John's baptism."

4Then Paul said, [e]"John indeed baptized with a baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe on Him who would come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus."

5When they heard this, they were baptized [f]in the name of the Lord Jesus. 6And when Paul had [g]laid hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and [h]they spoke with tongues and prophesied. 7Now the men were about twelve in all.

8[i]And he went into the synagogue and spoke boldly for three months, reasoning and persuading [j]concerning the things of the kingdom of God. 9But [k]when some were hardened and did not believe, but spoke evil [l]of the Way before the multitude, he departed from them and withdrew the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus. 10And [m]this continued for two years, so that all who dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

18:18 had his hair cut off. Paul had his hair cut as part of a Nazirite vow he had made (see Num. 6:5). Such a vow had to be fulfilled in Jerusalem where the hair would be presented to God.

18:24 Apollos, born at Alexandria. This Jew with a Greek name was from the second largest city in the Roman Empire. Alexandria was a seaport on the northern coast of Egypt. Founded by Alexander the Great, the city was very cosmopolitan. Egyptians, Romans, and Greeks all lived there; over one quarter of the population was Jewish. The Greek translation of the Hebrew Scriptures had been produced in that city about 150 years before the birth of Jesus. The city was famous for its great library and was considered the cultural and educational center of the world.

19:3 John's baptism. Baptism was a ritual used by the Jews as a picture of cleansing and purification. Gentiles who converted to Judaism would go through the rite of purification as their first act of worship. They would dip themselves in water as a sign of being cleansed from their old way of life. Before entering into the temple to worship, Jews would dip themselves in ritual bathing pools to show their desire for purification. John's baptism was a symbol of repentance from sin and a looking ahead to the coming of the Messiah.

19:6 laid hands on them. The Holy Spirit was received without the laying on of hands in 10:44–48. By laying on his hands here, Paul was demonstrating his apostolic authority. He was also affirming the unity of the new church in Ephesus with the church in Jerusalem. Both were empowered by the Holy Spirit to speak in foreign tongues.

19:10 all who dwelt in Asia heard. From Ephesus, other churches were born in Asia Minor—in Colosse,

Miracles Glorify Christ

11 Now [n]God worked unusual miracles
by the hands of Paul, 12 [o]so that even handkerchiefs or aprons were brought from his body to the sick, and the diseases left them and the evil spirits went out of them.
13 [p]Then some of the itinerant Jewish exor-cists [q]took it upon themselves to call the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, "We* exorcise you by the Jesus whom Paul [r]preaches." 14 Also there were seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, who did so.
15 And the evil spirit answered and said,
"Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are you?"
16 Then the man in whom the evil spirit
was leaped on them, overpowered* them,
and prevailed against them,* so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. 17 This became known both to all Jews
and Greeks dwelling in Ephesus; and [s]fear
fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. 18 And many who had believed came [t]confessing and telling their deeds. 19 Also, many of those who had practiced magic brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all. And they counted up the value of them, and it totaled fifty thousand pieces of silver.
20 [u]So the word of the Lord grew mightily and prevailed.

The Riot at Ephesus

21 [v]When these things were accomplished, Paul [w]purposed in the Spirit, when he had passed through [x]Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, "After I have been there, [y]I must also see Rome." 22 So he sent into Macedonia two of those who ministered to him, [z]Timothy and [a]Erastus, but he himself stayed in Asia for a time.
23 And [b]about that time there arose a great commotion about [c]the Way. 24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of Diana,*
brought [d]no small profit to the craftsmen.
25 He called them together with the workers of similar occupation, and said: "Men, you know that we have our prosperity by this trade. 26 Moreover you see and hear that not only at Ephesus, but throughout almost all Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that [e]they are not gods which are made with hands. 27 So not only is this trade of ours in danger of falling into disrepute, but also the temple of the great goddess Diana may be despised and her magnificence destroyed,* whom all Asia and the world worship." 28 Now when they heard this, they were full of wrath and cried out, saying, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians!" 29 So the whole city was filled with confusion, and rushed into the theater with one accord, having seized [f]Gaius and [g]Aristarchus, Macedonians, Paul's travel companions. 30 And when Paul wanted to go in to the people,
the disciples would not allow him. 31 Then some of the officials of Asia, who were his friends, sent to him pleading that he would not venture into the theater. 32 Some therefore cried one thing and some another,
for the assembly was confused, and most of them did not know why they had come together. 33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And [h]Alexander [i]motioned with his hand, and wanted to make his defense to the people. 34 But when they found out that he was a Jew, all with one voice cried out for about two hours, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians!"
35 And when the city clerk had quieted
the crowd, he said: "Men of Ephesus, what man is there who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is temple guardian of the great goddess Diana, and of the image
which fell down from Zeus? 36 Therefore,
since these things cannot be denied, you ought to be quiet and do nothing rashly.
37 For you have brought these men here who are neither robbers of temples nor blas-phemers of your* goddess. 38 Therefore, if Demetrius and his fellow craftsmen have a case against anyone, the courts are open and there are proconsuls. Let them bring charges against one another. 39 But if you have any other inquiry to make, it shall be determined in the lawful assembly. 40 For we are in danger of being called in question for today's uproar, there being no reason which we may give to account for this disorderly gathering." 41 And when he had said these things, he dismissed the assembly.

Smyrna, Pergamos, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea. Paul and his students clearly did more than study. They must have actively evangelized as well.

19:13 the name of the Lord Jesus. The use of magical names in incantations was common in the ancient world. These practitioners had latched onto the name of Jesus to use as an incantation, but they discovered that it was not enough to know the name of Jesus; they needed to know Jesus personally.

Journeys in Greece

20 After the uproar had ceased, Paul called the disciples to himself, embraced them, and [a]departed to go to Macedonia. 2Now when he had gone over that region and encouraged them with many words, he came to [b]Greece 3and stayed three months. And [c]when the Jews plotted against him as he was about to sail to Syria, he decided to return through Macedonia. 4And Sopater of Berea accompanied him to Asia—also [d]Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians, and [e]Gaius of Derbe, and [f]Timothy, and [g]Tychicus and [h]Trophimus of Asia. 5These men, going ahead, waited for us at [i]Troas. 6But we sailed away from Philippi after [j]the Days of Unleavened Bread, and in five days joined them [k]at Troas, where we stayed seven days.

Ministering at Troas

7Now on [l]the first day of the week, when the disciples came together [m]to break bread, Paul, ready to depart the next day, spoke to them and continued his message until midnight. 8There were many lamps [n]in the upper room where they* were gathered together. 9And in a window sat a certain young man named Eutychus, who was sinking into a deep sleep. He was overcome by sleep; and as Paul continued speaking, he fell down from the third story and was taken up dead. 10But Paul went down, [o]fell on him, and embracing him said, [p]"Do not trouble yourselves, for his life is in him." 11Now when he had come up, had broken bread and eaten, and talked a long while, even till daybreak, he departed. 12And they brought the young man in alive, and they were not a little comforted.

From Troas to Miletus

13Then we went ahead to the ship and sailed to Assos, there intending to take Paul on board; for so he had given orders, intending himself to go on foot. 14And when he met us at Assos, we took him on board and came to Mitylene. 15We sailed from there, and the next day came opposite Chios. The following day we arrived at Samos and stayed at Trogyllium. The next day we came to Miletus. 16For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, so that he would not have to spend time in Asia; for [q]he was hurrying [r]to be at Jerusalem, if possible, on [s]the Day of Pentecost.

The Ephesian Elders Exhorted

17From Miletus he sent to Ephesus and called for the elders of the church. 18And when they had come to him, he said to them: "You know, [t]from the first day that I came to Asia, in what manner I always lived among you, 19serving the Lord with all humility, with many tears and trials which happened to me [u]by the plotting of the Jews; 20how [v]I kept back nothing that was helpful, but proclaimed it to you, and taught you publicly and from house to house, 21[w]testifying to Jews, and also to Greeks, [x]repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. 22And see, now [y]I go bound in the spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing the things that will happen to me there, 23except that [z]the Holy Spirit testifies in every city, saying that chains and tribulations await me. 24But [a]none of these things move me; nor do I count my life dear to myself,* [b]so that I may finish my race with joy, [c]and the ministry [d]which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God.

25"And indeed, now I know that you all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, will see my face no more. 26Therefore I testify to you this day that I am [e]innocent of the blood of all men. 27For I have not shunned to declare to you [f]the very important to Rome. The Romans would not tolerate any kind of uprising or rebellion. Ephesus risked losing its freedom and being ruled directly by the Roman army.

20:2 encouraged. This word has a full range of meanings, from rebuking to comforting. It includes instruction, appeal, affirmation, exhortation, warning, and correction.

20:7 The Lord's Supper—Although the phrase "to break bread" could mean an ordinary meal, it more likely refers to the observance of the Lord's Supper in obedience to Christ's command. The "breaking of bread" appears to be the primary purpose for the gathering, with Paul's sermon rising naturally in a group of people who had gathered to remember Christ.

20:13–16 to go on foot. The distance between Troas and Assos was about thirty miles by sea, but Paul chose to go over land on foot.

20:17 elders. The words "elder" (literally, one who is older) and "overseer" (v. 28) appear to be used in the New Testament as interchangeable terms for the leaders of a particular fellowship.

20:22 bound in the spirit. Some say that Paul was out of the will of God in going to Jerusalem after the warnings of bonds and afflictions. But there is no evidence that Paul was rebelling against God. On the contrary, Jesus Himself confirmed that the trip was part of His good and perfect will (23:11).

whole counsel of God. 28[g]Therefore take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, among which the Holy Spirit [h]has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of God* [i]which He purchased [j]with His own blood. 29For I know this, that after my departure [k]savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock. 30Also [l]from among yourselves men will rise up, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after themselves. 31Therefore watch, and remember that [m]for three years I did not cease to warn everyone night and day with tears.

32"So now, brethren, I commend you to God and [n]to the word of His grace, which is able [o]to build you up and give you [p]an inheritance among all those who are sanctified. 33I have coveted no one's silver or gold or apparel. 34Yes,* you yourselves know [q]that these hands have provided for my necessities, and for those who were with me. 35I have shown you in every way, [r]by laboring like this, that you must support the weak. And remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that He said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.' "

36And when he had said these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all. 37Then they all [s]wept freely, and [t]fell on Paul's neck and kissed him, 38sorrowing most of all for the words which he spoke, that they would see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

Warnings on the Journey to Jerusalem

21 Now it came to pass, that when we had departed from them and set sail, running a straight course we came to Cos, the following day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. 2And finding a ship sailing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard and set sail. 3When we had sighted Cyprus, we passed it on the left, sailed to Syria, and landed at Tyre; for there the ship was to unload her cargo. 4And finding disciples,* we stayed there seven days. [a]They told Paul through the Spirit not to go up to Jerusalem. 5When we had come to the end of those days, we departed and went on our way; and they all accompanied us, with wives and children, till we were out of the city. And [b]we knelt down on the shore and prayed. 6When we had taken our leave of one another, we boarded the ship, and they returned [c]home.

7And when we had finished our voyage from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, greeted the brethren, and stayed with them one day. 8On the next day we who were Paul's companions* departed and came to [d]Caesarea, and entered the house of Philip [e]the evangelist, [f]who was one of the seven, and stayed with him. 9Now this man had four virgin daughters [g]who prophesied. 10And as we stayed many days, a certain prophet named [h]Agabus came down from Judea. 11When he had come to us, he took Paul's belt, bound his own hands and feet, and said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit, [i]'So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man who owns this belt, and deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.' "

12Now when we heard these things, both we and those from that place pleaded with him not to go up to Jerusalem. 13Then Paul answered, [j]"What do you mean by weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."

14So when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, [k]"The will of the Lord be done."

Paul Urged to Make Peace

15And after those days we packed and went up to Jerusalem. 16Also some of the disciples from Caesarea went with us and brought with them a certain Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we were to lodge.

20:28 Church—The elders or overseers of God's flock must be men who are appointed not just by other men, but by the Holy Spirit of God. The leadership of the church is a solemn responsibility, and it should only be accepted by those who are convinced that they have been both called and equipped by the Holy Spirit to do this work. An elder has the responsibility to follow the example of our Chief Shepherd, Jesus Christ, as a servant leader.

20:35 It is more blessed to give. This saying of Jesus is not found in the Gospels, but it has been recorded here through Paul's knowledge of it.

21:2 a ship sailing over to Phoenicia. In the summer months, the wind of the Aegean Sea blows from the north, beginning very early in the morning. In the late afternoon the wind dies away. Sunset brings a dead calm, and later a gentle southerly breeze blows. If a ship was heading down the coast, it would typically anchor at evening and wait for the winds of the morning.

21:4 through the Spirit. Because of this warning, many have thought that Paul's insistence in going to Jerusalem was disobedience to God's will. However, it is more likely that this was simply a warning to let him know what to expect in the future. Paul was obviously very sensitive to the Holy Spirit (16:6), and felt that he had received specific instructions to go to Jerusalem (20:22). Later Jesus Himself encouraged Paul concerning his decision to go (23:11).

21:10–14 bound his own hands and feet. The Holy Spirit did not forbid Paul to go to Jerusalem, but warned him of what it would cost him.

17 [l]And when we had come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly. 18 On the following day Paul went in with us to [m]James, and all the elders were present. 19 When he had greeted them, [n]he told in detail those things which God had done among the Gentiles [o]through his ministry. 20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord. And they said to him, "You see, brother, how many myriads of Jews there are who have believed, and they are all [p]zealous for the law; 21 but they have been informed about you that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children nor to walk according to the customs. 22 What then? The assembly must certainly meet, for they will* hear that you have come. 23 Therefore do what we tell you: We have four men who have taken a vow. 24 Take them and be purified with them, and pay their expenses so that they may [q]shave their heads, and that all may know that those things of which they were informed concerning you are nothing, but that you yourself also walk orderly and keep the law. 25 But concerning the Gentiles who believe, [r]we have written and decided that they should observe no such thing, except* that they should keep themselves from things offered to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from sexual immorality."

Arrested in the Temple

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day, having been purified with them, [s]entered the temple [t]to announce the expiration of the days of purification, at which time an offering should be made for each one of them.

27 Now when the seven days were almost ended, [u]the Jews from Asia, seeing him in the temple, stirred up the whole crowd and [v]laid hands on him, 28 crying out, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man [w]who teaches all men everywhere against the people, the law, and this place; and furthermore he also brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place." 29 (For they had previously* seen [x]Trophimus the Ephesian with him in the city, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And [y]all the city was disturbed; and the people ran together, seized Paul, and dragged him out of the temple; and immediately the doors were shut. 31 Now as they were [z]seeking to kill him, news came to the commander of the garrison that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. 32 [a]He immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them. And when they saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul. 33 Then the [b]commander came near and took him, and [c]commanded him to be bound with two chains; and he asked who he was and what he had done. 34 And some among the multitude cried one thing and some another.

So when he could not ascertain the truth because of the tumult, he commanded him to be taken into the barracks. 35 When he reached the stairs, he had to be carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the mob. 36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying out, [d]"Away with him!"

Addressing the Jerusalem Mob

37 Then as Paul was about to be led into the barracks, he said to the commander, "May I speak to you?"

He replied, "Can you speak Greek? 38 [e]Are you not the Egyptian who some time ago stirred up a rebellion and led the four thousand assassins out into the wilderness?"

39 But Paul said, [f]"I am a Jew from Tarsus, in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city; and I implore you, permit me to speak to the people."

40 So when he had given him permission, Paul stood on the stairs and [g]motioned with his hand to the people. And when there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the [h]Hebrew language, saying,

21:17 Fellowship—Fellowship means more than chatting over coffee and cookies, or sharing a potluck supper. Christian fellowship essentially means sharing one another's lives, participating in both the joy and sorrow of our brothers and sisters in Christ. Christian community extends beyond geography, class, color, and gender. As parts of one glorious whole, the body of Christ, believers rejoice in one another's joy, and reach out a helping hand for another's need.

21:25 keep themselves from. The spiritual unity of the body of believers is realized in its diversity, not in its conformity. From our diverse backgrounds and cultures we honor the same Lord.

21:28 defiled this holy place. The temple in New Testament times was surrounded by three courts. The innermost court was the Court of Israel, where Jewish men could offer sacrifices. The second court was the Court of Women where Jewish families could gather for prayer and worship. The outer court was the Court of Gentiles, open to all who would worship God. The penalty for any Gentile who went beyond this court was death.

21:38 Are you not the Egyptian. An assassin claiming to be a prophet had come to Jerusalem in A.D. 54, and led four thousand Jews up to the Mount of 22 "Brethren[a] and fathers, hear my defense before you now." 2And when they heard that he spoke to them in the [b]Hebrew language, they kept all the more silent.

Then he said: 3[c]"I am indeed a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city [d]at the feet of [e]Gamaliel, taught [f]according to the strictness of our fathers' law, and [g]was zealous toward God [h]as you all are today. 4[i]I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women, 5as also the high priest bears me witness, and [j]all the council of the elders, [k]from whom I also received letters to the brethren, and went to Damascus [l]to bring in chains even those who were there to Jerusalem to be punished.

And He said to me, 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting.'

9"And [n]those who were with me indeed saw the light and were afraid,* but they did not hear the voice of Him who spoke to me. 10So I said, 'What shall I do, Lord?' Paul's Roman Citizenship

22And they listened to him until this word, and then they raised their voices and said, [i]"Away with such a fellow from the earth, for [j]he is not fit to live!" 23Then, as they cried out and tore off their clothes and threw dust into the air, 24the commander ordered him to be brought into the barracks, and said that he should be examined under scourging, so that he might know why they shouted so against him. 25And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said to the centurion who stood by, [k]"Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman, and uncondemned?"

26When the centurion heard that, he went and told the commander, saying, "Take care what you do, for this man is a Roman."

27Then the commander came and said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?"

He said, "Yes."

28The commander answered, "With a large sum I obtained this citizenship."

And Paul said, "But I was born a citizen."

29Then immediately those who were about to examine him withdrew from him; and the commander was also afraid after he found out that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

22:16 calling on the name of the Lord. Calling on the name of the Lord is what brings salvation, not the physical act of baptism (Rom. 10:9–13). Baptism is the public declaration of one's repentance and new life.

22:24 under scourging. The scourge was a leather whip, studded with pieces of metal or bone, fastened to a wooden handle. The victim was stretched out on the floor or bound to a pillar to be beaten. Scourging was a cruel torture, designed to maim or kill the victim.

22:28 born a citizen. Roman citizenship was originally limited to free Romans, but later it was offered to many others in the empire, either as a reward for outstanding service, or in exchange for a high price. Because Paul's father was a Roman citizen (how he became a citizen is unknown), Paul was born

The Sanhedrin Divided

30 The next day, because he wanted to know for certain why he was accused by the Jews, he released him from his bonds,
and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down and set him before them.

23 Then Paul, looking earnestly at the council, said, "Men and brethren, [a]I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day." 2 And the high priest Ananias commanded those who stood by him [b]to strike him on the mouth. 3 Then Paul said to him, "God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! For you sit to judge me
according to the law, and [c]do you command me to be struck contrary to the law?"

4 And those who stood by said, "Do you
revile God's high priest?"

5 Then Paul said, [d]"I did not know, brethren, that he was the high priest; for it is written, [e]'*You shall not speak evil of a ruler
of your people.' "

6 But when Paul perceived that one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees,
he cried out in the council, "Men and brethren, [f]I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee; [g]concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am being judged!"

7 And when he had said this, a dissension arose between the Pharisees and the Sadducees; and the assembly was divided. 8 [h]For Sadducees say that there is no resurrection—and no angel or spirit; but the Pharisees confess both. 9 Then there arose a loud outcry. And the scribes of the Pharisees' party arose and protested, saying, [i]"We find no evil in this man; but [j]if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him, [k]let us
not fight against God."*

10 Now when there arose a great dissension, the commander, fearing lest Paul might be pulled to pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into the barracks.

The Plot Against Paul

11 But [l]the following night the Lord stood by him and said, "Be of good cheer, Paul; for
as you have testified for Me in [m]Jerusalem,
so you must also bear witness at [n]Rome."

12 And when it was day, [o]some of the Jews banded together and bound themselves
under an oath, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had [p]killed Paul.
13 Now there were more than forty who had formed this conspiracy. 14 They came to the chief priests and [q]elders, and said,
"We have bound ourselves under a great oath that we will eat nothing until we have killed Paul. 15 Now you, therefore, together with the council, suggest to the commander that he be brought down to you tomorrow,* as though you were going to make further inquiries concerning him; but we are ready to kill him before he comes near."

16 So when Paul's sister's son heard of their ambush, he went and entered the barracks and told Paul. 17 Then Paul called one of the centurions to him and said, "Take this young man to the commander, for he has something to tell him." 18 So he took him and brought him to the commander and said, "Paul the prisoner called me to him and asked me to bring this young man
to you. He has something to say to you."

19 Then the commander took him by the hand, went aside, and asked privately,
"What is it that you have to tell me?"

20 And he said, [r]"The Jews have agreed to ask that you bring Paul down to the council tomorrow, as though they were going to inquire more fully about him. 21 But do not yield to them, for more than forty of them lie in wait for him, men who have bound themselves by an oath that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him;
and now they are ready, waiting for the promise from you."

22 So the commander let the young man depart, and commanded him, "Tell no one that you have revealed these things to me."

Sent to Felix

23 And he called for two centurions, saying, "Prepare two hundred soldiers, seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen to go to [s]Caesarea at the third hour of the night; 24 and provide mounts to set Paul on,
and bring him safely to Felix the governor."
25 He wrote a letter in the following manner:

a citizen. Ultimately, God used Paul's Roman citizenship to spread the gospel to Rome.

23:1 Conscience—The human conscience is given as a tool, enabling us to tell right from wrong, and to evaluate our own actions. The problem is that the conscience of fallen humans is not a reliable guide. Because humans are not "basically good," an untrained conscience will not necessarily lead toward right. The conscience must be trained by good teaching. It can be rendered useless if it is seared or defiled, it can be deadened by constantly ignoring it. In order to provide useful guidance, the conscience must be recharged by the Holy Spirit. It must be kept clear by confession of sins, and refusing to accept violations.

23:11 witness at Rome. Because of the earlier warnings of his friends (21:4,10–14), Paul may have begun to doubt his decision. The Lord gave Paul special encouragement at this time, that he was indeed doing just what God wanted him to do.

26 Claudius Lysias,

To the most excellent governor Felix:

Greetings.

27 [t]This man was seized by the Jews and was about to be killed by them. Coming with the troops I rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman. 28[u]And when I wanted to know the reason they accused him, I brought him before their council. 29I found out that he was accused [v]concerning questions of their law, [w]but had nothing charged against him deserving of death or chains.
30And [x]when it was told me that the Jews lay in wait for the man,* I sent him immediately to you, and [y]also commanded his accusers to state before you
the charges against him.

Farewell.

31Then the soldiers, as they were commanded, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris. 32The next day they left the horsemen to go on with him, and returned to the barracks. 33When they came to [z]Caesarea and had delivered the [a]letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him. 34And when the governor had read it, he asked what province he was from. And when he understood that he was from [b]Cilicia, 35he said, [c]"I will hear you when your accusers also have come." And he commanded him to be kept in [d]Herod's Praetorium.

Accused of Sedition

24 Now after [a]five days [b]Ananias the high priest came down with the elders and a certain orator named Tertullus. These gave evidence to the governor against Paul.

2And when he was called upon, Tertullus began his accusation, saying: "Seeing that through you we enjoy great peace, and prosperity is being brought to this nation by your foresight, 3we accept it always and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness. 4Nevertheless, not to be tedious to you any further, I beg you to hear, by your courtesy, a few words from us. 5[c]For we have found this man a plague, a creator of dissension among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes. 6[d]He even tried to profane the temple, and we seized him,* and wanted [e]to judge him according to our law. 7[f]But the commander Lysias came by and with great violence took him out of our hands, 8[g]commanding his accusers to come to you. By examining him yourself you may ascertain all these things of which we accuse him." 9And the Jews also assented,* maintaining that these things were so.

The Defense Before Felix

10Then Paul, after the governor had nodded to him to speak, answered: "Inasmuch as I know that you have been for many years a judge of this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself, 11because you may ascertain that it is no more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem [h]to worship. 12[i]And they neither found me in the temple disputing with anyone nor inciting the crowd, either in the synagogues or in the city. 13Nor can they prove the things of which they now accuse me. 14But this I confess to you, that according to [j]the Way which they call a sect, so I worship the [k]God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in [l]the Law and in the Prophets. 15[m]I have hope in God, which they themselves also accept, [n]that there will be a resurrection of the dead,* both of the just and the unjust. 16[o]This being so, I myself always strive to have a conscience without offense toward God and men.

17"Now after many years [p]I came to bring alms and offerings to my nation, 18[q]in the midst of which some Jews from Asia found me [r]purified in the temple, neither with a mob nor with tumult. 19[s]They ought to have been here before you to

23:33 the governor. Antonius Felix governed Judea from A.D. 52 to 60. Felix had been a slave, but had gained the status of freedman under the emperor Claudius. Because Felix's brother was a friend of the emperor, Felix's political career blossomed, even though he was not popular among his peers. The writer Tacitus described him as "exercising the powers of a king with the character of a slave."

24:14 the Way. Paul openly admitted that he was a follower of "the Way" (those who followed Jesus), but he contended that he still believed the Law and the Prophets. That is, he was a follower of Judaism, a religion which enjoyed the protection of Rome.

24:16 Conscience—There is a connection between Paul's belief in future judgment and his desire to maintain a clear conscience before God and man. The intensity of Paul's desire may be seen from the verb translated "always strive," which occurs only here in the New Testament. Paul's desire to have a object if they had anything against me.

20Or else let those who are here themselves
say if they found any wrongdoing* in me
while I stood before the council, 21unless it is for this one statement which I cried out, standing among them, [t]"Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am being judged by you this day.'"

Felix Procrastinates

22But when Felix heard these things, having more accurate knowledge of the [u]Way, he adjourned the proceedings and said, "When [v]Lysias the commander comes down, I will make a decision on your case."
23So he commanded the centurion to keep Paul and to let him have liberty, and [w]told him not to forbid any of his friends to provide for or visit him.
24And after some days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish, he sent for Paul and heard him concerning the [x]faith in Christ. 25Now as he reasoned about righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix was afraid and answered, "Go away for now; when I have a convenient time I will call for you." 26Mean-while he also hoped that [y]money would be given him by Paul, that he might release him.* Therefore he sent for him more often
and conversed with him.
27But after two years Porcius Festus succeeded Felix; and Felix, [z]wanting to do the Jews a favor, left Paul bound.

Paul Appeals to Caesar

25 Now when Festus had come to the province, after three days he went up from [a]Caesarea to Jerusalem. 2[b]Then
the high priest* and the chief men of the Jews informed him against Paul; and they petitioned him, 3asking a favor against him, that he would summon him to Jerusalem—[c]while they lay in ambush along the road to kill him. 4But Festus answered that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself was going there shortly.
5"Therefore," he said, "let those who have authority among you go down with me and accuse this man, to see [d]if there is any fault
in him."

6And when he had remained among them more than ten days, he went down to Caesarea. And the next day, sitting on the judgment seat, he commanded Paul to be brought. 7When he had come, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood about [e]and laid many serious complaints against Paul, which they could not prove, 8while he answered for himself, [f]"Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar have I offended
in anything at all."
9But Festus, [g]wanting to do the Jews a favor, answered Paul and said, [h]"Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and there be judged before me concerning these
things?"
10So Paul said, "I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged. To the Jews I have done no wrong, as you very well know. 11[i]For if I am an offender, or have committed anything deserving of death, I do not object to dying; but if there is nothing in these things of which these men accuse me, no one can deliver me to them. [j]I appeal to Caesar." 12Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, "You have appealed to Caesar? To Caesar you shall go!"

Paul Before Agrippa

13And after some days King Agrippa and Bernice came to Caesarea to greet Festus. 14When they had been there many days, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying: [k]"There is a certain man left a prisoner by Felix, 15[l]about whom the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, when I was in Jerusalem, asking for a judgment against him. 16[m]To them I answered, 'It is not the custom of the Romans
to deliver any man to destruction* before the accused meets the accusers face to face, and has opportunity to answer for himself concerning the charge against good conscience toward God and man reflects the summary of duties of the law of love toward God and neighbor. The conscience needs to be enlightened and purified by Scripture in regard to our responsibilities toward God and man.

24:22 having more accurate knowledge of the Way. Felix's wife Drusilla was Jewish, and part of the Herodian family. Felix had governed Judea and Samaria for six years. He had ample opportunity to understand both Judaism and "the Way" as he must have observed the workings of the early church in Jerusalem.

24:27 after two years. Around A.D. 60, a riot broke out in Caesarea. Felix crushed it with such force that he was removed from office.

25:11 appeal to Caesar. If a Roman citizen thought he was not getting justice in a provincial court, he could appeal to the emperor himself. If the appeal was declared valid, all other proceedings in the lower courts ceased and the prisoner was sent to Rome for the disposition of his case.

him.' 17Therefore when they had come together, [n]without any delay, the next day I sat on the judgment seat and commanded the man to be brought in. 18When the accusers stood up, they brought no accusation against him of such things as I supposed, 19[o]but had some questions against him about their own religion and about a certain Jesus, who had died, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. 20And because I was uncertain of such questions, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and there be judged concerning these matters. 21But when Paul [p]appealed to be reserved for the decision of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I could send him to Caesar."

22Then [q]Agrippa said to Festus, "I also would like to hear the man myself."

"Tomorrow," he said, "you shall hear him."

23So the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp, and had entered the auditorium with the commanders and the prominent men of the city, at Festus' command [r]Paul was brought in. 24And Festus said: "King Agrippa and all the men who are here present with us, you see this man about whom [s]the whole assembly of the Jews petitioned me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying out that he was [t]not fit to live any longer. 25But when I found that [u]he had committed nothing deserving of death, [v]and that he himself had appealed to Augustus, I decided to send him. 26I have nothing certain to write to my lord concerning him. Therefore I have brought him out before you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after the examination has taken place I may have something to write. 27For it seems to me unreasonable to send a prisoner and not to specify the charges against him."

Paul's Early Life

26 Then Agrippa said to Paul, "You are permitted to speak for yourself."

So Paul stretched out his hand and answered for himself: 2"I think myself [a]happy, King Agrippa, because today I shall answer [b]for myself before you concerning all the things of which I am [c]accused by the Jews, 3especially because you are expert in all customs and questions which have to do with the Jews. Therefore I beg you to hear me patiently.

4"My manner of life from my youth, which was spent from the beginning among my own nation at Jerusalem, all the Jews know. 5They knew me from the first, if they were willing to testify, that according to [d]the strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. 6[e]And now I stand and am judged for the hope of [f]the promise made by God to our fathers. 7To this promise [g]our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God [h]night and day, [i]hope to attain. For this hope's sake, King Agrippa, I am accused by the Jews. 8Why should it be thought incredible by you that God raises the dead?

9[j]"Indeed, I myself thought I must do many things contrary to the name of [k]Jesus of Nazareth. 10[l]This I also did in Jerusalem, and many of the saints I shut up in prison, having received authority [m]from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I cast my vote against them. 11[n]And I punished them often in every synagogue and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

Paul Recounts His Conversion

12[o]"While thus occupied, as I journeyed to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, 13at midday, O king, along the road I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those who journeyed with me. 14And when we all had fallen to the ground, I heard a voice speaking to me and saying in the Hebrew language, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.' 15So I said, 'Who are You, Lord?' And He said, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. 16But rise and stand on your feet; for I have appeared to you for this purpose, [p]to make you a minister and a witness both of the things which you have seen and of the things which I will yet reveal to you. 17I will deliver you from the Jewish people, as well as from the Gentiles, [q]to whom I now* send you, 18[r]to open their eyes, in order [s]to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, [t]that they may receive forgiveness of sins and [u]an inheritance among those who are [v]sanctified by faith in Me.'

* 26:17 NU-Text and M-Text omit now.

26:5 I lived a Pharisee. Paul was not some stranger or foreigner trying to start a new religion. He was a Jew, and a member of the religious body which took God's law most seriously.

26:6–7 Hope—Paul faced a real paradox in his trial before Agrippa. He had been a faithful Pharisee, looking forward to the fulfillment of their common hope, the coming of the Messiah, and eventually the resurrection of the dead. Now that the Messiah had come, and Paul began proclaiming the truth of His atonement and resurrection, he was being persecuted by the very ones who had once shared his hope.

Paul's Post-Conversion Life

19"Therefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, 20but [w]declared first to those in Damascus and in Jerusalem, and throughout all the region of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent, turn to God, and do [x]works
befitting repentance. 21For these reasons
the Jews seized me in the temple and tried to kill me. 22Therefore, having obtained
help from God, to this day I stand, witnessing both to small and great, saying no other things than those [y]which the prophets and [z]Moses said would come— 23[a]that the Christ would suffer, [b]that He would be the first to rise from the dead, and [c]would proclaim light to the Jewish people and to the Gentiles."

Agrippa Parries Paul's Challenge

24Now as he thus made his defense, Fes-
tus said with a loud voice, "Paul, [d]you are beside yourself! Much learning is driving you mad!"
25But he said, "I am not mad, most noble Festus, but speak the words of truth and reason. 26For the king, before whom I also speak freely, [e]knows these things; for
I am convinced that none of these things escapes his attention, since this thing was not done in a corner. 27King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you do believe."
28Then Agrippa said to Paul, "You almost persuade me to become a Christian." 29And Paul said, [f]"I would to God that not only you, but also all who hear me today, might become both almost and altogether such as I am, except for these chains."
30When he had said these things, the king stood up, as well as the governor and Bernice and those who sat with them; 31and when they had gone aside, they talked among themselves, saying, [g]"This man is doing nothing deserving of death or chains."
32Then Agrippa said to Festus, "This man might have been set [h]free [i]if he had not appealed to Caesar."

The Voyage to Rome Begins

27 And when [a]it was decided that we should sail to Italy, they delivered Paul and some other prisoners to one named Julius, a centurion of the Augustan Regiment. 2So, entering a ship of Adramyttium, we put to sea, meaning to sail along the coasts of Asia. [b]Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica,
was with us. 3And the next day we landed at Sidon. And Julius [c]treated Paul kindly and gave him liberty to go to his friends and receive care. 4When we had put to sea from there, we sailed under the shelter of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. 5And when we had sailed
over the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.
6There the centurion found [d]an Alexandrian ship sailing to Italy, and he put us on board.
7When we had sailed slowly many days,
and arrived with difficulty off Cnidus,
the wind not permitting us to proceed, we sailed under the shelter of [e]Crete off Salmone. 8Passing it with difficulty, we came to a place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.

Paul's Warning Ignored

9Now when much time had been spent,
and sailing was now dangerous [f]because the Fast was already over, Paul advised them, 10saying, "Men, I perceive that this voyage will end with disaster and much loss, not only of the cargo and ship, but also our lives." 11Nevertheless the centurion was more persuaded by the helmsman and the owner of the ship than by the things spoken by Paul. 12And because the harbor
was not suitable to winter in, the majority advised to set sail from there also, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, a harbor of Crete opening toward the southwest and northwest, and winter there.

In the Tempest

13When the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their desire, putting out to sea, they sailed close by Crete. 14But not long after, a tempestuous

26:20 that they should repent. Repentance indicates a complete change in thinking, an "about face" of the mind and heart. Genuine repentance is evidenced by changed behavior.

26:22–23 Christ—Paul makes it clear that Jesus stood firmly in the tradition of the Hebrew Law and Prophets, and specifically identifies Him as the promised Messiah. The suffering and death of the Messiah were ordained by God and proclaimed by His prophets. The resurrection of Jesus provided evidence of the control God was exercising over the process of redemption. This triumphant event removed the purely local and national character of Christ's work, and gave His message of salvation worldwide dimensions, as had been prophesied (Is. 60:3; Mal. 1:11).

27:4 the winds were contrary. This happened just before the winter storms increased, and sailing became difficult. Paul was being sent to Rome by ship at the worst time of year for sailing.

head wind arose, called Euroclydon.* 15So when the ship was caught, and could not head into the wind, we let her drive. 16And running under the shelter of an island called Clauda,* we secured the skiff with difficulty. 17When they had taken it on board, they used cables to undergird the ship; and fearing lest they should run aground on the Syrtis* Sands, they struck sail and so were driven. 18And because we were exceedingly tempest-tossed, the next day they lightened the ship. 19On the third day [g]we threw the ship's tackle overboard with our own hands. 20Now when neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small tempest beat on us, all hope that we would be saved was finally given up.

21But after long abstinence from food, then Paul stood in the midst of them and said, "Men, you should have listened to me, and not have sailed from Crete and incurred this disaster and loss. 22And now I urge you to take heart, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. 23[h]For there stood by me this night an angel of the God to whom I belong and [i]whom I serve, 24saying, 'Do not be afraid, Paul; you must be brought before Caesar; and indeed God has granted you all those who sail with you.' 25Therefore take heart, men, [j]for I believe God that it will be just as it was told me. 26However, [k]we must run aground on a certain island."

27Now when the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven up and down in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors sensed that they were drawing near some land. 28And they took soundings and found it to be twenty fathoms; and when they had gone a little farther, they took soundings again and found it to be fifteen fathoms. 29Then, fearing lest we should run aground on the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern, and prayed for day to come. 30And as the sailors were seeking to escape from the ship, when they had let down the skiff into the sea, under pretense of putting out anchors from the prow, 31Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these men stay in the ship, you cannot be saved." 32Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the skiff and let it fall off.

33And as day was about to dawn, Paul implored them all to take food, saying, "Today is the fourteenth day you have waited and continued without food, and eaten nothing. 34Therefore I urge you to take nourishment, for this is for your survival, [l]since not a hair will fall from the head of any of you." 35And when he had said these things, he took bread and [m]gave thanks to God in the presence of them all; and when he had broken it he began to eat. 36Then they were all encouraged, and also took food themselves. 37And in all we were two hundred and seventy-six [n]persons on the ship. 38So when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship and threw out the wheat into the sea.

Shipwrecked on Malta

39When it was day, they did not recognize the land; but they observed a bay with a beach, onto which they planned to run the ship if possible. 40And they let go the anchors and left them in the sea, meanwhile loosing the rudder ropes; and they hoisted the mainsail to the wind and made for shore. 41But striking a place where two seas met, [o]they ran the ship aground; and the prow stuck fast and remained immovable, but the stern was being broken up by the violence of the waves.

42And the soldiers' plan was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim away and escape. 43But the centurion, wanting to save Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commanded that those who could swim should jump overboard first and get to land, 44and the rest, some on boards and some on parts of the ship. And so it was [p]that they all escaped safely to land.

Paul's Ministry on Malta

28 Now when they had escaped, they then found out that [q]the island was called Malta. 2And the [b]natives showed us unusual kindness; for they kindled a fire and made us all welcome, because of the rain that was falling and because of the cold. 3But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat, and fastened on his hand. 4So when the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to one another, "No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he has escaped the sea, yet justice does not allow to live." 5But he shook off the creature into the fire and [c]suffered no harm. 6However, they were expecting that he would swell up or suddenly fall down dead. But after they had looked for a long time and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds and [d]said that he was a god.

7 In that region there was an estate of the leading citizen of the island, whose name was Publius, who received us and entertained us courteously for three days. 8 And it happened that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and dysentery. Paul went in to him and [e]prayed, and [f]he laid his hands on him and healed him. 9 So when this was done, the rest of those on the island who had diseases also came and were healed.
10 They also honored us in many [g]ways;
and when we departed, they provided such things as were [h]necessary.

Arrival at Rome

11 After three months we sailed in [i]an Alexandrian ship whose figurehead was the Twin Brothers, which had wintered at the island. 12 And landing at Syracuse, we stayed three days. 13 From there we circled round and reached Rhegium. And after one day the south wind blew; and the next day we came to Puteoli, 14 where we found [j]brethren, and were invited to stay with them seven days. And so we went toward Rome. 15 And from there, when the brethren heard about us, they came to meet us as far as Appii Forum and Three Inns. When Paul saw them, he thanked God and took courage.

16 Now when we came to Rome, the cen-turion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard; but [k]Paul was permitted to dwell by himself with the soldier who guarded him.

Paul's Ministry at Rome

17 And it came to pass after three days that Paul called the leaders of the Jews together. So when they had come together, he said to them: "Men and brethren, [l]though I have done nothing against our people or the customs of our fathers, yet [m]I was delivered as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans, 18 who, [n]when they had examined me, wanted to let me go, because there was no cause for putting me to death. 19 But when the Jews* spoke against it, [o]I was compelled to appeal to Caesar, not that I had anything of which to accuse my nation. 20 For this reason therefore I have called for you, to see you and speak with you, because [p]for the hope of Israel I am bound with [q]this chain."

21 Then they said to him, "We neither received letters from Judea concerning you,
nor have any of the brethren who came reported or spoken any evil of you. 22 But we desire to hear from you what you think;
for concerning this sect, we know that [r]it is spoken against everywhere."

23 So when they had appointed him a day, many came to him at his lodging, [s]to whom he explained and solemnly testified of the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus [t]from both the Law of Moses and the Prophets, from morning till evening. 24 And [u]some were persuaded by the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved. 25 So when they did not agree among themselves, they departed after Paul had said one word: "The Holy Spirit spoke rightly through Isaiah the prophet
to our* fathers, 26 saying,

> [v]'Go to this people and say:
> "Hearing you will hear, and shall not > understand;
> And seeing you will see, and not > perceive;
> 27 For the hearts of this people have > grown dull.
> Their ears are hard of hearing,
> And their eyes they have closed,
> Lest they should see with their eyes
> and hear with their ears,
> Lest they should understand with their
> hearts and turn,
> So that I should heal them."'*

28 "Therefore let it be known to you that the salvation of God has been sent [w]to the Gentiles, and they will hear it!" 29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed and had a great dispute among themselves.*

28:8 lay sick of a fever. This fever was possibly Malta fever, which was common in Malta, Gibraltar, and other Mediterranean islands. The microorganism has since been traced to the milk of the Maltese goats. The fever usually lasted four months, but sometimes could last as long as two or three years.

28:17 leaders of the Jews. By this time, the decree of the emperor Claudius (18:2) had been allowed to lapse, and Jews had returned to Rome.

28:20 Hope—The hope of Israel and the hope which Paul had found in Christ were not two different things. Wherever he went, he proclaimed Christ to the Jews as the fulfillment of their hope. That hope included not only the resurrection; it also included the Messiah and His kingdom. Paul is careful to emphasize that the hope which he now proclaims does not undermine the hope of Israel but rather is its divine fulfillment. His devotion to the hope of the fathers was the cause that brought about his imprisonment and put him in chains. His demeanor before these Jewish leaders in Rome must have been impressive. As he stood before these men whose influence could result in life or death for him, there was no quaking or fear. He had that hope which made him secure, whatever happened.

28:30 two whole years. Paul wrote four of the New Testament letters (Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, and Philemon) during this period.

28:31 preaching . . . teaching. Apparently Paul's case had not been decided when Luke finished this book. It is thought that Paul was in fact released (there was really no case against him), and actually went to Spain as he desired (Rom. 15:24). Titus 1:5 implies that Paul ministered on the island of Crete (something not mentioned in Acts), and many believe that Paul resumed his missionary travel for a few more years before his final arrest, condemnation, and execution, sometime around A.D. 67.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE ROMANS

▶ AUTHOR: All critical schools agree on the Pauline authorship of this foundational book. The vocabulary, style, logic, and theological development are consistent with Paul's other epistles. He wrote Romans in A.D. 57, near the end of his third missionary journey, evidently during his three-month stay in Greece (Acts 20:3–6), more specifically, in Corinth. The church in Rome was well known (Rom. 1:8), and it had been established for several years by the time of this letter. The believers were probably numerous, and evidently they met in several places (16:1–16). The historian Tacitus even referred to the Christians who were persecuted there under Nero in A.D. 64 as an "immense multitude," as the gospel filled the gap left by the practically defunct polytheism of Roman religion.

▶ TIME: C. A.D. 57 ▶ KEY VERSES: Rom. 1:16–17

▶ THEME: Most scholars think that Paul probably wrote this letter from Corinth, shortly before going to Jerusalem with the relief funds for the believers there. At this point in his life and ministry, his theology has been fully developed through years of study and interaction with people as he preached the gospel. Romans systematically explains what Christ did, why He did it, and what has happened as a result. It speaks to what we are as humans and how God has interacted with us through Christ. It lays out God's plan for the world, clarifying what has happened and is still happening in biblical history. In this way, Paul forces us to deal with all the false versions of reality inspired by our fallen human nature as opposed to God's gracious, sustaining plan.

Greeting

1 Paul, a bondservant of Jesus Christ,
[a]called to be an apostle, [b]separated to the gospel of God 2[c]which He promised before [d]through His prophets in the Holy Scriptures, 3concerning His Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who was [e]born of the seed of David according to the flesh, 4and* [f]declared to be the Son of God with power according [g]to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead. 5Through Him [h]we have received grace and apostleship for [i]obedience to the faith among all nations [j]for His name, 6among whom you also are the called of Jesus Christ;

7To all who are in Rome, beloved of God,
[k]called to be saints:

[l]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Desire to Visit Rome

8First, [m]I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that [n]your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. 9For [o]God is my witness, [p]whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of His Son, that [q]without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers, 10making request if, by some means, now at last I may find a way in the will of God to come to you. 11For I long to see you, that [r]I may impart to you some spiritual gift, so that you may be established— 12that is, that I may be encouraged together with you by [s]the mutual faith both of you and me.

13Now I do not want you to be unaware, brethren, that I often planned to come to you (but [t]was hindered until now), that I might have some [u]fruit among you also,
just as among the other Gentiles. 14I am a debtor both to Greeks and to barbarians,

1:1 bondservant. A bondservant is a slave. Paul is talking about a slavery taken voluntarily out of love (see Ex. 21:1–6), unlike the forced slavery known to so many in the Roman Empire.
1:4 declared. The word translated "declared" means "designated." Jesus did not become the Son of God by the resurrection. Instead, the resurrection proved that Jesus was the Son of God.
1:14 barbarians. Paul is referring to the non-Greek Gentile populations, such as the northern European peoples, the Britons, the Gauls, and the Celts.

both to wise and to unwise. 15So, as much as is in me, I am ready to preach the gospel to you who are in Rome also.

The Just Live by Faith

16For [v]I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ,* for [w]it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes, [x]for the Jew first and also for the Greek. 17For [y]in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, [z]*"The just shall live by faith."

God's Wrath on Unrighteousness

18[a]For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and [b]unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness, 19because [c]what may be known of God is manifest in them, for [d]God has shown it to them. 20For since the creation of the world [e]His invisible attributes are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead, so that they are without excuse, 21because, although they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God, nor were thankful, but [f]became futile in their thoughts, and their foolish hearts were darkened. 22[g]Professing to be wise, they became fools, 23and changed the glory of the [h]incorruptible [i]God into an image made like corruptible man—and birds and four-footed animals and creeping things.

24[j]Therefore God also gave them up to uncleanness, in the lusts of their hearts, [k]to dishonor their bodies [l]among themselves, 25who exchanged [m]the truth of God [n]for the lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.

26For this reason God gave them up to [o]vile passions. For even their women exchanged the natural use for what is against nature. 27Likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust for one another, men with men committing what is shameful, and receiving in themselves the penalty of their error which was due.

28And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a debased mind, to do those things [p]which are not fitting; 29being filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality,* wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil-mindedness; they are whisperers, 30backbiters, haters of God, violent, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, 31undiscerning, untrustworthy, unloving, unforgiving,* unmerciful; 32who, [q]knowing the righteous judgment of God, that those who practice such things [r]are deserving of death, not only do the same but also [s]approve of those who practice them.

God's Righteous Judgment

2 Therefore you are [a]inexcusable, O man, whoever you are who judge, [b]for in whatever you judge another you condemn

1:17 faith to faith. Faith is at the beginning of the salvation process, and it is the goal as well. Paul had faith that God, through the Holy Spirit, could and would build true righteousness in him. For the believer this means prayerful self-examination, prayer to do better, and careful response to those inner nudges that say, "don't say that . . . have pity . . . encourage him . . . ," etc.

1:18–19 There Are No Excuses—Someone once said there were two points they understood about God: (1) "There is a God"; and (2) "I am not Him." Theologians use the term "general revelation" to describe the concept Paul is teaching here in Romans 1. God has revealed Himself through His creation so that everyone can understand that He exists and that He has created the world and man with a purpose. God created man with an inner sense that there is something bigger out there, something that transcends mankind. That something is God and He requires recognition. The created world points us to God, but we suppress that truth, preferring to put ourselves in the place of God, in effect saying, "There is no God but me." Paul further says that, because the revelation is so clear, we have no excuse for missing it, no legitimate reason for our blindness. People who do not see it are guilty of not acknowledging the most basic reality there is.

1:25 lie. This refers to the kind of wrong thinking that led to idol worship. This "lie" refuses to honor both God's law and His authority. When people stop knowing that God created the universe, that it is His, they adopt all kinds of wrong thinking about sin, society, morality, and especially, the role of God Himself.

1:27 what is shameful. Homosexuality is sin (Lev. 18:22), and the actions that are part of this lifestyle are called "shameful" by God. In this passage Paul explains that homosexual sin is the result of men having rejected God and exchanged what is natural for the unnatural. The problems from this way of living are themselves the "penalty" for this choice.

1:29–32 being filled with all unrighteousness. These verses contain one of the most complete lists of sin in all of Scripture. This passage addresses not only the fact that God judges rightly that these sins are deserving of death, but it also addresses the idea that approving of these sins is something God judges.

2:1–4 judge. Paul points out in this passage that anyone who judges others condemns himself, for in this list of sins is something that everyone has been guilty yourself; for you who judge practice the same things. 2But we know that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who practice such things. 3And do you think this, O man, you who judge those practicing such things, and doing the same, that you will escape the judgment of God? 4Or do you despise [c]the riches of His goodness, [d]forbearance, and [e]longsuffering, [f]not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance? 5But in accordance with your hardness and your impenitent heart [g]you are treasuring up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God, 6who [h]*"will render to each one according to his deeds": 7eternal life to those who by patient continuance in doing good seek for glory, honor, and immortality; 8but to those who are self-seeking and [i]do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness—indignation and wrath, 9tribulation and anguish, on every soul of man who does evil, of the Jew [j]first and also of the Greek; 10[k]but glory, honor, and peace to everyone who works what is good, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. 11For [l]there is no partiality with God.

12For as many as have sinned without law will also perish without law, and as many as have sinned in the law will be judged by the law 13(for [m]not the hearers of the law are just in the sight of God, but the doers of the law will be justified; 14for when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do the things in the law, these, although not having the law, are a law to themselves, 15who show the [n]work of the law written in their hearts, their [o]conscience also bearing witness, and between themselves their thoughts accusing or else excusing them) 16[p]in the day when God will judge the secrets of men [q]by Jesus Christ, [r]according to my gospel.

The Jews Guilty as the Gentiles

17Indeed* [s]you are called a Jew, and [t]rest on the law, [u]and make your boast in God, 18and [v]know His will, and [w]approve the things that are excellent, being instructed out of the law, 19and [x]are confident that you yourself are a guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness, 20an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, [y]having the form of knowledge and truth in the law. 21[z]You, therefore, who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who preach that a man should not steal, do you steal? 22You who say, "Do not commit adultery," do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, [a]do you rob temples? 23You who [b]make your boast in the law, do you dishonor God through breaking the law? 24For [c]*"the name of God is [d]blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you," as it is written.

Circumcision of No Avail

25[e]For circumcision is indeed profitable if you keep the law; but if you are a breaker of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. 26Therefore, [f]if an uncircumcised man keeps the righteous requirements of the law, will not his uncircumcision be counted as circumcision? 27And will not the physically uncircumcised, if he fulfills the law, [g]judge you who, even with your written code and circumcision, are a transgressor of the law? 28For [h]he is not a Jew who is one outwardly,

of in one way or another. Paul asks if the judgers realize that it is God in His goodness who leads one to repentance, and that only God can judge rightly. Only He can judge the actions of the heart and person without condemning Himself, for only He is without sin.

2:4 repentance. Literally, this means "to change one's mind." In this context it means to reject one's sinful habits and turn to God.

2:7–8 eternal life . . . doing good. According to these verses it might seem that "eternal life" can be gained by "doing good." But Romans clearly teaches justification by faith (3:22). The subject of this verse is judgment, not justification. Jesus said that "every idle word men may speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment" (Matt. 12:36). Even Christians will see both the good and the evil that they have done. They are justified (considered righteous and therefore not punished for their sins because they have accepted Christ's death on their behalf) but they still have to see what they have done according to God's righteous judgment. Good works are a "foundation for the time to come [eternity]" (1 Tim. 6:17–19).

2:12 without law. Gentiles, who did not receive the Mosaic law, were sometimes described by this term.

2:14 by nature do the things in the law. Gentiles who still do such things as honor their parents, respond in kindness, or live honestly, show that they do have the idea of a basic moral law and the concepts of right and wrong.

2:16 secrets. According to the gospel that Paul preached, God will judge not only people's actions, but their motives, or "secrets."

2:17–25 Self-Righteousness—Paul speaks of the lamentable disparity between the truth that the Jews knew, and their practice of the truth. Boasting about having God's law, while breaking the law in their lives, brings upon them the strongest condemnation, and establishes the truth that the law can only condemn.

nor is circumcision that which is outward in the flesh; 29but he is a Jew [i]who is one inwardly; and [j]circumcision is that of the heart, [k]in the Spirit, not in the letter; [l]whose praise is not from men but from God.

God's Judgment Defended

3 What advantage then has the Jew, or what is the profit of circumcision? 2Much in every way! Chiefly because [a]to them were committed the oracles of God. 3For what if [b]some did not believe? [c]Will their unbelief make the faithfulness of God without effect? 4[d]Certainly not! Indeed, let [e]God be true but [f]every man a liar. As it is written:

[g]"That You may be justified in Your words,
*And may overcome when You are judged."

5But if our unrighteousness demonstrates the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unjust who inflicts wrath? [h](I speak as a man.) 6Certainly not! For then [i]how will God judge the world?

7For if the truth of God has increased through my lie to His glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner? 8And why not say, [j]"Let us do evil that good may come"?—as we are slanderously reported and as some affirm that we say. Their condemnation is just.

All Have Sinned

9What then? Are we better than they? Not at all. For we have previously charged both Jews and Greeks that [k]they are all under sin.

10As it is written:

[l]"There is none righteous, no, not one;
11 There is none who understands;
There is none who seeks after God.
12 They have all turned aside;
They have together become unprofitable;
*There is none who does good, no, not one."
13 "Their[m] throat is an open tomb;
*With their tongues they have practiced deceit";
[n]*"The poison of asps is under their lips";
14 *"Whose[o] mouth is full of cursing and bitterness."
15 "Their[p] feet are swift to shed blood;
16 Destruction and misery are in their ways;
17 *And the way of peace they have not known."
18 *"There[q] is no fear of God before their eyes."

19Now we know that whatever [r]the law says, it says to those who are under the law, that [s]every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. 20Therefore [t]by the deeds of the law no flesh will be justified in His sight, for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

God's Righteousness Through Faith

21But now [u]the righteousness of God apart from the law is revealed, [v]being witnessed by the Law [w]and the Prophets, 22even the righteousness of God, through faith in Jesus Christ, to all and on all* who believe. For [x]there is no difference; 23for [y]all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, 24being justified freely [z]by His grace [a]through the redemption that is in

2:29 in the Spirit, not in the letter. The internal circumcision of the heart is the work of the Holy Spirit. God condemns external observance if it is not the product of a righteous heart (Is. 1:10–18).

3:2 oracles of God. The entire Old Testament, the laws and the covenants that have been given by God Himself to the nation of Israel are the "oracles," or the things that God has spoken.

3:16 Destruction and misery. In verses 10–18, Paul quotes without formal introduction a number of different verses from the Old Testament. In these passages it is shown that man not only does not seek God, but apart from Him they lack true goodness and will treat each other with violence, cursing, being quick to kill, and finding only destruction and misery.

3:18 fear of God. This is an Old Testament expression for respect and reverence for God.

3:20 justified. A legal term used of the defendant in a trial, "justified" means "declared righteous." No one will be declared righteous by doing what God requires in the law.

3:23 Universal Sin—We generally avoid the word sin. We want to call it something other than what it is because we don't like the implications of the word. We don't like being told we're rebels, that we're flawed and bent in our very natures, and that there is nothing we can do about it on our own (Gen. 3:6–7). We have this innate sense that we can overcome the problem with a little more effort or maturity. Even that innate sense is an illustration of the problem. The bold hard facts always point us back to Paul's conclusions; "we're sinners," period.

3:24 redemption. Those who believe are justified, that is, declared righteous, freely, by God's grace or favor. Christ Jesus died to provide redemption, (or to "buy back," in the same way we "redeem" a promissory note). He died to pay the price required to ransom sinners. He transfers His righteousness to those who believe in Him, and on the basis of Christ's

Boasting Excluded

27[e]Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? Of works? No, but by the law of faith. 28Therefore we conclude [f]that a man is justified by faith apart from the deeds of the law. 29Or is He the God of the Jews only? Is He not also the God of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also, 30since [g]there is one God who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. 31Do we then make void the law through faith? Certainly not! On the contrary, we establish the law.

Abraham Justified by Faith

4 What then shall we say that [a]Abraham our [b]father has found according to the flesh?* 2For if Abraham was [c]justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God. 3For what does the Scripture say? [d]*"Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness." 4Now [e]to him who works, the wages are not counted as grace but as debt.

David Celebrates the Same Truth

5But to him who [f]does not work but believes on Him who justifies [g]the ungodly, his faith is accounted for righteousness, 6just as David also [h]describes the blessedness of the man to whom God imputes righteousness apart from works:

7 "Blessed[i] are those whose lawless
deeds are forgiven,
And whose sins are covered;
8 Blessed is the man to whom the LORD
*shall not impute sin."

Abraham Justified Before Circumcision

9*Does* this blessedness then come upon the circumcised only, or upon the uncircumcised also? For we say that faith was accounted to Abraham for righteousness. 10How then was it accounted? While he was circumcised, or uncircumcised? Not while circumcised, but while uncircumcised. 11And [j]he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while still uncircumcised, that [k]he might be the father of all those who believe, though they are uncircumcised, that righteousness might be imputed to them also, 12and the father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of the faith which our father [l]Abraham had while still uncircumcised.

The Promise Granted Through Faith

13For the promise that he would be the [m]heir of the world was not to Abraham or to his seed through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. 14For [n]if those who are of the law are heirs, faith is made void and the promise made of no effect, 15because [o]the law brings about wrath; for where there is no law there is no transgression.

16Therefore it is of faith that it might be [p]according to grace, [q]so that the promise might be sure to all the seed, not only to those who are of the law, but also to those who are of the faith of Abraham, [r]who is the father of us all 17(as it is written, [s]*"I have made you a father of many nations") in righteousness alone, believers can approach God's throne with praise.

3:25 propitiation. By His death, Christ satisfied the justice of God. The word translated "propitiation" refers to appeasement. No man can ever appease God, for His wrath over sin and His judgment of sin are totally just. But God in His mercy provided that appeasement through Jesus Christ, who died on the cross to pay for the sins of the world and to open the way for sinners to come before our Holy God.

3:27 law of faith. The "law of faith" is a kind of play on words. Paul has been talking about the fact that the law does not give people a right relationship with God. The only "law" about having this relationship is that it must be by "faith," not by deeds, whether people are Jewish or Gentile. We can never earn our salvation.

3:31 make void the law. In this passage the question of either making the law void or establishing the law means that if salvation is received by faith, it would seem like the law was of no value. But actually the fact that Christ came, which was promised through the whole Old Testament, and that He kept the law perfectly, establishes the law as being valid. Only after salvation can people keep the law at all, as Jesus explained in Matthew 22:40, for the law is summed up in loving God and loving our neighbor.

4:1 according to the flesh. Or "by his own labor."

4:16 Abraham, who is the father of us all. God's promises to Abraham were not based on any performance or ritual, but on Abraham's belief, so Abraham is the "father" of all who believe.

4:17 gives life to the dead. The description of God

the presence of Him whom he believed—God, [t]who gives life to the dead and calls those [u]things which do not exist as though they did; [18]who, contrary to hope,
in hope believed, so that he became the father of many nations, according to what was spoken, [v]*"So shall your descendants be." [19]And not being weak in faith, [w]he did not consider his own body, already dead (since he was about a hundred years old), [x]and the deadness of Sarah's womb.
[20]He did not waver at the promise of God
through unbelief, but was strengthened in faith, giving glory to God, [21]and being fully convinced that what He had promised [y]He was also able to perform. [22]And therefore [z]*"it was accounted to him for righteousness."

[23]Now [a]it was not written for his sake alone that it was imputed to him, [24]but also for us. It shall be imputed to us who believe [b]in Him who raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead, [25][c]who was delivered up because of our offenses, and [d]was raised because of our justification.

Faith Triumphs in Trouble

5 Therefore, [a]having been justified
by faith, we have* [b]peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, [2][c]through whom also we have access by faith into this grace [d]in which we stand, and [e]rejoice in hope of the glory of God. [3]And not only that, but [f]we also glory in tribulations, [g]knowing that tribulation produces perseverance; [4][h]and perseverance, character;
and character, hope. [5][i]Now hope does not disappoint, [j]because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who was given to us.

Christ in Our Place

[6]For when we were still without strength, in due time [k]Christ died for the ungodly. [7]For scarcely for a righteous man will one die; yet perhaps for a good man someone would even dare to die. [8]But [l]God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners,
Christ died for us. [9]Much more then, having now been justified [m]by His blood, we shall be saved [n]from wrath through Him.
[10]For [o]if when we were enemies [p]we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved [q]by His life.
[11]And not only that, but we also [r]rejoice
in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.

Death in Adam, Life in Christ

[12]Therefore, just as [s]through one man sin entered the world, and [t]death through sin, and thus death spread to all men, because all sinned— [13](For until the law sin
was in the world, but [u]sin is not imputed
when there is no law. [14]Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who had not sinned according to the likeness of the transgression of Adam,
[v]who is a type of Him who was to come.
[15]But the free gift is not like the offense.
For if by the one man's offense many died,
much more the grace of God and the gift
by the grace of the one Man, Jesus Christ, abounded [w]to many. [16]And the gift is not like that which came through the one who sinned. For the judgment which came from one offense resulted in condemnation, but the free gift which came from many offenses resulted in justification. [17]For if by the one man's offense death reigned through the one, much more those who receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness will reign in life through the One, Jesus Christ.)

[18]Therefore, as through one man's offense judgment came to all men, resulting in condemnation, even so through [x]one Man's righteous act the free gift came [y]to all men, resulting in justification of life.

* 4:18 Genesis 15:5 * 4:22 Genesis 15:6
* 5:1 Another ancient reading is, let us have peace.

as one who "gives life to the dead" refers not only to God making Abraham and Sarah's dead reproductive systems alive, but also to the fact that God could and did resurrect Jesus. That is the kind of God He is; belief in the resurrection is central to Christianity, and also to our belief in our own eternal life through Christ.

5:1 Justification—God's gracious justification of the believer does not take place by stages or degrees. It is an instantaneous judicial "not guilty" declaration, based on the perfect obedience and the once-for-all sacrifice of Christ. The believer now has peace with God through Jesus Christ, full pardon of his sins, and the title to eternal life. The crowning gift is an abiding joy and peace in the Lord, which remains in spite of outside circumstances.

5:12 one man. The "one man" is Adam.

5:13 imputed. "Imputed" means "to charge to one's account," as by an entry made into a ledger. In other words, sin was present in the world from Adam to Moses, but God did not keep an account of sins before the giving of the law because there was no law to obey or disobey. Those after Adam and before Moses did not sin like Adam because there were no prohibitions similar to the law of Moses. But they did sin, and the way we know this is that "death reigned." They all died.

19For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so also by [z]one Man's obedience many will be made righteous.
20Moreover [a]the law entered that the offense might abound. But where sin abounded, grace [b]abounded much more, 21so that as sin reigned in death, even so grace might reign through righteousness
to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Dead to Sin, Alive to God

6 What shall we say then? [a]Shall we continue in sin that grace may abound?
2Certainly not! How shall we who [b]died to sin live any longer in it? 3Or do you not know that [c]as many of us as were baptized into Christ Jesus [d]were baptized into His death? 4Therefore we were [e]buried with Him through baptism into death, that [f]just as Christ was raised from the dead by [g]the glory of the Father, [h]even so we also should walk in newness of life.
5[i]For if we have been united together in the likeness of His death, certainly we also shall be in the likeness of His resurrection, 6knowing this, that [j]our old man was crucified with Him, that [k]the body of sin might be done away with, that we should no longer be slaves of sin. 7For [l]he who has died has been freed from sin. 8Now [m]if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him, 9knowing that [n]Christ,
having been raised from the dead, dies no more. Death no longer has dominion over Him. 10For the death that He died, [o]He died
to sin once for all; but the life that He lives, [p]He lives to God. 11Likewise you also, reckon yourselves to be [q]dead indeed to sin, but [r]alive to God in Christ Jesus our Lord.
12[s]Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts. 13And do not present your [t]members
as instruments of unrighteousness to sin, but [u]present yourselves to God as being alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God. 14For [v]sin shall not have dominion over you, for you are not under law but under grace.

From Slaves of Sin to Slaves of God

15What then? Shall we sin [w]because we are not under law but under grace?
Certainly not! 16Do you not know that [x]to whom you present yourselves slaves to obey, you are that one's slaves whom you obey, whether of sin leading to death, or of obedience leading to righteousness? 17But God be thanked that though you were slaves of sin, yet you obeyed from the heart [y]that form of doctrine to which you were delivered. 18And [z]having been set free from sin, you became slaves of righteousness.
19I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you presented your members as slaves of uncleanness, and of lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members
as slaves of righteousness for holiness.
20For when you were [a]slaves of sin,
you were free in regard to righteousness.
21[b]What fruit did you have then in the things of which you are now ashamed? For [c]the end of those things is death. 22But now [d]having been set free from sin, and having become slaves of God, you have your fruit
to holiness, and the end, everlasting life.
23For [e]the wages of sin is death, but [f]the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Freed from the Law

7 Or do you not know, brethren (for I speak to those who know the law), that the law has dominion over a man as long as he lives? 2For [a]the woman who has a husband is bound by the law to her husband as long as he lives. But if the husband dies, she is released from the law of her husband. 3So then [b]if, while her husband lives, she marries another man, she will

5:19 many will be made righteous. Through the sanctifying work of the Holy Spirit, the believer who has been declared righteous by God is continually becoming more righteous in thought and action.
5:20 where sin abounded, grace abounded much more. Once the law had been revealed, the sin which was already there became much more obvious because it had been explicitly illustrated how wrong it was. But grace was even bigger than the sin. Sin can never exceed the grace provided by God, and it loses its threat when compared to the infinite grace of God.
6:6 crucified with Him. Simply put, a believer is not the same person he or she was before conversion. A believer is a new creation in Christ (2 Cor. 5:17).
6:23 New Life: A Free Gift—This passage gets at the central point of the Christian gospel. When we are separated from God, sin directs our lives and there is a wage, a consequence, for that sin: death and permanent separation from God. In stark contrast, we do not earn a wage from God. His gifts are free and abundant—the gift of eternal life. There is nothing that one can do to earn this incredible gift. Eternal life is just that—eternal—it never ceases. All fear of death and its effects can end. Instead of being separated from God for all eternity, Christians will have union with Him. Jesus Christ accomplished all of this on the cross once and for all.
7:3 Adultery—In this passage Paul uses the marriage relationship as an illustration of the believer's relationship to the law and Christ. A wife cannot be called an adulteress; but if her husband dies, she is free from that law, so that she is no adulteress, though she has married another man. 4Therefore, my brethren, you also have become [c]dead to the law through the body of Christ, that you may be married to another—to Him who was raised from the dead, that we should [d]bear fruit to God. 5For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions which were aroused by the law [e]were at work in our members [f]to bear fruit to death. 6But now we have been delivered from the law, having died to what we were held by, so that we should serve [g]in the newness of the Spirit and not in the oldness of the letter.

Sin's Advantage in the Law

7What shall we say then? Is the law sin? Certainly not! On the contrary, [h]I would not have known sin except through the law. For I would not have known covetousness unless the law had said, [i]*"You shall not covet." 8But [j]sin, taking opportunity by the commandment, produced in me all manner of evil desire. For [k]apart from the law sin was dead. 9I was alive once without the law, but when the commandment came, sin revived and I died. 10And the commandment, [l]which was to bring life, I found to bring death. 11For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it killed me. 12Therefore [m]the law is holy, and the commandment holy and just and good.

Law Cannot Save from Sin

13Has then what is good become death to me? Certainly not! But sin, that it might appear sin, was producing death in me through what is good, so that sin through the commandment might become exceedingly sinful. 14For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am carnal, [n]sold under sin. 15For what I am doing, I do not understand. [o]For what I will to do, that I do not practice; but what I hate, that I do. 16If, then, I do what I will not to do, I agree with the law that it is good. 17But now, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells in me. 18For I know that [p]in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. 19For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice. 20Now if I do what I will not to do, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells in me.

21I find then a law, that evil is present with me, the one who wills to do good. 22For I [q]delight in the law of God according to [r]the inward man. 23But [s]I see another law in [t]my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. 24O wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me [u]from this body of death? 25[v]I thank God—through Jesus Christ our Lord!

So then, with the mind I myself serve the law of God, but with the flesh the law of sin.

Free from Indwelling Sin

8 There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus,* [a]who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. 2For [b]the law of [c]the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from [d]the law of sin and death. 3For [e]what the law could not do in that it was weak through the flesh, [f]God did by sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, on account of sin: He condemned sin in the flesh, 4that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us who [g]do not walk according to the flesh

* 7:7 Exodus 20:17; Deuteronomy 5:21 * 8:1 NU-Text omits the rest of this verse.

marry another without committing adultery, but if her husband is dead, she is free to marry another. In the same way, believers must count the law (reconciliation with God by works) dead, in order to "marry" Christ and have a new life. Believers cannot live by the law and by grace, any more than a woman can have two husbands.

7:6 newness of the Spirit . . . oldness of the letter. Believers have a new life in the Holy Spirit, not in trying to gain life by obeying ancient or old laws.

7:8 apart from the law sin was dead. Sin can exist without the law, but without a standard of right and wrong, there can be no judgment of what is sin and what is not.

7:9 when the commandment came, sin revived. Oddly enough, the very rules against certain behaviors arouse the desire to perform those evil acts.

7:13 become death to me. The problem is not the law; the problem is sin. Through the law, sin is shown for what it is, and realization that we are "dead" in sin. We cannot really "be good," even when we know what that is.

8:1 Condemnation—God's justification ("not guilty"), once pronounced, is final. Christ's death blots out the sins of His people, and when His work is applied to the believer, there is no room for condemnation, for God's justice has removed all grounds for it forever. This does not mean that the believer does not still deal with overcoming sin on a regular basis, but through the work of the Holy Spirit, he can be free from the tyranny of sin, and for the love of Christ, live in a way that pleases his Savior.

8:3 the law could not do. The law can point out sin, but it cannot do anything about sin itself.

but according to the Spirit. 5For [h]those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, [i]the things of the Spirit. 6For [j]to be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. 7Because [k]the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, [l]nor indeed can be. 8So then, those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

9But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwells in you. Now if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he is not His. 10And if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. 11But if the Spirit of [m]Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, [n]He who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit who dwells in you.

Sonship Through the Spirit

12[o]Therefore, brethren, we are debtors—not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. 13For [p]if you live according to the flesh you will die; but if by the Spirit you [q]put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. 14For [r]as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God. 15For [s]you did not receive the spirit of bondage again [t]to fear, but you received the [u]Spirit of adoption by whom we cry out, [v]"Abba, Father." 16[w]The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, 17and if children, then [x]heirs—heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, [y]if indeed we suffer with Him, that we may also be glorified together.

From Suffering to Glory

18For I consider that [z]the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. 19For [a]the earnest expectation of the creation eagerly waits for the revealing of the sons of God. 20For [b]the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of Him who subjected it in hope; 21because the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious [c]liberty of the children of God. 22For we know that the whole creation [d]groans and labors with birth pangs together until now. 23Not only that, but we also who have [e]the firstfruits of the Spirit, [f]even we ourselves groan [g]within ourselves, eagerly waiting for the adoption, the [h]redemption of our body. 24For we were saved in this hope, but [i]hope that is seen is not hope; for why does one still hope for what he sees? 25But if we hope for what we do not see, we eagerly wait for it with perseverance.

26Likewise the Spirit also helps in our weaknesses. For [j]we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but [k]the Spirit Himself makes intercession for us* with groanings which cannot be uttered. 27Now [l]He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints [m]according to the will of God.

28And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those [n]who are the called according to His purpose. 29For whom [o]He foreknew, [p]He also predestined [q]to be conformed to the image of His Son, [r]that He might be the firstborn among many brethren. 30Moreover whom He predestined, these He also [s]called; whom He called, these He also [t]justified; and whom He justified, these He also [u]glorified.

God's Everlasting Love

31What then shall we say to these things? [v]If God is for us, who can be against us?

be fulfilled in us. The believer gains the righteous standard of the law—love—not by means of the law, but by being in Christ and walking "according to the Spirit."

8:15 God the Father—God is the Father of all who believe in Christ in a special sense not shared by unbelievers. God is called their Father, first of all, because they have a new standing before Him. While unbelievers are the offspring of God because He created them (Acts 17:28–29), they do not have the standing of sons or daughters. Their standing is rather as condemned sinners before God the Judge (John 3:18; Rev. 20:11). When a person believes in Christ as Savior, his estate is changed from condemnation to sonship. This new standing grants to all believers the legal right and spiritual privileges of divine sonship: "heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ" (Rom. 8:17). He gives them new life (John 3:3). This relationship then is a family one involving many of the same realities that exist between an earthly father and child: birth of the child (John 3:3); partaking of the father's nature (2 Pet. 1:4); the father's care for the child (Matt. 6:32–33; 7:9–11); and the father's discipline of the child (Heb. 12:6–8). This new Father-child relationship carries with it new brothers and sisters (Heb. 13:1). The one who believes in Christ as Savior enters into the Father-child relationship with God on the grounds of Christ's sonship (Rom. 8:17; Heb. 2:17).

32 [w]He who did not spare His own Son, but [x]delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?
33 Who shall bring a charge against God's elect? [y]It is God who justifies. 34 [z]Who is he who condemns? It is Christ who died, and furthermore is also risen, [a]who is even at the right hand of God, [b]who also makes intercession for us. 35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? 36 As it is written:

> [c]"For Your sake we are killed all day long;
> *We are accounted as sheep for the slaughter."

37 [d]Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. 38 For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor [e]principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, 39 nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Israel's Rejection of Christ

9 I [a]tell the truth in Christ, I am not lying, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Spirit, 2 [b]that I have great sorrow and continual grief in my heart. 3 For [c]I could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my countrymen* according to the flesh, 4 who are Israelites, [d]to whom pertain the adoption, [e]the glory, [f]the covenants, [g]the giving of the law, [h]the service of God, and [i]the promises; 5 [j]of whom are the fathers and from [k]whom, according to the flesh, Christ came, [l]who is over all, the eternally blessed God. Amen.

Israel's Rejection and God's Purpose

6 [m]But it is not that the word of God has taken no effect. For [n]they are not all Israel who are of Israel, 7 nor are they all children because they are the seed of Abraham; but, [p]*"In Isaac your seed shall be called." 8 That is, those who are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God; but [q]the children of the promise are counted as the seed. 9 For this is the word of promise: [r]*"At this time I will come and Sarah shall have a son."

10 And not only this, but when [s]Rebecca also had conceived by one man, even by our father Isaac 11 (for the children not yet being born, nor having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works but of [t]Him who calls), 12 it was said to her, [u]"The older shall serve the younger." 13 As it is written, [v]"Jacob I have loved, but Esau I have hated."

Israel's Rejection and God's Justice

14 What shall we say then? [w]Is there unrighteousness with God? Certainly not! 15 For He says to Moses, [x]*"I will have mercy on whomever I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whomever I will have compassion." 16 So then it is not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of God who shows mercy. 17 For [y]the Scripture says to the Pharaoh, [z]"For this very purpose I have raised you up, that I may show My power in you, and that My name may be

8:38–39 The Ultimate Security—The first chapters of Romans contain the most complete and systematic presentation of the gospel in the Scriptures. This passage is the bottom-line statement. Nothing can separate us from the love of God that is in Christ. Sadly, too often we hear those words and aren't able to apply them to how we live on a day-to-day basis. Satan is known as a deceiver. He will always try to persuade us that God's love is less than what it is. No matter what the circumstances, no matter how much we mess up, no matter how many powerful forces there are that would try to damage our relationship with Him, God will be there for us with His love.

8:39 shall be able to separate us. Christ created all things, "in heaven and . . . on earth, visible and invisible," and He was "before all things, and in Him all things consist" (Col. 1:16–17). If God, who was from the beginning, is for us, no created thing can separate us from His love. Our security in Him is absolute.

9:1 Conscience—This word is used by Paul for the witness within a person which scrutinizes, examines, and renders a verdict on behavior. Paul is saying in the passage that his conscience verifies the truthfulness of his statement that he has great grief over the Jews' rejection of the gospel. The Holy Spirit is the revealer of truth to the soul, and only as the mind and heart are taught by Scripture and governed by the Holy Spirit is the voice of conscience a reliable guide in life.

9:6 not all Israel. What about the Jewish people? They had the law, the covenants, and the promises. God has not changed His mind about His chosen people. He always intended for them to understand His whole message, up to and including the Messiah (Christ), as Paul has just explained. But God has, throughout history, always worked with those who believed, not just according to bloodline.

9:15 I will have mercy. God does not "owe" any of us salvation. He has mercy on us in spite of the way we act, not because of the way we act.

*declared in all the earth." 18Therefore He has mercy on whom He wills, and whom He wills He [a]hardens.

19You will say to me then, "Why does He still find fault? For [b]who has resisted His will?" 20But indeed, O man, who are you to reply against God? [c]Will the thing formed say to him who formed it, "Why have you made me like this?" 21Does not the [d]potter have power over the clay, from the same lump to make [e]one vessel for honor and another for dishonor?

22*What* if God, wanting to show His wrath and to make His power known, endured with much longsuffering [f]the vessels of wrath [g]prepared for destruction, 23and that He might make known [h]the riches of His glory on the vessels of mercy, which He had [i]prepared beforehand for glory, 24even us whom He [j]called, [k]not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?

25As He says also in Hosea:

[l]"I will call them My people, who were not My people,
*And her beloved, who was not beloved."

26 "And[m] it shall come to pass in the place where it was said to them,
'You are not My people,'
*There they shall be called sons of the living God."

27Isaiah also cries out concerning Israel:*

[n]"Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea,
[o]The remnant will be saved.
28 For He will finish the work and cut it short in righteousness,
[p]*Because the LORD will make a short work upon the earth."

29And as Isaiah said before:

[q]"Unless the LORD of Sabaoth had left us a seed,*
[r]We would have become like Sodom,
*And we would have been made like Gomorrah."

Present Condition of Israel

30What shall we say then? [s]That Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, have attained to righteousness, [t]even the righteousness of faith; 31but Israel, [u]pursuing the law of righteousness, [v]has not attained to the law of righteousness.* 32Why? Because they did not seek it by faith, but as it were, by the works of the law.* For [w]they stumbled at that stumbling stone. 33As it is written:

[x]"Behold, I lay in Zion a stumbling stone and rock of offense,
*And [y]whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame."

Israel Needs the Gospel

10 Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel* is that they may be saved. 2For I bear them witness [a]that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. 3For they being ignorant of [b]God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own [c]righteousness, have not submitted to the righteousness of God. 4For [d]Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes.

5For Moses writes about the righteousness which is of the law, [e]"The man who does those things shall live by them." 6But the righteousness of faith speaks in this way, [f]"Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'" (that is, to bring

9:20 reply against God. Herein lies the divine tension. The Lord says that He does not wish for any to perish, but for all to come to repentance (2 Pet. 3:9). But He also says that no one comes to Jesus unless the Father draws him (John 6:44). He has mercy on whom He desires, and He hardens whom He desires (v. 18). Paul insists on God's right to do as He pleases. Even though God both draws and hardens, He also says that who He is and His worthiness to be worshiped are made plain in creation, so man is without excuse (Rom. 1:18–21). The question is not, "Why are some saved and some condemned?" Everyone deserves condemnation and it is only by God's grace that anyone is saved. We can be sure that whatever God does, it will be righteous, and there is a bigger picture than we can understand from our finite point of view. The only real question is, "How can I be saved?"

9:32 stumbled. Being committed to righteousness by works, Israel "stumbled" over the righteousness of faith offered in Christ, just as God had already seen they would and declared through the prophet Isaiah (v. 33).

10:3 Self-Righteousness—There are two things which hinder people from submitting themselves to God's plan of salvation. The first is ignorance of God's own righteous character, and the second is human pride. No one is ever a candidate for Christ's righteousness unless he sees himself as utterly devoid of all possibility of attaining it on his own merits.

10:4 For Christ is the end of the law. Christ fulfilled all the requirements of the law, and He is also the Christ down from above) 7or, g"'Who will descend into the abyss?'"* (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). 8But what does it say? h*"The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith which we preach): 9that iif you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. 10For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. 11For the Scripture says, j*"Whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame." 12For kthere is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for lthe same Lord over all mis rich to all who call upon Him. 13For n*"whoever calls oon the name of the* LORD *shall be saved."

Israel Rejects the Gospel

14How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear pwithout a preacher? 15And how shall they preach unless they are sent? As it is written:

q*"How beautiful are the feet of those* *who preach the gospel of peace,
Who bring glad tidings of good
*things!"

16But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, r*"LORD, who has believed our report?" 17So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18But I say, have they not heard? Yes indeed:

s*"Their sound has gone out to all the earth,*
And their words to the ends of the *world."

19But I say, did Israel not know? First Moses says:

t*"I will provoke you to jealousy by those* who are not a nation,
I will move you to anger by a ufoolish
*nation."

20But Isaiah is very bold and says:

v*"I was found by those who did not seek*
Me;
I was made manifest to those who did *not ask for Me."

21But to Israel he says:

w*"All day long I have stretched out My* hands
*To a disobedient and contrary people."

Israel's Rejection Not Total

11 I say then, ahas God cast away His people? bCertainly not! For cI also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. 2God has not cast away His people whom dHe foreknew. Or do you not know what the Scripture says of Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel, saying, 3e*"LORD, they have killed Your prophets and torn down Your altars, and I alone am left, and they seek my life"? 4But what does the divine response say to him? f*"I have reserved for Myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal." 5gEven so then, at this present time there is a remnant according to the election of grace. 6And hif by grace, then it is no longer of works; otherwise grace is no longer grace.* But if it is of works, it is no longer grace; otherwise work is no longer work.

7What then? iIsrael has not obtained what it seeks; but the elect have obtained it, and the rest were jblinded. 8Just as it is written:

k*"God has given them a spirit of stupor,*
l*Eyes that they should not see*
And ears that they should not hear,
*To this very day."

9And David says:

m*"Let their table become a snare and a*

A stumbling block and a recompense to them.
10 Let their eyes be darkened, so that they do not see,
*And bow down their back always."

11:1 Has God cast away His people? Paul points out that he himself is an Israelite, and was chosen by God to be a believer and an apostle. As he develops this thought, Paul reminds us that there has always been a remnant of Israelites whom God has kept true to Himself.

Israel's Rejection Not Final

11 I say then, have they stumbled that they should fall? Certainly not! But [n]through their fall, to provoke them to [o]jealousy, salvation has come to the Gentiles. 12 Now if their fall is riches for the world, and their failure riches for the Gentiles, how much more their fullness!

13 For I speak to you Gentiles; inasmuch as [p]I am an apostle to the Gentiles, I magnify my ministry, 14 if by any means I may provoke to jealousy those who are my flesh and [q]save some of them. 15 For if their being cast away is the reconciling of the world,
what will their acceptance be [r]but life from the dead?

16 For if [s]the firstfruit is holy, the lump is also holy; and if the root is holy, so are the branches. 17 And if [t]some of the branches
were broken off, [u]and you, being a wild olive tree, were grafted in among them, and
with them became a partaker of the root and fatness of the olive tree, 18 [v]do not boast against the branches. But if you do boast, remember that you do not support the root,
but the root supports you.

19 You will say then, "Branches were broken off that I might be grafted in." 20 Well said. Because of [w]unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by faith. Do not be haughty, but fear. 21 For if God did not spare
the natural branches, He may not spare
you either. 22 Therefore consider the goodness and severity of God: on those who fell,
severity; but toward you, goodness,* [x]if you continue in His goodness. Otherwise [y]you also will be cut off. 23 And they also, [z]if they do not continue in unbelief, will be grafted
in, for God is able to graft them in again.
24 For if you were cut out of the olive tree
which is wild by nature, and were grafted contrary to nature into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these, who are natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 For I do not desire, brethren, that you should be ignorant of this mystery, lest you should be [a]wise in your own opinion, that [b]blindness in part has happened to Israel
[c]until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in. 26 And so all Israel will be saved,* as it is written:

[d]"The Deliverer will come out of Zion,
And He will turn away ungodliness
from Jacob;
27 For [e]this is My covenant with them,
When I take away their sins."*

28 Concerning the gospel they are enemies for your sake, but concerning the election they are [f]beloved for the sake of the fathers. 29 For the gifts and the calling of God are [g]irrevocable. 30 For as you [h]were once disobedient to God, yet have now obtained mercy through their disobedience, 31 even so these also have now been disobedient, that through the mercy shown you they also may obtain mercy. 32 For God has committed them [i]all to disobedience, that He might have mercy on all.

33 Oh, the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments and His ways past finding out!

34 "For who has known the [j]mind of the LORD?
Or [k]who has become His counselor?"*
35 "Or[l] who has first given to Him
And it shall be repaid to him?"*

36 For [m]of Him and through Him and to Him are all things, [n]to whom be glory forever. Amen.

Living Sacrifices to God

12 I [a]beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present
your bodies [b]a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. 2 And [c]do not be conformed to this world, but [d]be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may [e]prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will
of God.

11:25 mystery. The mystery is that Israel has been temporarily and partially hardened, but God has not rejected them.

11:26 all Israel. "All Israel" does not mean that every individual in the nation will turn to the Lord. It means that the nation as a whole will be saved, just as the nation as a whole (but not every individual in it) is now rejecting the Lord.

12:1 living sacrifice. In the Old Testament sacrificial system, the "job" of the sacrificial lamb was ended with its death. An individual or household selected an animal according to the dictated forms, and it was sacrificed to cover sins. Since Christ became the final atonement for sin, we no longer need the old system. But Paul is calling believers to consider their whole life as a sacrifice dedicated to God and His purposes, a "living" sacrifice, both holy and single-minded.

12:2 Walking in the Spirit—Confession of sin in itself is not enough to enable the believer to automatically walk in the Spirit. He or she must learn to yield their whole self to God (Rom. 6:13; James 4:7). This involves both the body (Rom. 12:1; 1 Cor. 6:20) and the mind (Rom. 12:2), since what is conceived

Serve God with Spiritual Gifts

3For I say, [f]through the grace given to me, to everyone who is among you, [g]not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think soberly, as God has dealt [h]to each one a measure of faith. 4For [i]as we have many members in one body, but all the members do not have the same function, 5so [j]we, being many, are one body in Christ, and individually members of one another. 6Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is [k]given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, let us [l]prophesy in proportion to our faith; 7or ministry, let us use it in our ministering; [m]he who teaches, in teaching; 8[n]he who exhorts, in exhortation; [o]he who gives, with liberality; [p]he who leads, with diligence; he who shows mercy, [q]with cheerfulness.

Behave Like a Christian

9[r]Let love be without hypocrisy. [s]Abhor what is evil. Cling to what is good. 10[t]Be kindly affectionate to one another with brotherly love, [u]in honor giving preference to one another; 11not lagging in diligence, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord; 12[v]rejoicing in hope, [w]patient in tribulation, [x]continuing steadfastly in prayer; 13[y]distributing to the needs of the saints, [z]given to hospitality.

14[a]Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse. 15[b]Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep. 16[c]Be of the same mind toward one another. [d]Do not set your mind on high things, but associate with the humble. Do not be wise in your own opinion.

17[e]Repay no one evil for evil. [f]Have regard for good things in the sight of all men. 18If it is possible, as much as depends on you, [g]live peaceably with all men. 19Beloved, [h]do not avenge yourselves, but rather give place to wrath; for it is written, [i]*"Vengeance is Mine, I will repay," says the Lord. 20Therefore

[j]"If your enemy is hungry, feed him;
If he is thirsty, give him a drink;
*For in so doing you will heap coals of fire on his head."

21Do not be overcome by evil, but [k]overcome evil with good.

Submit to Government

13 Let every soul be [a]subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and the authorities that exist are appointed by God. 2Therefore whoever resists [b]the authority resists the ordinance of God, and those who resist will bring judgment on themselves. 3For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to evil. Do you want to be unafraid of the authority? [c]Do what is good, and you will have praise from the same. 4For he is God's minister to you for good. But if you do evil, be afraid; for he does not bear the sword in vain; for he is God's minister, an avenger to execute wrath on him who practices evil. 5Therefore [d]you must be subject, not only because of wrath [e]but also for conscience' sake. 6For because of this you also pay taxes, for they are God's ministers attending continually to this very thing. 7[f]Render therefore to all their due: taxes to whom taxes are due, customs to whom customs, fear to whom fear, honor to whom honor.

Love Your Neighbor

8Owe no one anything except to love one another, for [g]he who loves another in the mind is carried out by the body. One's whole being must be presented by a decisive act of the will to God for His service. Yielding leads not only to dedication but also can result in separation: "do not be conformed to this world" (Rom. 12:2). Finally, yielding includes transformation of the mind. This work is said to be accomplished through a lifetime of "renewing" the mind. Man's mind has been darkened by sin (8:7; Col. 1:21) and must be brought to the place where it thinks as God thinks (Eph. 4:23). This renewing is said to come especially through prayer in everything (Phil. 4:6–7) and through constant meditation on the Word of God (Ps. 119:1). This transformation is a lifelong process that will not be completed until we are with Christ (Phil. 1:6; 1 John 3:2).

12:4–5 Fellowship—A believer must not view himself exclusively as an individual, but must also see himself as part of the whole, as a member of "one body." Fellowship in the New Testament sense is not merely companionship, but a partnership, a responsibility to one another that is financial, practical, and spiritual.

12:6 prophecy. In its narrower sense, "prophecy" means the revealing of God's will in a particular situation (Acts 13:1–3).

12:9 love. There are three words used for love in the New Testament: "self-sacrificial love," "brotherly love," and "kindly affection," the last of which is used in this verse. The greatest proof of the truth of the gospel message and of the reality of Jesus' love is the love believers show to each other.

has fulfilled the law. 9For the commandments, [h]"You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You shall not bear false witness,"* "You shall not covet,"* and if there is any other commandment, are all summed up in this saying, namely, [i]"You shall love your neighbor as yourself."* 10Love does no harm to a neighbor; therefore [j]love is the fulfillment of the law.

Put on Christ

11And do this, knowing the time, that now it is high time [k]to awake out of sleep; for now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed. 12The night is far spent, the day is at hand. [l]Therefore let us cast off the works of darkness, and [m]let us put on the armor of light. 13[n]Let us walk properly, as in the day, [o]not in revelry and drunkenness, [p]not in lewdness and lust, [q]not in strife and envy. 14But [r]put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and [s]make no provision for the flesh, to fulfill its lusts.

The Law of Liberty

14 Receive[a] one who is weak in the faith, but not to disputes over doubtful things. 2For one believes he [b]may eat all things, but he who is weak eats only vegetables. 3Let not him who eats despise him who does not eat, and [c]let not him who does not eat judge him who eats; for God has received him. 4[d]Who are you to judge another's servant? To his own master he stands or falls. Indeed, he will be made to stand, for God is able to make him stand.

5[e]One person esteems one day above another; another esteems every day alike. Let each be fully convinced in his own mind. 6He who [f]observes the day, observes it to the Lord;* and he who does not observe the day, to the Lord he does not observe it. He who eats, eats to the Lord, for [g]he gives God thanks; and he who does not eat, to the Lord he does not eat, and gives God thanks. 7For [h]none of us lives to himself, and no one dies to himself. 8For if we [i]live, we live to the Lord; and if we die, we die to the Lord. Therefore, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's. 9For [j]to this end Christ died and rose* and lived again, that He might be [k]Lord of both the dead and the living. 10But why do you judge your brother? Or why do you show contempt for your brother? For [l]we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.* 11For it is written:

> [m]"As I live, says the LORD,
> Every knee shall bow to Me,
> And every tongue shall confess to God."*

12So then [n]each of us shall give account of himself to God. 13Therefore let us not judge one another anymore, but rather resolve this, [o]not to put a stumbling block or a cause to fall in our brother's way.

The Law of Love

14I know and am convinced by the Lord Jesus [p]that there is nothing unclean of itself; but to him who considers anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. 15Yet if your brother is grieved because of your food, you are no longer walking in love. [q]Do not destroy with your food the one for 13:9 as yourself. This is not a command to love ourselves. It is a recognition that we do love ourselves, and a command to love others just as genuinely and sincerely.

13:10 Love. "Love" excludes murder, adultery, stealing, and lying. Therefore when we love, we automatically fulfill the prohibitions of the law.

14:1 weak in the faith. Those who are weak in the faith are not unbelievers, but they have not yet understood (or are not able to understand) some of the deeper thinking about the not so clearly defined situations that a Christian faces.

14:5 one day above another. This verse probably relates to the holy days of the Old Testament ceremonial law. The exhortation does not mean it is wrong to have strong convictions, but that all people must have their own convictions. Concerning "doubtful things" (v. 1), things that are not clearly defined as sin, we as Christians are supposed to think deeply about these things, and decide what we think best pleases the Lord. We are not supposed to live by default, doing what most others are doing, or being swayed by the strongest voice. We may find that we need to change our original conclusions, but we must do so thoughtfully, not impulsively. We must not condemn others who come to a different conclusion.

14:12 account of himself to God. We must give an account to God for these conclusions we have reached about how to live, and in light of that, we want to be sure that our conclusions do not cause someone else to stumble.

14:14 unclean. "Unclean" means common, and refers to the things prohibited by the Jewish ceremonial law. If anyone considers some activity to be wrong, then for him it is wrong to engage in that activity.

14:15 Selfishness—This chapter concerns weak and strong Christians and their attitudes toward each other in practical matters within the church. If a stronger brother fails to consider the scruples of the weaker brother, the stronger brother violates the whom Christ died. 16[r]Therefore do not let your good be spoken of as evil; 17[s]for the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and [t]peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. 18For he who serves Christ in these things* [u]is acceptable to God and approved by men.

19[v]Therefore let us pursue the things which make for peace and the things by which [w]one may edify another. 20[x]Do not destroy the work of God for the sake of food. [y]All things indeed are pure, [z]but it is evil for the man who eats with offense. 21*It is* good neither to eat [a]meat nor drink wine nor do anything by which your brother stumbles or is offended or is made weak.* 22Do you have faith?* Have it to yourself before God. [b]Happy is he who does not condemn himself in what he approves. 23But he who doubts is condemned if he eats, because he does not eat from faith; for [c]whatever is not from faith is sin.*

Bearing Others' Burdens

15 We [a]then who are strong ought to bear with the scruples of the weak, and not to please ourselves. 2[b]Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, leading to edification. 3[c]For even Christ did not please Himself; but as it is written, [d]*"The reproaches of those who reproached You fell on Me." 4For [e]whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that we through the patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. 5[f]Now may the God of patience and comfort grant you to be like-minded toward one another, according to Christ Jesus, 6that you may [g]with one mind and one mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Glorify God Together

7Therefore [h]receive one another, just [i]as Christ also received us,* to the glory of God. 8Now I say that [j]Jesus Christ has become a servant to the circumcision for the truth of God, [k]to confirm the promises made to the fathers, 9and [l]that the Gentiles might glorify God for His mercy, as it is written:

[m]"For this reason I will confess to You
among the Gentiles,
*And sing to Your name."

10And again he says:

[n]*"Rejoice, O Gentiles, with His people!"

11And again:

[o]"Praise the LORD, all you Gentiles!
*Laud Him, all you peoples!"

12And again, Isaiah says:

[p]"There shall be a root of Jesse;
And He who shall rise to reign over
the Gentiles,
*In Him the Gentiles shall hope."

13Now may the God of hope fill you with all [q]joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

From Jerusalem to Illyricum

14Now [r]I myself am confident concerning you, my brethren, that you also are full of goodness, [s]filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.* 15Nevertheless, brethren, I have written more boldly to you on some points, as reminding you, [t]because of the grace given to me by God, 16that [u]I might be a minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the [v]offering of the Gentiles obligations of love. He is selfishly putting his own desires above the real needs of one who is weak in faith.

14:16 good be spoken of as evil. Even if you have decided that eating certain foods is in accord with your understanding of what is pleasing to God, if it causes another believer to be grieved by the choice you have made, you should be eager to change. Your freedom should not look like license or gluttony. The kingdom of God is a lot more important than the things we eat and drink.

14:21 stumbles. A believer does not have to abandon his own convictions, but love should cause him to carefully observe how what he does affects others. It is a sin (v. 23) to do something that you are really convinced is wrong, even if others think it is all right. In light of this, if a believer is influencing another to violate his conscience, even if the believer is not violating his own conscience, he has caused the other brother to "stumble," and that should not happen.

15:3 Christ. Jesus Christ is the ultimate model for the strong believer. He "did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, but made Himself of no reputation" (Phil. 2:5–7) so that He could clearly represent God and His cause.

15:9 as it is written. Paul quotes from all three divisions of the Old Testament (the Law, the Prophets, and the Psalms) and from three great Jewish leaders (Moses, David, and Isaiah) to demonstrate that God's purpose was always to bless the Gentiles through Israel.

15:12 root of Jesse. This is a title for the Messiah (Christ). Jesse was the father of David, and the might be acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit. 17Therefore I have reason to glory in Christ Jesus [w]in the things which pertain to God. 18For I will not dare to speak of any of those things [x]which Christ has not accomplished through me, in word and deed, [y]to make the Gentiles obedient— 19[z]in mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God, so that from Jerusalem and round about to Illyricum I have fully preached the gospel of Christ. 20And so I have made it my aim to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, [a]lest I should build on another man's foundation, 21but as it is written:

> [b]"To whom He was not announced, they shall see;
> And those who have not heard shall understand."*

Plan to Visit Rome

22For this reason [c]I also have been much hindered from coming to you. 23But now no longer having a place in these parts, and [d]having a great desire these many years to come to you, 24whenever I journey to Spain, I shall come to you.* For I hope to see you on my journey, [e]and to be helped on my way there by you, if first I may [f]enjoy your company for a while. 25But now [g]I am going to Jerusalem to minister to the saints. 26For [h]it pleased those from Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the saints who are in Jerusalem. 27It pleased them indeed, and they are their debtors. For [i]if the Gentiles have been partakers of their spiritual things, [j]their duty is also to minister to them in material things. 28Therefore, when I have performed this and have sealed to them [k]this fruit, I shall go by way of you to Spain. 29[l]But I know that when I come to you, I shall come in the fullness of the blessing of the gospel* of Christ.

30Now I beg you, brethren, through the Lord Jesus Christ, and [m]through the love of the Spirit, [n]that you strive together with me in prayers to God for me, 31[o]that I may be delivered from those in Judea who do not believe, and that [p]my service for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints, 32[q]that I may come to you with joy [r]by the will of God, and may [s]be refreshed together with you. 33Now [t]the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Sister Phoebe Commended

16 I commend to you Phoebe our sister, who is a servant of the church in [a]Cenchrea, 2[b]that you may receive her in the Lord [c]in a manner worthy of the saints, and assist her in whatever business she has need of you; for indeed she has been a helper of many and of myself also.

Greeting Roman Saints

3Greet [d]Priscilla and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus, 4who risked their own necks for my life, to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles. 5Likewise greet [e]the church that is in their house.

Greet my beloved Epaenetus, who is [f]the firstfruits of Achaia* to Christ. 6Greet Mary, who labored much for us. 7Greet Andronicus and Junia, my countrymen and my fellow prisoners, who are of note among the [g]apostles, who also [h]were in Christ before me.

8Greet Amplias, my beloved in the Lord. 9Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Christ, and Stachys, my beloved. 10Greet Apelles, approved in Christ. Greet those who are of the household of Aristobulus. 11Greet Herodion, my countryman.* Greet those who are of the household of Narcissus who are in the Lord.

12Greet Tryphena and Tryphosa, who have labored in the Lord. Greet the beloved Persis, who labored much Messiah was to be the Son of David. The Messiah is both the Origin and the Offspring of David.

15:25–26 Kindness—One of the New Testament commands is that Christians display kindness toward other believers (12:10). The Macedonian believers had just gathered a love offering for the needy saints in Jerusalem. Such kindness is a response to God's wonderful kindness to us. In fact, wanting to reach out to others is an evidence of our new birth, and as we bless others in this way, we will find ourselves receiving similar blessings of kindness (Luke 6:38).

15:28 Spain. No one knows for sure if Paul ever got to Spain, but he had it on his travel itinerary.

15:29 when I come to you. Paul did get to Rome, but not in the time frame or way he had thought. God had a special plan for Paul. The Lord would give him the opportunity to testify of his faith in the emperor's court, but he would do so as a prisoner (Acts 28).

16:3–4 Priscilla and Aquila. This married couple is never mentioned separately, perhaps because they ministered so effectively together. Like Paul, they were tentmakers, and worked with him in Corinth and Ephesus (Acts 18:1–3,18,26).

in the Lord. 13Greet Rufus, [i]chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine. 14Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren who are with them. 15Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them.

16[j]Greet one another with a holy kiss. The* churches of Christ greet you.

Avoid Divisive Persons

17Now I urge you, brethren, note those [k]who cause divisions and offenses, contrary to the doctrine which you learned, and [l]avoid them. 18For those who are such do not serve our Lord Jesus* Christ, but [m]their own belly, and [n]by smooth words and flattering speech deceive the hearts of the simple. 19For [o]your obedience has become known to all. Therefore I am glad on your behalf; but I want you to be [p]wise in what is good, and simple concerning evil. 20And [q]the God of peace [r]will crush Satan under your feet shortly.

[s]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

Greetings from Paul's Friends

21[t]Timothy, my fellow worker, and [u]Lucius, [v]Jason, and [w]Sosipater, my countrymen, greet you.

22I, Tertius, who wrote this epistle, greet you in the Lord.

23[x]Gaius, my host and the host of the whole church, greets you. [y]Erastus, the treasurer of the city, greets you, and Quartus, a brother. 24[z]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.*

Benediction

25Now [a]to Him who is able to establish you [b]according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, [c]according to the revelation of the mystery [d]kept secret since the world began 26but [e]now made manifest, and by the prophetic Scriptures made known to all nations, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, for [f]obedience to the faith— 27to [g]God, alone wise, be glory through Jesus Christ forever. Amen.*

These were common slave names. Aristobulus. This was a familiar Greek name, and this man may have been the owner of the previously mentioned men, if they were indeed slaves.

16:23 Gaius. "Gaius" of Corinth (1 Cor. 1:14) not only gave Paul lodging, but offered his house as a meeting place for the church.

16:25 mystery. Paul speaks of his message as a "mystery" (see 11:25) because God's complete plan of salvation was at first hidden but now was being revealed. Part of the mystery is that the church will consist of both Jews and Gentiles united in one body of Christ (Eph. 3:1–13).

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS

▶ AUTHOR: Pauline authorship of 1 Corinthians is almost universally accepted. Instances of this widely held belief can be found as early as A.D. 95, when Clement of Rome wrote to the Corinthian church and cited this epistle in regard to the continuing problem of factions among themselves. Paul taught the word of God in Corinth for eighteen months in A.D. 51 and 52, leaving Apollos to preach and teach in his absence. When Paul was in Ephesus during his third missionary journey, he became disturbed by reports of discord in the church of Corinth. First Corinthians is a record of Paul's initial response to these problems.

▶ TIME: c. A.D. 56 ▶ KEY VERSE: 1 Cor. 1:10

▶ THEME: The basic theme of this epistle is the application of Christian principles to carnality in the individual as well as in the church. Paul is responding to a letter he received from the Corinthians concerning five behavioral problems that are causing dissension in one way or another: (1) divisions in the church; (2) a case of incest; (3) court cases between members; (4) the abuse of Christian "freedom"; and (5) the chaos occurring in connection with celebration of the Lord's Supper. Paul's ethical responses to the various behaviors of the Corinthian church are based on a theological understanding of what it means to be a part of the people of God in a complex multicultural, pagan environment.

Greeting

1 Paul, [a]called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ [b]through the will of God, and [c]Sosthenes our brother,

2To the church of God which is at Corinth, to those who [d]are sanctified in Christ Jesus, [e]called to be saints, with all who in every place call on the name of Jesus Christ [f]our Lord, [g]both theirs and ours:

3[h]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Spiritual Gifts at Corinth

4[i]I thank my God always concerning you for the grace of God which was given to you by Christ Jesus, 5that you were enriched in everything by Him [j]in all utterance and all knowledge, 6even as [k]the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you, 7so that you come short in no gift, eagerly [l]waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ, 8[m]who will also confirm you to the end, [n]that you may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9[o]God is faithful, by whom you were called into [p]the fellowship of His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Sectarianism Is Sin

10Now I plead with you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, [q]that you all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. 11For it has been declared to me concerning you, my brethren, by those of Chloe's household, that there are contentions among you. 12Now I say this, that [r]each of you says, "I am of Paul," or "I am of [s]Apollos," or "I am of [t]Cephas,"

1:1 through the will of God. The Corinthian church greatly valued human wisdom. This misplaced emphasis had caused some in the church to challenge Paul's authority. They forgot that Jesus Christ Himself had called him to his ministry as an apostle of Christ.

1:2 sanctified in Christ Jesus. Holiness comes from our position in Christ, not from our own goodness. Jesus' death in payment for our sins makes a believer holy forever in God's eyes (Heb. 10:14). But in everyday living, sanctification involves small daily changes.

1:7 come short in no gift. The Corinthians were richly blessed with spiritual gifts because God was giving them everything they needed to do His will (12:14–27).

1:10 in the same mind. Christian unity is not uniformity of appearance, but unity of direction, and the bond of mutual love and esteem (Eph. 4:14–16).

or "I am of Christ." 13[u]Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul?

14I thank God that I baptized [v]none of you except [w]Crispus and [x]Gaius, 15lest anyone should say that I had baptized in my own name. 16Yes, I also baptized the household of [y]Stephanas. Besides, I do not know whether I baptized any other. 17For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel, [z]not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of no effect.

Christ the Power and Wisdom of God

18For the message of the cross is [a]foolishness to [b]those who are perishing, but to us [c]who are being saved it is the [d]power of God. 19For it is written:

> [e]"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,
> And bring to nothing the > *understanding of the prudent."

20[f]Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the disputer of this age? [g]Has not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? 21For since, in the [h]wisdom of God, the world through wisdom did not know God, it pleased God through the foolishness of the message preached to save those who believe. 22For [i]Jews request a sign, and Greeks seek after wisdom; 23but we preach Christ crucified, [j]to the Jews a stumbling block and to the Greeks* [k]foolishness, 24but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ [l]the power of God and [m]the wisdom of God. 25Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

Glory Only in the Lord

26For you see your calling, brethren, [n]that not many wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called. 27But [o]God has chosen the foolish things of the world to put to shame the wise, and God has chosen the weak things of the world to put to shame the things which are mighty; 28and the base things of the world and the things which are despised God has chosen, and the things which are not, to bring to nothing the things that are, 29that no flesh should glory in His presence. 30But of Him you are in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God—and [p]righteousness and sanctification and redemption—31that, as it is written, [q]*"He who glories, let him glory in the LORD."

Christ Crucified

2 And I, brethren, when I came to you, did not come with excellence of speech or of wisdom declaring to you the testimony* of God. 2For I determined not to know anything among you [a]except Jesus Christ and Him crucified. 3[b]I was with you [c]in weakness, in fear, and in much trembling. 4And my speech and my preaching [d]were not with persuasive words of human* wisdom, [e]but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, 5that your faith should not be in the wisdom of men but in the [f]power of God.

Spiritual Wisdom

6However, we speak wisdom among those who are mature, yet not the wisdom of this age, nor of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing. 7But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, the hidden wisdom which God ordained before the ages for our glory, 8which none of the rulers of this age knew; for [g]had they known, they would not have [h]crucified the Lord of glory.

* 1:31 Jeremiah 9:24 * 2:1 NU-Text reads mystery. * 2:4 NU-Text omits human.

1:14 Crispus and Gaius. Crispus was the ruler of the synagogue in Corinth when Paul began to preach there (Acts 18:8). He was instrumental in the conversion of many other Christians. Gaius may be the same person who hosted Paul and the entire church (Rom. 16:23).

1:16 Stephanas. Stephanas was one of Paul's first converts in Achaia, the region of which Corinth was the capital. Paul praised him and his household for their devotion to the ministry and for their assistance (16:15). Stephanas was one of the couriers who took correspondence to and from Corinth.

1:17 not . . . to baptize, but to preach the gospel. Paul's primary ministry was not baptism, but preaching the truth. Baptism naturally follows conversion, but is secondary in importance.

1:20 Where is the wise? All human efforts to find favor with God fall woefully short (Rom. 3:9–28). Only through faith in Christ can we be saved from our sins.

1:27 the foolish things of the world. God's plan of salvation does not conform to the world's priorities. Yet in reality, eternal salvation is more valuable than anything else.

1:28 and the base . . . are despised. Corinth had a large slave population, and many of these slaves became followers of Christ. Slaves were despised by the free-born and the well-to-do.

2:6 the rulers of this age. In some passages Paul uses the word "rulers" to refer to spiritual beings (Eph. 6:12; Col. 2:15); here it seems to be a reference to earthly rulers.

2:7 mystery. God's plan was kept hidden, known only to Him, until He chose to reveal it (Eph. 3:1–11). This is in contrast to the teachings of the Gnostics, a 9But as it is written:

[i]"Eye has not seen, nor ear heard,
Nor have entered into the heart of man
The things which God has prepared
*for those who love Him."

10But [j]God has revealed them to us through His Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God. 11For what man knows the things of a man except the [k]spirit of the man which is in him? [l]Even so no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God. 12Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but [m]the Spirit who is from God, that we might know the things that have been freely given to us by God.

13These things we also speak, not in words which man's wisdom teaches but which the Holy* Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual. 14[n]But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; nor can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. 15But he who is spiritual judges all things, yet he himself is rightly judged by no one. 16For [o]*"who has known the mind of the LORD that he may instruct Him?" [p]But we have the mind of Christ.

Sectarianism Is Carnal

3 And I, brethren, could not speak to you as to spiritual people but as to carnal, as to [a]babes in Christ. 2I fed you with [b]milk and not with solid food; [c]for until now you were not able to receive it, and even now you are still not able; 3for you are still carnal. For where there are envy, strife, and divisions among you, are you not carnal and behaving like mere men? 4For when one says, "I am of Paul," and another, "I am of Apollos," are you not carnal?

Watering, Working, Warning

5Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but [d]ministers through whom you believed, as the Lord gave to each one? 6[e]I planted, [f]Apollos watered, [g]but God gave the increase. 7So then [h]neither he who plants is anything, nor he who waters, but God who gives the increase. 8Now he who plants and he who waters are one, [i]and each one will receive his own reward according to his own labor.

9For [j]we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, you are [k]God's building. 10[l]According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise master builder I have laid [m]the foundation, and another builds on it. But let each one take heed how he builds on it. 11For no other foundation can anyone lay than [n]that which is laid, [o]which is Jesus Christ. 12Now if anyone builds on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, 13each one's work will become clear; for the Day [p]will declare it, because [q]it will be revealed by fire; and the fire will test each one's work, of what sort it is. 14If anyone's work which he has built on it endures, he will receive a reward. 15If anyone's work is burned, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, yet so as through fire.

16[r]Do you not know that you are the temple of God and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? 17If anyone defiles the temple of God, God will destroy him. For the temple of God is holy, which temple you are.

Avoid Worldly Wisdom

18[s]Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you seems to be wise in this age, let him become a fool that he may become wise. 19For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, [t]"He catches the wise in their own craftiness";* 20and again, [u]*"The LORD knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are futile."

* 2:9 Isaiah 64:4 * 2:13 NU-Text omits Holy.

group of false religious teachers who would infiltrate the early church (1 John 2:18–27). They claimed that there existed a body of secret knowledge that was only available to those initiated into an inner circle of spiritual teachers.

2:13 comparing spiritual things with spiritual. These words are difficult to translate and interpret. The Greek term translated "comparing" can also mean "combining," or "interpreting." The two references to "spiritual" may mean interpreting spiritual truths to spiritual persons, or else combining spiritual truths with spiritual words (2 Tim. 3:16; 2 Pet. 1:20–21).

3:2 I fed you with milk. Paul did not expect the Corinthians to be mature when they first accepted Christ. Yet they should have grown in their faith—that is, become sanctified. The behavior of Christians should begin to line up with their righteous position in Christ.

3:3 for you are still carnal. An immature Christian naturally lacks many Christian traits, but no one should expect this condition to last. Paul was surprised that the Corinthians had not yet grown into spiritual maturity or become able to distinguish between good and evil (Heb. 5:14).

3:13 the Day. This is the time when Christ will judge the merits of His servants' work (2 Cor. 5:10), not whether they receive forgiveness of sin. Likewise, the fire does not refer to the eternal fire of damnation (Rev. 20:10) but to the evaluation of believers' works (Rev. 22:12).

21 Therefore let no one boast in men. For [v]all things are yours: 22 whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas, or the world or life or death, or things present or things to come—all are yours. 23 And [w]you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

Stewards of the Mysteries of God

4 Let a man so consider us, as [a]servants of Christ [b]and stewards of the mysteries of God. 2 Moreover it is required in stewards that one be found faithful. 3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by a human court.* In fact, I do not even judge myself. 4 For I know of nothing against myself, yet I am not justified
by this; but He who judges me is the Lord.
5 [c]Therefore judge nothing before the time,
until the Lord comes, who will both bring to [d]light the hidden things of darkness and [e]reveal the counsels of the hearts. [f]Then each one's praise will come from God.

Fools for Christ's Sake

6 Now these things, brethren, I have figuratively transferred to myself and Apollos
for your sakes, that you may learn in us not to think beyond what is written, that none
of you may be puffed up on behalf of one against the other. 7 For who makes you differ from another? And [g]what do you have that you did not receive? Now if you did indeed receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it?
8 You are already full! [h]You are already rich! You have reigned as kings without us—and indeed I could wish you did reign, that we also might reign with you!
9 For I think that God has displayed us, the apostles, last, as men condemned to death;
for we have been made a [i]spectacle to the world, both to angels and to men. 10 We are [j]fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ! [k]We are weak, but you are strong!
You are distinguished, but we are dishonored! 11 To the present hour we both hunger and thirst, and we are poorly clothed, and beaten, and homeless. 12 [l]And we labor,
working with our own hands. [m]Being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we endure; 13 being defamed, we entreat. [n]We have been made as the filth of the world,
the offscouring of all things until now.

Paul's Paternal Care

14 I do not write these things to shame
you, but [o]as my beloved children I warn
you. 15 For though you might have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet you do not have many fathers; for [p]in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.
16 Therefore I urge you, [q]imitate me. 17 For this reason I have sent [r]Timothy to you, [s]who is my beloved and faithful son in the Lord, who will [t]remind you of my ways in Christ, as I [u]teach everywhere [v]in every church.
18 [w]Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you. 19 [x]But I will come to you shortly, [y]if the Lord wills, and I will know, not the word of those who are puffed up, but the power. 20 For [z]the kingdom of God is not in word but in [a]power. 21 What do you want? [b]Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

Immorality Defiles the Church

5 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and such sexual immorality as is not even named* among the Gentiles—that a man has his father's [a]wife! 2 [b]And you are puffed up,
and have not rather [c]mourned, that he who has done this deed might be taken away from among you. 3 [d]For I indeed, as absent
in body but present in spirit, have already judged (as though I were present) him who has so done this deed. 4 In the [e]name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when you are gathered together, along with my spirit, [f]with the

* 4:3 Literally day * 5:1 NU-Text omits named.

3:21 all things are yours. The Stoic literature of the time, which the Corinthians would have known, often spoke of the wise man as possessing everything. Everything God has done in the church, and in the entire universe, benefits all believers. There is no place for foolish boasting or competition among Christians.
4:5 judge nothing. While believers can benefit from the constructive evaluations of other believers, their ultimate Judge is the Lord Himself. We cannot know the whole picture, and we must be careful not to make premature evaluations of others.
4:6 puffed up. Greeks considered humility to be a fault, a characteristic of slaves. To the Christian, however, it exemplifies the attitude of Christ (Phil. 2:5–8).
4:10 fools for Christ's sake. True strength is found in understanding our weakness and Christ's sufficiency (2 Cor. 12:7–10; Phil. 4:11–13).
5:1 sexual immorality. The sexual immorality of incest was forbidden by Old Testament law (Lev. 18:8; Deut. 22:30) and by Roman law. The phrase "his father's wife" probably indicates that the woman was the offender's stepmother. Paul does not specify any discipline for the woman, which may indicate that she was not a believer.
5:2 puffed up, and have not rather mourned. The Corinthian Christians had a twisted view of grace that caused them to be proud of their tolerance of the sexual offender. They believed that, because God's grace is limitless, living in sin was no problem.

power of our Lord Jesus Christ, [5][g]deliver such a one to [h]Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.*

[6][i]Your glorying is not good. Do you not know that [j]a little leaven leavens the whole lump? [7]Therefore purge out the old leaven, that you may be a new lump, since you truly are unleavened. For indeed [k]Christ, our [l]Passover, was sacrificed for us.* [8]Therefore [m]let us keep the feast, [n]not with old leaven, nor [o]with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Immorality Must Be Judged

[9]I wrote to you in my epistle [p]not to keep company with sexually immoral people. [10]Yet I certainly did not mean with the sexually immoral people of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or idolaters, since then you would need to go [q]out of the world. [11]But now I have written to you not to keep company [r]with anyone named a brother, who is sexually immoral, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner—[s]not even to eat with such a person.

[12]For what have I to do with judging those also who are outside? Do you not judge those who are inside? [13]But those who are outside God judges. Therefore [t]*"put away from yourselves the evil person."

Do Not Sue the Brethren

6 Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unrighteous, and not before the [a]saints? [2]Do you not know that [b]the saints will judge the world? And if the world will be judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters? [3]Do you not know that we shall [c]judge angels? How much more, things that pertain to this life? [4]If then you have judgments concerning things pertaining to this life, do you appoint those who are least esteemed by the church to judge? [5]I say this to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you, not even one, who will be able to judge between his brethren? [6]But brother goes to law against brother, and that before unbelievers!

[7]Now therefore, it is already an utter failure for you that you go to law against one another. [d]Why do you not rather accept wrong? Why do you not rather let yourselves be cheated? [8]No, you yourselves do wrong and cheat, and you do these things to your brethren! [9]Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived. [e]Neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor homosexuals,* nor sodomites, [10]nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners will inherit the kingdom of God. [11]And such were [f]some of you. [g]But you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus and by the Spirit of our God.

Glorify God in Body and Spirit

5:6 a little leaven. The backdrop for this passage is the Passover (Ex. 12). In commemoration of their ancestors' hurried departure from Egypt, Jewish families would carefully remove all leaven (yeast) from their homes in preparation for the celebration of the Passover. In the New Testament, leaven is often used as a symbol of sin. Yeast spreads through a batch of dough, and unchallenged sin can soon contaminate the whole church. The sexual offender was guilty of sin, but the whole congregation was also guilty of ignoring the man's disobedience.

5:9 my epistle. It is believed that this refers to an earlier letter which has not been preserved.

5:10 of this world. Christians are called to influence the world, not to run away from it (Matt. 5:13–16). They are agents of God to carry the light of Jesus Christ into a dark world (Phil. 2:14–16; 1 Pet. 2:11–12).

6:9 kingdom of God. This term seems to refer to a future time when God will rule the earth in righteousness (Matt. 6:10; Luke 11:2).

6:11 Changed Life—The greatest proof of the new birth is a changed life. The child of God now suddenly loves the following:

1. He loves Jesus. Before conversion the sinner might hold Christ in high esteem, but after conversion he loves the Savior (1 John 5:1–2).
2. He loves the Bible. We should love God's Word as the psalmist did in Psalm 119. There he expresses his great love for God's Word 17 times.
3. He loves other Christians. "We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brethren" (1 John 3:14).
4. He loves his enemies (Matt. 5:43–45).
5. He loves the souls of all people. Like Paul, he too can cry out for the conversion of loved ones. "Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is that they may be saved" (Rom. 10:1).
6. He loves the pure life. John says that if one loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him (1 John 2:15–17).
7. He loves to talk to God. "Speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord" (Eph. 5:19).

power of any. 13[i]Foods for the stomach and the stomach for foods, but God will destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for [j]sexual immorality but [k]for the Lord, [l]and the Lord for the body. 14And [m]God both raised up the Lord and will also raise us up [n]by His power.

15Do you not know that [o]your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and make them members of a harlot? Certainly not! 16Or do you not know that he who is joined to a harlot is one body with her? For [p]"the two," He says, *"shall become one flesh." 17[q]But he who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with Him.

18[r]Flee sexual immorality. Every sin that a man does is outside the body, but he who commits sexual immorality sins [s]against his own body. 19Or [t]do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, [u]and you are not your own? 20For [v]you were bought at a price; therefore glorify God in your body* and in your spirit, which are God's.

Principles of Marriage

7 Now concerning the things of which you wrote to me:

[a]It is good for a man not to touch a woman. 2Nevertheless, because of sexual immorality, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband. 3[b]Let the husband render to his wife the affection due her, and likewise also the wife to her husband. 4The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does. And likewise the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does. 5[c]Do not deprive one another except with consent for a time, that you may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again so that [d]Satan does not tempt you because of your lack of self-control. 6But I say this as a concession, [e]not as a commandment. 7For [f]I wish that all men were even as I myself. But each one has his own gift from God, one in this manner and another in that.

8But I say to the unmarried and to the widows: [g]It is good for them if they remain even as I am; 9but [h]if they cannot exercise self-control, let them marry. For it is better to marry than to burn with passion.

Keep Your Marriage Vows

10Now to the married I command, yet not I but the [i]Lord: [j]A wife is not to depart from her husband. 11But even if she does depart, let her remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband. And a husband is not to divorce his wife.

* 6:16 Genesis 2:24 * 6:20 NU-Text ends the verse at body.

6:13 Foods for the stomach and the stomach for foods. The stomach's purpose is to digest food, but it is not the purpose of the body to commit immorality. Furthermore, by design God put restrictions on both eating and sexual activity. Eating to the point of gluttony and having sex outside of marriage both violate God's intent and are sinful.

6:15 your bodies are the members of Christ. Becoming a Christ follower is not just a "spiritual experience." Our bodies belong to Jesus as well as our souls, and nothing that we do with our bodies is apart from our relationship with Jesus Christ.

6:16 one body. God designed sex as part of the intense "one flesh" bond between husband and wife, so sex is not a one-dimensional physical act. It involves soul, spirit, and emotions as well. Broken sexual relationships tear away at a person's very being in a way that nothing else does.

6:19 The Work of the Holy Spirit—The Holy Spirit is sometimes referred to as the Paraclete. The first part of that word, para, is a preposition that means "coming alongside." As the Spirit comes alongside of us, He ministers in the following ways:

1. The Holy Spirit indwells Christians. The Bible teaches that believers are indwelt and are the "temple of the Holy Spirit" (1 Cor. 6:19). The purpose of this indwelling ministry is to empower the newly created nature (2 Cor. 5:17; Eph. 3:16).
2. The Holy Spirit fills believers. We are admonished to "be filled with the Spirit" (Eph. 5:18). We are then to be subject to the control of the Spirit in contrast to being controlled by the lures of the world.
3. The Holy Spirit sanctifies the believer (Rom. 15:16; 2 Thess. 2:13).
4. The Holy Spirit produces fruit in the life of the believer. This fruit is described by Paul: "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control" (Gal. 5:22–23).
5. The Holy Spirit gives gifts to Christians (Rom. 12:6–8; 1 Cor. 12:1–11; Eph. 4:7–12). These are abilities given to every Christian (1 Cor. 7:7; 1 Pet. 4:10). The purpose of these gifts is to glorify God (Rev. 4:11) and to edify the body of Christ (Eph. 4:12–13).
6. The Holy Spirit teaches believers. He will instruct us in all spiritual things as we read the Word of God (John 14:26) and abide in the Son of God (1 John 2:24–27).

6:20 bought at a price. With His death, Jesus Christ paid the cost to redeem us from our slavery to sin (Eph. 1:7; 1 Pet. 1:18–19).

7:6 concession, not as a commandment. The Corinthians seemed to be caught by two extreme false positions: the false concept that physical activity does not affect the spirit, and the opposite incorrect idea that any kind of physical relationship is evil. Sexual relationships in marriage are good and God given, yet Paul also outlines the value of celibacy.

7:11 remain unmarried. This statement is consistent with Jesus' teaching (Mark 10:9–12).

12But to the rest I, not the Lord, say: If any brother has a wife who does not believe, and she is willing to live with him, let him not divorce her. 13And a woman who has a husband who does not believe, if he is willing to live with her, let her not divorce him. 14For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband; otherwise [k]your children would be unclean, but now they are holy. 15But if the unbeliever departs, let him depart; a brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases. But God has called us [l]to peace. 16For how do you know, O wife, whether you will [m]save your husband? Or how do you know, O husband, whether you will save your wife?

Live as You Are Called

17But as God has distributed to each one, as the Lord has called each one, so let him walk. And [n]so I ordain in all the churches. 18Was anyone called while circumcised? [o]Let him not become uncircumcised. Was anyone called while uncircumcised? Let him not be circumcised. 19[p]Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing, but [q]keeping the commandments of God is what matters. 20Let each one remain in the same calling in which he was called. 21Were you called while a slave? Do not be concerned about it; but if you can be made free, rather use it. 22For he who is called in the Lord while a slave is [r]the Lord's freedman. Likewise he who is called while free is [s]Christ's slave. 23[t]You were bought at a price; do not become slaves of men. 24Brethren, let each one remain with [u]God in that state in which he was called.

To the Unmarried and Widows

25Now concerning virgins: [v]I have no commandment from the Lord; yet I give judgment as one [w]whom the Lord in His mercy has made [x]trustworthy. 26I suppose therefore that this is good because of the present distress—[y]that it is good for a man to remain as he is: 27Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be loosed. Are you loosed from a wife? Do not seek a wife. 28But even if you do marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Nevertheless such will have trouble in the flesh, but I would spare you.

29But [z]this I say, brethren, the time is short, so that from now on even those who have wives should be as though they had none, 30those who weep as though they did not weep, those who rejoice as though they did not rejoice, those who buy as though they did not possess, 31and those who use this world as not [a]misusing it. For [b]the form of this world is passing away.

32But I want you to be without care. [c]He who is unmarried cares for the things of the Lord—how he may please the Lord. 33But he who is married cares about the things of the world—how he may please his wife. 34There is* a difference between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman [d]cares about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But she who is married cares about the things of the world—how she may please her husband. 35And this I say for your own profit, not that I may put a leash on you, but for what is proper, and that you may serve the Lord without distraction.

36But if any man thinks he is behaving improperly toward his virgin, if she is past the flower of youth, and thus it must be, let him do what he wishes. He does not sin; let them marry. 37Nevertheless he who stands steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but has power over his own will, and has so determined in his heart that he will keep his virgin,* does well. 38[e]So then he who gives *her in marriage does well, but he who does not give her in marriage does better.

39[f]A wife is bound by law as long as her husband lives; but if her husband dies, she is at liberty to be married to whom she wishes, [g]only in the Lord. 40But she is happier if she remains as she is, [h]according to my judgment—and [i]I think I also have the Spirit of God.

*7:34 M-Text adds also. *7:37 Or virgin daughter *7:38 NU-Text reads his own virgin.

7:16 how do you know. First Peter 3:1–6 reminds us that consistent obedience to God can make a skeptical spouse into a believing one, but there are no guarantees.

7:17 as the Lord has called . . . let him walk. Social status is unimportant to God. He is interested in faithfulness.

7:27 bound to a wife . . . loosed. Considering the clear prohibition in verses 10–11, this verse is most likely referring to couples who are betrothed but not yet married.

7:36–38 his virgin. One interpretation of this verse is that this refers to a virgin daughter, although the word "daughter" is not actually in the Greek text. A second interpretation suggests that the "any man" of verse 36 refers to a fiancé who is maintaining, although with difficulty, a celibate state with a virgin he is (or has been) engaged to.

7:40 I think I also have the Spirit of God. The Holy Spirit enabled Paul to speak with apostolic authority and also with spiritual wisdom.

Be Sensitive to Conscience

8 Now [a]concerning things offered to idols: We know that we all have [b]knowledge. [c]Knowledge puffs up, but love edifies. 2And [d]if anyone thinks that he knows anything, he knows nothing yet as he ought to know. 3But if anyone loves God, this one is known by Him.

4Therefore concerning the eating of things offered to idols, we know that [e]an idol is nothing in the world, [f]and that there is no other God but one. 5For even if there are [g]so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth (as there are many gods and many lords), 6yet [h]for us there is one God, the Father, [i]of whom are all things, and we for Him; and [j]one Lord Jesus Christ, [k]through whom are all things, and [l]through whom we live.

7However, there is not in everyone that knowledge; for some, [m]with consciousness of the idol, until now eat it as a thing offered to an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is [n]defiled. 8But [o]food does not commend us to God; for neither if we eat are we the better, nor if we do not eat are we the worse.

9But [p]beware lest somehow this liberty of yours become [q]a stumbling block to those who are weak. 10For if anyone sees you who have knowledge eating in an idol's temple, will not [r]the conscience of him who is weak be emboldened to eat those things offered to idols? 11And [s]because of your knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died? 12But [t]when you thus sin against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Christ. 13Therefore, [u]if food makes my brother stumble, I will never again eat meat, lest I make my brother stumble.

A Pattern of Self-Denial

9 Am [a]I not an apostle? Am I not free? [b]Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? [c]Are you not my work in the Lord? 2If I am not an apostle to others, yet doubtless I am to you. For you are [d]the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

3My defense to those who examine me is this: 4[e]Do we have no right to eat and drink? 5Do we have no right to take along a believing wife, as do also the other apostles, [f]the brothers of the Lord, and [g]Cephas? 6Or is it only Barnabas and I [h]who have no right to refrain from working? 7Who ever [i]goes to war at his own expense? Who [j]plants a vineyard and does not eat of its fruit? Or who [k]tends a flock and does not drink of the milk of the flock?

8Do I say these things as a mere man? Or does not the law say the same also? 9For it is written in the law of Moses, [l]*"You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain." Is it oxen God is concerned about? 10Or does He say it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written, that [m]he who plows should plow in hope, and he who threshes in hope should be partaker of his hope. 11[n]If we have sown spiritual things for you, is it a great thing if we reap your material things? 12If others are partakers of this right over you, are we not even more?

[o]Nevertheless we have not used this right, but endure all things [p]lest we hinder the gospel of Christ. 13[q]Do you not know that those who minister the holy things eat of the things of the [r]temple, and those who serve at the altar partake of the offerings of the altar? 14Even so [s]the Lord has commanded [t]that those who preach the gospel should live from the gospel.

15But [u]I have used none of these things, nor have I written these things that it should be done so to me; for [v]it would be better for me to die than that anyone should make my boasting void. 16For if I preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast of, for [w]necessity is laid upon me; yes, woe is me if

* 9:9 Deuteronomy 25:4

8:4 there is no other God but one. The Corinthian believers who claimed to have knowledge readily admitted that an idol is nothing (Is. 37:19; Jer. 16:20; Gal. 4:8) and that there is only one God (Deut. 6:4). Therefore, since an idol is nothing, and since the whole world belongs to God, food which has been offered to idols is not contaminated (10:19,25–26).

8:7 with consciousness of the idol. Even though it is true that an idol is not a real god, a new believer leaving a life of idol worship is still accustomed to thinking of the idol as real. Because of this strong association, eating meat sacrificed to an idol might still feel like paying honor to the idol, and thus seem vile and contaminating. A person who still feels the pull of the old worship is right to flee from all remembrances of it (10:20–23).

8:12 wound their weak conscience. The believer is given responsibility for a weaker brother's conscience. It is sin to cause another to fall or to be wounded in the conscience. God is warning believers to stay away from questionable things.

9:1 an apostle. Paul could claim the title of apostle because he had seen the resurrected Lord (Acts 1:21–22), and the church in Corinth was his work in the Lord, a seal of his apostleship.

9:14 live from the gospel. God commands that ministers of the gospel be supported. Even as the priests in Israel were supported for their work, New

I do not preach the gospel! 17For if I do this willingly, [x]I have a reward; but if against my will, [y]I have been entrusted with a stewardship. 18What is my reward then? That [z]when I preach the gospel, I may present the gospel of Christ* without charge, that I [a]may not abuse my authority in the gospel.

Serving All Men

19For though I am [b]free from all men, [c]I have made myself a servant to all, [d]that I might win the more; 20and [e]to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might win Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the law,* that I might win those who are under the law; 21[f]to [g]those who are without law, as without law [h](not being without law toward God,* but under law toward Christ*), that I might win those who are without law; 22[i]to the weak I became as* weak, that I might win the weak. [j]I have become all things to all men, [k]that I might by all means save some. 23Now this I do for the gospel's sake, that I may be partaker of it with you.

Striving for a Crown

24Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? [l]Run in such a way that you may obtain it. 25And everyone who competes for the prize is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a perishable crown, but we for [m]an imperishable crown. 26Therefore I run thus: [n]not with uncertainty. Thus I fight: not as one who beats the air. 27[o]But I discipline my body and [p]bring it into subjection, lest, when I have preached to others, I myself should become [q]disqualified.

Old Testament Examples

10 Moreover, brethren, I do not want you to be unaware that all our fathers were under [a]the cloud, all passed through [b]the sea, 2all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, 3all ate the same [c]spiritual food, 4and all drank the same [d]spiritual drink. For they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them, and that Rock was Christ. 5But with most of them God was not well pleased, for their bodies [e]were scattered in the wilderness.

6Now these things became our examples, to the intent that we should not lust after evil things as [f]they also lusted. 7[g]And do not become idolaters as were some of them. As it is written, [h]"The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play." 8[i]Nor let us commit sexual immorality, as [j]some of them did, and [k]in one day twenty-three thousand fell; 9nor let us tempt Christ, as [l]some of them also tempted, and [m]were destroyed by serpents; 10nor complain, as [n]some of them also complained, and [o]were destroyed by [p]the destroyer. 11Now all* these things happened to them as examples, and [q]they were written for our admonition, [r]upon whom the ends of the ages have come.

12Therefore [s]let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall. 13No temptation has overtaken you except such as is common to man; but [t]God is faithful, [u]who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will also make the way of escape, that you may be able to bear it.

Flee from Idolatry

14Therefore, my beloved, [v]flee from idolatry. 15I speak as to [w]wise men; judge for

Testament ministers were to be provided for as well (1 Tim. 5:17–18).

9:20 to the Jews I became as a Jew. In order to relate to the Jews in Jerusalem, Paul made a Nazirite vow in the temple (Acts 21:23–24).

9:21 under law toward Christ. Paul was not lawless; he was differentiating between the law of the old covenant and the broader law of Christ which includes great freedom and flexibility for the believer whose heart is obedient to Christ's will (11:1; Rom. 13:8; Gal. 6:2).

9:27 should become disqualified. A careful distinction should be made between the prize and the gift. The free gift of justification cannot be the result of good works (Rom. 4:1–8). The prize or crown, however, is the reward for endurance and suffering for the cause of Christ (Phil. 1:29; 2 Tim. 2:12).

10:1 under the cloud. When the ancient Israelites were wandering in the wilderness, the pillar of cloud was the visible manifestation of God's presence with them.

10:6 lust after evil things. The first failure of the Israelites was that they were not satisfied with God's provision (Num. 11:4–34). It is not that the food they craved was evil in itself, but their lack of trust in God was sin.

10:7 idolaters. The Israelites had seen God's mighty hand work on their behalf, yet they still fell into idolatry and sexual immorality. Knowledge alone does not protect against sin—obedience is a heart issue.

10:12 take heed lest he fall. The Corinthians may have had the attitude that, since they were justified by God, nothing could happen to them. The discipline of God, however, is not to be taken lightly. No one can sin without consequences (Gal. 6:7–8).

10:14 flee from idolatry. This was not a simple thing to do in ancient Greek culture, where the worship of yourselves what I say. 16[x]The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? [y]The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? 17For [z]we, though many, are one bread and one body; for we all partake of that one bread.

18Observe [a]Israel [b]after the flesh: [c]Are not those who eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar? 19What am I saying then? [d]That an idol is anything, or what is offered to idols is anything? 20Rather, that the things which the Gentiles [e]sacrifice [f]they sacrifice to demons and not to God, and I do not want you to have fellowship with demons. 21[g]You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and [h]the cup of demons; you cannot partake of the [i]Lord's table and of the table of demons. 22Or do we [j]provoke the Lord to jealousy? [k]Are we stronger than He?

All to the Glory of God

23All things are lawful for me,* but not all things are [l]helpful; all things are lawful for me,* but not all things edify. 24Let no one seek his own, but each one [m]the other's well-being.

25[n]Eat whatever is sold in the meat market, asking no questions for conscience' sake; 26for [o]"the earth is the LORD's, and all its fullness."*

27If any of those who do not believe invites you to dinner, and you desire to go, [p]eat whatever is set before you, asking no question for conscience' sake. 28But if anyone says to you, "This was offered to idols," do not eat it [q]for the sake of the one who told you, and for conscience' sake;* for [r]"the earth is the LORD's, and all its fullness."* 29"Conscience," I say, not your own, but that of the other. For [s]why is my liberty judged by another man's conscience? 30But if I partake with thanks, why am I evil spoken of for the food [t]over which I give thanks?

31[u]Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. 32[v]Give no offense, either to the Jews or to the Greeks or to the church of God, 33just [w]as I also please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

11 Imitate[a] me, just as I also imitate Christ.

Head Coverings

2Now I praise you, brethren, that you remember me in all things and keep the traditions just as I delivered them to you. 3But I want you to know that [b]the head of every man is Christ, [c]the head of woman is man, and [d]the head of Christ is God. 4Every man praying or [e]prophesying, having his head covered, dishonors his head. 5But every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head, for that is one and the same as if her head were [f]shaved. 6For if a woman is not covered, let multiple gods was deeply ingrained. There were idols on street corners and in houses. Various civic societies paid homage to their favorite gods. Cities adopted certain gods as their special protectors. The pagan temples were frequented often, especially in Corinth with its temple prostitution. Most of the food in the marketplace had been offered in worship to different gods.

10:20 sacrifice to demons. While the idols themselves are worthless, powerless, and certainly not gods, behind the statues and images is the very real evil and power of Satan and his demons. Anytime that worship is being directed at something that is not God, we can be sure that Satan is behind it.

10:22 provoke the Lord to jealousy. To participate in idolatrous activity is to deny that God is the only one worthy of worship.

10:23 All things are lawful. Though we have freedom, we also have a responsibility to help others in their Christian growth. Our first duty is to others, not to ourselves.

10:25 Eat whatever is sold. Paul himself did not ask whether meat was sacrificed in the temple, because pagan worship could not contaminate what God had made clean (Ps. 24:1; Acts 10:15).

10:28 for conscience' sake. Believers do not need to fearfully ask whether the meat they are eating has been sacrificed to idols—it doesn't make any difference to the food itself. However, a Christian may give the impression to others, by eating sacrificed food, that he himself is also still involved in idol worship.

11:3 the head. The term "head" primarily means "authority" when used in the context of human relationships, but it can also mean "source" or "origin." The relationship between men and women does not involve inferiority; in the parallel clause Christ is not inferior to God the Father. Just as Christ and God are equally divine, men and women are equal in God's image. But Jesus and God the Father have different roles in God's plan of salvation, and so also men and women are given different roles in life and in the church.

11:4 praying or prophesying. This may refer to intercessory prayer similar to that of Old Testament prophets (Gen. 20:7; 1 Sam. 12:23; Jer. 27:18) or Anna (Luke 2:36–38), or to the combination of tongues and prayer (14:13–16; Acts 2:4; 10:46). The term "prophesy" means to speak forth the words of God (14:3).

her also be shorn. But if it is [g]shameful for a woman to be shorn or shaved, let her be covered. 7For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, since [h]he is the image and glory of God; but woman is the glory of man. 8For man is not from woman, but woman [i]from man. 9Nor was man created for the woman, but woman [j]for the man. 10For this reason the woman ought to have a symbol of authority on her head, because of the angels. 11Nevertheless, [k]neither is man independent of woman, nor woman independent of man, in the Lord. 12For as woman came from man, even so man also comes through woman; but all things are from God.

13Judge among yourselves. Is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered? 14Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him? 15But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her; for her hair is given to her* for a covering. 16But [l]if anyone seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, [m]nor do the churches of God.

Conduct at the Lord's Supper

17Now in giving these instructions I do not praise you, since you come together not for the better but for the worse. 18For first of all, when you come together as a church, [n]I hear that there are divisions among you, and in part I believe it. 19For [o]there must also be factions among you, [p]that those who are approved may be recognized among you. 20Therefore when you come together in one place, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper. 21For in eating, each one takes his own supper ahead of others; and one is hungry and [q]another is drunk. 22What! Do you not have houses to eat and drink in? Or do you despise [r]the church of God and [s]shame those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you in this? I do not praise you.

Institution of the Lord's Supper

23For [t]I received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you: [u]that the Lord Jesus on the same night in which He was betrayed took bread; 24and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "Take, eat;* this is My body which is broken* for you; do this in remembrance of Me." 25In the same manner He also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me."

26For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death [v]till He comes.

Examine Yourself

27Therefore whoever eats [w]this bread or drinks this cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and blood* of the Lord. 28But [x]let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup. 29For he who eats and drinks in an unworthy manner* eats and drinks judgment to himself, not discerning the Lord's* body. 30For this reason many are weak and sick among you, and many sleep. 31For [y]if we would judge ourselves, we would not be judged. 32But when we are judged, [z]we are chastened by the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world.

a woman's role is to be in the Christian assembly, but it appears that women did minister to other believers through prayer and prophecy (see also 1 Tim. 2:11–14). shaved. For a woman to have her head shaved was a sign of public disgrace.

11:9 woman for the man. This does not mean that women are inferior to men; it refers only to the purposes of God for men and women in the creative order, and the woman's God-given role of helper (Gen. 2:20).

11:10 authority. Some think that this might be a symbol of the woman's authority to prophesy in the new church age; others believe that it might refer to a symbol of the man's authority over the woman and her willingness to submit to God's order. because of the angels. Evidently God's angels are present at the meetings of the church and actually learn of God's work of grace through the lives and worship of God's people (Eph. 3:10).

11:11 neither . . . independent. Men and women need each other, and as creatures of God, both depend on Him. Neither man nor woman can have any claim to special status other than what God has purposed for them as their Creator.

11:19 those who are approved. Paul is here being sarcastic, suggesting that some individuals within the church felt that they alone were truly approved of by the Lord, and trying to separate themselves from other believers whom they felt to be unapproved or less approved by God than themselves. He condemns this attitude in these verses.

11:20 the Lord's Supper. The Lord's Supper was the centerpiece of early Christian worship. Gathered around one table, fellow believers met with the Lord and with each other in unity. Christ had expressed this type of humility and unity when He instituted the Supper (Matt. 26:26–30; Mark 14:22–26; Luke 22:14–23).

11:26 you proclaim the Lord's death till He comes. The Lord's Supper looks back to Christ's death and forward to His second coming (Matt. 26:29; Mark 14:25; Luke 22:18).

11:30 sleep. The death of Christians is often referred

Spiritual Gifts: Unity in Diversity

12 Now [a]concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I do not want you to be ignorant: 2 You know [b]that* you were Gentiles, carried away to these [c]dumb idols, however you were led. 3 Therefore I make known to you that no one speaking by the Spirit of God calls Jesus accursed, and [d]no one can say that Jesus is Lord except by the Holy Spirit.

4 [e]There are diversities of gifts, but [f]the same Spirit. 5 [g]There are differences of ministries, but the same Lord. 6 And there are diversities of activities, but it is the same God [h]who works all in all. 7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to each one for the profit of all: 8 for to one is given [i]the word of wisdom through the Spirit, to another [j]the word of knowledge through the same Spirit, 9 [k]to another faith by the same Spirit, to another [l]gifts of healings by the same* Spirit, 10 [m]to another the working of miracles, to another [n]prophecy, to another [o]discerning of spirits, to another [p]different kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. 11 But one and the same Spirit works all these things, [q]distributing to each one individually [r]as He wills.

Unity and Diversity in One Body

12 For [s]as the body is one and has many members, but all the members of that one body, being many, are one body, [t]so also is Christ. 13 For [u]by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—[v]whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free—and [w]have all been made to drink into* one Spirit. 14 For in fact the body is not one member but many.

15 If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I am not of the body," is it therefore not of the body? 16 And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I am not of the body," is it therefore not of the body? 17 If the whole body were an eye, where would be the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where would be the smelling? 18 But now [x]God has set the members, each one of them, in the body [y]just as He pleased. 19 And if they were all one member, where would the body be?

20 But now indeed there are many members, yet one body. 21 And the eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you"; nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." 22 No, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary. 23 And those members of the body which we think to be less honorable, on these we bestow greater honor; and our unpresentable parts have greater modesty, 24 but our presentable parts have no need. But God composed the body, having given greater honor to that part which lacks it, 25 that there should be no schism in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another. 26 And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; or if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now [z]you are the body of Christ, and [a]members individually. 28 And [b]God has appointed these in the church: first [c]apostles, second [d]prophets, third teachers, after that [e]miracles, then [f]gifts of healings, [g]helps, [h]administrations, varieties of tongues. 29 Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are to as "sleep" (15:18; 1 Thess. 4:15–16). In this passage, it refers to untimely death, a punishment suffered by some Christians who failed to examine themselves at the Lord's Supper (v. 28).

12:1–10 Using Spiritual Gifts—Spiritual gifts are discussed in detail in four passages of the New Testament: Romans 12:3–8; 1 Corinthians 12:1–10; Ephesians 4:11–12; and 1 Peter 4:10–11. These lists are not exhaustive but are to be regarded as representative of spiritual gifts. They are given by the Spirit of God to accomplish God's purpose in the world and for the edification of the church, the body of Christ. Every believer has been given spiritual gifts (Rom. 12:5–6; 1 Cor. 12:7; 1 Pet. 4:10). The gifts belong to God and are given for the believer to use for the glory of God (1 Pet. 4:11).

12:3 accursed . . . Lord. A person speaking by the Holy Spirit will never curse Jesus; by the same token, no one can genuinely proclaim the lordship of Jesus without the enabling of the Spirit.

12:4 gifts. These gifts are spiritual capacities that God gives to individual Christians, through which He may strengthen His people.

12:13 by one Spirit. "By" here may also be translated "in," speaking of location. Christ places each new member of the body in the Holy Spirit for His care and safekeeping (2 Cor. 1:22).

12:18 God has set the members. We should neither boast in what we do nor think too little of ourselves. Each one of us is important to God and has a mission to accomplish here on earth.

12:28 apostles. The term "apostle" or "sent one" refers generally to missionaries (15:7; Rom. 16:7; 2 Cor. 11:5; 12:11; Gal. 1:17–19). Other times the term is limited to the small group who witnessed the all teachers? Are all workers of miracles?

30 Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret? 31 But [i]earnestly desire the best* gifts. And yet I show you a more excellent way.

The Greatest Gift

13 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love,
I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal. 2 And though I have the gift of [a]prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, [b]so that I could remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. 3 And [c]though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned,* but have not love, it profits me nothing.

4 [d]Love suffers long and is [e]kind; love
[f]does not envy; love does not parade itself,
is not puffed up; 5 does not behave rudely, [g]does not seek its own, is not provoked,
thinks no evil; 6 [h]does not rejoice in iniquity, but [i]rejoices in the truth; 7 [j]bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things,
endures all things.

8 Love never fails. But whether there are prophecies, they will fail; whether there are tongues, they will cease; whether there is knowledge, it will vanish away.
9 [k]For we know in part and we prophesy
in part. 10 But when that which is perfect has come, then that which is in part will be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child;
but when I became a man, I put away childish things. 12 For [l]now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then [m]face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known.

13 And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Prophecy and Tongues

14 Pursue love, and [a]desire spiritual gifts, [b]but especially that you may prophesy. 2 For he who [c]speaks in a tongue
does not speak to men but to God, for no
one understands him; however, in the spirit
he speaks mysteries. 3 But he who prophesies speaks [d]edification and [e]exhortation and comfort to men. 4 He who speaks in a tongue edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the church. 5 I wish you all spoke with tongues, but even more that you prophesied; for* he who prophesies is greater than he who speaks with tongues,
unless indeed he interprets, that the church
may receive edification.

Tongues Must Be Interpreted

6 But now, brethren, if I come to you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit
you unless I speak to you either by [f]revelation, by knowledge, by prophesying, or by teaching? 7 Even things without life,
whether flute or harp, when they make a sound, unless they make a distinction in the sounds, how will it be known what is piped or played? 8 For if the trumpet makes an uncertain sound, who will prepare for battle? 9 So likewise you, unless you utter
by the tongue words easy to understand, how will it be known what is spoken? For you will be speaking into the air. 10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of languages
in the world, and none of them is without significance. 11 Therefore, if I do not know
the meaning of the language, I shall be a foreigner to him who speaks, and he who speaks will be a foreigner to me. 12 Even so you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, let it be for the edification of the church that you seek to excel.

resurrected Christ and were given a special mission by Him as His representatives (9:1; 15:5,8).

12:31 earnestly desire the best gifts. This phrase has generally been interpreted as Paul's exhortation to the Corinthians to seek after the more spiritually profitable gifts, yet it is possible that Paul is stating that the Corinthians were improperly desiring the gifts that would bring attention to themselves. In other words, he would be telling them that, although they desire this sort of gift, he wants to show them a more excellent way.

13:1–13 Love—The more one reads 1 Corinthians 13, the more one has to face the fact that we don't naturally have that kind of love in us. The only way to get it is to get it from God. Love comes from God (1 John 4:7). We're not very good at this kind of loving, and the only way we can be is through the empowering work of the Holy Spirit. It is tough because it means dependency on God for that which we cannot do by ourselves. It is tough because the objects of our love often act in unlovable ways or they reject our love when we give it. It is tough because we have to keep coming back with more love, even when it is rejected.

13:8 Love never fails. This uncompromising and bold affirmation introduces the contrast with the spiritual gifts which will not last. Paul wants the Corinthians to know that all the gifts would one day no longer be needed, but love.

13:10 when that which is perfect has come. The Greek word for "perfect" means "end" or "completion." Most likely, this is a reference to the second coming of Christ and the completion of all things, but some have interpreted this as referring to the completion of the New Testament canon.

14:3 prophesies. In this sense, prophecy incorporates all speaking gifts that edify the church (Rom. 12:6; 1 Pet. 4:11).

14:11 I do not know the meaning. Paul underlines the original purpose of all spiritual gifts: they must

13 Therefore let him who speaks in a tongue pray that he may [g]interpret. 14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful. 15 What is the conclusion then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will also pray with the understanding. [h]I will sing with the spirit, and I will also sing [i]with the understanding.
16 Otherwise, if you bless with the spirit,
how will he who occupies the place of the uninformed say "Amen" [j]at your giving of thanks, since he does not understand what you say? 17 For you indeed give thanks well,
but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God I speak with tongues
more than you all; 19 yet in the church I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I may teach others also,
than ten thousand words in a tongue.

Tongues a Sign to Unbelievers

20 Brethren, [k]do not be children in understanding; however, in malice [l]be babes, but in understanding be mature.

21 [m]In the law it is written:

> [n]"With men of other tongues and other > lips
> I will speak to this people;
> And yet, for all that, they will not hear > Me,"*

says the Lord.

22 Therefore tongues are for a [o]sign, not to those who believe but to unbelievers; but prophesying is not for unbelievers but for those who believe. 23 Therefore if the whole church comes together in one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those who are uninformed or unbelievers, [p]will they not say that you are out of your mind? 24 But if all prophesy, and an unbe-liever or an uninformed person comes in,
he is convinced by all, he is convicted by
all. 25 And thus* the secrets of his heart are revealed; and so, falling down on his face,
he will worship God and report [q]that God
is truly among you.

Order in Church Meetings

26 How is it then, brethren? Whenever you come together, each of you has a psalm, [r]has a teaching, has a tongue, has a revelation, has an interpretation. [s]Let all things be done for edification. 27 If anyone speaks in a tongue, let there be two or at the most three, each in turn, and let one interpret. 28 But if there is no interpreter,
let him keep silent in church, and let him speak to himself and to God. 29 Let two or three prophets speak, and [t]let the others judge. 30 But if anything is revealed to another who sits by, [u]let the first keep silent.
31 For you can all prophesy one by one, that all may learn and all may be encouraged.
32 And [v]the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets. 33 For God is not the author of confusion but of peace, [w]as in all the churches of the saints.

34 [x]Let your* women keep silent in the churches, for they are not permitted to speak; but they are to be submissive, as the [y]law also says. 35 And if they want to learn something, let them ask their own husbands at home; for it is shameful for women to speak in church.

36 Or did the word of God come originally from you? Or was it you only that it reached? 37 [z]If anyone thinks himself to be a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things which I write to you are the commandments of the Lord. 38 But if anyone is ignorant, let him be ignorant.*

39 Therefore, brethren, [a]desire earnestly to prophesy, and do not forbid to speak with tongues. 40 [b]Let all things be done decently and in order.

serve the church (vv. 13–14; 12:7). Tongues must convey meaning or else they fail to help those who listen.

14:16 Amen. The word "amen" means "truly" or "so be it" (John 3:5). Saying "amen" indicated agreement with what was being said (Deut. 27:14–26; Rev. 5:14).

14:29 two or three. The meetings of the church should be characterized by orderliness and moderation. judge. No one, not even a person exercising a spiritual gift, is exempt from accountability to the church (6:5; 11:29–31).

14:32 subject to the prophets. Paul anticipated that some might excuse disorder by claiming that they could not prevent themselves from prophesying when God brought a revelation to them. He explained that the Holy Spirit does not overpower the person through whom He speaks.

14:34 women keep silent. This command is the subject of much debate, for it seems to contradict the fact that Paul spoke of women prophesying in 1 Corinthians 11:5. It has been suggested that Paul was addressing a particular problem in the Corinthian church, a group of women who were disruptive, but the prohibition is repeated at a different time to a different group of people (1 Tim. 2:11–12). This verse has also been interpreted as a prohibition on women interpreting prophecy, judging the prophets, or speaking in tongues. Others believe that women do prophesy and minister, but only to other women, or in a setting other than public church meetings, such as Priscilla and Aquila instructing Apollos (Acts 18:24–28).

14:40 decently and in order. This verse is the key to all church practice. In worship and teaching, as in all of life, believers should demonstrate self-control and consideration.

The Risen Christ, Faith's Reality

15 Moreover, brethren, I declare to you
the gospel [a]which I preached to you,
which also you received and [b]in which you stand, 2[c]by which also you are saved, if you hold fast that word which I preached
to you—unless [d]you believed in vain.

3For [e]I delivered to you first of all that [f]which I also received: that Christ died for our sins [g]according to the Scriptures, 4and that He was buried, and that He rose again
the third day [h]according to the Scriptures, 5[i]and that He was seen by Cephas, then [j]by the twelve. 6After that He was seen by over five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain to the present, but some have fallen asleep. 7After that He was seen by James, then [k]by all the apostles.
8[l]Then last of all He was seen by me also,
as by one born out of due time.

9For I am [m]the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle,
because [n]I persecuted the church of God.
10But [o]by the grace of God I am what I am,
and His grace toward me was not in vain;
but I labored more abundantly than they all, [p]yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 11Therefore, whether it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

The Risen Christ, Our Hope

12Now if Christ is preached that He has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? 13But if there is no resurrection of the dead, [q]then Christ is not risen. 14And if Christ is not risen, then our preaching is empty and your faith is also empty. 15Yes, and we are found false witnesses of God, because [r]we have testified of God that He raised up Christ, whom He did not raise up—if in fact the dead do not rise.
16For if the dead do not rise, then Christ is not risen. 17And if Christ is not risen, your faith is futile; [s]you are still in your sins!
18Then also those who have fallen [t]asleep
in Christ have perished. 19[u]If in this life
only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men the most pitiable.

The Last Enemy Destroyed

20But now [v]Christ is risen from the dead,
and has become [w]the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. 21For [x]since by man came death, [y]by Man also came the resurrection of the dead. 22For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ all shall [z]be made alive. 23But [a]each one in his own order:

15:3–4 Gospel Message—Paul makes it clear here that evangelism should be centered on the gospel of Christ. The central point of the good news is Christ's death and resurrection. The four key points about that gospel are:

1. God's Word says all are sinners, condemned to hell (Is. 53:6; Rom. 3:10–11,23; 5:8,12; Rev. 20:15).
2. There is nothing a sinner can do on his own to save himself (Is. 64:6; Eph. 2:9).
3. Christ was born, crucified, and resurrected to save lost people from their sin (John 3:16; 1 Tim. 1:15).
4. To be saved, a sinner must believe God's Word and invite Christ into his or her heart by faith (John 5:24; Acts 16:31).

15:3 according to the Scriptures. Christ lived and died in accordance with the prophecies about Him in the Old Testament (Ps. 16:10; Is. 53:8–10).

15:8 born out of due time. This is probably Paul's comment on the unique way that he became an apostle. Unlike the other apostles, who had the benefit of an initial training period with Christ, Paul became an apostle abruptly, with no opportunity for earthly contact with Christ or His teaching.

15:9 persecuted the church. The story of Paul's persecuting and conversion is told in Acts 9; 22; Ephesians 3:8; 1 Timothy 1:15–16.

15:12 no resurrection. These opponents of Paul may have been denying the reality of Christ's resurrection. They may also have been teaching that resurrection is only spiritual and not physical; or they may have been teaching that the resurrection had already happened (2 Tim. 2:18). Whatever the case, they contradicted the essential teaching that Christ had been physically raised from the dead and that all believers in Him will someday also be resurrected.

15:15 false witnesses. In verses 5–8 Paul listed several people, including himself, who had witnessed the resurrected Christ. To deny the resurrection was to call these people liars.

15:17 Resurrection—There are many biblical scholars these days who say that the resurrection was an invented story out of some kind of "faith" process. They relegate the critical event that defines Christianity to the imaginations of some well-meaning but deluded Palestinian peasants. Paul goes to great pains to put the resurrection in the realm of fact, not opinion or imagination. He talks about the eyewitness testimony of hundreds (v. 6). He references his own story of personal confrontation with Christ (v. 8). In the end he says that if the resurrection isn't a fact, then he is absolutely lost (v. 19). This sounds like a man who staked his entire life on an indisputable fact.

15:19 pitiable. If Christ did not rise, then He is just another dead prophet with no power over sin or death, and the Christian's hope of eternal life is a lie.

15:20 firstfruits. The "firstfruits" is the first installment of a crop, which anticipates and guarantees the ultimate offering of the whole crop (16:15; Rom. 8:23). Because Christ rose from the dead, those who are asleep in Christ (1 Thess. 4:15–16) have a guarantee of their own resurrection.

15:21 by man came death. The first man, Adam, transgressed God's law and brought sin and death into the world (Gen. 2:17; 3:19; Rom. 5:12–21); the second man, Jesus Christ, was the perfect sacrifice to take away sin and to bring life and resurrection to those who believe in Him (Rom. 5:15–21).

15:23 each one in his own order. The believers who

Christ the firstfruits, afterward those who are Christ's at His coming. 24Then comes the end, when He delivers [b]the kingdom to God the Father, when He puts an end to all rule and all authority and power. 25For He must reign [c]till He has put all enemies under His feet. 26[d]The last enemy that will be destroyed is death. 27For [e]*"He has put all things under His feet." But when He says "all things are put under Him," it is evident that He who put all things under Him is excepted. 28[f]Now when all things are made subject to Him, then [g]the Son Himself will also be subject to Him who put all things under Him, that God may be all in all.

Effects of Denying the Resurrection

29Otherwise, what will they do who are baptized for the dead, if the dead do not rise at all? Why then are they baptized for the dead? 30And [h]why do we stand in jeopardy every hour? 31I affirm, by [i]the boasting in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, [j]I die daily. 32If, in the manner of men, [k]I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantage is it to me? If the dead do not rise, [l]*"Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!"

33Do not be deceived: [m]"Evil company corrupts good habits." 34[n]Awake to righteousness, and do not sin; [o]for some do not have the knowledge of God. [p]I speak this to your shame.

A Glorious Body

35But someone will say, [q]"How are the dead raised up? And with what body do they come?" 36Foolish one, [r]what you sow is not made alive unless it dies. 37And what you sow, you do not sow that body that shall be, but mere grain—perhaps wheat or some other grain. 38But God gives it a body as He pleases, and to each seed its own body.

39All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one kind of flesh* of men, another flesh of animals, another of fish, and another of birds.

40*There are* also celestial bodies and terrestrial bodies; but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. 41*There is* one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory.

42[s]So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption. 43[t]It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power. 44It is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. 45And so it is written, [u]*"The first man Adam became a living being." [v]The last Adam became [w]a life-giving spirit.

46However, the spiritual is not first, but the natural, and afterward the spiritual. 47[x]The first man was of the earth, [y]made of dust; the second Man is the Lord* [z]from heaven. 48As was the man of dust, so also are those who are made of dust; [a]and as is the heavenly Man, so also are those who are heavenly. 49And [b]as we have borne the image of the man of dust, [c]we shall also bear* the image of the heavenly Man.

Our Final Victory

50Now this I say, brethren, that [d]flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; nor does corruption inherit incorruption. 51Behold, I tell you a mystery: [e]We shall not all sleep, [f]but we shall all be changed—52in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. [g]For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. 53For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and [h]this mortal must put on immortality.

have died will be the first to rise at Christ's coming and be reunited with their physical bodies. Following this is the removal of all living Christians from the earth (1 Thess. 4:13–18).

15:29 baptized for the dead. It may be that some of the Corinthians had for some reason been baptized on behalf of others who had died without baptism. Paul does not address whether this practice was right or wrong (although his use of "they" rather than "we" indicates that he did not participate), but makes the point that their own actions are inconsistent with their beliefs. There would be no point in doing anything for the dead if there is no resurrection.

15:30 in jeopardy. If this life is all there is, it would make more sense to take the position of the Epicureans, seeking pleasure and avoiding pain.

15:32 beasts at Ephesus. This may be a figurative reference to Paul's enemies at Ephesus (Acts 19).

15:36 unless it dies. Difficulty understanding the nature of the resurrection should not cause a person to doubt its reality any more than not understanding how a seed becomes a plant should cause disbelief in the coming harvest.

15:44 natural body . . . spiritual body. The contrast is not between a material body and an immaterial body, but between a body subject to death and a body that is immortal.

54So when this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: [i]*"Death is swallowed up in victory."

55 *"O[j] Death, where is your sting?
*O Hades, where is your victory?"

56The sting of death is sin, and [k]the strength of sin is the law. 57[l]But thanks be to God, who gives us [m]the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58[n]Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing [o]that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

Collection for the Saints

16 Now concerning [a]the collection for the saints, as I have given orders to the churches of Galatia, so you must do also: 2[b]On the first day of the week let each one of you lay something aside, storing up as he may prosper, that there be no collections when I come. 3And when I come, [c]whomever you approve by your letters I will send to bear your gift to Jerusalem. 4[d]But if it is fitting that I go also, they will go with me.

Personal Plans

5Now I will come to you [e]when I pass through Macedonia (for I am passing through Macedonia). 6And it may be that I will remain, or even spend the winter with you, that you may [f]send me on my journey, wherever I go. 7For I do not wish to see you now on the way; but I hope to stay a while with you, [g]if the Lord permits.

8But I will tarry in Ephesus until [h]Pentecost. 9For [i]a great and effective door has opened to me, and i[i]there are many adversaries.

10And [k]if Timothy comes, see that he may be with you without fear; for [l]he does the work of the Lord, as I also do. 11[m]Therefore let no one despise him. But send him on his journey [n]in peace, that he may come to me; for I am waiting for him with the brethren.

12Now concerning our brother [o]Apollos, I strongly urged him to come to you with the brethren, but he was quite unwilling to come at this time; however, he will come when he has a convenient time.

Final Exhortations

13[p]Watch, [q]stand fast in the faith, be brave, [r]be strong. 14[s]Let all that you do be done with love.

15I urge you, brethren—you know [t]the household of Stephanas, that it is [u]the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have devoted themselves to [v]the ministry of the saints— 16[w]that you also submit to such, and to everyone who works and [x]labors with us.

17I am glad about the coming of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus, [y]for what was lacking on your part they supplied. 18[z]For they refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore [a]acknowledge such men.

Greetings and a Solemn Farewell

19The churches of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priscilla greet you heartily in the Lord, [b]with the church that is in their house. 20All the brethren greet you.

[c]Greet one another with a holy kiss.

21[d]The salutation with my own hand—Paul's.

* 15:54 Isaiah 25:8 * 15:55 Hosea 13:14 • NU-Text reads O Death, where is your victory? O Death, where is your sting?

15:54 Death is swallowed up in victory. Satan's apparent victories in the garden of Eden (Gen. 3:13) and at the cross (Mark 15:22–24) were reversed by Jesus' death and resurrection (Co1. 2:13–15).

15:58 your labor is not in vain. We are looking forward to eternal life because of the hope of the resurrection; everything we do on this earth matters for eternity.

16:2 the first day of the week. It appears that the custom of believers meeting on the first day of the week began early in Christian history. lay something aside. The Old Testament tithe was not adopted by the New Testament church, though certainly Christ practiced it. New Testament believers were encouraged to give liberally, but never a specified amount or percentage (Rom. 12:8). Considering the New Testament teachings on generosity and self-sacrifice, believers should probably expect to give much more than ten percent.

16:13 be brave. This emphasizes courage as well as maturity. Paul's command to do everything with love serves as a balance to these strong exhortations.

16:17 Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus. These were probably the ones who confirmed the bad report brought by Chloe's household in 1 Corinthians 1:11.

16:19 Aquila and Priscilla. Aquila and Priscilla were tentmakers who had met Paul in Corinth. They followed him to Ephesus and made their house available for the meetings of the church (Rom. 16:3–5). They would have been known to many in the Corinthian church.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS

▶ AUTHOR: External and internal evidence amply support the Pauline authorship of this letter. There is an interval of about a year between these two letters to the Corinthians. Since Paul's first letter, the Corinthian church had been swayed by false teachers who stirred the people against Paul. They claimed he was fickle, arrogant, unimpressive in appearance and speech, and unqualified to be an apostle of Jesus Christ. During this time Paul has paid them what must have been an unpleasant visit and then wrote them another letter, which we do not have (2:1–4). Paul wrote 2 Corinthians in A.D. 56 in Macedonia and sent the letter to the church with Titus and another brother (8:16).

▶ TIME: c. A.D. 56 ▶ KEY VERSES: 2 Cor. 4:5–6

▶ THEME: As Paul writes this letter, he is looking forward to yet another visit, and it appears that the Corinthians have listened to him and things are getting on the right track. But there are still some problems. The key issue seems to be Paul's leadership. He spends a good deal of the letter establishing his authority and the need to exercise it, which makes the letter intensely personal. In it we can see the depth of his relationship with the Corinthians, and we get an understanding of the hardships Paul went through for these people on his missionary journeys. Most importantly we see a faith that is so focused that Paul is ready to endure anything to see it spread.

Greeting

1 Paul, [a]an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and [b]Timothy our brother,

To the church of God which is at Corinth, [c]with all the saints who are in all Achaia:

2[d]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Comfort in Suffering

3[e]Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, 4who [f]comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. 5For as [g]the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also abounds through Christ. 6Now if we are afflicted, [h]it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effective for enduring the same sufferings which we also suffer. Or if we are comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation. 7And our hope for you is steadfast, because we know that [i]as you are partakers of the sufferings, so also you will partake of the consolation.

Delivered from Suffering

8For we do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, of [j]our trouble which came to us in Asia: that we were burdened beyond measure, above strength, so that we despaired even of life. 9Yes, we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should [k]not trust in ourselves but in God who raises the dead, 10[l]who delivered us from so great a death, and does* deliver us; in whom we trust that He will still deliver us, 11you also [m]helping together in prayer for us, that thanks may be given by many persons on our* behalf [n]for the gift granted to us through many.

* 1:10 NU-Text reads shall. * 1:11 M-Text reads your behalf.

1:4 comforts us in all our tribulation. God comforts us for our own encouragement and also to make us comforters of others. The comfort that God gives to us becomes a gift that we can give to others (7:6; Acts 9:10–19).

1:5 the sufferings of Christ. Jesus warned His disciples that they would experience the same kind of suffering that He did for the sake of the gospel (John 15:20).

1:8 Asia. This is the Roman province in western Asia Minor, present day Turkey. The trouble that Paul speaks of is likely the riots in Ephesus (Acts 19:23–41).

Paul's Sincerity

12For our boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience that we conducted ourselves in the world in simplicity and [o]godly sincerity, [p]not with fleshly wisdom but by the grace of God, and more abundantly toward you. 13For we are not writing any other things to you than what you read or understand. Now I trust you will understand, even to the end 14(as also you have understood us in part), [q]that we are your boast as [r]you also are ours, in the day of the Lord Jesus.

Sparing the Church

15And in this confidence [s]I intended to come to you before, that you might have [t]a second benefit— 16to pass by way of you to Macedonia, [u]to come again from Macedonia to you, and be helped by you on my way to Judea. 17Therefore, when I was planning this, did I do it lightly? Or the things I plan, do I plan [v]according to the flesh, that with me there should be Yes, Yes, and No, No?
18But as God is [w]faithful, our word to you
was not Yes and No. 19For [x]the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you
by us—by me, [y]Silvanus, and [z]Timothy—was not Yes and No, [a]but in Him was Yes.
20[b]For all the promises of God in Him are Yes, and in Him Amen, to the glory of God through us. 21Now He who establishes us with you in Christ and [c]has anointed us is God, 22who [d]also has sealed us and [e]given us the Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee.
23Moreover [f]I call God as witness against my soul, [g]that to spare you I came no more to Corinth. 24Not [h]that we have dominion over your faith, but are fellow workers for your joy; for [i]by faith you stand.

2 But I determined this within myself,
[a]that I would not come again to you in sorrow. 2For if I make you [b]sorrowful, then who is he who makes me glad but the one who is made sorrowful by me?

Forgive the Offender

3And I wrote this very thing to you,
lest, when I came, [c]I should have sorrow
over those from whom I ought to have joy, [d]having confidence in you all that my joy
is the joy of you all. 4For out of much afflic-tion and anguish of heart I wrote to you,
with many tears, [e]not that you should be grieved, but that you might know the love
which I have so abundantly for you.
5But [f]if anyone has caused grief, he has not [g]grieved me, but all of you to some extent—not to be too severe. 6This punishment which was inflicted [h]by the majority is sufficient for such a man, 7[i]so that, on the contrary, you ought rather to forgive
and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one
be swallowed up with too much sorrow.
8Therefore I urge you to reaffirm your love to him. 9For to this end I also wrote, that I might put you to the test, whether you are [j]obedient in all things. 10Now whom you forgive anything, I also forgive. For if indeed I have forgiven anything, I have forgiven that one* for your sakes in the presence of Christ, 11lest Satan should take advantage of us; for we are not ignorant of his devices.

Triumph in Christ

12Furthermore, [k]when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and [l]a door was opened to me by the Lord, 13[m]I had no rest
in my spirit, because I did not find Titus
my brother; but taking my leave of them, I departed for Macedonia.
14Now thanks be to God who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and through us diffuses the fragrance of His knowledge in every place. 15For we are to God
the fragrance of Christ [n]among those who are being saved and [o]among those who are perishing. 16[p]To the one we are the aroma

* 2:10 NU-Text reads For indeed, what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, I did it.

1:12 godly sincerity. The Corinthians certainly were well acquainted with Paul's character, since he had spent 18 months with them (Acts 18:11).

1:19 not Yes and No. Paul's preaching was not inconsistent or contradictory. Instead, his preaching reflected the truthfulness and faithfulness of God, because his teaching was based on the Scriptures and the teachings of Christ.

1:21 anointed us. God confirmed Paul and his fellow workers by anointing them, the special mark of service to God which was given to kings and priests in the Old Testament. This anointing probably refers to special empowerment by the Holy Spirit, similar to the anointing that John described in 1 John 2:20, 27.

1:22 sealed us. Sealing indicates ownership and security. The sealing and the giving of the Holy Spirit are also linked. The Holy Spirit is a guarantee, the down payment that there is more spiritual blessing to come and that the believer will receive eternal life.

2:5 caused grief. This is probably a reference to the incestuous man of 1 Corinthians 5.

2:7 forgive and comfort him. The purpose of church discipline is repentance and restoration. Forgiveness should always follow the correction, just as Christ instructed (Matt. 18:15–35).

2:12 Troas. Troas was a city on the Aegean coast, where Paul had received his call to preach the gospel in Macedonia (Acts 16:8).

2:16 death leading to death. The gospel message gives life to those who choose to accept it, but it represents death and judgment to those who reject it.

of death leading to death, and to the other the aroma of life leading to life. And [q]who is sufficient for these things? 17For we are not, as so many,* [r]peddling the word of God; but as [s]of sincerity, but as from God, we speak in the sight of God in Christ.

Christ's Epistle

3 Do [a]we begin again to commend ourselves? Or do we need, as some others, [b]epistles of commendation to you or letters of commendation from you? 2[c]You are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read by all men; 3clearly you are an epistle of Christ, [d]ministered by us, written not with ink but by the Spirit of the living God, not [e]on tablets of stone but [f]on tablets of flesh, that is, of the heart.

The Spirit, Not the Letter

4And we have such trust through Christ toward God. 5[g]Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think of anything as being from ourselves, but [h]our sufficiency is from God, 6who also made us sufficient as [i]ministers of [j]the new covenant, not [k]of the letter but of the Spirit;* for [l]the letter kills, [m]but the Spirit gives life.

Glory of the New Covenant

7But if [n]the ministry of death, [o]written and engraved on stones, was glorious, [p]so that the children of Israel could not look steadily at the face of Moses because of the glory of his countenance, which glory was passing away, 8how will [q]the ministry of the Spirit not be more glorious? 9For if the ministry of condemnation had glory, the ministry [r]of righteousness exceeds much more in glory. 10For even what was made glorious had no glory in this respect, because of the glory that excels. 11For if what is passing away was glorious, what remains is much more glorious.

12Therefore, since we have such hope, [s]we use great boldness of speech— 13unlike Moses, [t]who put a veil over his face so that the children of Israel could not look steadily at [u]the end of what was passing away. 14But [v]their minds were blinded. For until this day the same veil remains unlifted in the reading of the Old Testament, because the veil is taken away in Christ. 15But even to this day, when Moses is read, a veil lies on their heart. 16Nevertheless [w]when one turns to the Lord, [x]the veil is taken away. 17Now [y]the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is [z]liberty. 18But we all, with unveiled face, beholding [a]as in a mirror [b]the glory of the Lord, [c]are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord.

The Light of Christ's Gospel

4 Therefore, since we have this ministry, [a]as we have received mercy, we [b]do not lose heart. 2But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness nor handling the word of God deceitfully, but by manifestation of the truth [c]commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 3But even if our gospel is veiled, [d]it is veiled to those who are perishing, 4whose minds [e]the god of this age [f]has blinded, who do not believe, lest [g]the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, [h]who is the image of

* 2:17 M-Text reads the rest. * 3:6 Or spirit

3:2 You are our epistle. Paul sometimes did use letters of recommendation (8:22; Rom. 16:1; 1 Cor. 16:10; Col. 4:10), but he did not need one for the Corinthians. They already knew him personally and had personally benefited from his ministry. Paul's love for the Corinthians was known to all who were acquainted with him. One of the qualifications for ministry is love for people, both God's people and the lost.

3:6 not of the letter. The "letter" is the old covenant of law. The "letter" kills because no one can be perfect enough to keep the whole law all the time, and the penalty for breaking it is death.

3:7 ministry of death. Though the law itself is holy (Rom. 7:12), the ministry of the law is the ministry of death because the law defines and convicts of sin but offers no salvation.

3:9 ministry of righteousness. God declares righteous those who believe in His Son, and then the Holy Spirit empowers the believer to live righteously. This first work of God is called justification, and the second is called sanctification.

3:11 what remains. The new covenant supersedes the old covenant established at Mount Sinai between God and the nation of Israel.

3:18 from glory to glory. As believers behold the glory of God in the Word of God, the Spirit of God changes their hearts and actions to make them more and more like Jesus Christ.

4:2 handling the word of God deceitfully. Apparently Paul had been accused of being crafty (12:16) and of being deceitful in the way that he preached. In fact, his ministry was based on the truthfulness of the word of God.

4:4 the god of this age has blinded. Because of Satan's deception, sometimes what the world thinks is obviously true is painfully wrong (Prov. 14:12). image of God. Jesus Christ is God's Son, and He perfectly reveals God the Father to us. Human beings have been created in the image of God, but through sin they have fallen from a perfect relationship with God. Jesus Christ is restoring believers to what they were originally created to be (3:18; Gen. 1:26).

God, should shine on them. 5[i]For we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and [j]ourselves your bondservants for Jesus' sake. 6For it is the God [k]who commanded light to shine out of darkness, who has [l]shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

Cast Down but Unconquered

7But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, [m]that the excellence of the power may be of God and not of us. 8 We are [n]hard-pressed on every side, yet not crushed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; 9persecuted, but not [o]forsaken; [p]struck down, but not destroyed— 10[q]always carrying about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, [r]that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our body. 11For we who live [s]are always delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh. 12So then death is working in us, but life in you.

13And since we have [t]the same spirit of faith, according to what is written, [u]*"I believed and therefore I spoke," we also believe and therefore speak, 14knowing that [v]He who raised up the Lord Jesus will also raise us up with Jesus, and will present us with you. 15For [w]all things are for your sakes, that [x]grace, having spread through the many, may cause thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God.

Seeing the Invisible

16Therefore we [y]do not lose heart. Even though our outward man is perishing, yet the inward man is [z]being renewed day by day. 17For [a]our light affliction, which is but for a moment, is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory, 18[b]while we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporary, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

Assurance of the Resurrection

5 For we know that if [a]our earthly house, this tent, is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house [b]not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. 2For in this [c]we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed with our habitation which is from heaven, 3if indeed, [d]having been clothed, we shall not be found naked. 4For we who are in this tent groan, being burdened, not because we want to be unclothed, [e]but further clothed, that mortality may be swallowed up by life. 5Now He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who also [f]has given us the Spirit as a guarantee.

6So we are always confident, knowing that while we are at home in the body we are absent from the Lord. 7For [g]we walk by faith, not by sight. 8We are confident, yes, [h]well pleased rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord.

The Judgment Seat of Christ

9Therefore we make it our aim, whether present or absent, to be well pleasing to Him. 10[i]For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, [j]that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad. 11Knowing, therefore, [k]the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are well known to God, and I also trust are well known in your consciences.

* 4:13 Psalm 116:10

4:8 yet not crushed. As believers we will face trials, but we must remember that God controls trials and uses them to strengthen His people. God's glory is manifested through broken vessels, through people who endure troubles by relying on His power.
4:9 struck down. This literally happened (Acts 14:19). In Lystra a crowd stoned Paul, leaving him for dead. But the Lord spared his life so that he could continue to preach the gospel and testify to God's deliverance.
4:12 life in you. Had Paul not been willing to risk death to bring the gospel to Corinth, the Corinthians would not have received eternal life.
4:17 working for us. Afflictions produce glory, but the glory is far greater than the affliction (Mark 10:30).
5:2 we groan. Along with the rest of creation, our spirits cry out for what we were meant to be (Rom. 8:22–23).
5:5 a guarantee. The Holy Spirit's work in believers' lives can be compared to a down payment, or earnest money (1:22). The presence of the Holy Spirit assures believers that God has purchased them. They are no longer slaves to sin, but are now His children.
5:8 be present with the Lord. This is one of the passages indicating where believers will go after death; they will be with Jesus in heaven (Luke 23:43; Phil. 1:23).
5:9 we make it our aim. Pleasing the Lord should always be our first concern in this life, since it is the only thing which will carry over into the next life.
5:10 according to what he has done. The believer will either be approved or ashamed (5:3; Luke 19:11–26; 1 Cor. 3:14–15; 9:27; 1 John 2:28; 2 John 7–8).
5:11 terror of the Lord. This is the fear of standing before the Lord and having one's life exposed and evaluated. The reality of giving an account to the Lord motivated Paul to persuade people, in this context meaning to convince the Corinthians of his sincerity and integrity.

Be Reconciled to God

12 For [l]we do not commend ourselves again to you, but give you opportunity [m]to boast on our behalf, that you may have an answer for those who boast in appearance and not in heart. 13 For [n]if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; or if we are of sound mind, it is for you. 14 For the love of Christ compels us, because we judge
thus: that [o]if One died for all, then all died; 15 and He died for all, [p]that those who live should live no longer for themselves,
but for Him who died for them and rose again.

16 [q]Therefore, from now on, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we have known Christ according to the flesh, [r]yet now we know Him thus no longer. 17 Therefore, if anyone [s]is in Christ, he is [t]a new creation; [u]old things have passed away; behold, all things have become [v]new. 18 Now all things are of God, [w]who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation, 19 that is, that [x]God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not imputing their trespasses
to them, and has committed to us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then, we are [y]ambassadors for Christ, as though God were pleading through us: we implore you on Christ's behalf, be reconciled to God. 21 For [z]He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become [a]the righteousness of God in Him.

Marks of the Ministry

6 We then, as [a]workers together with Him
also [b]plead with you not to receive the grace of God in vain. 2 For He says:

> [c]"In an acceptable time I have heard you,
> And in the day of salvation I have > *helped you."

Behold, now is the accepted time; behold,
now is the day of salvation.

3 [d]We give no offense in anything, that our ministry may not be blamed. 4 But in all things we commend ourselves [e]as ministers of God: in much patience, in tribulations, in needs, in distresses, 5 [f]in stripes,
in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in sleeplessness, in fastings; 6 by purity, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by sincere love, 7 [g]by the word of truth, by [h]the power of God, by [i]the armor of righteousness on the right hand
and on the left, 8 by honor and dishonor, by evil report and good report; as deceivers,
and yet true; 9 as unknown, and [j]yet well known; [k]as dying, and behold we live; [l]as chastened, and yet not killed; 10 as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many [m]rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

Be Holy

11 O Corinthians! We have spoken openly to you, [n]our heart is wide open. 12 You are

* 6:2 Isaiah 49:8

5:14 love of Christ. This phrase can mean either Christ's love for us or our love for Christ.

5:15 for Him. Believers are united with Jesus both in His death and in His resurrection, and therefore they participate in the new creation. That is, they receive the benefits of being restored by Christ to what God had originally created them to be (Gen. 1:26; 1 Cor. 15:45–49).

5:17 Our New Nature—The term "new nature" refers to the spiritual transformation that occurs within people when they believe in Christ as Savior. New does not mean renewed, renovated, reformed, or rehabilitated. It means completely and distinctly new, with a new family, a new set of values, new motivations, and a whole new life. The old man is still present in the new life and expresses himself in sinful deeds such as lying (Eph. 4:22; Col. 3:9). The new man, to be visible, must be put on, as one would put on a new suit of clothes (Col. 3:10). In other words, the new nature must be cultivated or nurtured by spiritual decisiveness to grow in Christ. We must not revert to putting on the old suit of the former life; rather, we must continue to grow in this new life (Eph. 5:8).

5:18 ministry of reconciliation. Reconciliation is the change of relation from enmity to peace. We who have been reconciled to God through Christ have the privilege of telling others that they can be reconciled to Him as well.

5:19 reconciling the world to Himself. God could change His relationship toward us because our sins have been imputed (charged) to Christ instead of to us. If we believe in Jesus, God counts Jesus' righteousness as our righteousness (v. 21).

5:20 ambassadors. Ambassadors are representatives of the sovereign who sends them, the "stand in" for their own ruler in a foreign country. Christians have been called by their King to serve as ambassadors in a world that is in rebellion against Him, with the responsibility to bring a message of peace and of reconciliation.

6:1 in vain. Believers who live for themselves may have received the grace of God, but they will miss out on a heavenly reward for their service to Him. Paul encourages those who have been saved to work out or develop their salvation (Phil. 2:12). The Corinthians were failing at this very point. They were saved and stuck, so to speak.

6:4 in much patience. Believers must not expect that it will be easy or comfortable to be a disciple, but it will be more deeply fulfilling than anything else could be.

not restricted by us, but [o]you are restricted by your own affections. 13Now in return for the same [p](I speak as to children), you also be open.

14[q]Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers. For [r]what fellowship has righteousness with lawlessness? And what communion has light with darkness? 15And what accord has Christ with Belial? Or what part has a believer with an unbeliever? 16And what agreement has the temple of God with idols? For [s]you* are the temple of the living God. As God has said:

[t]"I will dwell in them
And walk among them.
I will be their God,
*And they shall be My people."

17Therefore

[u]"Come out from among them
And be separate, says the Lord.
Do not touch what is unclean,
*And I will receive you."
18 "I [v]will be a Father to you,
And you shall be My [w]sons and daughters,
Says the LORD *Almighty."

7 Therefore,[a] having these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

The Corinthians' Repentance

2Open your hearts to us. We have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, [b]we have cheated no one. 3I do not say this to condemn; for [c]I have said before that you are in our hearts, to die together and to live together. 4[d]Great is my boldness of speech toward you, [e]great is my boasting on your behalf. [f]I am filled with comfort. I am exceedingly joyful in all our tribulation.

5For indeed, [g]when we came to Macedonia, our bodies had no rest, but [h]we were troubled on every side. [i]Outside were conflicts, inside were fears. 6Nevertheless [j]God, who comforts the downcast, comforted us by [k]the coming of Titus, 7and not only by his coming, but also by the consolation with which he was comforted in you, when he told us of your earnest desire, your mourning, your zeal for me, so that I rejoiced even more.

8For even if I made you [l]sorry with my letter, I do not regret it; [m]though I did regret it. For I perceive that the same epistle made you sorry, though only for a while. 9Now I rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that your sorrow led to repentance. For you were made sorry in a godly manner, that you might suffer loss from us in nothing. 10For [n]godly sorrow produces repentance leading to salvation, not to be regretted; [o]but the sorrow of the world produces death. 11For observe this very thing, that you sorrowed in a godly manner: What diligence it produced in you, what [p]clearing of yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what vehement desire, what zeal, what vindication! In all things you proved yourselves to be [q]clear in this matter. 12Therefore, although I wrote to you, I did not do it for the sake of him who had done the wrong, nor for the sake of him who suffered wrong, [r]but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear to you.

The Joy of Titus

13Therefore we have been comforted in your comfort. And we rejoiced exceedingly more for the joy of Titus, because his spirit [s]has been refreshed by you all. 14For if in anything I have boasted to him about you, I am not ashamed. But as we spoke all things to you in truth, even so our boasting to Titus was found true. 15And his affections are greater for you as he remembers [t]the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling you received him. 16Therefore I rejoice that [u]I have confidence in you in everything.

* 6:16 NU-Text reads we. • Leviticus 26:12; Jeremiah 32:38; Ezekiel 37:27 * 6:17 Isaiah 52:11; Ezekiel 20:34, 41 * 6:18 2 Samuel 7:14

6:14 unequally yoked together with unbelievers. This verse has most often been applied to the subject of marriage, warning believers not to bind themselves for life to one who does not love the Lord.
6:15 Belial. This term for Satan occurs only here in the New Testament. It refers to one who is vile and wicked and who causes destruction.
6:16 you are the temple. This reference to Leviticus 26:11–12 and Ezekiel 37:27 reminds believers of their relationship with God. Since the Holy Spirit is living in them, they are God's new dwelling place (1 Cor. 6:19).
6:17 be separate. Paul was not encouraging isolation from unbelievers (1 Cor. 9:5–13) but discouraging compromise with their sinful values and practices. He was urging them (and us) to maintain integrity in the world just as Christ did (John 15:14–16; Phil. 2:14–16).
7:1 perfecting holiness. This means dedicating ourselves to Christ and living righteously (Heb. 6:1).
7:3 you are in our hearts. Paul was not throwing his weight around or trying to be controlling. He loved the Corinthians and wanted the very best for them.
7:10 produces repentance. A person can be sorry that he or she was caught in sin, or sorry to have to bear the consequences, without repenting of sin. True sorrow leads to a change of heart and a turning to God. Repentance means changing direction, and results in spiritual deliverance.

Excel in Giving

8 Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia: 2that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and [q]their deep poverty abounded in the riches of their liberality. 3For I bear witness that according to their ability, yes, and beyond their ability, they were freely willing, 4imploring us with much urgency that we would receive* the gift and [b]the fellowship of the ministering to the saints. 5And not only as we had hoped, but they first [c]gave themselves to the Lord, and then to us by the [d]will of God. 6So [e]we urged Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also complete this grace in you as well. 7But as [f]you abound in everything—in faith, in speech,
in knowledge, in all diligence, and in your love for us—see [g]that you abound in this grace also.

Christ Our Pattern

8[h]I speak not by commandment, but I am testing the sincerity of your love by the diligence of others. 9For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, [i]that though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that you through His poverty might become [j]rich.

10And in this [k]I give advice: [l]It is to your advantage not only to be doing what you began and [m]were desiring to do a year ago;
11but now you also must complete the doing
of it; that as there was a readiness to desire
it, so there also may be a completion out of what you have. 12For [n]if there is first a willing mind, it is accepted according to what one has, and not according to what he does not have.

13For I do not mean that others should be eased and you burdened; 14but by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may supply their lack, that their abundance also may supply your lack—
that there may be equality. 15As it is written, [o]*"He who gathered much had nothing left over, and he who gathered little had no lack."

Collection for the Judean Saints

16But thanks be to God who puts* the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus. 17For he not only accepted the exhortation, but being more diligent, he went to you of his own accord. 18And we have sent with him [p]the brother whose praise
is in the gospel throughout all the churches, 19and not only that, but who was also [q]chosen by the churches to travel with us
with this gift, which is administered by us [r]to the glory of the Lord Himself and to show your ready mind, 20avoiding this: that anyone should blame us in this lavish gift which is administered by us— 21[s]providing honorable things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22And we have sent with them our brother whom we have often proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent,
because of the great confidence which we have in you. 23If anyone inquires about [t]Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker concerning you. Or if our brethren are inquired about, they are [u]messengers of the churches, the glory of Christ. 24Therefore
show to them, and* before the churches,
the proof of your love and of our [v]boasting
on your behalf.

Administering the Gift

9 Now concerning [a]the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you; 2for I know your willingness,
about which I boast of you to the Macedonians, that Achaia was ready a [b]year ago;
and your zeal has stirred up the majority. 3[c]Yet I have sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this respect, that, as I said, you may be ready; 4lest if some Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we (not to mention you!) should be ashamed of this confident boasting.* 5Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren to go to you ahead of time, and prepare your generous gift beforehand, which you had previously promised, that it may be ready
as a matter of generosity and not as a grudging obligation.

8:1 Macedonia. Macedonia corresponds to the northern part of present day Greece. Paul had established churches in the Macedonian cities of Philippi, Thessalonica, and Berea.

8:8 testing the sincerity of your love. Generosity is the natural result of sincere love.

8:9 you . . . might become rich. Jesus offers forgiveness, justification, regeneration, eternal life, and glorification. He purchased us from slavery to sin, giving us the position of children of God with free access to His presence.

8:10 advantage. Giving in this life is an investment for eternity (Matt. 6:19–21).

9:4 Macedonians. Paul was in Macedonia when he wrote this letter (2:13; 7:5). When he made his visit to Corinth he would no doubt bring traveling companions from Macedonia.

The Cheerful Giver

6 [d]But this I say: He who sows sparingly
will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. 7 So let each one give as he purposes in his heart, [e]not grudgingly or of necessity; for [f]God loves a cheerful giver. 8 [g]And God is able to make all grace abound toward you,
that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may have an abundance for every good work. 9 As it is written:

[h]"He has dispersed abroad,
He has given to the poor;
His righteousness endures forever."*

10 Now may* He who [i]supplies seed to the sower, and bread for food, supply and multiply the seed you have sown and increase the fruits of your [j]righteousness, 11 while you are enriched in everything for all liberality, [k]which causes thanksgiving through us to God. 12 For the administration of this service not only [l]supplies the needs of the saints, but also is abounding through many thanksgivings to God, 13 while, through the proof of this ministry, they [m]glorify God for the obedience of your confession to the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal [n]sharing with them and all men, 14 and by their prayer for you, who long for you because of the exceeding [o]grace of God in you.
15 Thanks be to God [p]for His indescribable gift!

The Spiritual War

10 Now [a]I, Paul, myself am pleading with you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ—[b]who in presence am lowly among you, but being absent am bold toward you. 2 But I beg you [c]that when I am present I may not be bold with that confidence by which I intend to be bold against some, who think of us as if we walked according to the flesh. 3 For though
we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh. 4 [d]For the weapons [e]of our warfare are not carnal but [f]mighty in God [g]for pulling down strongholds, 5 [h]casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ, 6 [i]and being ready to punish all disobedience when [j]your obedience is fulfilled.

Reality of Paul's Authority

7 [k]Do you look at things according to the outward appearance? [l]If anyone is convinced in himself that he is Christ's, let him again consider this in himself, that just as he is Christ's, even so [m]we are Christ's.*
8 For even if I should boast somewhat more [n]about our authority, which the Lord gave us* for edification and not for your destruction, [o]I shall not be ashamed— 9 lest I seem to terrify you by letters. 10 "For his letters," they say, "are weighty and powerful,
but [p]his bodily presence is weak, and his [q]speech contemptible." 11 Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such we will also be in deed when we are present.

Limits of Paul's Authority

12 [r]For we dare not class ourselves or compare ourselves with those who commend themselves. But they, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise. 13 [s]We, however, will not boast beyond measure, but within the limits of the sphere which God appointed us—a sphere

* 9:9 Psalm 112:9 * 9:10 NU-Text reads Now He who supplies … will supply…. * 10:7 NU-Text reads even as we are. * 10:8 NU-Text omits us.

9:6–8 Giving—There is no better indicator of growth in the new life than in the area of giving. This passage and others deal with several aspects of giving:

1. Giving should be done generously, even extravagantly (2 Cor. 9:6).
2. Giving should be done cheerfully (2 Cor. 9:7).
3. Giving should be regular (1 Cor. 16:2).
4. Giving should be systematic (1 Cor. 16:2).
5. Giving should be proportionate (2 Cor. 8:3).

God is not primarily concerned about the amount of the gift, but with the motive that lies behind it. The person who fails to honor God with his money actually robs God (Mal. 3:8), not because it impoverishes God but because it denies the God-ordained means for the support of His work and His ministers. For the child of God who honors God with his money, God promises abundant blessing (Mal. 3:10; Luke 6:38) and the provision of his every need (Phil. 4:19).

9:6 reap sparingly. The law of the harvest is referred to repeatedly in Scripture (Prov. 11:24–25; 19:17; Luke 6:38; Gal. 6:7). If you do not plant, you will have no harvest.

9:8 God is able. God sees to it that the generous giver will not suffer want. Instead, God generously provides for those who give so that they can continue to do so.

9:15 indescribable gift. Our gifts can never compare with God's sacrifice for us.

10:4 our warfare. The world is hostile to Christ and His followers because the world is following Satan. The life of a believer is not one of ease but a constant spiritual battle.

10:8 edification. Paul's exhortation was aimed at correcting abuses, not the tearing down of the church.

which especially includes you. 14For we are not overextending ourselves (as though our authority did not extend to you), [t]for it was to you that we came with the gospel of Christ; 15not boasting of things beyond measure, that is, [u]in other men's labors, but having hope, that as your faith is increased, we shall be greatly enlarged by you in our sphere, 16to preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's sphere of accomplishment.

17But [v]*"he who glories, let him glory in the LORD." 18For [w]not he who commends himself is approved, but [x]whom the Lord commends.

Concern for Their Faithfulness

11 Oh, that you would bear with me in a little [a]folly—and indeed you do bear with me. 2For I am [b]jealous for you with godly jealousy. For [c]I have betrothed you to one husband, [d]that I may present you [e]as a chaste virgin to Christ. 3But I fear, lest somehow, as [f]the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, so your minds [g]may be corrupted from the simplicity* that is in Christ. 4For if he who comes preaches another Jesus whom we have not preached, or if you receive a different spirit which you have not received, or a [h]different gospel which you have not accepted—you may well put up with it!

Paul and False Apostles

5For I consider that [i]I am not at all inferior to the most eminent apostles. 6Even though [j]I am untrained in speech, yet I am not [k]in knowledge. But [l]we have been thoroughly manifested* among you in all things.

7Did I commit sin in humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I preached the gospel of God to you [m]free of charge? 8I robbed other churches, taking wages from them to minister to you. 9And when I was present with you, and in need, [n]I was a burden to no one, for what I lacked [o]the brethren who came from Macedonia supplied. And in everything I kept myself from being burdensome to you, and so I will keep myself. 10[p]As the truth of Christ is in me, [q]no one shall stop me from this boasting in the regions of Achaia. 11Why? [r]Because I do not love you? God knows!

12But what I do, I will also continue to do, [s]that I may cut off the opportunity from those who desire an opportunity to be regarded just as we are in the things of which they boast. 13For such [t]are false apostles, [u]deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ. 14And no wonder! For Satan himself transforms himself into [v]an angel of light. 15Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also transform themselves into ministers of righteousness, [w]whose end will be according to their works.

Reluctant Boasting

16I say again, let no one think me a fool. If otherwise, at least receive me as a fool, that I also may boast a little. 17What I speak, [x]I speak not according to the Lord, but as it were, foolishly, in this confidence of boasting. 18Seeing that many boast according to the flesh, I also will boast. 19For you put up with fools gladly, [y]since you yourselves are wise! 20For you put up with it [z]if one brings you into bondage, if one devours you, if one takes from you, if one exalts himself, if one strikes you on the face. 21To our shame [a]I say that we were too weak for that! But [b]in whatever anyone is bold—I speak foolishly—I am bold also.

Suffering for Christ

22Are they [c]Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the seed of

* 10:17 Jeremiah 9:24 * 11:3 NU-Text adds and purity. * 11:6 NU-Text omits been.

10:16 regions beyond you. Paul states in Romans that his ambition was to preach the gospel in Spain (Rom. 15:24).

11:2 jealous. Usually jealousy has a negative connotation to us—we confuse jealousy with envy or spite. The word has the same root as "zealous," and it can mean a sincere and energetic protection of the rights or purity of a person or place.

11:3 simplicity. In this sense, simplicity indicates sincerity or lack of double motives or cunning.

11:6 untrained in speech. Paul may have lacked gifts as a professional speaker, but he did not lack knowledge since he had received direct revelation from the Lord (Gal. 1:11–12).

11:7 free of charge. Professional philosophers and teachers in Greek society charged for teaching.

11:14 transforms himself into an angel of light. Don't make the mistake of believing that evil always appears grotesque, ugly, or repulsive. Satan's main tool is deception and he is quite capable of making evil appear beautiful.

11:17 I speak not according to the Lord. This kind of boasting was not characteristic of the Lord. Jesus Christ was an example of humility (Phil. 2:5–11).

11:18 according to the flesh. The false apostles measured themselves by their own standards rather than by God's.

11:21 too weak. Paul's critics had accused him of being weak (10:10). He sarcastically said that he was too weak to rule the Corinthians harshly as the false apostles had done.

Abraham? So am I. 23Are they ministers of Christ?—I speak as a fool—I am more: [d]in labors more abundant, [e]in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequently, [f]in deaths often. 24From the Jews five times I received [g]forty [h]stripes minus one. 25Three times I was [i]beaten with rods; [j]once I was stoned; three times I [k]was shipwrecked; a night and a day I have been in the deep; 26*in* journeys often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, [l]in perils of my own countrymen, [m]in perils of the Gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; 27in weariness and toil, [n]in sleeplessness often, [o]in hunger and thirst, in [p]fastings often, in cold and nakedness— 28besides the other things, what comes upon me daily: [q]my deep concern for all the churches. 29[r]Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to stumble, and I do not burn with indignation?

30If I must boast, [s]I will boast in the things which concern my infirmity. 31[t]The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, [u]who is blessed forever, knows that I am not lying. 32[v]In Damascus the governor, under Aretas the king, was guarding the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desiring to arrest me; 33but I was let down in a basket through a window in the wall, and escaped from his hands.

The Vision of Paradise

12 It is doubtless* not profitable for me to boast. I will come to [a]visions and [b]revelations of the Lord: 2I know a man [c]in Christ who fourteen years ago—whether in the body I do not know, or whether out of the body I do not know, God knows—such a one [d]was caught up to the third heaven. 3And I know such a man—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows— 4how he was caught up into [e]Paradise and heard inexpressible words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. 5Of such a one I will boast; yet of myself I will not [f]boast, except in my infirmities. 6For though I might desire to boast, I will not be a fool; for I will speak the truth. But I refrain, lest anyone should think of me above what he sees me to be or hears from me.

The Thorn in the Flesh

7And lest I should be exalted above measure by the abundance of the revelations, a [g]thorn in the flesh was given to me, [h]a messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I be exalted above measure. 8[i]Concerning this thing I pleaded with the Lord three times that it might depart from me. 9And He said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness." Therefore most gladly [j]I will rather boast in my infirmities, [k]that the power of Christ may rest upon me. 10Therefore [l]I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in needs, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake. [m]For when I am weak, then I am strong.

Signs of an Apostle

11I have become [n]a fool in boasting;* you have compelled me. For I ought to have been commended by you; for [o]in nothing was I behind the most eminent apostles, though [p]I am nothing. 12[q]Truly the signs of an apostle were accomplished among you with all perseverance, in signs and [r]wonders and mighty [s]deeds. 13For what is it in which you were inferior to other churches, except that I myself was not burdensome to you? Forgive me this wrong!

* 12:1 NU-Text reads necessary, though not profitable, to boast. * 12:11 NU-Text omits in boasting.

11:23 as a fool. Paul acknowledged the silliness of such bragging. He knew that only God had made his preaching and service effective. Paul's credentials were superior to those of the false teachers on every point of experience and background, but even so his ministry had authority only because he received it from God.

12:1 visions and revelations. This boasting may have been to counter similar claims by the false teachers.

12:2 fourteen years. Paul wrote 2 Corinthians in A.D. 56; 14 years earlier would have been A.D. 42, probably when he was in Antioch (Acts 11:26). third heaven. It was common to speak of three "heavens": The first is the atmosphere where the birds fly; the second is the place of the sun, moon, and stars; the third is where God dwells.

12:7 thorn in the flesh. Most commentators interpret Paul's thorn as a physical ailment, and many suggest that it was eye trouble on the basis of Galatians 4:15. It is also possible that "flesh" is a reference to the fallen human nature, in which case the thorn could be a temptation, or it could refer to persecution or opposition. messenger of Satan. God permitted Satan to afflict Paul as he did Job (Job 1–2).

12:11 compelled me. Only the fact that the Corinthians had listened to the silly slander against Paul had made him waste time on boasting.

12:12 signs of an apostle. God has often used miracles as supernatural evidences of His authority in a new work (Acts 14:3).

Love for the Church

14 [t]Now for the third time I am ready to come to you. And I will not be burdensome to you; for [u]I do not seek yours, but you.
[v]For the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children. 15And I will very gladly spend and be spent [w]for your souls; though [x]the more abundantly I love you, the less I am loved.
16But be that as it may, [y]I did not burden
you. Nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you by cunning! 17Did I take advantage of you by any of those whom I sent to you?
18I urged Titus, and sent our [z]brother with him. Did Titus take advantage of you? Did we not walk in the same spirit? Did we not walk in the same steps?
19 [a]Again, do you think* that we excuse ourselves to you? [b]We speak before God
in Christ. [c]But we do all things, beloved,
for your edification. 20For I fear lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I wish,
and that [d]I shall be found by you such as you do not wish; lest there be contentions, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, backbitings, whisperings, conceits,
tumults; 21lest, when I come again, my God [e]will humble me among you, and I shall mourn for many [f]who have sinned before
and have not repented of the uncleanness, [g]fornication, and lewdness which they have practiced.

Coming with Authority

13 This will be [a]the third time I am coming to you. [b]"By the mouth of two or three witnesses every word shall be established."* 2[c]I have told you before, and foretell as if I were present the second time, and now being absent I write* to those [d]who have sinned before, and to all the rest, that if I come again [e]I will not spare— 3since
you seek a proof of Christ [f]speaking in me,
who is not weak toward you, but mighty [g]in you. 4[h]For though He was crucified in weakness, yet [i]He lives by the power of God. For [j]we also are weak in Him, but we shall live with Him by the power of God toward you.
5Examine yourselves as to whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Do you not know yourselves, [k]that Jesus Christ is in you?—unless indeed you are [l]disqualified.
6But I trust that you will know that we are not disqualified.

Paul Prefers Gentleness

7Now I* pray to God that you do no evil, not that we should appear approved,
but that you should do what is honorable,
though [m]we may seem disqualified. 8For
we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. 9For we are glad [n]when we are weak and you are strong. And this also we pray, [o]that you may be made complete.
10[p]Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the [q]authority which the Lord has given me for edification and not for destruction.

Greetings and Benediction

11Finally, brethren, farewell. Become complete. [r]Be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love
[s]and peace will be with you.
12 [t]Greet one another with a holy kiss.
13All the saints greet you.
14 [u]The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ,
and the love of God, and [v]the communion
of the Holy Spirit be with you all. Amen.

* 12:19 NU-Text reads You have been thinking for a long time.... * 13:1 Deuteronomy 19:15 * 13:2 NU-Text omits I write. * 13:7 NU-Text reads we.

12:14 the third time. It is not clear whether Paul had already made two previous visits to Corinth, or whether this refers to the third attempt to visit. We know that he had tried to come and had been prevented at least once (1:15–16,23; 2:1–4).

13:4 in weakness. Christ appeared to be weak when He was crucified, but He was raised by the power of God; similarly, Paul was weak, but by the power of God he would live with Christ in strength toward them.

13:5 Examine yourselves. Paul did not doubt that they were true believers (1:1,24; 7:1; 8:1; 12:14). He wanted them to ask themselves whether they were walking according to the gospel that they professed. He wanted them to apply the same standard to themselves that they were applying to him.

13:9 complete. The Greek word for "complete" was used to describe the setting of bones and the reconciliation of alienated friends.

13:14 the communion of the Holy Spirit. At the end of his letter, Paul identifies the solution to many of the Corinthians' problems. The Holy Spirit, who dwelled in each of them, could empower them to live righteously. Furthermore, the Spirit could reconcile them to each other. They could love and encourage each other instead of fighting each other (12:20). They needed God's grace, not selfishness; God's love, not anger; and communion, not conflict.

GALATIANS

▶ AUTHOR: The Pauline authorship and the unity of this epistle are virtually unchallenged. The first verse clearly identifies the author as, "Paul, an apostle" as does 5:2, "I, Paul, say to you." In fact, Paul actually wrote, or at least finished, Galatians by his own hand (6:11) instead of dictating it to a secretary, as was his usual practice. There is some controversy as to whether Paul was writing to the northern Galatians or the southern Galatians. If the former theory is correct, this epistle was written sometime during Paul's third missionary journey in A.D. 53–56. If the latter theory is correct, this epistle was written before the Jerusalem council (Acts 15) in A.D. 49, right after the first missionary journey. Regardless of the timing of its writing, Galatians affords us a clear glimpse into the ministry and theology of Paul as a Jewish Christian.

▶ TIME: C. A.D. 49–53 ▶ KEY VERSES: Gal. 2:20–21

▶ THEME: The big question for the church in its first generation was, "Did a person have to become a Jew before they could be a Christian?" There were many Jews who thought this was the case. Three things happened to move the church away from this perspective: Peter's vision as recorded in Acts 10; the decision of the Jerusalem council in Acts 15 that Gentiles didn't need to adopt all the Jewish customs; and Paul's received revelation that he was to deliver to the Gentiles. Even with all this evidence, there were still some Jews who followed Paul around and attempted to teach Jewish regulations to his newly planted churches. Paul was furious at these events and used this letter to set the record straight. Christ brought freedom and died for people of all cultures, an idea that was a new paradigm for many of the Jews who were stuck in a "God loves us most" mode. Paul goes to great lengths to review with the Galatians what he had taught them and where this teaching had come from.

Greeting

1 Paul, an apostle (not from men nor through man, but [a]through Jesus Christ and God the Father [b]who raised Him from the dead), 2and all the brethren who are with me,

To the churches of Galatia:

3Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, 4[c]who gave Himself for our sins, that He might deliver us [d]from this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, 5to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Only One Gospel

6I marvel that you are turning away so soon [e]from Him who called you in the grace of Christ, to a different gospel, 7[f]which is not another; but there are some [g]who trouble you and want to [h]pervert the gospel of Christ. 8But even if [i]we, or an angel from

1:1 an apostle. Paul calls himself this title to assert his divinely given authority to speak to the problem confronting the Galatian churches. through Jesus Christ and God the Father. Paul makes reference to his unique call to be an apostle (vv. 15–16) which came to him at the same time as his salvation on the road to Damascus (Acts 26:12–18).
1:2 To the churches of Galatia. Galatians is a circular letter, intended for several churches.
1:3 Grace to you and peace. These words are a variation from the standard greeting of ancient letters in Paul's time. Paul adds the Greek word for the traditional Hebrew greeting, "peace."
1:4 deliver us from this present evil age. This passage is similar to Colossians 1:13, which states, "He has delivered us from the power of darkness and conveyed us into the kingdom of the Son of His love." Both passages develop this truth based on Christ's redemptive work (Col. 1:14), implying that the word "deliver" refers to sanctification in the face of temptations of this present age.
1:6–7 marvel. Use of this word reveals Paul's ongoing shock at the Galatians' defection from the gospel of God's undeserved grace. The Galatians had unwittingly fallen for a different message.
1:8–9 If anyone. Paul's concern for the purity of the gospel message is revealed by his assertion that he heaven, preach any other gospel to you than what we have preached to you, let him be accursed. 9As we have said before, so now I say again, if anyone preaches any other gospel to you [j]than what you have received, let him be accursed.

10For [k]do I now [l]persuade men, or God? Or [m]do I seek to please men? For if I still pleased men, I would not be a bondservant of Christ.

Call to Apostleship

11[n]But I make known to you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached by me is not according to man. 12For [o]I neither received it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came [p]through the revelation of Jesus Christ.

13For you have heard of my former conduct in Judaism, how [q]I persecuted the church of God beyond measure and [r]tried to destroy it. 14And I advanced in Judaism beyond many of my contemporaries in my own nation, [s]being more exceedingly zealous [t]for the traditions of my fathers.

15But when it pleased God, [u]who separated me from my mother's womb and called me through His grace, 16[v]to reveal His Son in me, that [w]I might preach Him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately confer with [x]flesh and blood, 17nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me; but I went to Arabia, and returned again to Damascus.

Contacts at Jerusalem

18Then after three years [y]I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter,* and remained with him fifteen days. 19But [z]I saw none of the other apostles except [a]James, the Lord's brother. 20(Now concerning the things which I write to you, indeed, before God, I do not lie.)

21[b]Afterward I went into the regions of Syria and Cilicia. 22And I was unknown by face to the churches of Judea which [c]were in Christ. 23But they were [d]hearing only, "He who formerly [e]persecuted us now preaches the faith which he once tried to destroy." 24And they [f]glorified God in me.

Defending the Gospel

2 Then after fourteen years [a]I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and also took Titus with me. 2And I went up by revelation, and communicated to them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but [b]privately to those who were of reputation, lest by any means [c]I might run, or had run, in vain. 3Yet not even Titus who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised. 4And this occurred because of [d]false brethren secretly brought in (who came in by stealth to spy out our [e]liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, [f]that they might bring us into bondage), 5to whom we did not yield submission even for an hour, that [g]the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6But from those [h]who seemed to be something—whatever they were, it makes no difference to me; [i]God shows personal favoritism to no man—for those who would condemn to destruction anyone who taught a false gospel.

1:10 seek to please men. This was neither Paul's motivation nor the source of his authority (v. 1). Paul continually sought the approval of God. He did not base his decisions on the opinions of other people. Instead he single-mindedly aimed at pleasing God (Phil. 3:14).

1:13–14 Judaism. This refers to the Jewish way of life, which was based partly on the Old Testament and partly on additional traditions (Matt. 15:2).

1:15–17 separated me . . . called me through His grace. Paul related that God had chosen him to be an apostle (v. 1) before his birth, not unlike Jeremiah's call to be a prophet (Jer. 1:5). Paul, like the Judaizers in Galatia, had previously tried to earn his salvation by works (v. 14). He needed no human validation because of the way he had received his message.

1:19 James, the Lord's brother. This reference indicates that the "apostles" were not always restricted to the Twelve.

2:1 fourteen years. This timeframe may refer to twelve full years plus fractions of the first and last years (1:18). The span could date from Paul's previous visit to Jerusalem, but more likely from his conversion.

2:3 Titus. One of Paul's companions was a kind of "test-case" Gentile. circumcised. This term introduces a central topic of the Jewish false teachers, one which Paul addresses repeatedly in Galatians (5:2–3,6). Unlike Timothy, whom Paul had circumcised because Timothy's mother was Jewish, Titus was not circumcised. Circumcising him would have been a sign to all other Gentiles that following Jewish law was required for a person to become a Christian. As Paul explains in this letter, circumcising Titus would be a rejection of the good news that salvation is God's gift to those who believe in His Son.

2:4 false brethren. This phrase apparently indicates that, although these people passed themselves off convincingly as Christians, there was reason to view their profession as a sham. These pseudo-Christians did not announce their purpose, which was to curtail Christian liberty (5:1,13).

2:6 those who seemed to be something. While Paul recognized the leadership roles of James, Peter, and John, he pointed out that they were in no way superior to him in their understanding of the gospel.

seemed to be something [i]added nothing to me. 7But on the contrary, [k]when they saw that the gospel for the uncircumcised [l]had been committed to me, as the gospel for the circumcised was to Peter 8(for He who worked effectively in Peter for the apostleship to the [m]circumcised [n]also [o]worked effectively in me toward the Gentiles), 9and when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be [p]pillars, perceived [q]the grace that had been given to me, they gave me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, [r]that we should go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised. 10*They desired* only that we should remember the poor, [s]the very thing which I also was eager to do.

No Return to the Law

11[t]Now when Peter* had come to Antioch, I withstood him to his face, because he was to be blamed; 12for before certain men came from James, [u]he would eat with the Gentiles; but when they came, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing those who were of the circumcision. 13And the rest of the Jews also played the hypocrite with him, so that even Barnabas was carried away with their hypocrisy.

14But when I saw that they were not straightforward about [v]the truth of the gospel, I said to Peter [w]before them all, [x]"If you, being a Jew, live in the manner of Gentiles and not as the Jews, why do you* compel Gentiles to live as Jews?* 15[y]We who are Jews by nature, and not [z]sinners of the Gentiles, 16[a]knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but [b]by faith in Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not [c]by the works of the law; for by the works of the law no flesh shall be justified.

17"But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found [d]sinners, is Christ therefore a minister of sin? Certainly not! 18For if I build again those things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor. 19For I [e]through the law [f]died to the law that I might [g]live to God. 20I have been [h]crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh [i]I live by faith in the Son of God, [j]who loved me and gave Himself for me. 21I do not set aside the grace of God; for [k]if righteousness comes through the law, then Christ died in vain."

Justification by Faith

3 O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you that you should not obey the truth,* before whose eyes Jesus Christ was clearly portrayed among you* as crucified? 2This only I want to learn from you: Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, [a]or by the hearing of faith? 3Are you so foolish? [b]Having begun in the Spirit, are you now being made perfect by [c]the flesh? 4[d]Have you suffered so many things in vain—if indeed it was in vain?

5Therefore He who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you, does He do it by the works of the law, or by the

2:7–10 uncircumcised . . . circumcised. There were not two different gospels. Rather, the primary scope of Paul's apostolic ministry was to the Gentiles (Rom. 11:13), while Peter's apostleship was, first and foremost, targeted toward the Jews. remember the poor. Almost certainly, this is a reference to the poor among the church in Judea (Acts 11:29–30).

2:11–12 Antioch. This city was the largest of the Roman province of Syria. It became a center for missionary outreach to other Gentile cities in Asia Minor and Macedonia (Acts 13:1–3).

2:14 they were not straightforward about the truth. Peter's hypocritical example implied that Gentiles had to behave like Jews in order to receive God's grace. It had already been decided (vv. 1–5) that it was not proper to compel Gentiles to live as Jews, because salvation was through faith alone.

2:15–17 We who are Jews by nature. Paul is not denying that those who are Jews by birth are sinners, as are all Gentiles (Rom. 3:23). Rather he is implying that Jews enjoy spiritual privileges (Rom. 9:4–5) that should make them more knowledgeable about how to be justified before God (3:6; Gen. 15:6). The Jews should have been aware that no person can be declared righteous or justified by obedience to the law of Moses (3:10–21).

2:17–19 is Christ therefore a minister of sin. Paul strongly rejects the erroneous conclusion that being justified by faith in Christ actually made Jews sinners. Those who attempt to be justified through "the works of the law" are "cursed" (3:10). If anyone attempts to reassert the "works of the law" as having any part in the justification before God, the law itself convicts that person. The law itself is not sinful; its purpose is to convince individuals of their personal, spiritual deadness in sin outside of faith in Christ (Rom. 7:7–13).

3:1 O foolish Galatians. This phrase does not indicate lack of intelligence, but lack of wisdom. Paul wonders whether something like an evil spell had prevented the Galatians from recalling the gospel of the crucified Christ.

3:3 Having begun in the Spirit . . . made perfect by the flesh. The Galatians were mistakenly trying to achieve perfection through their own efforts, especially through circumcision.

hearing of faith?— 6just as Abraham [e]*"believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness." 7Therefore know that only [f]those who are of faith are sons of Abraham. 8And [g]the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel to Abraham beforehand, saying, [h]*"In you all the nations shall be blessed." 9So then those who are of faith are blessed with believing Abraham.

The Law Brings a Curse

10For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse; for it is written, [i]*"Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things which are written in the book of the law, to do them." 11But that no one is justified by the law in the sight of God is evident, for [j]"the just shall live by faith." 12Yet [k]the law is not of faith, but [l]"the man who does them shall live by them."

13[m]Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us (for it is written, [n]*"Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree"), 14[o]that the blessing of Abraham might come upon the [p]Gentiles in Christ Jesus, that we might receive [q]the promise of the Spirit through faith.

The Changeless Promise

15Brethren, I speak in the manner of men: [r]Though it is only a man's covenant, yet if it is confirmed, no one annuls or adds to it. 16Now to Abraham and his Seed were the promises made. He does not say, "And to seeds," as of many, but as of [s]one, [t]*"And to your Seed," who is [u]Christ. 17And this I say, that the law, [v]which was four hundred and thirty years later, cannot annul the covenant that was confirmed before by God in Christ,* [w]that it should make the promise of no effect. 18For if [x]the inheritance is of the law, [y]it is no longer of promise; but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

Purpose of the Law

19What purpose then does the law serve? [z]It was added because of transgressions, till the [a]Seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was [b]appointed through angels by the hand [c]of a mediator. 20Now a mediator does not mediate for one only, [d]but God is one.

21*Is* the law then against the promises of God? Certainly not! For if there had been a law given which could have given life, truly righteousness would have been by the law. 22But the Scripture has confined [e]all under sin, [f]that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. 23But before faith came, we were kept under guard by the law, kept for the faith which would afterward be revealed. 24Therefore [g]the law was our tutor to bring us to Christ, [h]that we might be justified by

3:6 believed God. There are several reasons for Paul's reference to Abraham's faith as an example: (1) Abraham was the father of the Jewish nation (Gen. 12:1–3); (2) Abraham is the clearest example of justification in the Old Testament; and (3) the Judaizers almost certainly were pointing back to Abraham, probably in connection with circumcision (2:3; 5:2–3). The example of Abraham's faith is also developed in Romans 4 and Hebrews 11.

3:7 who are of faith. These are the spiritual sons of Abraham, even if they are not Jews. They are part of God's people.

3:8–9 Scripture. Here, Scripture is personified as a preacher who foretells that Abraham and his example of faith (Gen. 15:6) would become a life-changing blessing to all nations (Gen. 12:3; Matt. 28:19) as the gospel spread. All who have faith, as Abraham did, join in his "blessed" status.

3:10 Cursed is everyone. The quotation from Deuteronomy 27:26 says that those who do not keep the whole law are cursed, proving that all are cursed who follow the law, because all fall short of the law's standards (Rom. 1:17; 3:10,18,23).

3:13 the curse of the law. Paul knew that many of his readers would perceive that they were actually under the curse of the law. For them, as for us, it is incredibly comforting to know that Christ became that curse for us on the cross (Deut. 21:23).

3:16 to Abraham and his Seed. Jesus Christ is the fulfillment of the covenant (v. 15) God made with Abraham. Although in one sense all Jews are the physical seed of Abraham, Christ is the final focus of God's promises, the ultimate Seed.

3:19–20 What purpose then does the law serve? The purpose of the law of Moses was not to justify man in God's eyes (2:16). Rather, the law was added after God's promise to Abraham to clarify the issue of sin until Christ, the Seed, came.

3:21–22 Is the law then against the promises of God? The relationship of the law and the promises is one of need and fulfillment. The law was not designed by God to give eternal life and righteousness. Rather, the law showed humanity's need for the promise of life through faith in Jesus Christ (v. 9; 2:16).

3:23–25 kept under guard . . . tutor. Paul gives two different illustrations concerning the function of the law until Christ came (4:4–5). The law acted as a jailor to hold humankind in custody until faith in Christ was revealed. But the law also served as a tutor. A tutor in ancient Greek culture would accompany the children faith. 25But after faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor.

Sons and Heirs

26For you [i]are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus. 27For [j]as many of you as were baptized into Christ [k]have put on Christ. 28[l]There is neither Jew nor Greek, [m]there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all [n]one in Christ Jesus. 29And [o]if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's [p]seed, and [q]heirs according to the promise.

4 Now I say that the heir, as long as he is a child, does not differ at all from a slave, though he is master of all, 2but is under guardians and stewards until the time appointed by the father. 3Even so we, when we were children, [a]were in bondage under the elements of the world. 4But [b]when the fullness of the time had come, God sent forth His Son, [c]born* [d]of a woman, [e]born under the law, 5[f]to redeem those who were under the law, [g]that we might receive the adoption as sons.

6And because you are sons, God has sent forth [h]the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying out, "Abba, Father!" 7Therefore you are no longer a slave but a son, [i]and if a son, then an heir of* God through Christ.

Fears for the Church

8But then, indeed, [j]when you did not know God, [k]you served those which by nature are not gods. 9But now [l]after you have known God, or rather are known by God, [m]how is it that you turn again to [n]the weak and beggarly elements, to which you desire again to be in bondage? 10[o]You observe days and months and seasons and years. 11I am afraid for you, [p]lest I have labored for you in vain.

12Brethren, I urge you to become like me, for I became like you. [q]You have not injured me at all. 13You know that [r]because of physical infirmity I preached the gospel to you at the first. 14And my trial which was in my flesh you did not despise or reject, but you received me [s]as an angel of God, [t]even as Christ Jesus. 15What* then was the blessing you enjoyed? For I bear you witness that, if possible, you would have plucked out your own eyes and given them to me. 16Have I therefore become your enemy because I tell you the truth?

17They [u]zealously court you, but for no good; yes, they want to exclude you, that you may be zealous for them. 18But it is good to be zealous in a good thing always, and not only when I am present with you. 19[v]My little children, for whom I labor in birth again until Christ is formed in you, 20I would like to be present with you now and to change my tone; for I have doubts about you.

in his care, instructing and disciplining them when necessary. The law was like a tutor because it both corrected and instructed the Israelites in God's ways until Christ was revealed and such a schoolmaster was no longer needed (4:1–2).

3:28 There is neither Jew nor Greek. The context of this verse is justification by faith in Christ Jesus. Racial, social, and gender distinctions that so easily divide in no way hinder a person from coming to Christ in order to receive His mercy. All people equally can become God's heirs and recipients of His eternal promises (4:5–7).

4:1–2 until the time appointed by the father. In ancient society a child had to wait until the proper time before he could inherit what was his. Paul uses this idea to explain why God delayed Jesus Christ's coming, leaving people with His law as a guide (3:23–25).

4:4–5 born under the law. This means Christ was subject to the Jewish law (Matt. 5:17–19), further establishing His identification with all people who are subject to the law. redeem. This verb was used in the context of buying from a slave market. It describes Christ's supreme and final payment for the sins of humanity. His death on the cross frees those who believe in Him from the curse of the law and slavery to sin. This decisive payment and resulting freedom clear the way for Christians to become God's sons.

4:6 God has sent forth the Spirit. Just as "God sent forth His Son" in "fullness of the time" in world history (v. 4), so God has also sent the Spirit at just the right time for every person who believes in Christ.

4:9 how is it that you turn again. The Galatians had come to know God through faith in Jesus Christ (John 17:2–3). He had adopted them as His own sons, but they were turning back to the law that had once enslaved them.

4:12 I urge you. To get beyond the present dilemma, Paul appeals to the Galatians to follow his example (1 Cor. 11:1). He had abandoned the ceremonial rules and regulations connected with Judaism so that he could freely preach the gospel of Christ to Jew and Gentile alike in the cities of Galatia. They too should not hinder the gospel of Christ with laws and regulations.

4:17–18 they want to exclude you. Paul was strongly implying that the false teachers in Galatia were making the same mistake he had made prior to his conversion. Their zeal for the law was blinding them to the freedom and truth to be found in Jesus Christ.

4:19 My little children. Paul calls the Galatians children because of their lack of spiritual growth and depth. The apostle also portrays himself as the Galatians' "spiritual mother." He was feeling the labor

Two Covenants

21 Tell me, you who desire to be under the law, do you not hear the law? 22 For it is written that Abraham had two sons:
w the one by a bondwoman, x the other by a freewoman. 23 But he who was of the bondwoman y was born according to the flesh, z and he of the freewoman through promise, 24 which things are symbolic. For these are the* two covenants: the one from Mount a Sinai which gives birth to bondage,
which is Hagar— 25 for this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and corresponds to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children— 26 but the b Jerusalem above is free, which is the mother of us all. 27 For it is written:

c "Rejoice, O barren,
You who do not bear!
Break forth and shout,
You who are not in labor!
For the desolate has many more children
*Than she who has a husband."

28 Now d we, brethren, as Isaac was, are e children of promise. 29 But, as f he who was born according to the flesh then persecuted
him who was born according to the Spirit, g even so it is now. 30 Nevertheless what does h the Scripture say? i "Cast out the bondwoman and her son, for i the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son *of the freewoman." 31 So then, brethren,
we are not children of the bondwoman but
of the free.

Christian Liberty

5 a Stand fast therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free,* and do not be entangled again with a b yoke of bondage. 2 Indeed I, Paul, say to you that c if you become circumcised, Christ will profit you nothing. 3 And I testify again to every man who becomes circumcised d that he is a debtor to keep the whole law. 4 e You have become estranged from Christ, you who attempt to be justified by law; f you have fallen from grace. 5 For we through the Spirit eagerly g wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. 6 For h in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision avails anything, but i faith working through love.

Love Fulfills the Law

7 You j ran well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? 8 This persuasion does not come from Him who calls you. 9 k A little leaven leavens the whole lump. 10 I have confidence in you, in the Lord, that you will have no other mind; but he who troubles
you shall bear his judgment, whoever he is.

pains of their birth all over again because they had fallen into serious error.

4:21–22 bondwoman . . . freewoman. To clinch his argument about the bondage of the law and freedom found in Christ, Paul uses as examples the two sons of Abraham, Ishmael and Isaac. Ishmael was born of a bondwoman, Hagar, and Isaac was born of Sarah, a freewoman (Gen. 16:15; 21:2). Paul counters the Jewish false teachers' zeal for the law with an argument based on the Law, the Pentateuch. He uses allegory to prove his point because it was a rhetorical technique the false teachers used. In other words, Paul was demonstrating that he could argue from the law just as well as they could, but to prove that the law of Moses pointed to the Messiah, Jesus Christ.

4:26 Jerusalem above. This phrase represents the Jewish hope of heaven finally coming to earth (Rev. 21–22). Paul was strongly implying that the question at hand was not allegiance to Jerusalem, but allegiance to which Jerusalem—the new or the old? Would the Galatians follow the shortsighted present Jerusalem and its legalism or the liberty of the heavenly Jerusalem?

4:28–30 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are children of promise. This portion of Paul's allegory is based on Genesis 21:9–10. Isaac was continually persecuted by his older half brother Ishmael. Eventually, Ishmael and his mother Hagar were expelled because Ishmael had no standing in God's eyes as an heir of Abraham. In creating a parallel between the story from Genesis and the Galatians' situation, Paul points out that (1) the persecution by the Jewish legalists of his day was not unexpected, and (2) it would not go on indefinitely because the legalists would soon be cast out.

4:31—5:1 So then. This phrase represents the conclusion of the previous section, while "therefore" signals that Paul is going to apply this spiritual truth to the lives of the Galatian believers.

5:2–3 if you become circumcised. The legalistic Jewish teachers in Galatia were urging believers to be circumcised (6:12–13). Paul points out that circumcision would change the entire orientation of salvation away from God's grace to one's own actions. One who is circumcised in an attempt to gain God's acceptance is obligated to keep the whole law, which history has abundantly demonstrated no one can do (Rom. 3:10–18).

5:5 hope of righteousness. We can be assured that we will be declared righteous before the Lord on that last day because we have a foretaste of that righteousness from the Spirit who lives within us (2 Cor. 5:5).

5:9–10 leaven. This symbolizes the intruders, with their false doctrine and its sinister influence. They were taking the gospel of free forgiveness away from the Galatians. The one who causes such harm will experience God's judgment (2 Cor. 5:10).

11 And I, brethren, if I still preach circumcision, [l]why do I still suffer persecution? Then [m]the offense of the cross has ceased. 12 [n]I could wish that those [o]who trouble you would even cut themselves off!

13 For you, brethren, have been called to liberty; only [p]do not use liberty as an [q]opportunity for the flesh, but [r]through love serve one another. 14 For [s]all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: [t]*"You shall love your neighbor as yourself." 15 But if you bite and devour one another, beware lest you be consumed by one another!

Walking in the Spirit

16 I say then: [u]Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh. 17 For [v]the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another, [w]so that you do not do the things that you wish. 18 But [x]if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

19 Now [y]the works of the flesh are evident, which are: adultery,* fornication, uncleanness, lewdness, 20 idolatry, sorcery, hatred, contentions, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, dissensions, heresies, 21 envy, murders,* drunkenness, revelries, and the like; of which I tell you beforehand, just as I also told you in time past, that [z]those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But [a]the fruit of the Spirit is [b]love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, [c]goodness, [d]faithfulness, 23 gentleness, self-control. [e]Against such there is no law. 24 And those who are Christ's [f]have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. 25 [g]If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. 26 [h]Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, envying one another.

Bear and Share Burdens

6 Brethren, if a man is overtaken in any trespass, you who are spiritual restore such a one in a spirit of [a]gentleness, considering yourself lest you also be tempted. 2 [b]Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill [c]the law of Christ. 3 For [d]if anyone thinks himself to be something, when [e]he

* 5:14 Leviticus 19:18 * 5:19 NU-Text omits adultery. * 5:21 NU-Text omits murders.

5:11 the offense of the cross. The cross is offensive to people because it proclaims God's unmerited grace and leaves no place for people's good works.

5:13 liberty. Christian liberty is the freedom to serve one another in love (vv. 5–6). As we grow in our knowledge of the Word of God, understand and apply its meaning, we should increasingly be involved in serving God and our fellow believers. The Spirit of God has given us spiritual gifts, but those gifts are worthless unless they are used in the service of God and His church. Paul often uses the figure of the human body to show the importance of each part serving the others (Rom. 12:4–5; 1 Cor. 12:12–31). While some parts of the body have more prominent places of service than others, all are equally important. To maintain strength, health, and vitality, every part of the body must function and serve all the other parts of the body. This is also true of the spiritual or new life. We will grow in the new life, become strong, and maintain good spiritual health as we use the talents and abilities that God has given us to meet the needs of the other parts of the body.

5:14 all the law. The Christian does not live under the law of Moses, but instead under "the law of Christ" (6:2). Living in Christ empowers us to love others, which is the fulfillment of the law (Matt. 22:36–40).

5:16 Walk in the Spirit. The only consistent way to overcome the sinful desires of our human nature (the flesh) is to live step-by-step in the power of the Holy Spirit as He works through our spirit.

5:17 the flesh lusts against the Spirit. The potential of the flesh energized by Satan in the life of the Christian should not be underestimated. Given free rein, the flesh will direct our choices, making us do what we know we should not do. This inner conflict between the flesh and the Spirit is very real. Although the precise meaning of "flesh" is unclear, Paul's intent is plain. The desires of our flesh are at odds with what the Holy Spirit desires for us: to be free from sin.

5:19–21 The Human Condition—The last part of Galatians 5 contrasts works of the flesh with fruit of the Spirit. The works of the flesh here are represented by those kinds of activities that are characteristic of our old natures. Without God, our lives are dominated by these more obvious sins and less obvious sinful attitudes. It is our sinful nature to be this way. Those who operate with these sins as a regular part of their lives, with no sense of guilt, demonstrate their need for salvation. It is the role of the Spirit to change these sinful behaviors. Paul points out that, if changes are not occurring, then there is a need for the Spirit that comes with the gift of salvation.

5:22–24 The New Nature—While the deeds of the flesh portray a disintegrating life, the fruit of the Spirit describes a life where things are working harmoniously. It points to qualities of personality and to behaviors that make us function as better people. It points to what God wants to see in us and should see in us as we mature in the faith.

5:22 fruit of the Spirit. This analogy is reminiscent of Jesus' teaching on the vine, branches, and fruitful harvest.

5:24 have crucified the flesh. Those who have mastered these sinful desires are those who have kept their focus on God (Jer. 9:23–24; Dan. 11:32; John 17:3; Heb. 12:1–3).

6:1 restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness. A believer devastated by sin needs to be approached gently by fellow believers.

6:2 the law of Christ. This phrase is probably referring to the summation of the law: "Love your neighbor" (5:14; Matt. 22:39; John 13:34–35). Bearing the is nothing, he deceives himself. 4But [f]let each one examine his own work, and then he will have rejoicing in himself alone, and [g]not in another. 5For [h]each one shall bear his own load.

Be Generous and Do Good

6[i]Let him who is taught the word share in all good things with him who teaches.

7Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for [j]whatever a man sows, that he will also reap. 8For he who sows to his flesh will of the flesh reap corruption, but he who sows to the Spirit will of the Spirit reap [k]everlasting life. 9And [l]let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap [m]if we do not lose heart. 10[n]Therefore, as we have opportunity, [o]let us do good to all, [p]especially to those who are of the household of faith.

Glory Only in the Cross

11See with what large letters I have written to you with my own hand! 12As many as desire to make a good showing in the flesh, these would compel you to be circumcised, [q]only that they may not suffer persecution for the cross of Christ. 13For not even those who are circumcised keep the law, but they desire to have you circumcised that they may boast in your flesh. 14But God forbid that I should boast except in the [r]cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom* the world has been crucified to me, and [s]I to the world. 15For [t]in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision avails anything, but a new creation.

Blessing and a Plea

16And as many as walk according to this rule, peace and mercy be upon them, and upon the Israel of God.

17From now on let no one trouble me, for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

* 6:14 Or by which (the cross)

burdens of one another is precisely what Christ expects of all believers. The Greek word for burdens refers to something beyond the normal capacity to carry, as opposed to a "load" (v. 5), which is what a person could be expected to carry.

6:7–8 he who sows to his flesh. The principle of sowing and reaping was known to everyone in a largely agricultural society. It would be foolish for Christians to think that they could escape the harvest of destruction and judgment if they persist in sin. corruption. This is a term used for a field in which the produce is too rotten to harvest (Heb. 6:8). he who sows to the Spirit will of the Spirit reap everlasting life. This does not mean that everlasting life is earned by works. Rather, Paul is saying that everlasting life is the glorious end of those who follow the guidance of the Spirit (Rom. 6:22). Jesus said that He came so that we might have life and have it more abundantly (John 10:10). In this life, through the indwelling of the Spirit, Christians are developing a capacity to experience Christ to the fullest in the life to come.

6:9 doing good. The apostle has argued at length that such works cannot justify (2:16) or sanctify (3:3) anyone. However, good works are, in fact, an important fruit of the life of faith (5:5) that God has planned for each believer (Eph. 2:8–10).

6:12 make a good showing. The Judaizers were trying to appear spiritual by becoming circumcised and demanding that others become circumcised (5:2–12). By teaching that all Christians should become circumcised, the Judaizers were trying to make Christianity into a sect of Judaism. This would have two advantages. First, they could counter the persecution that they suffered from the zealous Jews. Second, they could include themselves with an officially sanctioned religion of the Roman Empire, Judaism.

6:13 not even those . . . keep the law. The Judaizers knew that they were unable to keep the entire law even though they were required to do so. They still attempted to persuade the Galatians to be circumcised so that they could boast about having them as their followers.

6:16 the Israel of God. This probably refers to the remnant of believing Jews (Rom. 11:1–2,7). They are Abraham's spiritual descendants (3:6–9) because they believe in God and rely on His grace.

6:17 I bear in my body. Paul's scars branded him as a slave for Christ (Rom. 1:1). Such marks far outweighed the "mark" of circumcision so valued by the false teachers in Galatia (vv. 12–15).

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE
EPHESIANS

▶ AUTHOR: All internal and external evidence strongly supports the Pauline authorship of Ephesians. In recent years, however, critics have turned to internal grounds to challenge this unanimous ancient tradition. It has been argued that the vocabulary and style are different from other Pauline epistles, but this overlooks Paul's flexibility under different circumstances (as in Romans and 2 Corinthians). The theology of Ephesians in some ways reflects a later development, but this must be attributed to Paul's own growth and meditation on the church as the body of Christ. Ephesians was written during his first Roman imprisonment in A.D. 60–62, perhaps around the same time as Philippians, Colossians, and Philemon.

▶ TIME: c. A.D. 60–61 ▶ KEY VERSES: Eph. 4:1–3

▶ THEME: Ephesians is like a grand landscape whose subject is the whole world. Paul paints a richly textured picture of God's plan to bless the world through Christ. God is bringing light to darkness, healing to brokenness and reconciliation to the separated. Central to this teaching is the role of the church in the world and the gifts God has given it. God will bring about these things through the church. Once we understand and believe all that God has done and is doing, it is our responsibility to obey and live in light of His actions. Paul gives us much more than the theory in Ephesians. He makes critical connections between big-picture theology and the practical implications for living the day-to-day Christian life.

Greeting

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God,

To the saints who are in Ephesus, and faithful in Christ Jesus:

2Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Redemption in Christ

3[a]Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ, 4just as [b]He chose us in Him [c]before the foundation of the world, that we should [d]be holy and without blame before Him in love, 5[e]having predestined us to [f]adoption as sons by Jesus Christ to Himself, [g]according to the good pleasure of His will, 6to the praise of the glory of His grace, [h]by which He made us accepted in [i]the Beloved.

7[j]In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to [k]the riches of His grace 8which He made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence, 9[l]having made known to us the mystery of His will, according to His

1:1–2 saints. In the New Testament all believers are set apart by God in Christ. Grace to you and peace. The salutations in the New Testament epistles follow the form of the typical first-century letter. The writer is mentioned first and the recipient next, followed by a blessing or best wishes for good health. The difference here lies in the content of the blessing: pagan letters mentioned nonexistent gods and goddesses such as Diana or Apollo; the apostles call upon the one true God and His Son Jesus Christ to bless their readers.

1:3 every spiritual blessing. God does not guarantee health, wealth, and prosperity to the New Testament believer. The blessings of Christianity are largely spiritual.

1:4–5 love. In this instance the Greek agape is used. That love is a love that is by choice or one's will, not just a sentimental feeling. having predestined us. Predestination is not a cold-hearted determinism or set fate, but rather a loving choice on God's part.

1:6 the Beloved. This title is messianic, referring to God's Son, Jesus.

1:7 redemption. The word means "buy back" or "ransom." In ancient times, one could buy back a person who was sold into slavery. In the same way, Christ through His death bought us from our slavery to sin. His blood. The blood of Christ is the means by which our redemption comes. The Old Testament and the New both clearly teach that there is no forgiveness without the shedding of blood.

1:9 the mystery. This is not a puzzle to solve, or knowledge only for the few and the initiated, as in the mystery religions of Paul's day. In Paul's use, the good pleasure [m]which He purposed in Himself, [10]that in the dispensation of [n]the fullness of the times [o]He might gather together in one [p]all things in Christ, both* which are in heaven and which are on earth—in Him. [11q]In Him also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestined according to [r]the purpose of Him who works all things according to the counsel of His will, [12s]that we [t]who first trusted in Christ should be to the praise of His glory.

[13]In Him you also trusted, after you heard [u]the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation; in whom also, having believed, [v]you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, [14w]who* is the guarantee of our inheritance [x]until the redemption of [y]the purchased possession, [z]to the praise of His glory.

Prayer for Spiritual Wisdom

[15]Therefore I also, [a]after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints, [16b]do not cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers: [17]that [c]the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, [d]may give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him, [18e]the eyes of your understanding* being enlightened; that you may know what is [f]the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, [19]and what is the exceeding greatness of His power toward us who believe, [g]according to the working of His mighty power [20]which He worked in Christ when [h]He raised Him from the dead and [i]seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly places, [21j]far above all [k]principality and power and might and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age but also in that which is to come.

[22]And [l]He put all things under His feet, and gave Him [m]to be head over all things to the church, [23n]which is His body, [o]the fullness of Him [p]who fills all in all.

By Grace Through Faith

2 And [a]you He made alive, [b]who were dead in trespasses and sins, [2c]in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to [d]the prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in [e]the sons of disobedience, [3f]among whom also we all once conducted ourselves in [g]the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and [h]were by nature children of wrath, just as the others.

[4]But God, [i]who is rich in mercy, because of His [j]great love with which He loved us, [5k]even when we were dead in trespasses, [l]made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved), [6]and raised us up together, and made us sit together [m]in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, [7]that in the ages to come He might show the exceeding riches of His grace in [n]His kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. [8o]For by grace you have been saved [p]through faith, and that not of yourselves; [q]it is the gift of God, [9]not of [r]works, lest anyone should [s]boast.

word mystery refers to an aspect of God's will that was once hidden or obscure, but now was being revealed by God (Rom. 11:25).

1:14 the guarantee of our inheritance. The Greek word for guarantee can also be used to indicate an engagement ring. As Christ is the bridegroom and the church is the bride, so the Holy Spirit is the down payment, the earnest money in the long-awaited marriage of the two (Rev. 19:7). purchased possession. The Old Testament described the nation of Israel as God's special treasure, one He had purchased by His mighty acts of deliverance during the Exodus (Ex. 19:5). Here Paul describes Christians as a purchased possession, bought with the blood of Christ.

1:18–19 the eyes of your understanding. This phrase refers to spiritual understanding. To describe this, Paul uses words that picture eyes that have been brightened with divine illumination.

1:21 not only in this age but also in that which is to come. The Jews of Christ's time understood the end times to be divided into two time periods, the age in which they were living and the coming age. The Messiah, called "the Coming One," would rule in the age which is to come.

2:2 you once walked. Walking is a biblical expression that pictures a believer's steady normal progress with God (Ps. 1:1). Believers are saved so that they can have a lifestyle characterized by good works (v. 10).

prince of the power of the air. This is a reference to Satan.

2:4–7 we were dead in trespasses. Because of Adam's sin, the entire human race is spiritually dead. Only God can grant new life and save us from this predicament. Out of His mercy, God gave His Son for us while we were yet His enemies. He loved us long before we loved Him (1 John 4:9–10).

2:8–10 you have been saved through faith. The grace of God is the source of salvation; faith is the channel, not the cause. God alone saves. Salvation never originates in the efforts of people; it always arises out of the lovingkindness of God. the gift of God. We cannot do anything to earn our salvation.

10 For we are [t]His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk
in them.

Brought Near by His Blood

11 Therefore remember that you, once Gentiles in the flesh—who are called Uncircumcision by what is called [u]the Circumcision made in the flesh by hands—
12 that at that time you were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God
in the world. 13 But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

Christ Our Peace

14 For He Himself is our peace, who has made both one, and has broken down
the middle wall of separation, 15 having abolished in His flesh the enmity, that is, the law of commandments contained in ordinances, so as to create in Himself
one [v]new man from the two, thus making peace, 16 and that He might [w]reconcile them both to God in one body through the cross, thereby [x]putting to death the enmity. 17 And He came and preached peace to you who were afar off and to those who were near. 18 For [y]through Him
we both have access [z]by one Spirit to the Father.

Christ Our Cornerstone

19 Now, therefore, you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, 20 having been [a]built [b]on the foundation of the [c]apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being [d]the chief corner*stone,* 21 in whom the whole building, being fitted together, grows into [e]a holy temple in the Lord, 22 [f]in whom you also are being built together for a [g]dwelling place of God in the Spirit.

The Mystery Revealed

3 For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus for you Gentiles— 2 if indeed you have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God [a]which was given to me for you, 3 [b]how that by revelation [c]He made known to me the mystery (as I have briefly
written already, 4 by which, when you read,
you may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ), 5 which in other ages
was not made known to the sons of men,
as it has now been revealed by the Spirit to His holy apostles and prophets: 6 that the Gentiles [d]should be fellow heirs, of the same body, and partakers of His promise in Christ through the gospel, 7 [e]of which I became a minister [f]according to the gift of the grace of God given to me by [g]the effective working of His power.

Purpose of the Mystery

8 To me, [h]who am less than the least of all the saints, this grace was given, that I should preach among the Gentiles [i]the un-searchable riches of Christ, 9 and to make all
see what is the fellowship* of the mystery,
which from the beginning of the ages has been hidden in God who [j]created all things through Jesus Christ;* 10 [k]to the intent that now [l]the manifold wisdom of God might be made known by the church [m]to the principalities and powers in the heavenly places, 11 [n]according to the eternal purpose which He accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord, 12 in whom we have boldness and access [o]with confidence through faith in Him. 13 [p]Therefore I ask that you do not lose heart at my tribulations for you, [q]which is your glory.

Appreciation of the Mystery

14 For this reason I bow my knees to the [r]Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,* 15 from whom the whole family in heaven and

2:14 the middle wall of separation. This was vividly portrayed by an actual partition in the temple area, with a sign warning that any Gentile going beyond the Court of the Gentiles would receive swift and sudden death.
2:15 one new man. In the early days of Christianity, the church was largely made up of Jews. But, under the direction of God's Spirit, the believers witnessed to Gentiles (Acts 10), who then soon outnumbered the Jewish members. As the two groups learned to work together, they became something completely new.
2:20 the apostles and prophets. The early church was established on the teaching and preaching of the apostles. They were the foundation of the church.
2:21 fitted together. This idea pictures the process in Roman construction whereby laborers would turn huge rocks around until they fit each other perfectly.
3:5–6 the Gentiles should be fellow heirs. In Old Testament times people had only partial knowledge of God and His works. While Genesis pointed to the fact that God's grace would come to the Gentiles (Gen. 12:3), no one understood that they would also be fully equal with the Jews.
3:10 manifold wisdom. God's ways are not only "mysterious," but also varied. Angels are also learning about God's wisdom as they watch His grace working in us (1 Cor. 11:10).

earth is named, 16that He would grant you, [s]according to the riches of His glory, [t]to be strengthened with might through His Spirit in [u]the inner man, 17[v]that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; that you, [w]being rooted and grounded in love, 18[x]may be able to comprehend with all the saints [y]what is the width and length and depth and height— 19to know the love of Christ which passes knowledge; that you may be filled [z]with all the fullness of God.

20Now [a]to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly [b]above all that we ask or think, [c]according to the power that works in us, 21[d]to Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

Walk in Unity

4 I, therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you to [a]walk worthy of the calling with which you were called, 2with all lowliness and gentleness, with longsuffering, bearing with one another in love, 3endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit [b]in the bond of peace. 4[c]There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called in one hope of your calling; 5[d]one Lord, [e]one faith, [f]one baptism; 6[g]one God and Father of all, who is above all, and [h]through all, and in you* all.

Spiritual Gifts

7But [i]to each one of us grace was given according to the measure of Christ's gift. 8Therefore He says:

[j]"When He ascended on high,
He led captivity captive,
*And gave gifts to men."

* 4:6 NU-Text omits you; M-Text reads us.
* 4:8 Psalm 68:18

3:17 Christ may dwell in your hearts. Christ actually resides or makes His home in the believer's heart.

3:21 The Purpose of the Church—The ultimate purpose of the church is to bring honor and glory to Jesus Christ. It does this as it fulfills its three purposes related to God's plan for the world.

Worship—As the church worships, it continually declares to believers and the world God's view of reality. God is the world's Creator and Sustainer. Through Jesus Christ, God has redeemed the world and provided a way of salvation for people who rebel against Him.

Evangelism—The Great Commission in Matthew 28 clearly points to evangelism as a primary purpose for the church. "Teaching" implies that there is more to evangelism than simply declaring the good news. Evangelism should lead to discipleship, which involves the work of helping the new believer reach full maturity in Christ. This happens much as a parent raises children, nurturing them in every way possible so that they can grow. Christ makes baptism an important element in this process. In baptism, one indicates that he has been identified with Christ in His death, burial, and resurrection and that he wishes to be identified with the church.

Edification—Ephesians 4:12 points to the fact that the saints need to be built up (that is equipped) to fully do the work of the church, namely the ministry of Christ to the world. This involves making believers aware of everything they have in Christ and how the Spirit's gifts enable them to serve the body of Christ effectively.

4:1 therefore . . . walk worthy of the calling with which you were called. The second half of Ephesians, like that of a number of Paul's epistles, emphasizes the behavior that should result from the doctrines or beliefs taught in the first half.

4:2 lowliness and gentleness, with longsuffering. These are the attitudes that Jesus demonstrated when He was on earth (Phil. 2:5–8). These attitudes do not come naturally, but must be cultivated by the determination to place others above ourselves. Only the Spirit can empower us to treat people this way consistently.

4:3 The Person of the Holy Spirit—Many people make the serious error of thinking of the Holy Spirit as only some kind of vague principle or influence. On the contrary, the Holy Spirit is as much a person (individual existence of a conscious being) as the Father and the Son.

1. The personality of the Holy Spirit. The Bible speaks of the mind (Rom. 8:27) and will (1 Cor. 2:11) of the Spirit. He is often described as speaking directly to men in the Book of Acts. During Paul's second missionary journey, the apostle was forbidden by the Spirit to visit a certain mission field (Acts 16:6–7) and then was instructed to proceed toward another field of service (Acts 16:10). It was God's Spirit who spoke directly to Christian leaders in the Antioch church, commanding them to send Paul and Barnabas on their first missionary journey (Acts 13:2).
2. The deity of the Holy Spirit. He is not only a distinct being, but He is also God. As is God the Father, He too is everywhere at once (Ps. 139:7). As the Son is eternal, the Holy Spirit has also existed forever (Heb. 9:14). He is often referred to as God in the Bible (Acts 5:3–4). Finally, the Holy Spirit is equal with the Father and Son. This is seen during the baptism of Christ (Matt. 3:16–17) and is mentioned by Jesus Himself just prior to His ascension from the Mount of Olives (Matt. 28:19–20).

4:7 grace was given according to the measure of Christ's gift. Like Peter (1 Pet. 4:10), Paul taught that all Christians have a spiritual gift or gifts. The gifts are given sovereignly by the ascended Christ in order to build up the church (1 Cor. 12:11). Thus the body of Christ is to function like a machine in which every part is essential for getting a job done. But, unlike a machine, the body of Christ should maintain itself and build every one of its members up so that they can do good works (1 Cor. 12:7).

4:8 When He ascended on high. Paul quotes Psalm 68:18 to picture the ascended Messiah triumphant over Satan and his hosts, distributing spiritual gifts to His people.

3:16 [s] [Phil. 4:19] [t] Col. 1:11 [u] Rom. 7:22 3:17 [v] John 14:23 [w] Col. 1:23 3:18 [x] Eph. 1:18 [y] Rom. 8:39 3:19 [z] Eph. 1:23 3:20 [a] Rom. 16:25 [b] 1 Cor. 2:9 [c] Col. 1:29 3:21 [d] Rom. 11:36 4:1 [a] 1 Thess. 2:12 4:3 [b] Col. 3:14 4:4 [c] Rom. 12:5 4:5 [d] 1 Cor. 1:13 [e] Jude 3 [f] [Heb. 6:6] 4:6 [g] Mal. 2:10 [h] Rom. 11:36 4:7 [i] [1 Cor. 12:7, 11] 4:8 [j] Ps. 68:18; Mark 16:19; Acts 1:9; [1 Cor. 12:4–11]

9 [k](Now this, "He ascended"—what does it mean but that He also first* descended into the lower parts of the earth? 10He who descended is also the One [l]who ascended far above all the heavens, [m]that He might fill all things.)

11And He Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers, 12for
the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, [n]for the edifying of [o]the body of Christ, 13till we all come to the unity of the faith [p]and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to [q]a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ; 14that
we should no longer be [r]children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men,
in the cunning craftiness of [s]deceitful plot-ting, 15but, speaking the truth in love, may grow up in all things into Him who is the [t]head—Christ— 16[u]from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, according to the effective working by which every part does its share, causes growth of the body for the edifying of itself in love.

The New Man

17This I say, therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you should [v]no longer walk as the rest of* the Gentiles walk, in the futility of their mind, 18having their understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the [w]blindness of their heart; 19[x]who, being past feeling, [y]have given themselves over to lewdness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20But you have not so learned Christ, 21if indeed you have heard Him and have been taught by Him, as the truth is in Jesus:
22that you [z]put off, concerning your former conduct, the old man which grows corrupt according to the deceitful lusts, 23and [a]be renewed in the spirit of your mind, 24and
that you [b]put on the new man which was created according to God, in true righteousness and holiness.

Do Not Grieve the Spirit

25Therefore, putting away lying, [c]"Let each one of you speak truth with his neighbor," for [d]we are members of one another. 26[e]"Be angry, and do not sin":
do not let the sun go down on your wrath, 27[f]nor give place to the devil. 28Let him who stole steal no longer, but rather [g]let him labor, working with his hands what is good, that he may have something [h]to give him who has need. 29[i]Let no corrupt word proceed out of your mouth, but [j]what is good for necessary edification, [k]that it may impart grace to the hearers. 30And [l]do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. 31[m]Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, clamor, and [n]evil speaking be put away from you, [o]with all malice. 32And
[p]be kind to one another, tenderhearted, [q]forgiving one another, even as God in Christ forgave you.

Walk in Love

5 Therefore[a] be imitators of God as dear
[b]children. 2And [c]walk in love, [d]as Christ
also has loved us and given Himself for us,
an offering and a sacrifice to God [e]for a sweet-smelling aroma.

3But fornication and all [f]uncleanness
or [g]covetousness, let it not even be named among you, as is fitting for saints; 4[h]neither

* 4:9 NU-Text omits first. * 4:17 NU-Text omits the rest of. * 4:25 Zechariah 8:16 * 4:26 Psalm 4:4

4:11 apostles . . . prophets . . . evangelists . . . pastors and teachers. Apostles, meaning "envoys" or "ambassadors," in its strict sense refers to those who saw Christ in resurrected form and were specially chosen by Christ to tell others about Him from their eyewitness accounts. Prophets delivered direct revelations from God. They foretold God's actions in the future and they proclaimed what God had already said in the Scriptures. Evangelists play a major role in bringing people into the body of Christ. Pastors function as shepherds. They feed, nurture, care for, and protect the members of the body. The Greek ties in teacher with pastor.

4:12–13 equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ. Three stages of growth are presented here. Leaders are responsible to equip. The well-equipped saints do the work of the ministry, and the result is that the body is built up. The final goal is maturity, truth, and love.

4:16 every joint . . . every part. There are no insignificant parts in the body (1 Cor. 12:14–27). Anything that builds up believers and the church can be said to be edifying.

4:22–24 you put off . . . the old man. Paul compares the Christian life to stripping off the dirty clothes of a sinful past and putting on the snowy white robes of Christ's righteousness.

4:30 the Holy Spirit of God. We should never push away, ignore, or reject the Holy Spirit. If we would remember that the One who lives in us is God's own Spirit, we would be much more selective about what we think, read, watch, say, and do.

5:1 imitators of God. Believers are to follow the example of God's actions. He loved us when we were still His enemies.

filthiness, nor [i]foolish talking, nor coarse jesting, [j]which are not fitting, but rather [k]giving of thanks. 5For this you know,* that no fornicator, unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, has any [l]inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. 6Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. 7Therefore do not be [m]partakers with them.

Walk in Light

8For you were once darkness, but now you are [n]light in the Lord. Walk as children of light 9(for [o]the fruit of the Spirit* is in all goodness, righteousness, and truth), 10[p]finding out what is acceptable to the Lord. 11And have [q]no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather expose them. 12[r]For it is shameful even to speak of those things which are done by them in secret. 13But [s]all things that are exposed are made manifest by the light, for whatever makes manifest is light. 14Therefore He says:

[t]"Awake, you who sleep,
Arise from the dead,
And Christ will give you light."

Walk in Wisdom

15[u]See then that you walk circumspectly, not as fools but as wise, 16[v]redeeming the time, [w]because the days are evil.

17[x]Therefore do not be unwise, but [y]understand [z]what the will of the Lord is. 18And [a]do not be drunk with wine, in which is dissipation; but be filled with the Spirit, 19speaking to one another [b]in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making [c]melody in your heart to the Lord, 20[d]giving thanks always for all things to God the Father [e]in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, 21[f]submitting to one another in the fear of God.*

Marriage—Christ and the Church

22Wives, [g]submit to your own husbands, as to the Lord. 23For [h]the husband is head of the wife, as also [i]Christ is head of the church; and He is the Savior of the body. 24Therefore, just as the church is subject to Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands [j]in everything.

25[k]Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ also loved the church and [l]gave

* 5:5 NU-Text reads For know this. * 5:9 NU-Text reads light. * 5:21 NU-Text reads Christ.

5:12 in secret. This verse effectively bans Christians from indulging in the modern preoccupation with examining the lurid details of evils such as the occult and other perverted practices.

5:16 redeeming the time. This means taking advantage of opportunities for service. Paul exhorts us to use as much time as is possible for advancing Christ's purposes in this world.

5:18 drunk with wine. Just as a person who is drunk is under the control of alcohol, so a Spirit-filled believer is controlled by the Spirit. filled. Filling is a step beyond the sealing of the Holy Spirit (1:13). Sealing is an action God took at the point of our new birth. The tense of the Greek word translated filled indicates that filling is a moment-by-moment repeatable action. To be filled with the Spirit is to be controlled by the Spirit and is therefore crucial to successfully living the Christian life. The imperative says that the believer is to be filled with the presence of the Spirit so that he comes to know God in all His fullness, living in relationship with Him. Out of this relationship, the believer is able to manifest Christlike character. The certainty of being filled with the Spirit may be confirmed by the believer's faith and life. The believer must, of course, believe God's Word that meeting the conditions will result in the filling. The Spirit-filled person will exhibit the Christlike character described in Galatians 5:22–23 as the fruit of the Spirit. Included in that list are all the vibrant, attractive qualities desired by all Christians. Any Christian may be transformed by the filling of the Spirit and possess these qualities.

5:19 singing and making melody. Most believe that these words refer to three larger categories: (1) the 150 psalms in the Psalter, (2) hymns or compositions addressed directly to God, and (3) spiritual songs, hymns about the Christian experience.

5:21–22 submitting. Verse 21 completes the thought of the previous verses (vv. 18–20), which address how being filled with the Spirit manifests itself in the believer's life. It also introduces the next section (5:22—6:4), about how members of a Christian family should relate to each other. The Greek word for submit does not refer to being under the absolute control of another but to voluntarily placing oneself under the authority of another.

5:22–24 Wives, submit. Just as Christ is not inferior to the Father, but is the second Person in the Trinity, so wives are equal to their own husbands. Yet, in a marriage relationship, a husband and wife have different roles. A wife's voluntary submission arises out of her own submission to Christ.

5:25 Husbands, love. Paul does not emphasize the husband's authority; instead, he calls on husbands to love self-sacrificially. Husbands are to emulate Christ's love, the kind of love that is willing to lay down one's life for another. Christ also loved the church. The relationship between Christ and the church was initiated by Christ, who loved the church and gave Himself for it. The details of that relationship are described with seven images:

1. The Shepherd and the sheep emphasizes both the warm leadership and protection of Christ and the helplessness and dependency of believers (John 10:1–18).
2. The vine and the branches points out the necessity for Christians to depend on Christ's sustaining strength for growth (John 15:1–8).

Himself for her, 26that He might sanctify and cleanse her [m]with the washing of water [n]by the word, 27[o]that He might present her to Himself a glorious church, [p]not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing, but that she should be holy and without blemish. 28So husbands ought to love their own wives as their own bodies; he who loves his wife loves himself. 29For no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as the Lord does the church. 30For [q]we are members of His body,* of His flesh and of His bones. 31[r]"For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the [s]two shall become one flesh." 32This is a great mystery, but I speak concerning Christ and the church. 33Nevertheless [t]let each one of you in particular so love his own wife as himself, and let the wife see that she [u]respects her husband.

Children and Parents

6 Children, [a]obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. 2[b]"Honor your father and mother," which is the first commandment with promise: 3*"that it may be well with you and you may live long on the earth."

4And [c]you, fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but [d]bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord.

Bondservants and Masters

5[e]Bondservants, be obedient to those who are your masters according to the flesh, [f]with fear and trembling, [g]in sincerity of heart, as to Christ; 6[h]not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers, but as bondservants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, 7with goodwill doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men, 8[i]knowing that whatever good anyone does, he will receive the same from the Lord, whether he is a slave or free.

9And you, masters, do the same things to them, giving up threatening, knowing that your own [j]Master also* is in heaven, and [k]there is no partiality with Him.

* 5:30 NU-Text omits the rest of this verse.
* 5:31 Genesis 2:24 * 6:3 Deuteronomy 5:16
* 6:9 NU-Text reads He who is both their Master and yours.

3. Christ as high priest and the church as a kingdom of priests stress the joyful worship, fellowship, and service which the church can render to God through Christ (Heb. 5:1–10; 7:1; 8:6; 1 Pet. 2:5–9).
4. The cornerstone and building stones (Matt. 21:42) accents the foundational value of Christ to everything the church is and does, as well as Christ's value to the unity of believers. Love is to be the mortar which solidly holds the living stones together (1 Cor. 3:9; 13:1–13; Eph. 2:19–22; 1 Pet. 2:5).
5. The head and many-membered body, the church is a vibrant organism, not merely an organization; it draws its vitality and direction from Christ, the Head, and each believer has a unique and necessary place in its growth (1 Cor. 12:12–13,27; Eph. 4:4).
6. The last Adam and new creation presents Christ as the initiator of a new creation of believers as Adam was of the old creation (1 Cor. 15:22,45; 2 Cor. 5:17).
7. The bridegroom and bride beautifully emphasizes the intimate fellowship and co-ownership existing between Christ and the church (Eph. 5:25–33; Rev. 19:7–8; 21:9).

5:31 the two shall become one flesh. Paul quotes Genesis 2:24, which teaches that the special union between husband and wife supersedes the original family ties.

5:32 This is a great mystery. A sacred secret revealed is that Christian marriage parallels the union that exists spiritually between Christ and His bride, the church.

6:1–4 Children, obey . . . fathers, do not provoke. This paragraph has the beautiful balance we expect to find in God's Word: children are to obey their parents, and parents are to treat their children in such a way that the children will want to obey.

6:4 Parenting—The father is the parent responsible for setting the pattern for the child's obedience in the family. The father's responsibility is set forth in two ways: First, what the father is not to do—"do not provoke your children to wrath." He is not to overdiscipline them or rule the household in such a way that the child can only react in a rage. Second, what the father is to do—"but bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord." "Bring them up" involves three ideas:

a. It is a continuous job. As long as the child is a dependent, the father is to be responsible for providing for the child so that he becomes what God wants him to be.
b. It is a loving job. To "bring up" means literally to nourish tenderly; children should be objects of tender, loving care.
c. It is a job that involves nurture and admonition. The child needs to be nurtured physically and spiritually. He also needs corrective discipline that will be effective in bringing about obedience to the Word of God (Prov. 13:24; 19:18; 29:15–17).

6:5 Bondservants, be obedient. Bondservants made up a large percentage of the population of the Roman Empire. These people were considered mere property and could be abused and even killed by their masters with no resulting investigation by the state. In the church, wealthy slave owners and their slaves broke bread together at the Lord's Table as equals.

6:6 not with eyeservice. Servants and employees should serve faithfully even when no one is looking. After all, God sees all that we do.

The Whole Armor of God

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. 11 [l]Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.
12 For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against [m]principalities, against powers, against [n]the rulers of the darkness
of this age,* against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places. 13 [o]Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand [p]in the evil day,
and having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, [q]having girded your waist with truth, [r]having put on the breast-plate of righteousness, 15 [s]and having shod
your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace; 16 above all, taking [t]the shield of faith with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked
one. 17 And [u]take the helmet of salvation,
and [v]the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God; 18 [w]praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, [x]being watchful to this end with all perseverance and [y]supplication for all the saints— 19 and for me, that [z]utterance may be given to me, that I may open my mouth boldly to make known the mystery of the gospel, 20 for which [a]I am an ambassador in chains; that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

A Gracious Greeting

21 But that you also may know my affairs and how I am doing, [b]Tychicus, a beloved brother and [c]faithful minister in the Lord, will make all things known to you;
22 [d]whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, that you may know our affairs,
and that he may [e]comfort your hearts.

23 Peace to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 24 Grace be with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

* 6:12 NU-Text reads rulers of this darkness.

6:11 the whole armor of God. This equipment is the believer's protection against evil and the devil. Paul presented the extended metaphor of the battle dress roughly according to the order in which the various pieces were put on.

6:12 For we do not wrestle. The real battle is not with human cultists, false religionists, atheists, agnostics, and pseudo-Christians, but with the demonic beings working through them.

6:14 truth. This is a reference to integrity, a life of practical truthfulness and honesty. breastplate. In Roman times this went completely around the body and was made of hard leather or metal. righteousness. This is not the righteousness of Christ, which all believers possess, but the practical, righteous character and deeds of the believer.

6:15 the preparation of the gospel of peace. This may mean either that the gospel is the firm foundation on which Christians are to stand or that the Christian soldier should be ready to go out to defend and spread the gospel.

6:16 shield of faith. The Christian's shield offers protection against all forms of evil. Flaming arrows could not penetrate the fireproof shield of the ancient Roman soldier, nor can the assaults of Satan penetrate to the believer who places his or her faith in God.

6:17 the sword of the Spirit. This is the only offensive weapon in the believer's armor. This weapon is not necessarily the Bible as a whole, but the specific word that needs to be spoken in a specific situation.

6:21–24 that you also may know my affairs. The last verses of Ephesians reveal Paul's appreciation of the ministry of others, especially the ministry of Tychicus (Col. 4:7). The fact that this letter does not conclude with personal greetings, as Paul's other letters do, may indicate that this was a circular letter, one intended for a number of churches around Ephesus.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS

▶ AUTHOR: The external and internal evidence for the Pauline authorship of Philippians is very strong, and there is scarcely any doubt that anyone but Paul wrote it. Paul's "Macedonian call" in Troas during his second missionary journey led to his ministry in Philippi with the conversion of Lydia and others. Internal evidence suggests that the epistle was written from Rome (1:3; 4:22), although some commentators argue for Caesarea or Ephesus. It seems that during the writing of this letter Paul's life was at stake, and he was evidently awaiting the verdict of the imperial court (2:20–26).

▶ TIME: c. A.D. 62 ▶ KEY VERSES: Phil. 4:4–7

▶ THEME: Even though Paul probably wrote this letter while imprisoned in Rome, the letter is often called the Epistle of Joy. It gives us valuable insight into key areas of the Christian life by helping understand how we should identify with Christ in a variety of circumstances. We gain some insight into what Christian relationships should look like and what the content of our prayers for each other should be. Philippians also provides great insight in setting spiritual direction and determining practical priorities. Christians desiring to mature in the Lord will return to study it often.

Greeting

1 Paul and Timothy, bondservants of Jesus Christ,

To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are in Philippi, with the bishops* and [a]deacons:

2Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thankfulness and Prayer

3[b]I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, 4always in [c]every prayer of mine making request for you all with joy, 5[d]for your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now, 6being confident of this very thing, that He who has begun [e]a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ; 7just as it is right for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart, inasmuch as both in my chains and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel, you all are partakers with me of grace. 8For God is my witness, how greatly I long for you all with the affection of Jesus Christ.

* 1:1 Literally overseers

1:1–11 To all the saints. This term means "holy ones" (those who are separated to God) and refers to all the believers in Philippi. bishops. This refers to those who watch over the spiritual welfare of the local church. deacons. This is a reference to those who serve the congregation in special service capacities. They were charged with handling the physical and material concerns of the church (Acts 6:1–7). In the first few verses, Paul reveals his great love for the Philippians. He thinks of them often (vv. 3–6), he is concerned about them (vv. 7–8), and he regularly prays for them (vv. 9–11).

1:3 I thank. The tense of the Greek verb indicates that Paul was continually thankful to God for the Philippian Christians. upon every remembrance of you. Every time God brought them to his mind, Paul gave thanks.

1:4 joy. This is the first of five uses of the Greek word for joy in the letter (v. 25; 2:2,29; 4:1). Paul also uses the Greek word for rejoice eight times in this letter (v. 18; 2:17–18,28; 3:1; 4:4).

1:5 fellowship. This term is a commercial term for a joint-partnership in a business venture in which all parties actively participate to ensure the success of the business. In the Christian community, the word expresses intimacy with Christ (1 Cor. 1:9).

1:6 until. This word can also be translated "as far as." It expresses progress toward a goal and indicates that a time is coming when God will completely finish His work among the Philippian Christians.

1:7 right. This word conveys a sense of moral uprightness and is often translated throughout the New Testament as "righteous." In this context, the word indicates that Paul's thoughts regarding the Philippians were in perfect accord with God's will. confirmation. Used only here and in Hebrews 6:16 in the New Testament, this word is a legal and commercial term meaning "a validating guarantee."

1:8 the affection of Jesus Christ. The word translated "affection" literally means the internal organs, regarded by the first century reader as the center of 9And this I pray, that your love may abound still more and more in knowledge and all discernment, 10that you may approve the things that are excellent, that you may be sincere and without offense

till the day of Christ, 11being filled with the fruits of righteousness [f]which are by Jesus Christ, [g]to the glory and praise of God.

Christ Is Preached

12But I want you to know, brethren, that the things which happened to me have actually turned out for the furtherance of the gospel, 13so that it has become evident [h]to the whole palace guard, and to all the rest,
that my chains are in Christ; 14and most of the brethren in the Lord, having become confident by my chains, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15Some indeed preach Christ even from envy and strife, and some also from goodwill: 16The former* preach Christ from selfish ambition, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my chains; 17but
the latter out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the gospel.
18What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is preached; and in this I rejoice, yes, and will rejoice.

To Live Is Christ

19For I know that [i]this will turn out for my deliverance through your prayer and
the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, 20according to my earnest expectation and hope that in nothing I shall be ashamed,
but [j]with all boldness, as always, so now
also Christ will be magnified in my body,
whether by life [k]or by death. 21For to me,
to live is Christ, and to die is gain. 22But if I live on in the flesh, this will mean fruit
from my labor; yet what I shall choose I cannot tell. 23For* I am hard-pressed between the two, having a [l]desire to depart
and be with Christ, which is [m]far better.
24Nevertheless to remain in the flesh is more needful for you. 25And being confident of this, I know that I shall remain and continue with you all for your progress and joy of faith, 26that [n]your rejoicing for me
may be more abundant in Jesus Christ by my coming to you again.

Striving and Suffering for Christ

27Only [o]let your conduct be worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of your

the deepest feelings. Whereas the heart is the seat of reflection, Paul now speaks of his deep feelings for the believers. His feelings for the Philippians were like those of Jesus Christ, who loved them and died for them.

1:9 love. The kind of love that Paul sought for the believers is the highest form of Christian love, based on a lasting, unconditional commitment, not on an unstable emotion. knowledge. The first of two terms on which a directed love is built, knowledge suggests an intimate understanding based on a relationship with a person. Here the focus of this knowledge is God. discernment. Found only here in the New Testament, the Greek word means moral or ethical understanding based on both the intellect and the senses.

1:10 that you may approve. This verb is used in ancient literature for the testing of gold to determine its purity and for trying oxen to assess their usefulness for the task at hand.

1:12 furtherance. This phrase could suggest a pioneer beating or cutting a path through a densely forested area. Paul's imprisonment was a strategic advance in the kingdom of God because it was clearing the way for the gospel to penetrate the ranks of the Roman military.

1:13 palace guard. This is a reference to the praetorian guard, a force consisting of several thousand highly trained, elite soldiers of the Roman Empire who were headquartered at Rome. For the one to two years that Paul had been under house arrest in Rome, different soldiers had taken turns guarding him. Although Paul could not go to the world to preach, in this way God brought the world to Paul. In an ironic twist, they were the captives and Paul was free to preach.

1:18 in pretense or in truth. Whether the preaching was done for false motives or pure, whether for appearance's sake or for the sake of what was right, Paul was pleased that the gospel was being spread.

1:19 deliverance. In the New Testament this word is used for physical healing, rescue from danger or death, justification, sanctification, and glorification.

1:20 be magnified. Paul was committed to ensuring that Christ would be made even more conspicuous in his own life than ever. He was not relying on himself to magnify Christ but looked to the Holy Spirit (v. 19) to magnify Christ in him (John 16:14).

1:21 Christ . . . gain. Paul would experience gain in his own death because he would be with Christ (v. 23). In fact, Paul may have been expressing his confidence that his imprisonment had furthered the gospel; God would also use his death to further His kingdom.

1:22 what I shall choose I cannot tell. Paul was in a dilemma because he clearly saw the advantages of both life and death, for the Christian life meant an opportunity to minister to people like the Philippians (v. 24), while death meant being with Christ his Savior.

1:25 your progress. Paul was not satisfied that the Philippian Christians should simply be saved, but that they should advance to maturity in Christ.

1:27 let your conduct. The word used could refer to discharging the obligations of a citizen. Because Philippi held the privileged status of a Roman colony, its citizens understood the responsibilities associated with citizenship. Paul here commanded them to shift their perspective from the earthly realm to the heavenly one. They should live in this world as citizens of another world, the heavenly kingdom. Their conduct should reveal their heavenly citizenship.

Unity Through Humility

2 Therefore if there is any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any [a]affection and mercy, 2[b]fulfill my joy [c]by being like-minded, having the same love, being of [d]one accord, of one mind. 3[e]Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but [f]in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself. 4[g]Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of [h]others.

The Humbled and Exalted Christ

5[i]Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus, 6who, [j]being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, 7[k]but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form [l]of a bondservant, and [m]coming in the likeness of men. 8And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and [n]became [o]obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross. 9[p]Therefore God also [q]has highly exalted Him and [r]given Him the name which is above every name, 10[s]that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth, 11and [t]that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Light Bearers

12Therefore, my beloved, [u]as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, [v]work out your own salvation with [w]fear and trembling; 13for [x]it is God who works in you both to will and to do [y]for His good pleasure.

14Do all things [z]without complaining

* 1:28 NU-Text reads of your salvation.

1:28 terrified. This word is a strong term that is used for the terror of a panicked horse. The Philippians are not to be terror-stricken in the face of their enemies.
1:29 to suffer for His sake. Suffering matures us as Christians in the present (James 1:2–4) and enables us to be glorified with Christ in the future (Rom. 8:17).
2:1 if . . . if . . . if. The conditional clauses in this verse indicate certainties, not "maybes." Each if here expresses the idea of "since," and each following clause may be considered to be true.
2:2 being like-minded. In this verse the apostle sets forth a fourfold appeal that expresses one major idea—namely, the unity of the church. Paul is strongly emphasizing the unity that should exist between believers and how they must single-mindedly strive together to advance the gospel of Jesus Christ.
2:3 esteem others better than himself. This verb indicates a thorough analysis of the facts in order to reach a correct conclusion about the matter. In other words, each Philippian Christian was to properly assess himself or herself. Such an assessment would lead to valuing others.
2:5 Let this mind. All godly action begins with the renewing of the mind. Right thinking produces right actions. Our actions are the fruit of our deepest thoughts. in you. Thinking and being like Christ are requirements not only for an individual but also for the corporate body of believers. Together, we need to think and act like one being, like the Person of Jesus Christ.
2:6 did not consider it robbery. Because Christ was God, He did not look on sharing God's nature as "robbery," as though He did not already possess it, or as "a thing to be retained," as though He might lose it.
2:7 made Himself of no reputation. Christ did this by taking on the form of a servant. In doing this, He did not empty Himself of any part of His essence as God. Instead, He gave up His privileges as God and took upon Himself existence as a man. While remaining completely God, He became completely human. form. Jesus added to His divine essence (v. 6) a servant's essence, that is, the essential characteristics of a human being seeking to fulfill the will of another. Paul does not say that Christ exchanged the form of God for the form of a servant, involving a loss of deity or the attributes of deity. Rather, in the incarnation, Christ continued in the very nature of God but added to Himself the nature of a servant.
2:8 He humbled Himself. Jesus willingly took the role of a servant; no one forced Him to do it. obedient. Although He never sinned and did not deserve to die, He chose to die so that the sins of the world could be charged to His account. Subsequently, He could credit His righteousness to the account of all who believe in Him (2 Cor. 5:21; Gal. 1:4). even the death of the cross. Paul describes the depths of Christ's humiliation by reminding his readers that Christ died by the cruelest form of capital punishment, crucifixion. The Jews viewed death on a cross as a curse from God (Deut. 21:23; Gal. 3:13).
2:11 confess. The term Paul uses is a strong, intensive verb, which means "agree with" or "say the same thing." Essentially Paul is saying that everyone will unanimously affirm what God the Father has already stated (Is. 45:23): that Jesus Christ is Lord.
2:12 work out. The Greek term speaks of the present deliverance of the Philippians. The word translated work out is used by a first century author to speak of digging silver out of silver mines. Thus, salvation and [a]disputing, 15that you may become blameless and harmless, children of God without fault in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you shine as [b]lights in the world, 16holding fast the word of life, so that [c]I may rejoice in the day of Christ that [d]I have not run in vain or labored in [e]vain.

17Yes, and if [f]I am being poured out as a drink offering on the sacrifice [g]and service of your faith, [h]I am glad and rejoice with you all. 18For the same reason you also be glad and rejoice with me.

Timothy Commended

19But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send [i]Timothy to you shortly, that I also may be encouraged when I know your state. 20For I have no one [j]like-minded, who will sincerely care for your state. 21For all seek their own, not the things which are of Christ Jesus. 22But you know his proven character, [k]that as a son with his father he served with me in the gospel. 23Therefore I hope to send him at once, as soon as I see how it goes with me. 24But I trust in the Lord that I myself shall also come shortly.

Epaphroditus Praised

25Yet I considered it necessary to send to you [l]Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker, and [m]fellow soldier, [n]but your messenger and [o]the one who ministered to my need; 26[p]since he was longing for you all, and was distressed because you had heard that he was sick. 27For indeed he was sick almost unto death; but God had mercy on him, and not only on him but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow. 28Therefore I sent him the more eagerly, that when you see him again you may rejoice, and I may be less sorrowful. 29Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness, and hold such men in esteem; 30because for the work of Christ he came close to death, not regarding his life, [q]to supply what was lacking in your service toward me.

All for Christ

3 Finally, my brethren, [a]rejoice in the Lord. For me to write the same things to you is not tedious, but for you it is safe.

2[b]Beware of dogs, beware of [c]evil workers, [d]beware of the mutilation! 3For we are [e]the circumcision, [f]who worship God in the Spirit,* rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh, 4though [g]I also might have confidence in the flesh. If anyone else thinks he may have confidence in the flesh, I [h]more so: 5circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, [i]of the tribe of Benjamin, [j]a Hebrew of the Hebrews; concerning the law, [k]a Pharisee;

* 3:3 NU-Text and M-Text read who worship in the Spirit of God.

can be compared to a huge gift that needs to be unwrapped for one's thorough enjoyment. Note that Paul is encouraging the Philippians to develop and work out their salvation, but not to work for their salvation.

2:15 crooked and perverse generation. Paul describes the world as being the opposite of Christian. On the one hand, the world is turned away from the truth, while on the other hand, it exerts a corrupting influence that is opposed to the truth.

2:17 poured out. Paul was probably saying that he was presently being offered as a living sacrifice on behalf of the faith of the Philippians. sacrifice. This means primarily the act of offering something to God.

2:19 Timothy. He had accompanied Paul on his second missionary journey, during which time they had established the church at Philippi. Timothy was apparently well loved by the Philippians, and he in turn exhibited a great concern for them.

2:22 as a son with his father. In New Testament times a son who served his father did so to learn the family trade. Serving in this way meant learning all about the business and being willing to obey the teacher in order to become as skillful as possible in the work.

2:25 Epaphroditus. He was a Philippian Christian sent by the church in Philippi to take a gift to Paul and to assist Paul in his ministry.

2:27 sick almost unto death. Paul was making certain that the Philippians understood the effort that Epaphroditus had made for the cause of Christ. His condition had been far worse than perhaps they had imagined. Paul viewed Epaphroditus's healing as God's direct intervention.

3:2 Beware of dogs. In New Testament times, dogs were hated scavengers. The term came to be used for all who had morally impure minds. the mutilation. Paul here points sarcastically and specifically to those who desire to reinstate Jewish religious practices as necessary for salvation. He chooses a term that literally means "to cut." By doing so, he suggests that these people do not even understand the truth about the Old Testament practice of circumcision.

3:3 the circumcision. Paul defines this as a matter of the heart and not of the flesh. He reveals three aspects: (1) worshiping God in the Spirit; (2) rejoicing in Christ; and (3) placing no confidence in any human honor or accomplishment as a means to reach God.

3:5 eighth day. Paul's parents obeyed God's law and had Paul circumcised on the appropriate day after his birth (Lev. 12:2–3). tribe of Benjamin. This tribe was highly regarded because it had produced the first king of Israel and had remained loyal to David. Hebrew of the Hebrews. This description of Paul may indicate that (1) both his parents were Jews, (2) he was a model Jew, or (3) he was educated completely as a Jew. Pharisee. They rigorously followed and defended the letter of the Jewish law.

6concerning zeal, [l]persecuting the church;
concerning the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.
7But [m]what things were gain to me, these
I have counted loss for Christ. 8Yet indeed
I also count all things loss [n]for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them as rubbish, that I may gain Christ 9and be found in Him,
not having [o]my own righteousness, which is from the law, but [p]that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith; 10that I may know Him and the [q]power of His resurrection, and [r]the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death, 11if, by any means,
I may [s]attain to the resurrection from the dead.

Pressing Toward the Goal

12Not that I have already [t]attained, or am already [u]perfected; but I press on, that I may lay hold of that for which Christ
Jesus has also laid hold of me. 13Brethren,
I do not count myself to have apprehended;
but one thing I do, [v]forgetting those things which are behind and [w]reaching forward to those things which are ahead, 14[x]I press
toward the goal for the prize of [y]the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.
15Therefore let us, as many as are [z]mature, [a]have this mind; and if in anything you think otherwise, [b]God will reveal even this to you. 16Nevertheless, to the degree that we have already attained, [c]let us walk [d]by the same rule,* let us be of the same mind.

Our Citizenship in Heaven

17Brethren, [e]join in following my example, and note those who so walk, as [f]you have us for a pattern. 18For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are [g]the enemies of the cross of Christ: 19[h]whose end
is destruction, [i]whose god is their belly,
and [j]whose glory is in their shame—[k]who set their mind on earthly things. 20For [l]our citizenship is in heaven, [m]from which we also [n]eagerly wait for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, 21[o]who will transform our lowly body that it may be [p]conformed to His glorious body, [q]according to the working by which He is able even to [r]subdue all things to Himself.
4 Therefore, my beloved and [a]longed-for brethren, [b]my joy and crown, so [c]stand fast in the Lord, beloved.

Be United, Joyful, and in Prayer

2I implore Euodia and I implore Syntyche [d]to be of the same mind in the Lord.
3And* I urge you also, true companion,

* 3:16 NU-Text omits rule and the rest of the verse.
* 4:3 NU-Text and M-Text read Yes.

3:7 loss. This word indicates that which is damaged or of no further use (v. 8). Those things that Paul thought to be important became unimportant after confronting the resurrected Messiah.
3:8 rubbish. This word means anything that is detestable or worthless. All things of this world are dung compared to Christ. Even our righteousness is like filthy rags (Is. 64:6).
3:10 power of His resurrection. Paul does not say the power "in" His resurrection, which would specify the power of the one-time event of His resurrection. Rather, Paul seeks the ongoing power that is the day-to-day experience of being in Christ. fellowship of His sufferings. Paul sees the value of participating in the persecutions or struggles that naturally accompany one who is in partnership with Christ and His sufferings. being conformed to His death. Paul desires to imitate Christ—even in His death. In other words, Paul wants to be completely obedient to God the Father, just as Jesus was obedient to His Father's will (Luke 22:42).
3:12 perfected. The Greek term means mature or complete, finished. It does not specifically mean a moral or sinless perfection. Paul is not speaking of moral perfection or righteousness but of reaching the state of completion as a Christian. lay hold. This phrase adds the idea of overtaking by surprise to the sense of seizing some object. Paul urgently wants to "grab hold of" God as God had laid hold of him.
3:13 forgetting. Paul was indicating that it is an ongoing process. He might even be implying that he wanted to forget everything so that he would not rest on his past successes in Christ, but continue to labor for the Lord.
3:16 let us walk. Paul commands the Philippians to conduct themselves as soldiers who "march in line" together, organized each in his proper position.
3:17 example. The word indicates an exact representation of the original. The example of Paul's life is so evident that one can readily see it and use it as a pattern for living.
3:19 glory is in their shame. The things in which they take pride actually are the things that will bring disgrace or humiliation to them, things of which they should have been ashamed.
3:20 citizenship is in heaven. Here Paul presents a direct contrast to the earthly focus of enemies of the cross in verse 19. The eager desire of Christians is not earthly things, but a heavenly Person, the Savior.
3:21 conformed to His glorious body. Our bodies now are weak and susceptible to sin, disease, and death. But God will change our bodies to resemble Christ's glorious resurrection body.
4:2 Euodia . . . Syntyche. What is written here is all that is known about the two women and their dispute. Paul does not take sides in the argument, but instead encourages them to be reconciled.

help these women who [e]labored with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in [f]the Book of Life.

4 [g]Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice!

5 Let your gentleness be known to all men. [h]The Lord is at hand.

6 [i]Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with [j]thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; 7 and [k]the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

Meditate on These Things

8 Finally, brethren, whatever things are [l]true, whatever things are [m]noble, whatever things are [n]just, [o]whatever things are pure, whatever things are [p]lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things. 9 The things which you learned and received and heard and saw in me, these do, and [q]the God of peace will be with you.

Philippian Generosity

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at last [r]your care for me has flourished again; though you surely did care, but you lacked opportunity. 11 Not that I speak in regard to need, for I have learned in whatever state I am, [s]to be content: 12 [t]I know how to be abased, and I know how to abound. Everywhere and in all things I have learned both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. 13 I can do all things [u]through Christ* who strengthens me.

14 Nevertheless you have done well that [v]you shared in my distress. 15 Now you Philippians know also that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, [w]no church shared with me concerning giving and receiving but you only. 16 For even in Thessalonica you sent aid once and again for my necessities. 17 Not that I seek the gift, but I seek [x]the fruit that abounds to your account. 18 Indeed I have all and abound. I am full, having received from [y]Epaphroditus the things sent from you, [z]a sweet-smelling aroma, [a]an acceptable sacrifice, well pleasing to God. 19 And my God [b]shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus. 20 [c]Now to our God and Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Greeting and Blessing

21 Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren [d]who are with me greet you. 22 All the saints greet you, but especially those who are of Caesar's household.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.* Amen.

* 4:13 NU-Text reads Him who. * 4:23 NU-Text reads your spirit.

4:4 Rejoice in the Lord. The joy of Christians is not based on agreeable circumstances; instead, it is based on their relationship to God. Christians will face trouble in this world, but they should rejoice in the trials they face because they know God is using those situations to improve their character.

4:6 Be anxious for nothing. Paul prohibits the Philippians from worrying about their own problems. Instead, they are to commit their problems to God in prayer, trusting that He will provide deliverance.

4:7 will guard. Paul's choice of a military term "guard" implies that the mind is in a battle zone and needs to be protected by a "military guard" since the purpose of such a guard in a wartime situation is either to prevent a hostile invasion or to keep the inhabitants of a besieged city from escaping.

4:9 learned. This verb conveys not only the concept of "increasing in intellectual knowledge," but also the idea of "learning by habitual practice." In some areas of their Christian development, the Philippians had been excellent disciples of Paul, practicing what he had taught.

4:11 content. The word literally means "self-sufficient." In Stoic philosophy this Greek word described a person who dispassionately accepted whatever circumstances brought. For the Greeks, this contentment came from personal sufficiency. But for Paul, true sufficiency is found in the strength of Christ.

4:17 account. Paul uses business terminology. The Philippians' gift was producing spiritual profit, just as money deposited in a bank account accrues interest. But Paul was not as concerned with their gift as with the development in the Philippians of the spiritual ability to give.

4:20 Amen. The Jewish practice of closing prayers with the word amen carried over to the Christian church as well. When found at the end of a sentence, as it is here, the word can be translated "so be it" or "may it be fulfilled." At the beginning of a sentence, it means "surely," "truly," or "most assuredly."

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS

▶ AUTHOR: The external testimony to the Pauline authorship of Colossians is ancient and consistent, and the internal evidence is also very good. It not only claims to be written by Paul (1:1,23; 4:18), but the personal details and close parallels with Ephesians and Philemon make the case even stronger. It is evident from 1:4–8 and 2:1 that Paul had never visited the church at Colosse, which was founded by Epaphras. On his third missionary journey, Paul devoted almost three years to an Asian ministry centered in Ephesus (Acts 19:10; 20:31), and Epaphras probably came to Christ during this time. He then carried the gospel to cities like Colosse in the Lycus Valley. Epaphras visited Paul in prison (4:12) and his report concerning the church in Colosse prompted this epistle.

▶ TIME: c. A.D. 60–61 ▶ KEY VERSES: Col. 2:9–10

▶ THEME: The problem of the Colossian church was similar to what we experience in many churches today. This is often called syncretism, the tendency to regard other philosophies and religions as equally valid as Christianity. The people in Colosse wanted to believe Christian truth, but they also wanted to hang on to their old beliefs by blending them with the gospel. Paul's purpose in this letter is to settle once and for all the issue of Christ's centrality and supremacy. He writes to restore Jesus, the Messiah, to the center of these believers' lives. Here we can see Paul's unwavering confidence in the incomparability of Christ, as it has completely shaped his views on all of life. He writes to introduce the Colossians to this same vision.

Greeting

1 Paul, [a]an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

2 To the saints [b]and faithful brethren in Christ who are in Colosse:

[c]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.*

Their Faith in Christ

3 [d]We give thanks to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, 4 [e]since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of [f]your love for all the saints; 5 because of the hope [g]which is laid up for you in heaven, of which you heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel, 6 which has come to you, [h]as it has also in all the world, and [i]is bringing forth fruit,* as it is also among you since the day you heard and knew [j]the grace of God in truth; 7 as you also learned from [k]Epaphras, our dear fellow servant, who is [l]a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf, 8 who also declared to us your [m]love in the Spirit.

Preeminence of Christ

9 [n]For this reason we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you,

* 1:2 NU-Text omits and the Lord Jesus Christ.
* 1:6 NU-Text and M-Text add and growing.

1:1 an apostle. Paul calls himself an apostle, a word whose root means "to send." The Greek word was first used for a cargo ship or fleet, but later denoted a commander of a fleet. The New Testament employs the word to signify an approved spokesman sent as a personal representative.
1:2 saints. The Greek term means "holy people." The essence of "holiness" is being set apart to God. All believers are saints, not because they are perfect, but because they belong to God. in Christ. This is a favorite expression of the apostle Paul, used some 80 times in his letters.
1:4–8 faith . . . love . . . hope. Paul often uses these three terms together (Rom. 5:2–5; 1 Cor. 13:13; 1 Thess. 1:3; 5:8). Faith is in Christ. Love flows from faith and proves the genuineness of one's faith (James 2:14–26). Hope refers to the result of faith, the treasure laid up in heaven.
1:9 all wisdom and spiritual understanding. Wisdom is the practical outworking of knowledge (James 3:17), and that knowledge cannot be separated from the spiritual understanding that comes through the discernment given by the Holy Spirit.

and to ask [o]that you may be filled with [p]the knowledge of His will [q]in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; 10[r]that you may walk worthy of the Lord, [s]fully pleasing Him, [t]being fruitful in every good work and increasing in the [u]knowledge of God; 11[v]strengthened with all might, according to His glorious power, [w]for all patience and longsuffering [x]with joy; 12[y]giving thanks to the Father who has qualified us to be partakers of [z]the inheritance of the saints in the light. 13He has delivered us from [a]the power of darkness [b]and conveyed us into the kingdom of the Son of His love, 14[c]in whom we have redemption through His blood,* the forgiveness of sins.

15He is [d]the image of the invisible God, [e]the firstborn over all creation. 16For [f]by Him all things were created that are in heaven and that are on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or [g]dominions or principalities or powers. All things were created [h]through Him and for Him. 17[i]And He is before all things, and in Him [j]all things consist. 18And [k]He is the head of the body, the church, who is the beginning, [l]the firstborn from the dead, that in all things He may have the preeminence.

Reconciled in Christ

19For it pleased the Father that [m]in Him all the fullness should dwell, 20and [n]by Him to reconcile [o]all things to Himself, by Him, whether things on earth or things in heaven, [p]having made peace through the blood of His cross.

21And you, [q]who once were alienated and enemies in your mind [r]by wicked works, yet now He has [s]reconciled 22[t]in the body of His flesh through death, [u]to present you holy, and blameless, and above reproach in His sight— 23if indeed you continue [v]in the faith, grounded and steadfast, and are [w]not

* 1:14 NU-Text and M-Text omit through His blood.

1:10 walk worthy of the Lord. Paul wanted the Colossians to live in a manner that adequately reflected what God had done for them and was doing in them. Being "worthy of God" is a phrase that occurs in ancient pagan inscriptions throughout Asia. It pictures someone's life being weighed on scales to determine its worth.

1:12 qualified us. This means to be able or qualified for a task. Believers can never be qualified on their own; instead, God must make them sufficient through Jesus Christ. The tense of the verb points to "qualifying" as an act in the past rather than a process.

1:13 delivered . . . conveyed. God has liberated believers from the dominion of darkness. The apostle uses the common symbolism of light and darkness for good and evil, for God's kingdom and Satan's kingdom, that is found throughout the New Testament. The kingdom from which believers have been rescued is the kingdom of darkness.

1:14 redemption. The Greek word points naturally to the payment of a price or ransom for the release of a slave. They are freed from bondage to sin by forgiveness through the blood of Jesus (Eph. 1:7).

1:15 firstborn over all creation. Verses 15–20 are thought to be an early Christian hymn celebrating the supremacy of Christ. Firstborn could denote a priority in time or in rank. The word does not describe Christ as the first being created in time because the hymn proclaims that all things were "created by Him" and that "He is before all things." Being firstborn referred more to rank and privilege than to order of birth.

1:16 All things were created through Him and for Him. Not only did Jesus create all things, everything was created for His purposes (Heb. 1:2, where Christ is said to be the "heir of all things").

1:18 head of the body. No one should underestimate the significance of the church, for it is in fact Christ's body. The sovereign Creator of the universe, as Head of the church, provides leadership and oversight over it.

1:19 fullness. The opponents of Paul, and later the Greek Gnostics, seem to have used this word as a technical term for the sphere between heaven and earth where a hierarchy of angels lived. The Gnostics viewed Christ as one of many spirits existing in this hierarchy between God and all people. However, Paul used the term fullness to refer to the complete embodiment of God.

1:20–22 Jesus Pays the Price—Salvation is a free gift, but it is not a cheap one. It costs us nothing, but it cost God dearly—it cost Jesus His life. In physically dying on the cross, Jesus sacrificed Himself and satisfied the debt that we had incurred through sin, so that it is possible for God and man to be reconciled. As Jesus hung on the cross, He cried, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?" (Matt. 27:46). Jesus was separated from God the Father so that we do not have to be. This is the heart of the atonement (becoming at one with God). The marvel of it all is that He did this while we were His enemies: "But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us" (Rom. 5:8).

1:20–21 reconcile all things. This phrase shows the significance of Christ's work on the cross. It does not mean that all people will be saved, since many passages clearly say that unbelievers will suffer eternal separation from God (Matt. 25:46).

1:22 holy, and blameless, and above reproach. We who were once enemies of God and alienated by our own wicked works will one day be presented as above reproach on account of Christ's death for us.

1:23 if indeed you continue in the faith. The perseverance of the Colossians was proof of the reconciling work of Christ on their behalf. every creature under heaven. Paul uses this exaggeration to illustrate the rapid spread of the gospel. Compare Acts 17:6 where the apostles are said to have turned the world upside down, even though their ministry, up to that point, moved away from the hope of the gospel which you heard, [x]which was preached to every creature under heaven, [y]of which I, Paul, became a minister.

Sacrificial Service for Christ

24 [z]I now rejoice in my sufferings [a]for you, and fill up in my flesh [b]what is lacking in the afflictions of Christ, for [c]the sake of His body, which is the church, 25of which I became a minister according to [d]the stewardship from God which was given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God, 26[e]the mystery which has been hidden from ages and from generations, [f]but now has been revealed to His saints. 27[g]To them God willed to make known what are [h]the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles: which* is [i]Christ in you, [j]the hope of glory. 28Him we preach, [k]warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, [l]that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus. 29To this end I also labor, striving according to His working which works in me [m]mightily.

Not Philosophy but Christ

2 For I want you to know what a great [a]conflict I have for you and those in Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh, 2that their hearts may be encouraged, being knit together in love, and attaining to all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the knowledge of the mystery of God, both of the Father and* of Christ, 3[b]in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

4Now this I say [c]lest anyone should deceive you with persuasive words. 5For [d]though I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see [e]your good order and the [f]steadfastness of your faith in Christ.

6[g]As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, 7[h]rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it* with thanksgiving.

8Beware lest anyone cheat you through philosophy and empty deceit, according to [i]the tradition of men, according to the [j]basic principles of the world, and not according to Christ. 9For [k]in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily; 10and you are complete in Him, who is the [l]head of all principality and power.

Not Legalism but Christ

11In Him you were also [m]circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, by [n]putting off the body of the sins* of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, 12[o]buried with Him in baptism, in which you also were raised with Him through [p]faith in the working of God, [q]who raised Him from the dead. 13And you, being dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He has made alive together with Him, having forgiven you all trespasses, 14[r]having wiped out the handwriting of requirements that was against us, which was contrary to us. And He has taken had been limited to a small portion of the eastern Mediterranean region.

1:24 my sufferings for you. Paul is making the point that a Christian will endure the sufferings that Christ would be enduring if He were still in the world (2 Cor. 1:5; 4:11).

1:26–27 mystery. In Greek pagan religions, a mystery was a secret teaching reserved for a few spiritual teachers who had been initiated into an inner circle. Paul uses the word to refer to knowledge that had been "hidden from ages and from generations" but was now being revealed by God. The mystery is that Christ now lives within Gentile believers.

2:1 Laodicea. It was a sister city of Colosse about 11 miles away. The two churches were to share their letters from Paul.

2:2–3 the knowledge of the mystery of God. Paul reminds the Colossians that true knowledge will be acknowledged by bringing people together in Christian love in the church. The Gnostics thought only certain "knowledgeable" people could join their elite group; Paul teaches that every believer has access to complete wisdom found in Christ.

2:8 philosophy. This verse has been used at times to teach that Christians should not study or read philosophy. This is not Paul's meaning. Paul himself was adept at philosophy, evidenced by his interaction with the Stoic and Epicurean philosophers in Athens (Acts 17:1–34). Paul was warning the believers not to be taken in by any philosophy that does not conform to a proper knowledge of Christ. The false teachers at Colosse had combined worldly philosophies with the gospel.

2:9 dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily. In this verse Paul clearly proclaims the incarnation, the fact that God became a man bodily. This contradicts the Gnostic idea of the inherent evil of physical bodies and the claim that Jesus is merely a spirit.

2:10 you are complete. Paul emphasizes the sufficiency of Christ in order to refute the Gnostics and the Judaizers who respectively believed that special knowledge or works were necessary to make a Christian complete.

2:12–13 buried with Him in baptism. Baptism is the symbol of the believer's association with Christ's death on the cross. Water baptism itself does not bring forgiveness of sins, but Paul uses the rite to help explain the work of the Spirit. The early church would never have understood the idea of an unbaptized Christian.

it out of the way, having nailed it to the cross. 15[s]Having disarmed [t]principalities and powers, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them in it.

16So let no one [u]judge you in food or in drink, or regarding a festival or a new moon or sabbaths, 17[v]which are a shadow of things to come, but the substance is of Christ. 18Let no one cheat you of your reward, taking delight in false humility and worship of angels, intruding into those things which he has not* seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, 19and not holding fast to [w]the Head, from whom all the body, nourished and knit together by joints and ligaments, [x]grows with the increase that is from God.

20Therefore,* if you [y]died with Christ from the basic principles of the world, [z]why, as though living in the world, do you subject yourselves to regulations— 21[a]"Do not touch, do not taste, do not handle," 22which all concern things which perish with the using—[b]according to the commandments and doctrines of men? 23[c]These things indeed have an appearance of wisdom in self-imposed religion, false humility, and neglect of the body, but are of no value against the indulgence of the flesh.

Not Carnality but Christ

3 If then you were [a]raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, [b]where Christ is, sitting at the right hand of God. 2Set your mind on things above, not on things on the [c]earth. 3[d]For you died, [e]and your life is hidden with Christ in God. 4[f]When Christ who is [g]our life appears, then you also will appear with Him in [h]glory.

5[i]Therefore put to death [j]your members which are on the earth: [k]fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, [l]which is idolatry. 6[m]Because of these things the wrath of God is coming upon [n]the sons of disobedience, 7[o]in which you yourselves once walked when you lived in them.

8[p]But now you yourselves are to put off all these: anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy language out of your mouth. 9Do not lie to one another, since you have put off the old man with his deeds, 10and have put on the new man who [q]is renewed in knowledge [r]according to the image of Him who [s]created him, 11where there is neither [t]Greek nor Jew, circumcised nor uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave nor free, [u]but Christ is all and in all.

Character of the New Man

12Therefore, [v]as the elect of God, holy and beloved, [w]put on tender mercies, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering; 13[x]bearing with one another, and forgiving one another, if anyone has a complaint against another; even as Christ forgave you, so you also must do. 14[y]But above all these things [z]put on love, which is the [a]bond of perfection. 15And let [b]the peace of God rule in your hearts, [c]to which also you were called [d]in one body; and [e]be thankful. 16Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another [f]in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. 17And [g]whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

* 2:18 NU-Text omits not. * 2:20 NU-Text and M-Text omit Therefore.

2:15 principalities and powers. These words allude to Satan and the fallen angels. Paul is describing Christ's victory on the cross over the powers that opposed Him and that were against God's faithful people. To describe this victory, Paul uses the spectacle of the military triumph, when prisoners of war were stripped and paraded before the populace behind the conquering general.

2:16–19 false humility. People who do not champion salvation in Christ alone often appear to be humble. But their search for a new spiritual experience or advocacy of some work as necessary for salvation is actually human pride. They do not want to submit to God's plan of salvation.

2:20–23 subject yourselves to regulations. Since believers have been released from ritualistic observances, why should they let others bind them down again (Rom. 6:3–14)? No human work can be added to the merit of Christ's death. His work on the cross is the only acceptable work in God's eyes.

3:1–4 Set your mind on things above. The false teachers were instructing the Colossians to concentrate on temporal observances; in contrast, Paul instructs them to concentrate on the eternal realities of heaven. The Greek verb for set emphasizes an ongoing decision. Christians must continually discipline themselves to focus on eternal realities instead of the temporal realities of this earth.

3:9–10 old man . . . new man. These two terms do not refer to the Christian's fleshly and spiritual natures. Instead, Paul describes our former unredeemed life as the old man and our life as God's child as the new man. The new man has the image of the new creation in Christ, just as the old man bears the image of our fallen nature. The old man is under an old master, Satan, while the new man has a new master, the Spirit of God living within.

3:11 barbarian. In the Roman Empire a person who did not speak Greek was despised. Scythian. An

The Christian Home

18 [h]Wives, submit to your own husbands,
[i]as is fitting in the Lord.
19 [j]Husbands, love your wives and do not be [k]bitter toward them.
20 [l]Children, obey your parents [m]in all things, for this is well pleasing to the Lord.
21 [n]Fathers, do not provoke your children,
lest they become discouraged.
22 [o]Bondservants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh, not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers, but in sincerity of heart, fearing God. 23 [p]And whatever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord and not to men, 24 [q]knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance; [r]for* you serve the Lord Christ. 25 But he who does wrong will be repaid for what he has done, and [s]there is no partiality.
4 Masters,[a] give your bondservants what is just and fair, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.

Christian Graces

2 [b]Continue earnestly in prayer, being vigilant in it [c]with thanksgiving; 3 [d]meanwhile praying also for us, that God would [e]open to us a door for the word, to speak
[f]the mystery of Christ, [g]for which I am also in chains, 4 that I may make it manifest, as
I ought to speak.
5 [h]Walk in [i]wisdom toward those who are outside, [j]redeeming the time. 6 Let your speech always be [k]with grace, [l]seasoned with salt, [m]that you may know how you ought to answer each one.

Final Greetings

7 [n]Tychicus, a beloved brother, faithful minister, and fellow servant in the Lord, will tell you all the news about me. 8 [o]I am sending him to you for this very purpose,
that he* may know your circumstances
and comfort your hearts, 9 with [p]Onesimus,
a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will make known to you all things which are happening here.
10 [q]Aristarchus my fellow prisoner greets
you, with [r]Mark the cousin of Barnabas (about whom you received instructions: if he comes to you, welcome him), 11 and Jesus who is called Justus. These are my only fellow workers for the kingdom of God who are of the circumcision; they have proved to be a comfort to me.
12 [s]Epaphras, who is one of you, a bond-servant of Christ, greets you, always [t]laboring fervently for you in prayers, that you may stand [u]perfect and complete* in all the will of God. 13 For I bear him witness that he has a great zeal* for you, and those who are in Laodicea, and those in Hierapolis. 14 [v]Luke the beloved physician and [w]Demas greet you. 15 Greet the brethren who are in Laodicea, and Nymphas and [x]the church that is in his* house.

Closing Exhortations and Blessing

16 Now when [y]this epistle is read among you, see that it is read also in the church of the Laodiceans, and that you likewise
read the epistle from Laodicea. 17 And say to [z]Archippus, "Take heed to [a]the ministry which you have received in the Lord, that you may fulfill it."
18 [b]This salutation by my own hand—
Paul. [c]Remember my chains. Grace be with you. Amen.

uncultured person who came from the area around the Black Sea.

3:18–23 submit. See notes at Ephesians 5:19–31.

3:22–25 the reward of the inheritance. The strong motivation to serve someone well is found in the future reward that Christ gives to those who are faithful in this service. We normally think we receive eternal rewards for spiritual practices like reading the Bible, prayer, or evangelism. Here, Paul asserts that all work done to the honor of Christ will bring an eternal reward (1:22–23; 2:18).

4:5 Walk in wisdom toward those who are outside. Early Christians were often viewed with suspicion, distrust, and disdain. They were considered atheists because they would not worship the gods of Rome and Greece. Many labeled them as unpatriotic because they would not burn incense before the image of the emperor. Some even accused the early Christians of participating in orgies because of their talk of "love feasts" (Jude 12). Others harbored suspicions that Christians were really cannibals who ate and drank the blood and body of the Lord. With such misrepresentations of Christian belief and practice running rampant, it was very important for misunderstandings to be dispelled by the virtuous and impeccable lives of Christian believers.

4:9 Onesimus. This slave of Philemon probably accompanied Tychicus to Colosse. Paul's letter to Philemon would have been carried along with the letter to the Colossians. It dealt with a personal situation between Onesimus and his master.

4:10–15 Mark. This is the author of the Gospel of Mark.

4:18 This salutation by my own hand. The apostle dictated his letters to a secretary, but it was his custom to give a greeting in his own handwriting at the end (2 Thess. 2:1; 3:17). This served to personalize and authenticate the letter.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS

▶ AUTHOR: First Thessalonians went unchallenged as a Pauline epistle until the nineteenth century, when radical critics claimed that its lack of doctrinal content made its authenticity suspect. But this is a weak objection on two counts: (1) the proportion of doctrinal teaching in Paul's epistles varies widely, and (2) 4:13—5:11 is a foundational passage for New Testament eschatology (future events). Paul had quickly grounded the Thessalonians in Christian doctrine, and the only problematic issue when this epistle was written concerned the matter of Christ's return. Paul planted the Thessalonian church on his second missionary journey, and wrote this epistle as a response to a good report regarding the church from Timothy in A.D. 51.

▶ TIME: C. A.D. 51 ▶ KEY VERSES: 1 Thess. 3:12–13

▶ THEME: Since Paul's time in Thessalonica was cut short, Paul used these letters to clarify some of his teaching. After a review of the basics, the primary issues covered in 1 Thessalonians are what happens when people die and the timing of the second coming of Christ. In that there were so many people around at that time that had seen Jesus, the promise of His return was met with anxious expectation. We tend to be blasé about it because we have watched so many predictions concerning the end times come and go, but this book will help us to sharpen and renew our expectations.

Greeting

1 Paul, [a]Silvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the [b]Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.*

Their Good Example

2 [c]We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers, 3 remembering without ceasing [d]your work of faith, [e]labor of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ in the sight of our God and Father, 4 knowing, beloved brethren, [f]your election by God. 5 For [g]our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power, [h]and in the Holy Spirit [i]and in much assurance, as you know what kind of men we were among you for your sake.

* 1:1 NU-Text omits from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

1:1 Silvanus. Silvanus is the Roman form of the name Silas. After Paul had separated from Barnabas (Acts 15:36–40), Silas became Paul's traveling companion on the second missionary journey, and he may have served as Paul's secretary. He was a leader of the Jerusalem church (Acts 15:22–23), and he accompanied Paul and Barnabas to Antioch to deliver the decree of the Jerusalem council (Acts 15:22–23). He and Paul suffered a beating at Philippi (Acts 16:22–24), and he had helped found the church at Thessalonica (Acts 17:1–4). Timothy. Timothy was also with Paul on the second missionary journey. Paul considered him like a son and loved him dearly (Acts 16:3; 1 Tim. 1:2). This letter is a response to Timothy's report from the church in Thessalonica. To the church. The Greek word ekklēsia was a familiar term meaning any gathering or assembly. In its New Testament usage this word calls to mind the relationship of believers in Thessalonica as a body.

1:3 patience of hope. The believers at Thessalonica fixed their hope solidly on the return of Jesus Christ (v. 10). Notice that each of the virtues has Christ as its object. Jesus is constantly the focus. This is a good standard for evaluating any Christian service.

1:5 our gospel. Paul had preached the gospel to them clearly when he was with them. For three weeks he had "reasoned with them from the Scriptures, explaining and demonstrating that the Christ had to suffer and rise again from the dead" (Acts 17:2–3). This message was far different from the messianic expectations that Paul knew from his own training as a Pharisee. The Jews of that day were not looking for a suffering savior but a conquering champion.

1:5 Sharing Our Faith—In order to share our faith successfully, we must keep the following rules in mind:

1:1 [a] 1 Pet. 5:12 [b] Acts 17:1–9 1:2 [c] Rom. 1:8 1:3 [d] John 6:29 [e] Rom. 16:6 1:4 [f] Col. 3:12 1:5 [g] Mark 16:20 [h] 2 Cor. 6:6 [i] Heb. 2:3

6 And [j]you became followers of us and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, [k]with joy of the Holy Spirit, 7 so that you became examples to all in Macedonia and Achaia who believe. 8 For from you the word of the Lord [l]has sounded forth, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also [m]in every place. Your faith toward God has gone out, so that we do not need to say anything. 9 For they themselves declare concerning us [n]what manner of entry we had to you, [o]and how you turned to God
from idols to serve the living and true God, 10 and [p]to wait for His Son from heaven,
whom He raised from the dead, even Jesus
who delivers us [q]from the wrath to come.

Paul's Conduct

2 For you yourselves know, brethren, that our coming to you was not in vain. 2 But even* after we had suffered before and were spitefully treated at [a]Philippi, as you know, we were [b]bold in our God to speak to you the gospel of God in much conflict.
3 [c]For our exhortation did not come from error or uncleanness, nor was it in deceit.
4 But as [d]we have been approved by God [e]to be entrusted with the gospel, even so we speak, [f]not as pleasing men, but God [g]who tests our hearts. 5 For [h]neither at any time
did we use flattering words, as you know,
nor a cloak for covetousness—[i]God is witness. 6 [j]Nor did we seek glory from men, either from you or from others, when [k]we might have [l]made demands [m]as apostles of Christ. 7 But [n]we were gentle among you,
just as a nursing mother cherishes her own children. 8 So, affectionately longing for you, we were well pleased [o]to impart to you not only the gospel of God, but also [p]our own lives, because you had become dear to us. 9 For you remember, brethren, our [q]labor and toil; for laboring night and day, [r]that we might not be a burden to any of you, we preached to you the gospel of God.

10 [s]You are witnesses, and God also, [t]how devoutly and justly and blamelessly we behaved ourselves among you who believe;
11 as you know how we exhorted, and comforted, and charged* every one of you, as a father does his own children, 12 [u]that you would walk worthy of God [v]who calls you into His own kingdom and glory.

Their Conversion

13 For this reason we also thank God
[w]without ceasing, because when you [x]received the word of God which you heard from us, you welcomed it [y]not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which also effectively [z]works in you who believe. 14 For you, brethren, became imitators [a]of the churches of God which are in Judea in Christ Jesus. For [b]you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, just as they did from the Judeans, 15 [c]who killed both the Lord Jesus
and [d]their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they do not please God [e]and

*2:2 NU-Text and M-Text omit even. *2:11 NU-Text and M-Text read implored.

First, we must be clean vessels. God reminds Isaiah the prophet of this: "Be clean, you who bear the vessels of the LORD" (Is. 52:11). David prays for forgiveness and cleansing, and a willing spirit. He states, "Then I will teach transgressors Your ways, and sinners shall be converted to You (Ps. 51:13).

We must be able to clearly give out the simple facts of the gospel without getting bogged down with profound theological concepts. Philip the evangelist demonstrated how to do this when he dealt with the Ethiopian eunuch in the desert. "Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning at this Scripture, preached Jesus to him" (Acts 8:35).

We must avoid arguments and stick to the basic issues of man's sin and Christ's sacrifice.

We must use the Word of God. Paul's tremendous success as an evangelist can be linked directly to his constant use of God's Word (Acts 17:2; 18:28; 2 Tim. 2:15; 3:14–17).

We must depend upon the Spirit of God (John 3:15; Acts 6:10; 1 Cor. 2:4).

1:6 followers of us. As we focus on Jesus we will reflect His image to others (2 Cor. 3:18).

1:8 sounded forth. Since Thessalonica was a port city on the much-traveled Egnatian Way, those who saw the virtuous life and persistent faith of the Thessalonian Christians would spread the word throughout the entire region.

1:10 delivers us from the wrath to come. Because Christ endured God's wrath at Calvary, all who are in Christ will escape that wrath. They have nothing to fear.

2:2 at Philippi. Paul and Silas were beaten and put in the stocks in Philippi (Acts 16:22–24).

2:5 flattering words. Far from flattering, Paul preached boldly that everyone was a sinner who needed to be saved by the grace of God.

2:9 labor. This word indicates strenuous work that produces weariness. Paul made tents to provide for his financial needs (Acts 18:3), showing that his ministry was motivated by an unselfish desire to promote the well-being of others rather than to advance his own needs.

2:13 effectively works. Gentile Christians in Thessalonica could contrast the pure Word of God, with its transforming effect, with the immoral pagan religions, which only perverted people even more. Likewise, Jewish believers could contrast the love and grace of God in the gospel to the legalism and pride often produced by the Jewish religion.

are contrary to all men, 16[f]forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved, so as always [g]to fill up the measure of their sins; [h]but wrath has come upon them to the uttermost.

Longing to See Them

17But we, brethren, having been taken away from you for a short time [i]in presence, not in heart, endeavored more eagerly to see your face with great desire. 18Therefore we wanted to come to you—even I, Paul, time and again—but [j]Satan hindered us. 19For [k]what is our hope, or joy, or [l]crown of rejoicing? Is it not even you in the [m]presence of our Lord Jesus Christ [n]at His coming? 20For you are our glory and joy.

Concern for Their Faith

3 Therefore, when we could no longer endure it, we thought it good to be left in Athens alone, 2and sent [a]Timothy, our brother and minister of God, and our fellow laborer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you and encourage you concerning your faith, 3[b]that no one should be shaken by these afflictions; for you yourselves know that [c]we are appointed to this. 4[d]For, in fact, we told you before when we were with you that we would suffer tribulation, just as it happened, and you know. 5For this reason, when I could no longer endure it, I sent to know your faith, [e]lest by some means the tempter had tempted you, and [f]our labor might be in vain.

Encouraged by Timothy

6[g]But now that Timothy has come to us from you, and brought us good news of your faith and love, and that you always have good remembrance of us, greatly desiring to see us, [h]as we also to see you—7therefore, brethren, in all our affliction and distress [i]we were comforted concerning you by your faith. 8For now we live, if you [j]stand fast in the Lord.

9For what thanks can we render to God for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sake before our God, 10night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face [k]and perfect what is lacking in your faith?

Prayer for the Church

11Now may our God and Father Himself, and our Lord Jesus Christ, [l]direct our way to you. 12And may the Lord make you increase and [m]abound in love to one another and to all, just as we do to you, 13so that He may establish [n]your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His saints.

Plea for Purity

4 Finally then, brethren, we urge and exhort in the Lord Jesus [a]that you should abound more and more, [b]just as you received from us how you ought to walk and to please God; 2for you know what commandments we gave you through the Lord Jesus.

3For this is [c]the will of God, [d]your sanctification: [e]that you should abstain from sexual immorality; 4[f]that each of you should know how to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honor, 5[g]not in passion of lust, [h]like the Gentiles [i]who do not know

2:16 always to fill up the measure of their sins. The implication is that God will allow a nation, group, or individual to go only so far in sin before He brings judgment upon them (Gen. 15:16).

2:18 Satan hindered us. Satan has a vested interest in hindering the spread of the gospel, and we may be sure that when we are engaged in the Lord's work, we will experience spiritual attacks and opposition of various kinds.

3:1 Athens. When forced to leave Thessalonica, Paul and Silas went to Berea, the next city west of Thessalonica. The Thessalonian Jews who had opposed Paul learned that he was at Berea, and went there also to stir up opposition. Paul's friends then escorted him south to Athens (Acts 17:13–15).

3:3 shaken by these afflictions. The Bible teaches that those who live godly lives should expect persecution (2 Tim. 3:12). In fact, Christ warned His disciples that they would experience the same type of rejection He had experienced (John 15:18–21). But such suffering should not make us depressed. Instead we should rejoice that we are allied with His name (Matt. 5:10–12).

3:12 increase and abound in love to one another. Christ had told His disciples that His followers would be identified by their love for one another (John 13:35).

3:13 all His saints. The word saints means "holy ones" or "those set apart." It can be used to apply to believers, or to holy angels. Angels will participate in the second coming (4:16; Jude 14; Rev. 19:14).

4:1 how you ought to walk. The Christian life not only begins with faith, but it continues as a daily walk of faith. Christians are not to live like unsaved Gentiles (Eph. 4:17); instead they are to walk worthy of their calling from God (Eph. 4:1). John exhorts Christians to walk in the light, that is, in the revealed will of God (1 John 1:7).

4:3 abstain from sexual immorality. A major problem for the early church was maintaining sexual purity (1 Cor. 5:1,9–11). Pagan religions often included sexual orgies as part of their rites of worship, and temple prostitutes were dedicated to various gods. In contrast, Christianity taught that the body is God's temple (1 Cor. 6:18–20). The body should be honored as created by God and should be sanctified in keeping with its holy purpose.

2:16 [f]Luke 11:52 [g]Gen. 15:16 [h]Matt. 24:6 2:17 [i]1 Cor. 5:3 2:18 [j]Rom. 1:13; 15:22 2:19 [k]2 Cor. 1:14 [l]Prov. 16:31 [m]Jude 24 [n]1 Cor. 15:23 3:2 [a]Rom. 16:21 3:3 [b]Eph. 3:13 [c]Acts 9:16; 14:22 3:4 [d]Acts 20:24 3:5 [e]1 Cor. 7:5 [f]Gal. 2:2 3:6 [g]Acts 18:5 [h]Phil. 1:8 3:7 [i]2 Cor. 1:4 3:8 [j]Phil. 4:1 3:10 [k]2 Cor. 13:9 3:11 [l]Mark 1:3 3:12 [m]Phil. 1:9 3:13 [n]2 Thess. 2:17 4:1 [a]1 Cor. 15:58 [b]Phil. 1:27 4:3 [c][Rom. 12:2] [d]Eph. 5:27 [e][1 Cor. 6:15–20] 4:4 [f]Rom. 6:19 4:5 [g]Col. 3:5 [h]Eph. 4:17, 18 [i]1 Cor. 15:34

God; 6that no one should take advantage of and defraud his brother in this matter, because the Lord *i*is the avenger of all such, as we also forewarned you and testified. 7For God did not call us to uncleanness, *k*but in holiness. 8*l*Therefore he who rejects this does not reject man, but God, *m*who has also given* us His Holy Spirit.

A Brotherly and Orderly Life

9But concerning brotherly love you have no need that I should write to you, for *n*you yourselves are taught by God *o*to love one another; 10and indeed you do so toward all the brethren who are in all Macedonia. But we urge you, brethren, *p*that you increase more and more; 11that you also aspire to lead a quiet life, *q*to mind your own business, and *r*to work with your own hands, as we commanded you, 12*s*that you may walk properly toward those who are outside, and that you may lack nothing.

The Comfort of Christ's Coming

13But I do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning those who have fallen asleep, lest you sorrow *t*as others *u*who have no hope. 14For *v*if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him *w*those who sleep in Jesus.*

15For this we say to you *x*by the word of the Lord, that *y*we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will by no means precede those who are asleep. 16For *z*the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with *a*the trumpet of God. *b*And the dead in Christ will rise first. 17*c*Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them *d*in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus *e*we shall always be with the Lord. 18*f*Therefore comfort one another with these words.

The Day of the Lord

5 But concerning *a*the times and the seasons, brethren, you have no need that I should write to you. 2For you yourselves know perfectly that *b*the day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night. 3For when they say, "Peace and safety!" then *c*sudden destruction comes upon them, *d*as labor pains upon a pregnant woman. And they shall not escape. 4*e*But you, brethren, are not in darkness, so that this Day should overtake you as a thief. 5You are all *f*sons of light and sons of the day. We are not of the night nor of darkness. 6*g*Therefore let us not sleep, as others do, but *h*let us watch and be sober. 7For *i*those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk *j*are drunk at night. 8But let us who are of the day be sober, *k*putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and as a helmet the hope

* 4:8 NU-Text reads who also gives. * 4:14 Or those who through Jesus sleep

4:10 increase more and more. These believers already had a good record of loving one another, but Paul desired that love to increase. This was the commandment of Jesus (John 13:34–35; 15:12,17) and is an important basis of evangelism. In a world that is filled with self-serving individuals, the genuine love of Christians should attract others to the faith.

4:11 aspire to lead a quiet life. This does not refer to a lack of activity but rather to an inner quietness and peace befitting the Christian faith (2 Thess. 3:12; 1 Tim. 2:11). work with your own hands. Usually people who are busy running other people's affairs do not run their own affairs well. A Christian's house should be in order as a testimony to others.

4:14 those who sleep in Jesus. Some believe this phrase indicates that departed Christians are unconscious until the second coming. But the Bible indicates that to be absent from our present body is to be present with the Lord Jesus (5:10; 2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:23).

4:16 descend from heaven with a shout. Accompanying the descent of Christ from heaven will be the voice of an archangel, perhaps Michael, who is portrayed as the leader of the army of God (Dan. 10:13,21; Jude 9; Rev. 12:7–9). The only other angel named in Scripture is Gabriel, who is given a prominent role as a messenger of God (Dan. 8:16; 9:21; Luke 1:19,26). the dead in Christ will rise. Clearly this will be a physical resurrection in which bodily existence will be restored, as confirmed in 1 Corinthians 15:51–53. The resurrected bodies of Christians will be like the body of Christ (1 John 3:2), incorruptible and immortal, and yet they will be bodies of flesh and bone (Luke 24:39–40; John 20:20,25,27).

4:17 caught up. The English word rapture comes from the Latin for "caught up."

5:2 the day of the Lord. This expression was familiar to those who knew the Hebrew Scriptures. The day of the Lord in the Old Testament was characterized by two phases: God's judgment against sinful people and God's eternal reign over His people. God's judgment will be a time of darkness and an expression of His wrath (Joel 2:1–2; Amos 5:18–20; Zeph. 1:14–15). His reign will also be a time of blessing (Is. 2:1–3; 11:1–9; 30:23–26; Zech. 14:1,7–11,20–21; Matt. 19:28; Acts 3:19–21).

5:4 not in darkness. Though the day of the Lord will overtake the unsaved world unexpectedly, it will not overtake Christians, because they will be looking forward to and expecting it. The fact that Christ could come at any moment should motivate unbelievers to accept His forgiveness, and believers to live daily for Him.

5:8 sober. A sober life is not only free from drunkenness, but awake to spiritual realities.

of salvation. 9For [l]God did not appoint us to wrath, [m]but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, 10[n]who died for us, that whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with Him.

11Therefore comfort each other and edify one another, just as you also are doing.

Various Exhortations

12And we urge you, brethren, [o]to recognize those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord and admonish you, 13and to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. [p]Be at peace among yourselves.

14Now we exhort you, brethren, [q]warn those who are unruly, [r]comfort the faint-hearted, [s]uphold the weak, [t]be patient with all. 15[u]See that no one renders evil for evil to anyone, but always [v]pursue what is good both for yourselves and for all.

16[w]Rejoice always, 17[x]pray without ceasing, 18in everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

19[y]Do not quench the Spirit. 20[z]Do not despise prophecies. 21[a]Test all things; [b]hold fast what is good. 22Abstain from every form of evil.

Blessing and Admonition

23Now may [c]the God of peace Himself [d]sanctify you completely; and may your whole spirit, soul, and body [e]be preserved blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. 24He who calls you is [f]faithful, who also will [g]do it.

25Brethren, pray for us.

26Greet all the brethren with a holy kiss.

27I charge you by the Lord that this epistle be read to all the holy* brethren.

28The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

* 5:27 NU-Text omits holy.

5:9 did not appoint us to wrath. There will be wrath at the day of the Lord, but it will be God's wrath on the unbelieving world that has spurned and mocked Christ (Rev. 6:12–17).

5:12 And we urge you. Significantly, Paul combines prophecy with practical teachings for the Christian life. God never intended prophecy to just be a field for academic debate, but to be a truth that would provide believers hope and direction in their lives.

5:16 Rejoice always. Regardless of difficult circumstances, a Christian always has grounds for rejoicing. The Lord is a sovereign Ruler and will accomplish His purpose. Christian joy is not based on circumstances, but on a growing awareness of God and the certain future of eternal life with Christ (Rev. 21:1–7).

5:17 pray without ceasing. To pray without ceasing seems impossible, but a person can develop an attitude and habit of constant prayer. No matter what else is going on, we should be aware of God's presence with us, and turn to Him with every thought and action.

5:23 spirit, soul, and body. Every part of the Christian life should bear evidence that we are set apart as holy to God.

5:26 a holy kiss. A kiss was a customary greeting among friends (as it still is in some cultures), something like our modern handshake.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS

▶ AUTHOR: The external attestation to the authenticity of 2 Thessalonians as a Pauline epistle is even stronger than that for 1 Thessalonians. Internally the vocabulary, style, and doctrinal content support the claims in 1:1 and 3:17 that it was written by Paul. This letter was probably written a few months after 1 Thessalonians, while Paul was still in Corinth with Silas and Timothy (1:1; Acts 18:5).

▶ TIME: c. A.D. 51 ▶ KEY VERSES: 2 Thess. 2:2–3

▶ THEME: This letter to the Thessalonians appears to have been written fairly soon after the first one. He provides some further clarification on some of the same issues he addressed in the first letter. There appears to still be some confusion about the events of the end times, which he clarifies. He also wisely encourages the believers in the basics he has taught them in his role as a caring pastor.

Greeting

1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 [a]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

God's Final Judgment and Glory

3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is fitting, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of every one of you all abounds toward each other, 4 so that [b]we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God [c]for your patience and faith [d]in all your persecutions and tribulations that you endure, 5 which is [e]manifest evidence of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, [f]for which you
also suffer; 6 [g]since it is a righteous thing with God to repay with tribulation those who trouble you, 7 and to give you who are troubled [h]rest with us when [i]the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with His mighty angels, 8 in flaming fire taking vengeance
on those who do not know God, and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 [j]These shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord and [k]from the glory of His power, 10 when He comes, in that Day, [l]to be [m]glorified in His saints and to be admired among all those who believe,* because our testimony among you was believed.

11 Therefore we also pray always for you that our God would [n]count you worthy of this calling, and fulfill all the good pleasure of His goodness and [o]the work of faith
with power, 12 [p]that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and you in Him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

* 1:10 NU-Text and M-Text read have believed.

1:1 Silvanus, and Timothy. Silvanus (Latin for Silas) had been Paul's traveling companion ever since the start of the second missionary journey. He had participated in the founding of the church at Thessalonica (Acts 17:1–4). Timothy also accompanied Paul on his second missionary journey. His report from the Thessalonian church had been the occasion for writing 1 Thessalonians (1 Thess. 3:6–8). To the church. The Greek word ekklēsia means "gathering" or "assembly."
1:5 counted worthy of the kingdom of God. If believers handle their persecutions properly, they will be counted worthy of great reward in the coming kingdom of God (Matt. 5:12; 1 Pet. 2:19–20). Christians are called to endure suffering in this world, for they will receive a far greater reward in the next (2 Tim. 2:12).
1:7–8 when the Lord Jesus is revealed. Presently the Lord Jesus is enthroned in glory at the right hand of the Father (John 17:5). Stephen saw this glory before he was martyred (Acts 7:55–56), but one day, and it may be soon, "every eye will see Him" (Rev. 1:7). in flaming fire. Some believe that this is the fulfillment of John the Baptist's prophecy of the One who would "baptize with fire" (Matt. 3:11–12; Luke 3:16–17).
1:8 do not know . . . do not obey. Those who do not know are the unbelieving Gentiles, those who do not obey are the unbelieving Jews who knew about God and rejected His Son (Rom. 10:1,16).
1:12 glorified in you. Christ will be glorified not only among, but also in the saints, for believers reflect His glory.

The Great Apostasy

2 Now, brethren, [a]concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ [b]and our gathering together to Him, we ask you, 2 [c]not to be soon shaken in mind or troubled, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as if from us, as though the day of Christ* had come. 3Let no one deceive you by any means; for that Day will not come [d]unless the falling away comes first, and [e]the man of sin* is revealed, [f]the son of perdition, 4who opposes and [g]exalts himself [h]above all that is called God or that is worshiped, so that he sits as God* in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.

5Do you not remember that when I was still with you I told you these things? 6And now you know what is restraining, that he may be revealed in his own time. 7For [i]the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only He* who now restrains will do so until He* is taken out of the way. 8And then the lawless one will be revealed, [j]whom the Lord will consume [k]with the breath of His mouth and destroy [l]with the brightness of His coming. 9The coming of the lawless one is [m]according to the working of Satan, with all power, [n]signs, and lying wonders, 10and with all unrighteous deception among [o]those who perish, because they did not receive [p]the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 11And [q]for this reason God will send them strong delusion, [r]that they should believe the lie, 12that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but [s]had pleasure in unrighteousness.

Stand Fast

13But we are bound to give thanks to God always for you, brethren beloved by the Lord, because God [t]from the beginning [u]chose you for salvation [v]through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth, 14to which He called you by our gospel, for [w]the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 15Therefore, brethren, [x]stand fast and hold [y]the traditions which you were taught, whether by word or our epistle.

16Now may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself, and our God and Father, [z]who has loved us and given us everlasting consolation and [a]good hope by grace, 17comfort your hearts [b]and establish you in every good word and work.

Pray for Us

3 Finally, brethren, [a]pray for us, that the word of the Lord may run swiftly and be

* 2:2 NU-Text reads the Lord. * 2:3 NU-Text reads lawlessness. * 2:4 NU-Text omits as God. * 2:7 Or he • Or he

2:1 concerning the coming. After writing 1 Thessalonians, Paul had received word that the believers in Thessalonica were being misled by false teachers who were confusing the believers with erroneous ideas about the second coming. gathering together to Him. This will be the first time that the whole church, including every believer, will be gathered before the Lord to worship Him. The phrase seems to refer to the event described in 1 Thessalonians 4:17, where Paul speaks of meeting the Lord in the air.

2:2 the day of Christ had come. The false teaching was that the day of the Lord (1 Thess. 5:2–4) had already come, bringing with it the tribulations they were experiencing. Thus, some Thessalonian believers thought that they had missed the second coming.

2:3 the falling away. The Greek word translated "falling away" is the word commonly used to describe a military rebellion. In the Scriptures, the word is used of rebellion against God. Some have therefore interpreted this verse to refer to a general defection from the truth, perhaps even by those professing to be the church. This rebellious apostasy would prepare the way for the antichrist. the man of sin. Paul does not use the title "antichrist" for this man, but his description parallels John's description of the antichrist (1 John 2:18; Rev. 13). The man of sin will lead the world into rebellion against God (v. 10), perform wonders through Satan's power (v. 9), and finally will present himself as a god to be worshiped (v. 4).

2:4 he sits as God in the temple. This is the ultimate fulfillment of the "abomination of desolation" spoken of by Daniel (Dan. 7:23; 9:26; 11:31,36–37; 12:11) and Jesus (Matt. 24:15; Mark 13:14).

2:7 is already at work. The evil and deception that the man of sin embodies already exist in this world (1 John 2:18). Anyone who opposes Christ and His church and seeks to deceive others into worshiping false gods is against Christ (antichrist). taken out of the way. Many believe that this verse refers to the rapture of the church (1 Thess. 4:16–17), and the cessation of the Holy Spirit working through believers to restrain the power of sin in this world. There are a variety of other interpretations for the identity of the restrainer, including the Roman state, or the principle of law and government embodied in the state.

2:8 whom the Lord will consume . . . and destroy. Although the man of lawlessness will be revealed as extremely powerful (Rev. 13:7), he will be destroyed by Christ and cast into the lake of fire when the Lord comes (Rev. 19:19–20).

2:14 obtaining of the glory. The Thessalonians have already been saved (v. 13), and called, but they must respond to God's work in them. Through the power of the Holy Spirit (v. 13), believers on this earth prepare for a future with Christ by living in a holy manner (1:10; 1 Thess. 4:1–2).

2:17 comfort your hearts and establish. It is interesting to note that Paul uses the singular form of these verbs, with the plural subject of "Jesus Christ and God our Father," supporting the trinity and equality of God (1 Thess. 3:11).

glorified, just as it is with you, 2and [b]that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men; [c]for not all have faith.

3But [d]the Lord is faithful, who will establish you and [e]guard you from the evil one. 4And [f]we have confidence in the Lord concerning you, both that you do and will do the things we command you.

5Now may [g]the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God and into the patience of Christ.

Warning Against Idleness

6But we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, [h]that you withdraw [i]from every brother who walks [j]disorderly and not according to the tradition which he* received from us. 7For you yourselves know how you ought to follow us, for we were not disorderly among you; 8nor did we eat anyone's bread free of charge, but worked with [k]labor and toil night and day, that we might not be a burden to any of you, 9not because we do not have [l]authority, but to make ourselves an example of how you should follow us.

10For even when we were with you, we commanded you this: If anyone will not work, neither shall he eat. 11For we hear that there are some who walk among you in a disorderly manner, not working at all, but are [m]busybodies. 12Now those who are such we command and exhort through our Lord Jesus Christ [n]that they work in quietness and eat their own bread.

13But as for you, brethren, [o]do not grow weary in doing good. 14And if anyone does not obey our word in this epistle, note that person and [p]do not keep company with him, that he may be ashamed. 15[q]Yet do not count him as an enemy, [r]but admonish him as a brother.

Benediction

16Now may [s]the Lord of peace Himself give you peace always in every way. The Lord be with you all.

17[t]The salutation of Paul with my own hand, which is a sign in every epistle; so I write.

18[u]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

* 3:6 NU-Text and M-Text read they.

3:2 unreasonable and wicked men. These may have been the unbelieving Jews in Corinth who were persecuting Paul at the time he wrote this letter (Acts 18:12–13). Justice in this world may never come for Christians, but they can certainly pray for deliverance from the wicked.

3:5 direct your hearts. The heart, the seat of a person's will and emotions, is the place where spiritual renewal begins. There God plants love and patience, traits that will produce a harvest of good works.

3:6 command. This is not just a friendly suggestion, but a binding order with the authority of Jesus Christ.

withdraw. Among other things, this would include not allowing the person to participate in love feasts and the Lord's Supper (Matt. 18:15–17; 1 Cor. 5:9–12).

3:9 not because we do not have authority. It is right for the church to financially support those who do the Lord's work (Luke 10:7; 1 Cor. 9:6–14; Gal. 6:6; 1 Tim. 5:17–18).

3:11 not working at all. Some Thessalonians, apparently using the impending return of the Lord as an excuse, had refused to work and were expecting others in the church to feed them. In his previous letter, Paul had already exhorted them to work (1 Thess. 4:11–12). Since they had not heeded, the time had come to take further steps. While believers must always act with gentleness and love toward one another, it is wrong to enable another person to continue in sin.

3:12 they work in quietness. The cure for gossips and busybodies is hard work. There is much truth in the saying "Satan finds work for idle hands."

3:15 as a brother. The disobedient one is not an enemy, but one who needs compassionate correction.

3:18 our Lord Jesus Christ. Not only is Jesus our ultimate hope, it is He who lovingly strengthens us to endure trials.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY

▶ AUTHOR: The external evidence solidly supports the position that Paul wrote the letters to Timothy and Titus. Only Romans and 1 Corinthians have better attestation among the Pauline Epistles. Pauline authorship of the Pastoral Epistles requires Paul's release from his Roman imprisonment (Acts 28), the continuation of his missionary endeavors, and his imprisonment for a second time in Rome. Unfortunately, the order of events can only be reconstructed from hints, because there is no concurrent history paralleling Acts to chronicle the last years of the apostle. It is most probable that Paul wrote 1 Timothy from Macedonia in A.D. 62 or 63 while Timothy was serving as his representative in Ephesus.

▶ TIME: C. A.D. 62–63 ▶ KEY VERSES: 1 Tim. 3:15–16

▶ THEME: The letters to Timothy and Titus are generally called "the Pastoral Epistles." They are pastoral in tone and in the subject matter they address. While covering much of the apostolic instruction on the life and doctrine of the church, they also provide some guidelines on how Christians in the church should relate to society. One of the overriding concerns of the books is that truth be valued and guarded. Too often today, truth is subjective and culturally conditioned to the point where people don't even have problems believing mutually contradictory ideas. Paul speaks of the value of truth in his own apostolic role, and he stands against false teachers who would distort the truth for their own ends.

Greeting

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the commandment of God our Savior and the Lord Jesus Christ, our hope,

2 To Timothy, a [a]true son in the faith:

[b]Grace, mercy, and peace from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

No Other Doctrine

3 As I urged you [c]when I went into Macedonia—remain in Ephesus that you may charge some [d]that they teach no other doctrine, 4 [e]nor give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which cause disputes rather than godly edification which is in faith. 5 Now [f]the purpose of the commandment is love [g]from a pure heart, from a good conscience, and from sincere faith, 6 from which some, having strayed, have turned aside to [h]idle talk, 7 desiring to be teachers of the law, understanding neither what they say nor the things which they affirm.

8 But we know that the law is [i]good if one uses it lawfully, 9 knowing this: that the law is not made for a righteous person, but for the lawless and insubordinate, for the ungodly and for sinners, for the unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, 10 for fornicators, for sodomites, for kidnappers, for liars, for perjurers, and if there is any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine, 11 according to the glorious gospel of the [j]blessed God which was [k]committed to my trust.

1:1 apostle of Jesus Christ. The Greek word for "apostle" means "sent one." Paul was an ambassador sent by Christ (Acts 9).
1:2 Timothy. Timothy was a young believer from Lystra who traveled with Paul during his second and third missionary journeys.
1:3 that you may charge. Paul's request that Timothy stay in Ephesus to minister to the believers there demonstrates Paul's confidence in the young man.
1:4 fables and endless genealogies. The errors that Paul left Timothy to correct in Ephesus appear to have been primarily Jewish in nature. The Jews tended to place a lot of importance on the genealogies and also on allegorical interpretations of the law.
1:6 idle talk. Gossip, speculation, and criticism should not come from the lips of believers.
1:8 law. The proper function of the law is to make sinners aware of their sinfulness (Rom. 3:20).
1:10 perjurers. The term "perjure" is more significant than simply "lie," as it deals with false promises. To swear an oath and then not carry through is a serious thing indeed.

1:2 [a] Titus 1:4 [b] Gal. 1:3 1:3 [c] Acts 20:1, 3 [d] Gal. 1:6, 7 1:4 [e] Titus 1:14 1:5 [f] Rom. 13:8–10 [g] Eph. 6:24 1:6 [h] 1 Tim. 6:4, 20 1:8 [i] Rom. 7:12, 16 1:11 [j] 1 Tim. 6:15 [k] 1 Cor. 9:17

Glory to God for His Grace

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord who has [l]enabled me, [m]because He counted me
faithful, [n]putting me into the ministry, 13 although [o]I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and an insolent man; but I obtained mercy because [p]I did it ignorantly
in unbelief. 14 [q]And the grace of our Lord
was exceedingly abundant, [r]with faith and love which are in Christ Jesus. 15 [s]This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance, that [t]Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief.
16 However, for this reason I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might show
all longsuffering, as a pattern to those who are going to believe on Him for everlasting life. 17 Now to [u]the King eternal, [v]immortal, [w]invisible, to God [x]who alone is wise,* [y]be
honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

Fight the Good Fight

18 This charge I commit to you, son Timothy, according to the prophecies previously made concerning you, that by them
you may wage the good warfare, 19 having faith and a good conscience, which some having rejected, concerning the faith have suffered shipwreck, 20 of whom are [z]Hyme-naeus and [a]Alexander, whom I delivered to Satan that they may learn not to [b]blaspheme.

Pray for All Men

2 Therefore I exhort first of all that sup-plications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men, 2 [a]for kings and [b]all who are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and reverence. 3 For this is [c]good and acceptable in the sight [d]of God our Savior, 4 [e]who desires all men to be saved
[f]and to come to the knowledge of the truth.
5 [g]For there is one God and [h]one Mediator between God and men, the Man Christ Jesus, 6 [i]who gave Himself a ransom for all,
to be testified in due time, 7 [j]for which I was appointed a preacher and an apostle—I am speaking the truth in Christ* and not lying—[k]a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

* 1:17 NU-Text reads to the only God. * 2:7 NU-Text omits in Christ.

1:13 but I obtained mercy. Paul found mercy and forgiveness even after his intense persecution of the church. God surely offers salvation to all people (2:4).
1:14 grace. Grace is God's undeserved, unearned, freely given favor.
1:15–16 Believing Jesus—Jesus came to earth to save sinners. Paul knew this firsthand. When he became a Christian, Paul realized the extent of his sin in terms of both his past sins and his current tendencies. But he also knew exactly where he stood in Christ as a believer. The mercy of God can only be acquired through belief. Paul reminds Timothy here of God's perfect patience and mercy and urges others to come to faith and receive the benefit of new and everlasting life, as he has. Eternal life can only begin with belief. It is an active choice of the individual. We must believe that Jesus is the saving Christ or reject Him. Paul says, "I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might show all longsuffering, as a pattern to those who are going to believe on Him for everlasting life." If you have never believed in Jesus, take this opportunity to tell God how you feel. Believe in Jesus as Savior and begin on the path of a new life.
1:16 believe on Him. As stated over 185 times in the New Testament, the sole condition for salvation is belief, having faith or trust in Jesus Christ. The gospel (or "good news") is that Jesus Christ, God's Son, gave up His heavenly kingdom for a time to become a human. As a man, He died for our sins, was buried, and rose on the third day. All who place their trust in Jesus will be saved from the coming judgment and from the present power of sin. To add any other condition to faith for salvation is to make it dependent on our own works (Rom. 11:6; Gal. 2:16).
1:20 delivered to Satan. Paul did not have some sort of authority over these men to have them "delivered" in the sense that they would now belong to Satan. Rather, Paul had stopped trying to exhort them, or show them the way they should go. They would not listen, so Paul had to say, "So be it, go your own way."
2:4 desires all men to be saved. God desires that all men would be saved, although this does not mean that He will force this to happen. Only those who believe in Christ will receive salvation (Rom. 1:16–17; 3:21–26; 5:17). Christ died for the sins of the entire world, but only those who believe will receive the benefits of His sacrifice. to come to the knowledge of the truth. God not only wants our salvation (justification), He also wants us to grow in truth (sanctification) so that we will not be led astray by false teachers.
2:5 one God. This is the central truth of the Hebrew Scriptures. The only living God desires that all should be saved. He is the only one to whom our prayers should be addressed. Mediator. This is a concept that came from the ceremonial worship in the Old Testament. In the tabernacle and later in the temple, the priests mediated between God and Israel by offering sacrifices to atone for the sins of the people. In their position of mediator, the priests were the only ones eligible to enter into the holy place, the place where God had made His presence known. When Jesus came, He came as the Mediator between man and God. Through Him we can be eligible to enter into God's holy presence.
2:6 ransom. The Greek word translated "ransom" is found only here in the New Testament. It specifically refers to a ransom paid for a slave.
2:7 in faith and truth. Paul was called not only to preach the gospel to the Gentiles, but also to guide their growth in truth.

Men and Women in the Church

8 I desire therefore that the men pray [l]everywhere, [m]lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting; 9 in like manner also, that the [n]women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with propriety and moderation, not with braided hair or gold or pearls or costly clothing, 10 [o]but, which is proper for women professing godliness, with good works. 11 Let a woman learn in silence with all submission. 12 And [p]I do not permit a woman to teach or to have authority over a man, but to be in silence. 13 For Adam was formed first, then Eve. 14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived, fell into transgression. 15 Nevertheless she will be saved in childbearing if they continue in faith, love, and holiness, with self-control.

Qualifications of Overseers

3 This is a faithful saying: If a man desires the position of a bishop,* he desires a good work. 2 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, temperate, sober-minded, of good behavior, hospitable, able to teach; 3 not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for money,* but gentle, not quarrelsome, not covetous; 4 one who rules his own house well, having his children in submission with all reverence 5 (for if a man does not know how to rule his own house, how will he take care of the church of God?); 6 not a novice, lest being puffed up with pride he fall into the same condemnation as the devil. 7 Moreover he must have a good testimony among

* 3:1 Literally overseer * 3:3 NU-Text omits not greedy for money.

2:8 men. The Greek word translated "men" in this verse refers specifically to males as distinguished from females. Some believe that this verse means specifically public worship, while others believe it refers to life in general. lifting up holy hands. This is a Hebrew way of praying (1 Kin. 8:22; Ps. 141:2). "Holy" means morally and spiritually clean.

2:9 in modest apparel. Modesty means more than just covering up enough. It means not flaunting one's wealth, or one's jewels, or one's name brands, as well as not flaunting one's body. propriety. This word means reverence and respect, shrinking away from what is inappropriate.

2:10 good works. A Christian woman's beauty should be found in her godly character and her love for the Lord as demonstrated in all types of good works.

2:11 in silence with all submission. These verses are not easy to understand, and there are many differences of opinion as to their meaning. The Scripture here does actually say just what it looks like: that women must be silent and submissive. It is universally accepted that this is referring to times of public worship, although the Bible makes it clear that a woman must submit to her husband (Eph. 5:22; Col. 3:18), but the concept of submission also applies to all believers. Philippians 4:5 says, "Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is at hand." Being submissive means not being unruly or argumentative. There are times when it is proper for a woman to teach, pray, or prophesy (1 Cor. 11), but apparently this is not supposed to happen in public worship.

2:12 to teach or to have authority. It seems best to understand this passage as saying that women may exercise their spiritual gifts in a variety of ministries in the local assembly, as long as those gifts are exercised under the appropriate leadership of men. We have problems understanding the roles of men and women in the church. Often we want to ignore the subject altogether and say that men and women are entirely equal, the alternative being that men become despotic and tyrannical, while women become spiritually weak with no teaching and no opportunity to use their God-given gifts. Men and women are equal in God's eyes in terms of their value as people and eligibility for spiritual growth and relationship with God, but He created this difference in roles. Many tend to feel that this role difference is because of the fall, but God did create men and women to be different. The mess and confusion we have with our God-given positions is the result of the fall.

2:14 Adam was not deceived. This seems to point to the fact that Adam sinned with his eyes open; he knew what he was doing. Eve sinned because she was deceived. Paul's arguments from creation and the fall seem to indicate that the prohibitions in verses 9–12 are permanent, not cultural.

2:15 will be saved in childbearing. This is a very difficult verse to understand and no one agrees about what it means. We know that it does not mean "saved" in terms of receiving eternal life, because the Bible elsewhere makes it very clear we are saved by faith alone (John 3:15–18; Rom. 1:16–17; 3:23–26). Some think that it has to do with daily sanctification and the woman's special task of bearing children. Others say it is referring to being delivered from the desire to dominate by recognizing one's appropriate place in God's creation order. Still others believe that it refers specifically to the birth of Jesus Christ, the seed born of woman prophesied in Genesis 3:15.

3:1 bishop. This means a person who oversees a congregation. The words "bishop" and "elder" are used interchangeably for the same office (Titus 1:5–7).

3:2 blameless. The idea is not that an overseer is sinless, but that he displays mature consistent Christian conduct that gives no reason for anyone to accuse him of anything. husband of one wife. This phrase is also subject to much disagreement. Many feel that it means "a one-woman kind of man," indicating a lifestyle of fidelity. Others feel that it is more specific, and prohibits a divorced and remarried man from the elder position. Certainly it is an exclusion of anyone who is sexually immoral or a polygamist.

3:3 violent. An overseer is not to be a quarrelsome man.

3:7 good testimony. An overseer must have a good reputation in the community. A non-Christian should not be able to reproach or insult an elder because of his behavior. The elder's good testimony avoids the traps of Satan.

2:8 l Luke 23:34 m Ps. 134:2 2:9 n 1 Pet. 3:3 2:10 o 1 Pet. 3:4 2:12 p 1 Cor. 14:34

Qualifications of Deacons

8 Likewise deacons must be reverent, not double-tongued, [b]not given to much wine,
not greedy for money, 9 holding the mystery of the faith with a pure conscience. 10 But let these also first be tested; then let them
serve as deacons, being found blameless.
11 Likewise, their wives must be reverent,
not slanderers, temperate, faithful in all things. 12 Let deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. 13 For those who have served well as deacons [c]obtain for themselves a good standing and great boldness
in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

The Great Mystery

14 These things I write to you, though I hope to come to you shortly; 15 but if I am delayed, I write so that you may know how you ought to conduct yourself in the house
of God, which is the church of the living
God, the pillar and ground of the truth.
16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness:

[d]God* was manifested in the flesh,
[e]Justified in the Spirit,
[f]Seen by angels,
[g]Preached among the Gentiles,
[h]Believed on in the world,
[i]Received up in glory.

The Great Apostasy

4 Now the Spirit expressly says that in latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed [a]to deceiving spirits and doctrines of demons, 2 [b]speaking lies in hypocrisy, having their own conscience [c]seared with a hot iron, 3 forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. 4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be refused
if it is received with thanksgiving; 5 for it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

A Good Servant of Jesus Christ

6 If you instruct the brethren in these things, you will be a good minister of Jesus Christ, [d]nourished in the words of faith and of the good doctrine which you have carefully followed. 7 But [e]reject profane and old wives' fables, and [f]exercise yourself toward godliness. 8 For [g]bodily exercise profits a little, but godliness is profitable for all things, [h]having promise of the life that now is and of that which is to come. 9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance. 10 For to this end we both labor and suffer reproach,* because we trust in the living God, [i]who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe. 11 These things command and teach.

* 3:16 NU-Text reads Who. * 4:10 NU-Text reads we labor and strive.

3:8 deacons. Deacons fill a second leadership position in the local assembly. The Greek word for deacon means "servant." not double-tongued. This speaks specifically of the dangers of gossip, especially changing sides or changing a story to fit the audience.
3:9 mystery of the faith. The mystery of the faith is the coming of God in the flesh (v. 16). The Son of God becoming a human in order to serve humanity (Mark 10:43–45) is the embodiment of service.
3:11 their wives. Some believe here that Paul is speaking of another office in the local body, that of "deaconess," godly women who serve under the leadership of the elders. Others, however, believe that this verse refers to the wives of the deacons, and not to an office. It could be assumed that both are true, and that the deacon and his wife are supposed to work together as a team, serving the church. The original language leaves the verse open to interpretation, since the Greek uses one word to mean both woman and wife.
3:15 pillar and ground of the truth. Misconduct and disorder in the local church weaken the support of God's truth in the world. We as believers have a tremendous responsibility to keep the name of our Lord without spot or criticism from the nonbelieving world.
3:16 manifested in the flesh. This refers to Christ's incarnation, the fact that Jesus became man (John 1:14). Justified in the Spirit. This is the work of the Holy Spirit in Jesus' ministry and resurrection (Matt. 3:15–17; John 16:7–10; Rom. 1:4). Seen by angels. This refers to the angelic witness of Christ's ministry and resurrection. Preached among the Gentiles. This refers to the preaching of Christ to the Gentiles (Col. 1:23). Believed on in the world. This is the response of individuals to God's plan of salvation (Col. 1:18–25). Received up in glory. Christ ascended to heaven and is seated at God's right hand there (Acts 1:9; Heb. 1:3–4).
4:1 the Spirit expressly says. When Paul speaks of the Holy Spirit's words here, he may be referring to various prophecies inspired by the Holy Spirit concerning defection from God's truth (Dan. 7:25; 8:23; Matt. 24:4–12), or also he may have been referring to a revelation the Spirit had given him.
4:5 sanctified. Sanctified means "set apart," or "made holy." Paul is saying that God has sanctified all the good things He created, from marriage to the food we eat. Nothing is less in accord with God than to begin forbidding the good things He made for us.
4:7 old wives' fables. This is not to say that such fables are appropriate for old women either. Paul is merely using the term "old wives' fables" to describe the superstitions and thoughtless beliefs that were prevalent.
4:8 profits a little. This contrasts the short-term value of physical exercise with the long-term benefits of godliness for all things.
4:10 Savior of all men. This describes God as the One who gives life, breath, and existence to all.

Take Heed to Your Ministry

12 Let no one despise your youth, but be an [j]example to the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit,* in faith, in purity. 13 Till I come, give attention to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. 14 [k]Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy [l]with the laying on
of the hands of the eldership. 15 Meditate on these things; give yourself entirely to them, that your progress may be evident to all.
16 Take heed to yourself and to the doctrine.
Continue in them, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

Treatment of Church Members

5 Do not rebuke an older man, but exhort him as a father, younger men as brothers, 2 older women as mothers, younger women as sisters, with all purity.

Honor True Widows

3 Honor widows who are really widows.
4 But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them first learn to show piety at home and [a]to repay their parents; for this is good and* acceptable before God.
5 Now she who is really a widow, and left alone, trusts in God and continues in supplications and prayers [b]night and day. 6 But she who lives in pleasure is dead while she lives. 7 And these things command, that they may be blameless. 8 But if anyone does not provide for his own, [c]and especially for those of his household, [d]he has denied the faith [e]and is worse than an unbeliever.

9 Do not let a widow under sixty years old be taken into the number, and not unless
she has been the wife of one man, 10 well reported for good works: if she has brought up children, if she has lodged strangers, if she has washed the saints' feet, if she has relieved the afflicted, if she has diligently followed every good work.

11 But refuse the younger widows; for
when they have begun to grow wanton against Christ, they desire to marry, 12 having condemnation because they have cast off their first faith. 13 And besides they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house, and not only idle but also gossips
and busybodies, saying things which they ought not. 14 Therefore I desire that the younger widows marry, bear children,
manage the house, give no opportunity
to the adversary to speak reproachfully.
15 For some have already turned aside after Satan. 16 If any believing man or* woman has widows, let them relieve them, and do not let the church be burdened, that it may relieve those who are really widows.

Honor the Elders

17 Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and doctrine. 18 For the Scripture says, [f]"You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain,"* and,
[g]"The laborer is worthy of his wages."*
19 Do not receive an accusation against an elder except [h]from two or three witnesses. 20 Those who are sinning rebuke in the presence of all, that the rest also may fear.

* 4:12 NU-Text omits in spirit. * 5:4 NU-Text and M-Text omit good and. * 5:16 NU-Text omits man or. * 5:18 Deuteronomy 25:4 • Luke 10:7

4:12 be an example. Timothy, in spite of youth, was to set an example in five areas: "in word," meaning his speech; "in conduct," or behavior; "in love, in spirit" which is the love of God; "in faith," meaning trust in God; "in purity," both in thought and action. These are qualities every believer should strive after, practice, and desire.

4:16 save both yourself. This is not a reference to justification by works, but to sanctification, which is the Christian's daily walk of faith (Mark 8:34–38; John 12:25–26). Timothy's example and hard work in teaching would serve to help others with their walk also.

5:2 all purity. Believing men must respect the purity of a young woman as the purity of a sister.

5:3 really widows. This refers to a woman who when widowed is left with no family at all, as opposed to those widows who still have living children or other relations.

5:4 show piety at home. Piety is respect, reverence, or obligation. Honoring our parents includes caring for them physically and financially as they grow older.

5:8 does not provide for his own. A believer is to provide for his family and this seems to include any of his relatives that need help. Failure to do this denies the faith he has said to believe in and smirches the name of Christianity.

5:9 taken into the number. Many believe the list referred to here was a list of widows whom the church was to assist. Some have maintained that this was an official order of widows. These women were to pray for the church and practice works of charity (vv. 5,10).

5:13–14 idle . . . gossips and busybodies. An old saying tells us, "Idle hands are the devil's workshop." Do not allow yourself to become so idle that you begin to gossip. As odd as it may sound, it will happen. Employ yourself with the tasks God has set before you. Look around. There are lots of things we as believers should be doing.

5:18 Scripture says. Paul quotes two passages: Deuteronomy 25:4 and Luke 10:7. The quotation from Luke is especially interesting as it shows that Paul considered the Gospels to be Scripture as well as the Old Testament.

5:19 an accusation against an elder. Charges against elders are to be factual, not based on a single opinion or rumor.

5:20 Those who are sinning. This seems to refer to elders who fail in their leadership, whether in the church, in their social relationships, or in their home life. Public rebuke is to serve as a warning to other

Lord Jesus Christ and the elect angels that you observe these things without [i]prejudice, doing nothing with partiality.
22Do not lay hands on anyone hastily, nor [j]share in other people's sins; keep yourself pure.

23No longer drink only water, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your frequent infirmities.

24Some men's sins are [k]clearly evident, preceding them to judgment, but those of some men follow later. 25Likewise, the good works of some are clearly evident,
and those that are otherwise cannot be hidden.

Honor Masters

6 Let as many [a]bondservants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, so that the name of God and His doctrine may not be blas-phemed. 2And those who have believing masters, let them not despise them because they are brethren, but rather serve them because those who are benefited are believers and beloved. Teach and exhort these things.

Error and Greed

3If anyone teaches otherwise and does not consent to [b]wholesome words, even
the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, [c]and to the doctrine which accords with godliness, 4he is proud, knowing nothing, but is obsessed with disputes and arguments
over words, from which come envy, strife,
reviling, evil suspicions, 5useless wranglings* of men of corrupt minds and destitute of the truth, who suppose that godliness is a means of gain. From [d]such withdraw yourself.*

6Now godliness with [e]contentment
is great gain. 7For we brought nothing into this world, and it is [f]certain* we can carry nothing out. 8And having food and clothing, with these we shall be [g]content. 9But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and harmful lusts which
drown men in destruction and perdition.
10For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, for which some have strayed from the faith in their greediness, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

The Good Confession

11But you, O man of God, flee these things and pursue righteousness, god-liness, faith, love, patience, gentleness.
12Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, to which you were also called and have confessed the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. 13I urge you in the sight of God
who gives life to all things, and before Christ Jesus [h]who witnessed the good confession before Pontius Pilate, 14that
you keep this commandment without spot, blameless until our Lord Jesus Christ's appearing, 15which He will manifest in His own time, He who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings and Lord of lords, 16who alone has immortality, dwelling in [i]unapproachable light, [j]whom no man has seen or can see, believers. Sin is a serious matter, especially for those who are in leadership, setting an example for others (1 Pet. 4:14).

5:22 hastily. This verse is believed to be warning against too quickly restoring a leader who has fallen. Correction in love and restoration to fellowship should occur as soon as possible, but restoration to leadership should not be made without time and biblical evaluation. Not only does this apply to former leaders, it is a caution not to share responsibility for someone else's sins by restoring or appointing someone who is not qualified.

5:25 evident . . . cannot be hidden. Unnoticed good works always come to light, if not in this life, at the judgment seat, but even sins hidden from men cannot be concealed from God.

6:1 bondservants. This serves as an example of how believers should act in the workplace. We are Christians, who are to represent our faith, and Christ Himself. If we do this badly, we minimize not only our faith, but the power and testimony of Christ.

6:2 these things. "These things" probably are best understood as the contents of the entire letter to Timothy.

6:9 those who desire to be rich. Inside of every man there is a "God-shaped void." Many unbelievers try to fill this inner longing with wealth and possessions. Greed drives people to temptation and foolish and harmful desires. This is not an ailment of unbelievers only. Many believers also try to gain material things rather than the imperishable things of righteousness, godliness, faith, love, perseverance, and gentleness (v. 11). These are the things we should pursue with all of our being.

6:10 love of money. Money in and of itself is not a problem, but the love of money is. Christians can be so blinded by greed that they no longer see the need for holy living. A life focused on material things brings only pain.

6:12 lay hold on eternal life. Use the hope of everlasting life with the Savior as your lifeline, your comfort, and your guide.

6:14 our Lord Jesus Christ's appearing. The imminent return of Christ should be a motive for godly living (1 John 2:28).

6:16 immortality. This may also be translated "without death." The glorified Christ can never die.

Instructions to the Rich

17 Command those who are rich in this present age not to be haughty, nor to trust in uncertain [k]riches but in the living God, who gives us richly all things [l]to enjoy. 18 Let them do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to give, willing to share, 19 [m]storing up for themselves a good foundation for the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

Guard the Faith

20 O Timothy! [n]Guard what was committed to your trust, [o]avoiding the profane and idle babblings and contradictions of what is falsely called knowledge— 21 by professing it some have strayed concerning the faith.

Grace be with you. Amen.

6:20 falsely called knowledge. Gnosticism (from the Greek word for knowledge) is a heresy that teaches that salvation comes through secret knowledge of spiritual mysteries.

6:21 Grace be with you. The Greek word for "you" here is plural, including the whole church. God's grace to us as sinners is indeed amazing.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY

▶ AUTHOR: Fearing for their own lives, the Asian believers failed to support Paul after this second Roman imprisonment and his first defense before the imperial court (1:15; 4:16). Now he was in a cold Roman cell (4:13) without hope of acquittal in spite of the success of his initial defense. Under these conditions, Paul wrote this epistle in the fall of A.D. 67, hoping that Timothy would be able to visit him before the approaching winter (4:21).

▶ TIME: C. A.D. 66–67 ▶ KEY VERSES: 2 Tim. 3:14–17

▶ THEME: This is likely the last of Paul's writings that we have. He writes this letter from a prison cell where he is being kept like a common criminal. He knows that his work on earth is nearing its conclusion, and these are then his last words of counsel to his trusted companion in ministry. One can sense his weariness, but also his strongly held conviction about what is necessary for the continued growth of the church. One can also clearly see the hope that sustains him as he looks forward to going home to Christ.

Greeting

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ* by the will of God, according to the [a]promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,

2 To Timothy, a [b]beloved son:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

Timothy's Faith and Heritage

3 I thank God, whom I serve with a pure conscience, as my [c]forefathers did, as without ceasing I remember you in my prayers night and day, 4 greatly desiring to see you, being mindful of your tears, that I may be filled with joy, 5 when I call to remembrance [d]the genuine faith that is in you, which dwelt first in your grandmother Lois and [e]your mother Eunice, and I am persuaded is in you also. 6 Therefore I remind you [f]to stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands. 7 For [g]God has not given us a spirit of fear, [h]but of power and of love and of a sound mind.

Not Ashamed of the Gospel

8 [i]Therefore do not be ashamed of [j]the testimony of our Lord, nor of me [k]His prisoner, but share with me in the sufferings for the gospel according to the power of God, 9 who has saved us and called us with a holy calling, [l]not according to our works, but [m]according to His own purpose and grace which was given to us in Christ Jesus [n]before time began, 10 but [o]has now been revealed by the appearing of our Savior Jesus Christ, who has abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel, 11 [p]to which I was appointed a preacher, an apostle, and a

* 1:1 NU-Text and M-Text read Christ Jesus.

1:1 the promise of life. This message of life stands in ironic contrast to the fact that Paul was writing from a Roman prison, facing his execution.
1:3 my forefathers. Paul's forefathers were the patriarchs of the faith: Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Paul had great love for Israel (Rom. 9:1–5). The reason that he connects himself to Israel's forefathers may be to demonstrate that he is not advocating a new religion but one of which the godly of the past are also a part.
1:5 Lois . . . Eunice. The prayers, witness, and faith of his godly mother and grandmother were central factors in the spiritual development of Timothy (1 Tim. 2:15).
1:8 do not be ashamed of the testimony. Testimony is the witness of the Lord; the Greek term is the source of the English word martyr. Church tradition says that most of the apostles died as martyrs.
1:9 not according to our works. It is impossible for people to earn their way into heaven. Salvation is by grace, the unearned and undeserved favor of God.
1:10 abolished death. Knowing that leaving our earthly bodies simply means that we will live forever with the Lord effectively robs death of its dread. The same gospel that offers us the forgiveness of sins and draws us to holy living also announces life and immortality. Believing the gospel, we begin to live in the power of an endless life (1 John 5:11–13,20).

teacher of the Gentiles.* 12For this reason I also suffer these things; nevertheless I am not ashamed, [q]for I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to keep what I have committed to Him until that Day.

Be Loyal to the Faith

13[r]Hold fast [s]the pattern of [t]sound words which you have heard from me, in faith and love which are in Christ Jesus. 14That good thing which was committed to you, keep by the Holy Spirit who dwells in us.

15This you know, that all those in Asia have turned away from me, among whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes. 16The Lord grant mercy to the [u]household of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain; 17but when he arrived in Rome, he sought me out very zealously and found me. 18The Lord [v]grant to him that he may find mercy from the Lord [w]in that Day—and you know very well how many ways he [x]ministered *to me at Ephesus.

Be Strong in Grace

2 You therefore, [a]my son, [b]be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. 2And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also. 3You therefore must [c]endure* hardship [d]as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. 4[e]No one engaged in warfare entangles himself with the affairs of this life, that he may please him who enlisted him as a soldier. 5And also [f]if anyone competes in athletics, he is not crowned unless he competes according to the rules. 6The hardworking farmer must be first to partake of the crops. 7Consider what I say, and may* the Lord [g]give you understanding in all things.

8Remember that Jesus Christ, [h]of the seed of David, [i]was raised from the dead [j]according to my gospel, 9[k]for which I suffer trouble as an evildoer, [l]even to the point of chains; [m]but the word of God is not chained. 10Therefore [n]I endure all things for the sake of the elect, [o]that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

11*This is* a faithful saying:

For [p]if we died with Him,
We shall also live with Him.
12 [q]If we endure,
We shall also reign with Him.
[r]If we deny Him,
He also will deny us.
13 If we are faithless,
He remains faithful;
He [s]cannot deny Himself.

Approved and Disapproved Workers

14Remind them of these things, [t]charging them before the Lord not to strive about words to no profit, to the ruin of the hearers. 15[u]Be diligent to present yourself approved to God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. 16But shun profane and idle babblings, for they will increase to more ungodliness. 17And their message will spread like cancer. [v]Hymenaeus and Philetus are of this sort, 18who have strayed concerning the truth, [w]saying that the resurrection is already past; and they overthrow the faith of some. 19Nevertheless [x]the solid foundation of God stands, having this seal: "The Lord [y]knows those

* 1:11 NU-Text omits of the Gentiles. * 1:18 To me is from the Vulgate and a few Greek manuscripts. * 2:3 NU-Text reads You must share. * 2:7 NU-Text reads the Lord will give you.

1:12 what I have committed. It is certain that God will keep our "deposit" safe. Paul was preparing for imminent death, but in spite of this he was hopeful. He had spent his time, resources, and even his life proclaiming the gospel, and this investment in Christ's kingdom would bring him an abundant reward in eternity (Luke 19:15; 1 Cor. 3:10–15; Rev. 11:15,18).

1:14 That good thing. This is the truth of the kingdom of God (Matt. 13:44–45; 1 Tim. 6:20).

2:1 strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. The emphasis is on the strength of Christ, not on Timothy's own power. If we trust in ourselves, we are doomed to fail.

2:2 commit these to faithful men. Since the time of Christ, there has been an endless chain of Christian discipleship (Matt. 28:18–20).

2:8 seed of David. Jesus is the fulfillment of all the promises that God gave to David (2 Sam. 7:11–16).

2:11 if we died . . . shall also live. Believers are united with Christ in His death and resurrection (Rom. 6:3–11).

2:12 If we endure. Persevering in our faith, even in the face of hardship or persecution, will result in a reward when Christ returns (Luke 19:11–27; Rom. 8:17; Rev. 3:21).

2:13 faithless. This word describes an immature believer who lives for self and not for the Savior (1 Cor. 3:1–3,15). He remains faithful. For Christ to abandon us would be contrary to His faithful nature (John 10:27–30; Heb. 10:23; 13:5).

2:15 Be diligent. The position of teaching God's word is a position of great responsibility, not to be taken lightly (James 3:1).

2:18 already past. This was probably an early form of Gnosticism, a body of teaching which emphasized the "spiritual," and considered the physical world and the human body unreal and unimportant.

who are His," and, "Let everyone who names the name of Christ* depart from iniquity."

20But in a great house there are not only [z]vessels of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay, some for honor and some for dishonor. 21Therefore if anyone cleanses himself from the latter, he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified and useful for the Master, [a]prepared for every good work. 22[b]Flee also youthful lusts; but pursue righteousness, faith, love, peace with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart. 23But avoid foolish and ignorant disputes, knowing that they generate strife. 24And [c]a servant of the Lord must not quarrel but be gentle to all, [d]able to teach, [e]patient, 25[f]in humility correcting those who are in opposition, [g]if God perhaps will grant them repentance, [h]so that they may know the truth, 26and that they may come to their senses and [i]escape the snare of the devil, having been taken captive by him to do his will.

Perilous Times and Perilous Men

3 But know this, that [a]in the last days perilous times will come: 2For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, 3unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, 4[b]traitors, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, 5[c]having a form of godliness but [d]denying its power. And [e]from such people turn away! 6For [f]of this sort are those who creep into households and make captives of gullible women loaded down with sins, led away by various lusts, 7always learning and never able [g]to come to the knowledge of the truth. 8[h]Now as Jannes and Jambres resisted Moses, so do these also resist the truth: [i]men of corrupt minds, [j]disapproved concerning the faith; 9but they will progress no further, for their folly will be manifest to all, [k]as theirs also was.

The Man of God and the Word of God

10[l]But you have carefully followed my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, love, perseverance, 11persecutions, afflictions, which happened to me [m]at Antioch, [n]at Iconium, [o]at Lystra—what persecutions I endured. And [p]out of them all the Lord delivered me. 12Yes, and [q]all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. 13[r]But evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. 14But you must [s]continue in the things which you have learned and been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them, 15and that from childhood you have known [t]the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

16[u]All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, [v]and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, 17[w]that the man of God may be complete, [x]thoroughly equipped for every good work.

* 2:19 NU-Text and M-Text read the Lord.

2:21 Master. This is a strong term for God's authority over the lives of believers, regardless of their level of spiritual maturity.

2:22 Flee . . . pursue. When we run toward righteousness, we are running away from sin. The two are completely opposite, and a person cannot follow both at once.

2:25 in humility correcting. The aim of instruction is repentance or a change of thinking, not self-justification or the pleasure of argument.

2:26 come to their senses. False teaching has an intoxicating effect that dulls the mind to God's truth.

3:5 a form of godliness. This is an outward appearance of reverence for God. Denying its power describes religious activity that is not connected to a living relationship with Jesus Christ. This kind of religion provokes God's anger (Is. 1:10–18; Matt. 23:25–28).

3:8 Jannes and Jambres. They are not named in the Old Testament, but according to Jewish tradition, Jannes and Jambres were two of the Egyptian magicians who opposed Moses (Ex. 7:11).

3:12 will suffer persecution. God does not promise deliverance from persecution, but deliverance through it. Persecution is one of the means that God uses to bring about our growth and sanctification (2:12; Matt. 5:10–12; Rev. 2:10).

3:16 inspiration of God. This is literally "God-breathed." Scripture was freely produced by human writers, but the original Author is God Himself. God "breathed out" the Scriptures so that they are not only human words, but simultaneously and ultimately the very utterances of God. Thus, Scripture is true in all that it affirms and is completely authoritative (1 Pet. 1:20–21). The Bible not only "contains God's words," it is God's Word. Therefore the Scriptures are fully consistent and inerrant, authoritative and trustworthy.

3:17 every good work. Paul emphasizes the essential link between knowing God's Word and applying it to one's daily life. Right doctrine should produce right practice.

Preach the Word

4 I [a]charge you therefore before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, [b]who will judge the living and the dead at* His appearing and His kingdom: 2Preach the word! Be ready in season and out of season. [c]Convince, [d]rebuke, [e]exhort, with all longsuffering and teaching. 3[f]For the time will come when they will not endure [g]sound doctrine, [h]but according to their own desires, because they have itching ears, they will heap up for themselves teachers; 4and they will turn their ears away from the truth, and [i]be turned aside to fables. 5But you be watchful in all things, [j]endure afflictions, do the work of [k]an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.

Paul's Valedictory

6For [l]I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of [m]my departure is at hand. 7[n]I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. 8Finally, there is laid up for me [o]the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous [p]Judge, will give to me [q]on that Day, and not to me only but also to all who have loved His appearing.

The Abandoned Apostle

9Be diligent to come to me quickly; 10for [r]Demas has forsaken me, [s]having loved this present world, and has departed for Thessalonica—Crescens for Galatia, Titus for Dalmatia. 11Only Luke is with me. Get [t]Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful to me for ministry. 12And [u]Tychicus I have sent to Ephesus. 13Bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas when you come—and the books, especially the parchments.

14[v]Alexander the coppersmith did me much harm. May the Lord repay him according to his works. 15You also must beware of him, for he has greatly resisted our words.

16At my first defense no one stood with me, but all forsook me. [w]May it not be charged against them.

The Lord Is Faithful

17[x]But the Lord stood with me and strengthened me, [y]so that the message might be preached fully through me, and that all the Gentiles might hear. Also I was delivered [z]out of the mouth of the lion. 18[a]And the Lord will deliver me from every evil work and preserve me for His heavenly kingdom. [b]To Him be glory forever and ever. Amen!

Come Before Winter

19Greet [c]Prisca and Aquila, and the household of [d]Onesiphorus. 20[e]Erastus stayed in Corinth, but [f]Trophimus I have left in Miletus sick.

21Do your utmost to come before winter.

Eubulus greets you, as well as Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brethren.

Farewell

22The Lord Jesus Christ* be with your spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

---

* 4:1 NU-Text omits therefore and reads and by for at. * 4:22 NU-Text omits Jesus Christ.

4:2 longsuffering. Longsuffering and doctrine are two necessary components of an effective ministry. True spiritual growth occurs over a period of time, through consistent teaching and application of God's Word.

4:6 drink offering. An offering performed by pouring wine out on the ground or altar (Num. 28:11–31). Paul's life was already being poured out in service to Christ.

4:7 fought the good fight. Paul did not make these comments until the end of his race, when he was about to die. He did not presume or rely on his past service. Instead, he persevered, struggled, and served God until the end (1 Cor. 9:24–27).

4:8 loved His appearing. These are the believers who have lived faithfully in the hope of His return (Titus 2:11–15; 1 John 2:28).

4:11 Mark. Mark's desertion of Paul in Pamphylia on his first missionary journey had led to the separation of Paul and Barnabas at the beginning of Paul's second missionary journey (Acts 15:36–40). Later Paul and Mark were reconciled, and Mark served Paul in the ministry (Col. 4:10). It is believed that Mark later wrote the Gospel of Mark.

4:12 Tychicus. Tychicus was Paul's faithful co-worker (Acts 20:4; Eph. 6:21; Col. 4:7).

4:14 Alexander. This may be the person named in 1 Timothy 1:20 or Acts 19:33, who caused harm to Paul's ministry in Ephesus.

4:19 Prisca and Aquila. Prisca is a form of the name Priscilla. Paul had met Priscilla and Aquila in Corinth on his second missionary journey (Acts 18:1–3), and they had assisted in God's work in Ephesus (Acts 18:18–19).

4:20 Trophimus. Trophimus, a member of the church of Ephesus (Acts 21:29), had traveled with Paul to Jerusalem (Acts 20:4).

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TITUS

▶ AUTHOR: Titus was one of Paul's Gentile converts. He probably worked with Paul during his time at Ephesus on his third missionary journey. Later he also worked in Corinth and this letter indicates that Paul is commissioning him to work on the island of Crete. Paul wrote this letter about A.D. 63, perhaps from Corinth, taking advantage of the journey of Zenas and Apollos (3:13), whose destination would take them by way of Crete.

▶ TIME: C. A.D. 63 ▶ KEY VERSE: Titus 3:8

▶ THEME: Paul's instructions to Titus are similar to those he gives to Timothy. He gives him instructions about the leadership and organization of the church and guidance in dealing with the opposition of those who would contradict his teaching. His tone is that of a seasoned leader passing on the essential instructions to a valued disciple.

Greeting

1 Paul, a bondservant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect and [a]the acknowledgment of the truth [b]which accords with godliness, 2in hope of eternal life which God, who [c]cannot lie, promised before time began, 3but has in due time manifested His word through preaching, which was committed to me according to the commandment of God our Savior;

4To [d]Titus, a true son in our common faith:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ* our Savior.

Qualified Elders

5For this reason I left you in Crete, that you should [e]set in order the things that are lacking, and appoint elders in every city as I commanded you— 6if a man is blameless, the husband of one wife, [f]having faithful children not accused of dissipation or insubordination. 7For a bishop* must be blameless, as a steward of God, not self-willed, not quick-tempered, [g]not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for money, 8but hospitable, a lover of what is good, sober-minded, just, holy, self-controlled,

* 1:4 NU-Text reads and Christ Jesus. * 1:7 Literally overseer

1:2 We Can Trust God—Often Christians will doubt our position with God simply because we do not feel saved. We don't understand that the basis for our standing is the promise of God and not emotional feelings. One helpful way to see these promises is in relation to the Trinity:

1. The promise and work of the Father. He has promised to graciously accept in Christ all repenting sinners (Eph. 1:6 and Col. 3:3). This means a Christian has the right to be in heaven someday, for he is in Christ. God guarantees us that He will work out all things for our ultimate good (Rom. 8:28).

2. The promise and work of the Son. He has promised us eternal life (John 5:24) and abundant life (John 10:10). This promise covers not only our final destiny in heaven, but also our present Christian service here on earth. He is, in fact, right now praying for us and ministering to us at His Father's right hand (Heb. 8:1; 9:24).

3. The promise and work of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is said to indwell the believer (John 14:16). In addition, He places all believing sinners into the body of Christ, thus assuring us of union with God's family (1 Cor. 12:13).

1:3 preaching. Paul places the emphasis on the message, not on the messenger. Christ is the center of our faith, not any one preacher (1 Cor. 9:16; 2 Cor. 4:5).

1:5 appoint elders. The Greek words for "elder" and "bishop" (literally, overseer) seem to have been used interchangeably by Paul (v. 7). "Elder" perhaps speaks more of the office and its authority, while "bishop" may speak more of the person's function and the ministry of oversight (Acts 20:17).

1:6 husband of one wife. The exact application of this phrase is debated; some believe that it merely forbids polygamy, while others believe that it also prohibits a man who is divorced and remarried. It is clearly emphasizing the importance of marital faithfulness (Matt. 19:5). faithful children. The man must have a good relationship with his wife, and he should also have children who demonstrate faithfulness to God. If a man has children who reject the ways of God, or who are out of control, this reflects on the father's ability to lead others outside his home.

9holding fast the faithful word as he has been taught, that he may be able, by sound doctrine, both to exhort and convict those who contradict.

The Elders' Task

10For there are many insubordinate,
both idle [h]talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision, 11whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole households, teaching things which they ought not, [i]for the sake of dishonest gain. 12[j]One of them, a prophet of their own, said, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons." 13This testimony is true. [k]Therefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, 14not giving heed to Jewish fables and [l]commandments of men who turn from the truth. 15[m]To the pure all things are pure, but to those who are defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure; but even their mind and conscience
are defiled. 16They profess to [n]know God,
but [o]in works they deny Him, being abominable, disobedient, [p]and disqualified for every good work.

Qualities of a Sound Church

2 But as for you, speak the things which are proper for sound doctrine: 2that the older men be sober, reverent, temperate,
sound in faith, in love, in patience; 3the older women likewise, that they be reverent in behavior, not slanderers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things— 4that they admonish the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, 5*to be* discreet, chaste, [q]homemakers, good, [b]obedient to their own husbands, [c]that the word of God may not be blasphemed.

6Likewise, exhort the young men to be sober-minded, 7in all things showing yourself to be [d]a pattern of good works; in doctrine showing integrity, reverence, [e]incorruptibility,* 8sound speech that cannot be condemned, that one who is an opponent may be ashamed, having nothing evil
to say of you.*

9*Exhort* [f]bondservants to be obedient to their own masters, to be well pleasing in all things, not answering back, 10not pilfering,
but showing all good fidelity, that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior in all things.

Trained by Saving Grace

11For [g]the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men, 12teaching
us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in the present age, 13[h]looking for the blessed [i]hope and glorious appearing of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ,

*2:7 NU-Text omits incorruptibility. *2:8 NU-Text and M-Text read us.

1:9 convict. The word convict here means to rebuke in such a way as to produce repentance and confession of sin (John 16:8). A rebuke can have the positive results of producing change in a person's life.

1:10 those of the circumcision. Apparently there were Jewish Christians in the churches of Crete who were limiting the Christian freedom of Gentile Christians by requiring an adherence to Jewish laws (Gal. 3).

1:12 Cretans are always liars. Paul is quoting the Cretan poet Epimenides, who wrote these words around 600 B.C. The Cretans were so much regarded as liars in the Mediterranean world that the expression "to Cretanize" meant "to lie."

1:14 Jewish fables. These were probably legends about Old Testament figures, like some that survive to this day in non-biblical writings.

1:15 To the pure . . . to those who are defiled. Paul highlights the mistaken asceticism of the Cretan false teachers. They had identified certain foods and practices as defiled when in reality it was their minds that were defiled and unbelieving. On the other hand, to the pure, all things are pure. The Cretan believers had placed their trust in Christ, focusing their minds on Him, and therefore they would be empowered by God's Spirit to lead pure lives. Jesus taught the same principle in Matthew 15:11. Physical objects or external practices do not defile a person, but a mind focused on evil thoroughly corrupts.

2:1 sound doctrine. "Sound" means "healthy." Right thinking is the raw material for right actions (Ps. 119:11; Prov. 23:7; Rom. 12:2; James 1:13–15). Our actions will naturally reveal the direction of our thoughts.

2:2 older men. Maturity is not determined simply by age or even by how much a person knows; it is determined by how skilled a person is in applying the truth to life and in distinguishing good from evil (Heb. 5:13–14).

2:4 love their husbands . . . their children. This is not just romantic or emotional love, but the commitment of a woman to the welfare of her husband and children.

2:5 obedient to their own husbands. Women are not under the authority of men in general, but rather the authority of their own husbands (Eph. 5:21). not be blasphemed. The older women are to teach the younger women so that their actions will glorify God, build His kingdom, and strengthen the family. Failure to follow Paul's instructions will result in the word of God being maligned in the pagan community.

2:6 young men. Young men are to pursue the character qualities that older men should possess already.

2:7 pattern of good works. More people will learn from our daily actions than from what we say.

2:11 appeared. Christ came the first time in grace to save men from their sins; the second time He will come in glory to reign (v. 13).

2:13 looking for the blessed hope. Paul reminded Timothy that there is a special crown awaiting all who "have loved His appearing" (2 Tim. 4:8). great God and Savior Jesus Christ. This is one of the strongest statements of the deity of Christ in the New Testament.

14 [j]who gave Himself for us, that He might redeem us from every lawless deed [k]and purify for Himself [l]His own special people, zealous for good works.

15 Speak these things, [m]exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no one despise you.

Graces of the Heirs of Grace

3 Remind them [a]to be subject to rulers and authorities, to obey, [b]to be ready for 2 every good work, to speak evil of no one, to be peaceable, gentle, showing all humility to all men. 3 For [c]we ourselves were also once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful and hating one another. 4 But when [d]the kindness and the love of [e]God our Savior toward man appeared, 5 [f]not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us, through [g]the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit, 6 [h]whom He poured out on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior, 7 that having been justified by His grace [i]we should become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

8 [j]This is a faithful saying, and these things I want you to affirm constantly, that those who have believed in God should be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men.

Avoid Dissension

9 But [k]avoid foolish disputes, genealogies, contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and useless. 10 [l]Reject a divisive man after the first and second admonition, 11 knowing that such a person is warped and sinning, being self-condemned.

Final Messages

12 When I send Artemas to you, or [m]Tychicus, be diligent to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there. 13 Send Zenas the lawyer and [n]Apollos on their journey with haste, that they may lack nothing. 14 And let our people also learn to maintain good works, to meet urgent needs, that they may not be unfruitful.

Farewell

15 All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in the faith.

Grace be with you all. Amen.

2:14 redeem. "Redeem" means "to purchase." With His death on the cross, Christ paid the price to release us from the bondage of sin (Rom. 6:6–7,17,20; Eph. 1:7). God's purpose in redeeming us is not only to save us from hell; He also wants to free us from sin so that we can produce good works that glorify Him (Eph. 2:8–10).

3:1 Remind them. The Cretans notoriously lacked the virtue of good citizenship (1:12). Disobedience permeated the Cretan's lifestyle, both in the church (v. 10) and in government. Believers who got along with civil authorities and who lived peacefully with their neighbors would reflect positively on their faith and would glorify God.

3:5 not by works of righteousness. Paul has been exhorting Titus to emphasize good works in his ministry with the Cretans, and he wants to make it clear that such good works have no value in saving a person. It is solely on the basis of God's mercy that we are delivered from the penalty of our sin. washing of regeneration. This phrase refers to the work of the Holy Spirit, in whom we are "born again" (John 3:3,6), given a new nature and cleansed from old sin. renewing of the Holy Spirit. There are three works performed by the Holy Spirit in preparing nonbelievers to become Christians. (1) The Holy Spirit restrains. Satan would enjoy nothing more than to destroy people before they make their decision to accept Christ as Savior. But the Holy Spirit prevents this from occurring (Is. 59:19). (2) The Holy Spirit convicts. Mankind's sin and righteousness are exposed by the Holy Spirit (John 16:8). Two examples of such conviction are Felix, a Roman governor who "trembled" under conviction (Acts 24:25), and King Agrippa, who was almost persuaded in Acts 26:28. (3) The Holy Spirit regenerates. When a repenting sinner accepts Christ as Savior, he is given a new nature by the Holy Spirit (2 Cor. 5:17). Jesus carefully explained this ministry of the Holy Spirit to Nicodemus (John 3:3–7).

3:7 we should become heirs. God justifies believers so that they might become co-heirs with Jesus Christ in His coming reign (Rom. 8:17; 2 Tim. 2:12).

3:10 Reject a divisive man. A sinner must always be given ample opportunity to repent, but if he insists on continuing in sin, the church is required to let him go (Matt. 18:15–17; 2 Thess. 3:14–15).

3:12 Tychicus. Tychicus, one of Paul's assistants, is also mentioned in Acts 20:4; Ephesians 6:21; Colossians 4:7; 2 Timothy 4:12.

3:13 Apollos. Apollos was a fellow worker of Paul's (1 Cor. 16:12), an Alexandrian who had been taught by Priscilla and Aquila and who had eloquently preached the gospel at Ephesus and Corinth (Acts 18:24—19:1).

3:14 not be unfruitful. Justification is a free gift from God, but we will be rewarded according to what we do on this earth (Rev. 22:12). It would be tragedy to stand ashamed at Christ's return (1 John 2:28).

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO PHILEMON

▶ AUTHOR: Though some critics deny its authenticity, the general consensus of scholarship recognizes Philemon as Paul's work. There could have been no doctrinal motive for its forgery, and it is supported externally by consistent tradition and internally by no less than three references to Paul (Philem. 1,9,19).

▶ TIME: C. A.D. 60–61 ▶ KEY VERSES: Philem. 16–17

▶ THEME: Paul wrote this letter to a slave owner in the church at Colosse. Apparently, Onesimus, the slave of Philemon had stolen from him and had run away, an act punishable by death under Roman law. Onesimus had since met Paul and become a Christian. Paul's letter is a personal appeal in an effort to help them reconcile and renew their relationship.

Greeting

Paul, a [a]prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother,

To Philemon our beloved friend and fellow laborer, [2]to the beloved* Apphia, [b]Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church in your house:

[3]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philemon's Love and Faith

[4][c]I thank my God, making mention of you always in my prayers, [5][d]hearing of your love and faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus and toward all the saints, [6]that the sharing of your faith may become effective [e]by the acknowledgment of [f]every good thing which is in you* in Christ Jesus. [7]For we have* great joy* and consolation in your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed by you, brother.

The Plea for Onesimus

[8]Therefore, though I might be very bold in Christ to command you what is fitting, [9]yet for love's sake I rather appeal to you—being such a one as Paul, the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ— [10]I appeal to you for my son [g]Onesimus, whom I have begotten while in my chains, [11]who once was unprofitable to you, but now is profitable to you and to me.

[12]I am sending him back.* You therefore receive him, that is, my own heart, [13]whom I wished to keep with me, that on your behalf he might minister to me in my chains for the gospel. [14]But without your consent I wanted to do nothing, [h]that your good deed might not be by compulsion, as it were, but voluntary.

[15]For perhaps he departed for a while for this purpose, that you might receive him forever, [16]no longer as a slave but more than a slave—a beloved brother, especially to me but how much more to you, both in the [i]flesh and in the Lord.

* 2 NU-Text reads to our sister Apphia. * 6 NU-Text and M-Text read us. * 7 NU-Text reads had. • M-Text reads thanksgiving. * 12 NU-Text reads back to you in person, that is, my own heart.

1–2 To Philemon . . . and to the church. Paul addresses the letter to Philemon and the Colossian church, but this intensely personal epistle uses the singular "I" and "you," demonstrating that the letter is Paul's personal plea to Philemon. It was written at the same time as the letter to the Colossians, and doubtless carried by the same messenger.

2 Apphia . . . Archippus. Apphia may have been the wife of Philemon; Archippus may have been Philemon's son, or perhaps an elder in the Colossian church (Col. 4:17).

6 faith may become effective. Working faith is a sharing faith; it is the acknowledgment of what Christ has done in the believer's life (Eph. 3:17–19).

9 Paul, the aged. The apostle is either speaking of his old age, or of the office of an elder.

11 unprofitable . . . profitable. Paul uses an interesting play on words here. Having mentioned Onesimus, whose name means "useful," the apostle describes him as someone who was formerly useless, but who has become useful through the work of Christ in his life.

14 not . . . by compulsion. Service for Christ is never forced. Paul has given Philemon several good reasons to forgive Onesimus, but here he returns to the foundation of his argument: Philemon's actions must proceed from his own love (v. 9).

Philemon's Obedience Encouraged

17 If then you count me as a partner, receive him as you would me. 18 But if he has wronged you or owes anything, put that on my account. 19 I, Paul, am writing with my own [j]hand. I will repay—not to mention to you that you owe me even your own self besides. 20 Yes, brother, let me have joy from you in the Lord; refresh my heart in the Lord.

21 [k]Having confidence in your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say. 22 But, meanwhile, also prepare a guest room for me, for [l]I trust that [m]through your prayers I shall be granted to you.

Farewell

23 [n]Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you, 24 as do [o]Mark, [p]Aristarchus, [q]Demas, [r]Luke, my fellow laborers.

25 [s]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

---

18 wronged you. Onesimus had probably stolen something from Philemon when he left. put that on my account. This accounting imagery reminds us of the theological truth that our sins were charged over to Christ even though He had not earned them. Forgiveness is costly (Is. 53:6).

19 my own hand. Paul wrote this personal letter himself, and therefore it could be considered a legal document obligating him to pay the damages that Onesimus had caused.

22 prepare a guest room. It is believed that Paul wrote this letter during his imprisonment in Rome (Acts 28), and that he was released shortly afterwards. He was probably not at liberty for very long, but it is possible that he was able to visit Colosse before his second imprisonment and execution.

23–24 Epaphras . . . Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, Luke. These five co-workers are also mentioned in Colossians 4:10–14.

THE EPISTLE TO THE HEBREWS

▶ AUTHOR: The origin of Hebrews is unknown. Uncertainty plagues not only its authorship, but also its date and its readership. Hebrews 13:18–24 tells us that this book was not anonymous to the original readers; they evidently knew the author. For some reason however, early church tradition is divided over the identity of the author. Part of the church attributed it to Paul, others preferred Barnabas, Luke, or Clement, and some chose anonymity. Some aspects of the language style and theology of Hebrews are very similar to Paul's epistles. However, significant stylistic differences have led the majority of biblical scholars to reject Pauline authorship of this book.

▶ TIME: c. A.D. 64–68 ▶ KEY VERSES: Heb. 4:14–16

▶ THEME: Hebrews was written for a group of Jewish Christians who were thinking about returning to their original faith. The author goes to great lengths to convince them to stay with their new faith. Point by point he goes through a whole series of arguments showing how Judaism was a foreshadowing of Christ. Everything promising about Old Testament Judaism is fulfilled in Christ. The new way is the superior way, as Christ and the faith that He established supersedes what has gone before. Understanding Jewish faith and practice, and the role of Moses and Aaron in biblical history is a prerequisite to understanding Hebrews.

God's Supreme Revelation

1 God, who at various times and [a]in various ways spoke in time past to the fathers by the prophets, 2has in these last days spoken to us by His Son, whom He has appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the worlds; 3[b]who being the brightness of His glory and the express [c]image of His person, and [d]upholding all things by the word of His power, [e]when He had by Himself* purged our* sins, [f]sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, 4having become so much better than the angels, as [g]He has by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

The Son Exalted Above Angels

5For to which of the angels did He ever say:

[h]"You are My Son,
Today I have begotten You"?*

And again:

[i]"I will be to Him a Father,
And He shall be to Me a Son"?*

6But when He again brings [j]the firstborn into the world, He says:

* 1:3 NU-Text omits by Himself. • NU-Text omits our. * 1:5 Psalm 2:7 • 2 Samuel 7:14

1:2 by His Son. This could be rephrased as "in such a person as a Son." The emphasis rests on the character of the revelation. It is a revelation of the Son, a revelation not so much in what He has said as in who He is and what He has done.
1:3 brightness of His glory. The author of Hebrews is emphasizing that this is not a reflected brightness like the light of the moon. Instead, this is an inherent brightness like a ray from the sun. Jesus' glorious brightness comes from being essentially divine. express image. In Greek literature the word was used for stamping a coin from the die. upholding. This means to "bear" or "carry," referring to movement and progress toward a final end. The Son not only created the universe by His powerful word, but also maintains and directs its course. He is the Governor of the universe. sat down. This suggests the formal act of assuming the office of High Priest and implies a contrast to the Levitical priest, who never finished his work and sat down (10:11–13).
1:5 Today I have begotten You. This probably refers to the day Christ sat down at the Father's right hand after He accomplished His work as the Messiah.
1:6 when He again brings the firstborn. This is a reference to the second coming. "Firstborn" refers to rank, meaning one who ranks above all others (Ps. 89:27).

1:1 [a] Num. 12:6, 8 1:3 [b] John 1:14 [c] 2 Cor. 4:4 [d] Col. 1:17 [e] [Heb. 7:27] [f] Ps. 110:1 1:4 [g] [Phil. 2:9, 10] 1:5 [h] Ps. 2:7 [i] 2 Sam. 7:14 1:6 [j] [Rom. 8:29]

[k] *"Let all the angels of God worship Him."

7 And of the angels He says:

[l] "Who makes His angels spirits
*And His ministers a flame of fire."

8 But to the Son He says:

[m] "Your throne, O God, is forever and ever;
A scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Your kingdom.
9 You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness;
Therefore God, Your God, [n] has anointed You
*With the oil of gladness more than Your companions."

10 And:

[o] "You, LORD, in the beginning laid the foundation of the earth,
And the heavens are the work of Your hands.
11 [p] They will perish, but You remain;
And [q] they will all grow old like a garment;
12 Like a cloak You will fold them up,
And they will be changed.
But You are the [r] same,
*And Your years will not fail."

13 But to which of the angels has He ever said:

[s] "Sit at My right hand,
*Till I make Your enemies Your footstool"?

14 [t] Are they not all ministering spirits sent forth to minister for those who will [u] inherit salvation?

Do Not Neglect Salvation

2 Therefore we must give the more earnest heed to the things we have heard, lest we drift away. 2 For if the word [a] spoken through angels proved steadfast, and [b] every transgression and disobedience received a just reward, 3 [c] how shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation, [d] which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was [e] confirmed to us by those who heard Him, 4 [f] God also bearing witness [g] both with signs and wonders, with various miracles, and [h] gifts of the Holy Spirit, [i] according to His own will?

The Son Made Lower than Angels

5 For He has not put [j] the world to come, of which we speak, in subjection to angels. 6 But one testified in a certain place, saying:

[k] "What is man that You are mindful of him,
Or the son of man that You take care of him?
7 You have made him a little lower than the angels;
*You have crowned him with glory and honor,
And set him over the works of Your hands.
8 [l] *You have put all things in subjection under his feet."

For in that He put all in subjection under him, He left nothing that is not put under him. But now [m] we do not yet see all things

* 1:6 Deuteronomy 32:43 (Septuagint, Dead Sea Scrolls); Psalm 97:7 * 1:7 Psalm 104:4 * 1:9 Psalm 45:6, 7 * 1:12 Psalm 102:25–27 * 1:13 Psalm 110:1 * 2:7 NU-Text and M-Text omit the rest of verse 7. * 2:8 Psalm 8:4–6

1:7 ministers. The Son is superior to angels because He is the Sovereign who is worshiped, while the angels are ministers, that is, servants of God. The author of Hebrews quotes Psalm 104 because that psalm places angels in a long list of created objects which God sovereignly controls.

1:9 companions. This term comes from a word that means "close associates" or "partners." The concept of believers being partners with Christ is key in Hebrews (3:1,14; 6:4; 12:8). The term refers to those who will be participants with Christ in His reign.

1:10–12 You, LORD. The context of Psalm 102 here indicates that the Lord is the One who would appear in the future to Israel and the nations (Ps. 102:12–16).

1:14 those who will inherit salvation. Salvation here is not justification because it is in the future, not in the past. The reference is to believers who inherit the kingdom or rule in God's kingdom as a reward for their service to the Son (9:28; Col. 3:24).

2:1 drift away. The author's audience was marked by immaturity and spiritual sluggishness (5:11–12). The author warned them not to be carried away by the popular opinions that surrounded them. Instead, they were to hold fast to Christ's words because they were the words of God.

2:3 how shall we escape. If the people who heard the message delivered through angels were justly punished when they disobeyed the law, how can believers expect to escape punishment when they neglect the even greater message delivered through the greater Messenger, the Son?

2:4 signs and wonders. This phrase refers to the miracles performed by the Holy Spirit through the Lord and His apostles in fulfillment of the ancient promises regarding the coming of the Messiah (Acts 2:22,43; 4:30; 5:12; 6:8; 14:3; 15:12; 1 Cor. 12:12).

2:6–8 set him over the works of Your hands. Since the Son's humanity might appear to be an obstacle to the claim of His superiority, the author of Hebrews cites Psalm 8, a lyrical reflection on Genesis 1, to prove that God has placed humanity over all created things, which includes the angelic world.

Bringing Many Sons to Glory

10For it was fitting for Him, [q]for whom are all things and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the captain of their salvation [r]perfect through sufferings. 11For [s]both He who sanctifies and those who are being sanctified [t]are all of one, for which reason [u]He is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12saying:

[v]"I will declare Your name to My brethren;
*In the midst of the assembly I will sing praise to You."

13And again:

[w]*"I will put My trust in Him."

And again:

[x]*"Here am I and the children whom God has given Me."

14Inasmuch then as the children have partaken of flesh and blood, He [y]Himself likewise shared in the same, [z]that through death He might destroy him who had the power of [a]death, that is, the devil, 15and release those who [b]through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. 16For indeed He does not give aid to angels, but He does give aid to the seed of Abraham. 17Therefore, in all things He had [c]to be made like His brethren, that He might be [d]a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. 18[e]For in that He Himself has suffered, being tempted, He is able to aid those who are tempted.

The Son Was Faithful

3 Therefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, Christ Jesus, 2who was faithful to Him who appointed Him, as [a]Moses also was faithful in all His house. 3For this One has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as [b]He who built the house has more honor than the house. 4For every house is built by someone, but [c]He who built all things is God. 5[d]And Moses indeed was faithful in all His house as [e]a servant, [f]for a testimony of those things which would be spoken afterward, 6but Christ as [g]a Son over His own house, [h]whose house

* 2:12 Psalm 22:22 * 2:13 2 Samuel 22:3; Isaiah 8:17 • Isaiah 8:18

2:10 captain of their salvation. The Greek word here means "leader" or "originator." The word describes a pioneer or pathfinder. Jesus' endurance of sufferings on this earth makes Him our leader. He not only endured them but also triumphed over sin, death, and Satan through them.
2:12 to My brethren. Psalm 22 is quoted here. In it, the Messiah refers to "My brethren," identifying Himself with all those who place their faith in God.
2:14–16 He might destroy . . . release. Having established the unity between the Son and believer, the author concludes that there are two purposes of this close identification. The Son became human so that He could destroy the devil and release those who were in bondage to sin.
2:16 seed of Abraham. The author may have used the expression because the recipients of this letter were primarily Jewish believers. The author is pointing out that Christ came to the aid of Abraham's sons, not the angelic hosts.
2:17 in things pertaining to God. Jesus participated in our nature and in our sufferings on earth so that He could be a sympathetic Mediator between God and humanity. He understands our weaknesses and intercedes for us in the presence of God the Father. make propitiation. This term refers to the satisfaction of the claims of a holy and righteous God against sinners who have broken His law. Christ appeased God's righteous wrath by dying on the cross in our place (Rom. 3:21–26). Although completely sinless, Christ voluntarily submitted to the penalty of sin, His agonizing death on the cross. This voluntary sacrifice of Himself for our welfare satisfied the justice and holiness of God. The benefits of His sacrifice are applied to all who place their faith in Him.
2:18 He Himself has suffered, being tempted. Christ's suffering included temptation. He experienced the lure of sin, but He never surrendered Himself to it. He knows what it is like to be tempted, so He knows how to assist those who are being tempted.
3:2 in all His house. This phrase is taken from Numbers 12:7. "House" refers to the tabernacle, the center of Israelite worship. Moses had faithfully obeyed God's instructions concerning the tabernacle. In the same way, Jesus had been obedient to the mission the Father had given Him. Through obedience, God established a new house of God, the church.
3:3–4 worthy of more glory than Moses. The implication is that the covenant established through Jesus' death is more glorious than the covenant established at Mount Sinai.
3:5 as a servant. The author of Hebrews continues the comparison between Moses and Jesus. While Moses was faithful as a servant, Christ's faithfulness was greater because it was performed by a Son. things which would be spoken afterward. Moses' work pointed forward to Christ (9:10; 10:3). The regulations of the law of Moses pointed out both the sin of humanity and the need for a perfect sacrifice to reconcile people to their holy Creator.

Be Faithful

7 Therefore, as [j]the Holy Spirit says:

[k]"Today, if you will hear His voice,
8 Do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion,
In the day of trial in the wilderness,
9 Where your fathers tested Me, tried Me,
And saw My works forty years.
10 Therefore I was angry with that generation,
And said, 'They always go astray in their heart,
And they have not known My ways.'
11 So I swore in My wrath,
*'They shall not enter My rest.'"

12 Beware, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief in departing from the living God; 13 but exhort one another daily, while it is called "Today," lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. 14 For we have become partakers of Christ if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast to the end, 15 while it is said:

[l]"Today, if you will hear His voice,
*Do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion."

Failure of the Wilderness Wanderers

16 [m]For who, having heard, rebelled? Indeed, was it not all who came out of Egypt, led by Moses? 17 Now with whom was He angry forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, [n]whose corpses fell in the wilderness? 18 And [o]to whom did He swear that they would not enter His rest, but to those who did not obey? 19 So we see that they could not enter in because of [p]unbelief.

The Promise of Rest

4 Therefore, since a promise remains of entering His rest, [q]let us fear lest any of you seem to have come short of it. 2 For indeed the gospel was preached to us as well as to them; but the word which they heard did not profit them,* not being mixed with faith in those who heard it. 3 For we who have believed do enter that rest, as He has said:

[b]"So I swore in My wrath,
*'They shall not enter My rest,'"

although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. 4 For He has spoken in a certain place of the seventh day in this way: [c]"And God rested on the seventh day from all His works";* 5 and again in this place: [d]*"They shall not enter My rest."

6 Since therefore it remains that some must enter it, and those to whom it was first preached did not enter because of disobedience, 7 again He designates a certain day, saying in David, "Today," after such a long time, as it has been said:

[e]"Today, if you will hear His voice,
*Do not harden your hearts."

8 For if Joshua had [f]given them rest, then He would not afterward have spoken of another day. 9 There remains therefore a rest for the people of God. 10 For he who has entered His rest has himself also ceased from his works as God did from His.

3:7–11 Do not harden your hearts. The author of Hebrews quotes Psalm 95:7–11 to warn the Jewish Christians about hardening their hearts to God and the salvation He offers. Moses' generation had refused to trust in God to provide for their needs in the wilderness (Ex. 17:1–7), and the readers of this letter were also in danger. My rest. This is a key concept in Hebrews. In the Old Testament, the conquest of the Promised Land and the cessation of fighting in the land was viewed as a form of rest (Deut. 3:20; 12:9; 25:19; Josh. 11:23; 21:44; 22:4). In the New Testament, "rest" speaks of the believer's eternal home and the joy that he or she will experience in Jesus' presence (4:1).

3:12–13 heart of unbelief. In essence, unbelief is a stubborn refusal to trust in the truthfulness of His word. It is a grave sin because it leads us away from God.

3:14 partakers of Christ. This is the same word translated companions in 1:9. Believers will be partners with Christ in His future kingdom (Rev. 2:26–27).

3:15–19 with whom was He angry. The Jewish Christians to whom this letter was addressed were in danger of following in their ancestors' footsteps. They were tempted to doubt the words of Jesus. With the rhetorical questions in these verses, the author of Hebrews was encouraging them to place their faith firmly in Christ.

4:2 the gospel was preached. This is the translation of a single Greek word meaning "the good news was announced."

4:4 God rested. The theme of rest has its beginning in God's own rest after creation. The fact that Genesis makes no mention of the evening of the seventh day of creation provides a basis for some Jewish commentators to conclude that the rest of God lasts throughout all history.

4:9 rest. The word used here is different from the word used in verses 1, 3, 5, 10–11; 3:11, 18. Jews commonly taught that the Sabbath foreshadowed the world to come, and they spoke of "a day which shall be all Sabbath."

The Word Discovers Our Condition

11 [g]Let us therefore be diligent to enter that rest, lest anyone fall according to the same example of disobedience. 12For the word of God is [h]living and powerful, and [i]sharper than any [j]two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit,
and of joints and marrow, and is [k]a discern-
er of the thoughts and intents of the heart.
13 [l]And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are [m]naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

Our Compassionate High Priest

14Seeing then that we have a great [n]High Priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, [o]let us hold fast our confession. 15For [p]we do not have a High Priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but [q]was in all points tempted as we are, [r]yet without sin. 16 [s]Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Qualifications for High Priesthood

5 For every high priest taken from among men [a]is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. 2He can have compassion on those who are ignorant and going astray, since he himself is also subject to [b]weakness. 3Because
of this he is required as for the people, so also for [c]himself, to offer sacrifices for sins. 4And no man takes this honor to himself, but he who is called by God, just as [d]Aaron was.

A Priest Forever

5 [e]So also Christ did not glorify Himself to become High Priest, but it was He who said to Him:

[f]"You are My Son,
*Today I have begotten You."

6As He also says in another place:

[g]"You are a priest forever
According to the order of *Melchizedek";

7who, in the days of His flesh, when He had [h]offered up prayers and supplications, [i]with vehement cries and tears to Him [j]who was able to save Him from death, and was heard [k]because of His godly fear, 8though
He was a Son, yet He learned [l]obedience by the things which He suffered. 9And [m]having been perfected, He became the author of eternal salvation to all who obey Him, 10called by God as High Priest [n]"according to the order of Melchizedek," 11of whom [o]we have much to say, and hard to explain,
since you have become [p]dull of hearing.

Spiritual Immaturity

12For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you again the first principles of the oracles
of God; and you have come to need [q]milk
and not solid food. 13For everyone who partakes only of milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness, for he is [r]a babe.
14But solid food belongs to those who are of full age, that is, those who by reason of use have their senses exercised [s]to discern both good and evil.

* 5:5 Psalm 2:7 * 5:6 Psalm 110:4

4:11 be diligent to enter that rest. The rest is not automatic. Determined diligence is required. The danger is that believers today, like the Israelites of the past, will not stand, but will fall in disobedience.
4:13 naked and open. This phrase suggests complete exposure and defenselessness before God.
4:15 sympathize. This word means "to suffer with" and expresses the feeling of one who has entered into suffering.
4:16 come. This command strongly contrasts with God's command at Mount Sinai: "Do not go up to the mountain or touch its base" (Ex. 19:12). Because of Christ's priestly work, believers can approach God's presence. boldly. This word carries with it the idea of "fearlessness" or "courageousness." Believers should boldly approach God in prayer because His Son is our gracious High Priest who sits at God's right hand interceding for us.
5:1–4 high priest. He represents the people and thus must identify with their human nature. But he also represents God to the people and thus must be called by God to his office.
5:2 ignorant, and going astray. This phrase describes those who unintentionally sin (Num. 15:30–36).
5:8 He learned obedience. Jesus experienced all of what a person goes through on this earth. He knows how difficult it is to obey God completely, just as He understands the attraction of temptation (2:18).
5:9 having been perfected. This phrase does not suggest that Jesus had not been perfect before. It means that He successfully carried out God's plan for Him. He endured suffering and temptation so that He could truly function as our High Priest, understanding our weaknesses and interceding before God for us.
5:12 first principles. The phrase refers to the letters of the alphabet in writing or to addition and subtraction tables in arithmetic. They are principles out of which everything else develops.
5:13 unskilled in the word of righteousness. The readers of this letter did not necessarily lack information concerning righteousness; they lacked experience in practicing the information they had.

The Peril of Not Progressing

6 Therefore, [a]leaving the discussion of the elementary principles of Christ, let us go on to perfection, not laying again the foundation of repentance from [b]dead works and of faith toward God, 2[c]of the doctrine of baptisms, [d]of laying on of hands, [e]of resurrection of the dead, [f]and of eternal judgment. 3And this we will* do if God permits.

4For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted [g]the heavenly gift, and [h]have become partakers of the Holy Spirit, 5and have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the age to come, 6if they fall away,* to renew them again to repentance, [i]since they crucify again for themselves the Son of God, and put Him to an open shame.

7For the earth which drinks in the rain that often comes upon it, and bears herbs useful for those by whom it is cultivated, [j]receives blessing from God; 8[k]but if it bears thorns and briers, it is rejected and near to being cursed, whose end is to be burned.

A Better Estimate

9But, beloved, we are confident of better things concerning you, yes, things that accompany salvation, though we speak in this manner. 10For [l]God is not unjust to forget [m]your work and labor of* love which you have shown toward His name, in that you have [n]ministered to the saints, and do minister. 11And we desire that each one of you show the same diligence [o]to the full assurance of hope until the end, 12that you do not become sluggish, but imitate those who through faith and patience [p]inherit the promises.

God's Infallible Purpose in Christ

13For when God made a promise to Abraham, because He could swear by no one greater, [q]He swore by Himself, 14saying, [r]*"Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you." 15And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the [s]promise. 16For men indeed swear by the greater, and [t]an oath for confirmation is for them an end of all dispute. 17Thus God, determining to show more abundantly to [u]the heirs of promise [v]the immutability of His counsel, confirmed it by an oath, 18that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to [w]lie, we might* have strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold of the hope [x]set before us.

19This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, [y]and which enters the Presence behind the veil, 20[z]where the forerunner has entered for us, even Jesus, [a]having become High Priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

* 6:14 Genesis 22:17 * 6:18 M-Text omits might.

6:1 repentance from dead works. This phrase refers to a change of mind about the demands of the law of Moses (9:14). Even though the law was good (1 Tim. 1:8), it was weak because of the weakness of our sinful nature (Rom. 8:3). What is needed for salvation is not lifeless works that cannot save, but faith directed toward God.

6:2 laying on of hands. This action was used to impart the Holy Spirit (Acts 8:17–18; 19:6). It was also used for ordination of the ministry (Acts 6:6; 13:3). This practice is also found in the Old Testament in commissioning someone to a public office (Num. 27:18,23; Deut. 34:9) or in the context of presenting a sacrificial offering to the Lord (Lev. 1:4; 3:2; 4:4; 8:14; 16:21). eternal judgment. This refers to the belief that everyone will be judged by the great Judge.

6:4–6 if they fall away. This difficult passage has been interpreted in various ways. Some insist that the author is speaking of nominal Christians who heard the truth and appeared to believe in Christ but were not sincere in their faith. Others view these verses as a hypothetical argument. In other words, the author is using this hypothetical case to warn the spiritually immature. These two positions are supported by passages that speak of God's consistency in His work, that nothing can separate us from His love (John 6:39–40; 10:27–29; Rom. 8:28–30). But another group of commentators insists that the author is speaking of genuine Christians who renounce Christ. They point out that those who "tasted the heavenly gift" fall away. Passages such as 2 Corinthians 11:1–4; 2 Timothy 2:17–18; 1 John 2:21–25 are in support of this position. Whatever way one interprets this passage, it is clear that the author of Hebrews has given us a clear warning not to renounce Christ or spurn His offer of salvation.

6:6 renew. This word means "restore." In other words, it is impossible for continuous effort on the part of anyone in the Christian community to restore an apostate back to fellowship with God. Continuing Christian immaturity is dangerous.

6:13–15 Abraham. Here is an example of faith and patience in God's promise (v. 12). He waited 25 years from the time the promise was first made until Isaac, the promised son, was born (Gen. 12:3–4; 15:4; 18:10; 21:5).

6:18 two immutable things. These things are God's Word and God's oath. Since God does not lie and since He is all-powerful, He will fulfill all His promises.

6:20 forerunner. This word was used in the second century A.D. for the smaller boats sent into the harbor by larger ships unable to enter due to the buffeting of the weather. These smaller boats carried the anchor through the breakers inside the harbor and dropped it there, securing the larger ship. Forerunner also

The King of Righteousness

7 For this [a]Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the Most High God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, 2to whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all, first being translated "king of righteousness," and then also king of Salem, meaning "king of peace," 3without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God, remains a priest continually.

4Now consider how great this man was,
to whom even the patriarch Abraham gave a tenth of the spoils. 5And indeed [b]those who are of the sons of Levi, who receive the priesthood, have a commandment to receive tithes from the people according to the law, that is, from their brethren, though they have come from the loins of Abraham; 6but he whose genealogy is not derived from them received tithes from Abraham [c]and blessed [d]him who had the promises. 7Now beyond all contradiction
the lesser is blessed by the better. 8Here mortal men receive tithes, but there he receives them, [e]of whom it is witnessed that he lives. 9Even Levi, who receives tithes,
paid tithes through Abraham, so to speak, 10for he was still in the loins of his father
when Melchizedek met him.

Need for a New Priesthood

11[f]Therefore, if perfection were through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need
was there that another priest should rise
according to the order of Melchizedek, and not be called according to the order of Aaron? 12For the priesthood being changed, of necessity there is also a change of the law.
13For He of whom these things are spoken belongs to another tribe, from which no
man has officiated at the altar.

14For it is evident that [g]our Lord arose from [h]Judah, of which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood.* 15And it is yet far more evident if, in the likeness
of Melchizedek, there arises another priest 16who has come, not according to the law of a fleshly commandment, but according to the power of an endless life. 17For He testifies:*

> [i]*"You are a priest forever
> According to the order of > Melchizedek."

18For on the one hand there is an annulling of the former commandment because of [j]its weakness and unprofitableness, 19for [k]the law made nothing perfect; on the other hand, there is the bringing in of [l]a better hope, through which [m]we draw near to God.

Greatness of the New Priest

20And inasmuch as He was not made priest without an oath 21(for they have become priests without an oath, but He with an oath by Him who said to Him:

> [n]*"The LORD has sworn
> And will not relent,
> 'You are a priest forever*
> According to the order of > Melchizedek'"),*

22by so much more Jesus has become a surety of a [o]better covenant.

23Also there were many priests, because they were prevented by death from continuing. 24But He, because He continues forever, has an unchangeable priesthood.

presupposes that others will follow. Thus, Jesus is like a runner boat that has taken our anchor into port and secured it there.

7:1 Melchizedek. The name means "king of righteousness." Salem means "peace." The ideal king rules in righteousness, which assures peace (Is. 32:17).

7:3 without father, without mother, without genealogy. Genesis, a book with many genealogies, has none for Melchizedek. The author is not saying that Melchizedek was born without a father and mother, only that there is no record of his birth in the genealogies of Genesis. This description of Melchizedek prefigures the eternal priesthood of Jesus. Like Melchizedek, Jesus is both a Priest and a King belonging to a righteous priesthood that is independent of Aaron's.

7:4 patriarch. In the Greek text this word is emphatic. The greatness of Abraham, the one who possessed the promises of God (v. 6), underscores the even greater rank of Melchizedek, the priest of righteousness.

7:8–10 mortal men receive tithes. Melchizedek was not only superior to Abraham, but he was also superior to the Levitical priesthood in two ways: first, the Levitical priests were mortal. In contrast, Melchizedek seems to be immortal. At least, the Old Testament does not record his death. Second, in a sense, Levi paid tithes to Melchizedek through Abraham's gift. Because he was descended from Abraham, he is counted as having paid tithes to Melchizedek.

7:12 changed. This word means removal (12:27). If the Melchizedek priesthood removed the Levitical priesthood, then the Mosaic law is also removed. In short, the believer is not under the law but instead relies on the righteousness of Christ (Rom. 6:14; Gal. 3:24–25).

7:15–18 according to the power of an endless life. This point is proved by Psalm 110:4, quoted in verse 17. Jesus is a different kind of priest, another indication that the law has been changed. There has been an annulling, a putting away, of the law.

7:1 [a] Gen. 14:18–20 7:5 [b] Num. 18:21–26 7:6 [c] Gen. 14:19, 20 [d] [Rom. 4:13] 7:8 [e] Heb. 5:6; 6:20 7:11 [f] Heb. 7:18; 8:7 7:14 [g] Is. 1:1 [h] Matt. 1:2 7:17 [i] Ps. 110:4 7:18 [j] [Rom. 8:3] 7:19 [k] [Acts 13:39] [l] Heb. 6:18, 19 [m] Rom. 5:2 7:21 [n] Ps. 110:4 7:22 [o] Heb. 8:6

25 Therefore He is also [p]able to save to the uttermost those who come to God through Him, since He always lives [q]to make intercession for them.

26 For such a High Priest was fitting for us, [r]who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, [s]and has become higher than the heavens; 27 who does not need daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifices, first for His [t]own sins and then for the people's, for this He did once for all when He offered up Himself. 28 For the law appoints as high priests men who have weakness, but the word of the oath,
which came after the law, appoints the Son
who has been perfected forever.

The New Priestly Service

8 Now this is the main point of the things
we are saying: We have such a High Priest, [a]who is seated at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, 2 [a]a Minister of [b]the sanctuary and of [c]the true tabernacle which the Lord erected,
and not man.

3 For [d]every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices. Therefore [e]it is necessary that this One also have something to offer. 4 For if He were on earth,
He would not be a priest, since there are priests who offer the gifts according to the law; 5 who serve [f]the copy and [g]shadow of the heavenly things, as Moses was divinely instructed when he was about to make the tabernacle. For He said, [h]*"See that you make all things according to the pattern
shown you on the mountain." 6 But now [i]He has obtained a more excellent ministry,
inasmuch as He is also Mediator of a [j]better covenant, which was established on better promises.

A New Covenant

7 For if that [k]first covenant had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for a second. 8 Because finding fault with them, He says: [l]"Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah— 9 not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they did not continue in My covenant, and I disregarded them, says the LORD. 10 *For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says
the* [m]LORD: I will put My laws in their mind and write them on their hearts; and [n]I will be their God, and they shall be My people.
11 [o]*None of them shall teach his neighbor,
and none his brother, saying, 'Know the* [p]LORD,' for all shall know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them. 12 *For
I will be merciful to their unrighteousness,*
[q]*and their sins and their lawless deeds *I will remember no more."

13 [r]In that He says, "A new covenant,"
He has made the first obsolete. Now what is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to vanish away.

* 8:5 Exodus 25:40 * 8:12 NU-Text omits and their lawless deeds. • Jeremiah 31:31–34

7:25 He is also able to save. Christ is able to save because He is fully God and fully human (2:18; 4:15). Since this verse speaks to Jesus' present intercession for us, the word save in this verse speaks of our sanctification, the continuing process by which we are freed from the power of sin. This continuing process of salvation will eventually be completed in our glorification, when we are saved from the presence of sin.

7:26–28 daily, as those high priests. The high priest offered an annual sacrifice on the Day of Atonement for the atonement of the people's sins (9:7; 10:1), but the priests also offered sacrifices every day before the Lord (Ex. 29:36). In contrast, Jesus offered Himself once, a perfect, sinless sacrifice for the sins of all. Since Jesus is perfect, He did not have to offer sacrifices for His own sins.

8:2 sanctuary. This word refers to the heavenly reality represented by the Most Holy Place (9:2,8,24; 10:19; 13:11). The reality is the presence of God. Our High Priest serves there and desires to bring us there (10:19).

8:8 a new covenant. This covenant is the "better covenant" of verse 6. This covenant was made with Israel and Judah, yet the church enjoys the spiritual blessings of this covenant now. The Abrahamic covenant was made with Abraham and his physical descendants (Gen. 17:7). Yet the Abrahamic covenant also contained a spiritual promise (Gen. 12:3) in which the church participates (Rom. 11:11–27; Gal. 3:13–14). The new covenant in fact is a fulfillment of the spiritual redemption promise in the Abrahamic and Davidic covenants (Matt. 26:26–29; Luke 22:20).

8:10–12 after those days, says the LORD. There are four provisions of the new covenant: (1) God's law will be written on believers' minds and hearts. (2) Believers will have a relationship with God fulfilling the promise of Leviticus 26:12 (2 Cor. 6:16). (3) All will know God. No longer will Pharisees and scribes have to teach the intricacies of the law to the people. (4) God will forgive the sins of believers and remember them no more. The continual sacrifice of animals for the atonement of sin will cease.

8:13 obsolete and growing old. At the time the author of Hebrews wrote these words, the ceremonies of the Mosaic covenant were still being conducted in the temple in Jerusalem. In A.D. 70 the Roman general Titus destroyed the temple, fulfilling these words.

The Earthly Sanctuary

9 Then indeed, even the first covenant had ordinances of divine service and [a]the earthly sanctuary. 2For a tabernacle was prepared: the first part, in which was the lampstand, the table, and the showbread, which is called the sanctuary; 3[b]and behind the second veil, the part of the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of All, 4which had the [c]golden censer and [d]the ark of the covenant overlaid on all sides with gold, in which were [e]the golden pot that had the manna, [f]Aaron's rod that budded, and [g]the tablets of the covenant; 5and [h]above it were the cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat. Of these things we cannot now speak in detail.

Limitations of the Earthly Service

6Now when these things had been thus prepared, [i]the priests always went into the first part of the tabernacle, performing the services. 7But into the second part the high priest went alone [j]once a year, not without blood, which he offered for [k]himself and for the people's sins committed in ignorance; 8the Holy Spirit indicating this, that [l]the way into the Holiest of All was not yet made manifest while the first tabernacle was still standing. 9It was symbolic for the present time in which both gifts and sacrifices are offered [m]which cannot make him who performed the service perfect in regard to the conscience— 10*concerned* only with [n]foods and drinks, [o]various washings, [p]and fleshly ordinances imposed until the time of reformation.

The Heavenly Sanctuary

11But Christ came as High Priest of [q]the good things to come,* with the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made with hands, that is, not of this creation. 12Not [r]with the blood of goats and calves, but [s]with His own blood He entered the Most Holy Place [t]once for all, [u]having obtained eternal redemption. 13For if [v]the blood of bulls and goats and [w]the ashes of a heifer, sprinkling the unclean, sanctifies for the purifying of the flesh, 14how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without spot to God, [x]cleanse your conscience from [y]dead works [z]to serve the living God? 15And for this reason [a]He is the Mediator of the new covenant, by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions under the first covenant, that [b]those who are called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance.

The Mediator's Death Necessary

16For where there is a testament, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator. 17For [c]a testament is in force after men are dead, since it has no power at all while the testator lives. 18[d]Therefore not even the first covenant was dedicated without blood. 19For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, [e]he took the blood of calves and goats, [f]with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people, 20saying, [g]*"This is the [h]blood of the covenant which God has commanded you." 21Then likewise [i]he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry. 22And according to the law almost all things are purified with blood, and [j]without shedding of blood there is no remission.

* 9:11 NU-Text reads that have come. * 9:20 Exodus 24:8

9:2–5 a tabernacle was prepared. These verses simply describe the furniture of the tabernacle. The tabernacle courtyard contained an altar for animal sacrifice and a laver for ceremonial washings. The tabernacle was divided into two rooms by a veil. The first part was the sanctuary or holy place, housing the lampstand, the table for the showbread, and the altar of incense. The second room was the Most Holy Place, containing the ark of the covenant, in which were stored the symbols of the Mosaic covenant.

9:7–8 once a year. In the provisions of the Mosaic covenant, access to God was limited. The fact that the high priest had such little access himself indicates the striking failure of the Mosaic covenant to bring believers into the presence of God.

9:9 cannot make him who performed the service perfect. The Mosaic covenant covered sins of ignorance (v. 7), but not premeditated sins or the sinful nature of all people (Ps. 51). In other words, the old system was lacking. It did not completely reconcile the people to God.

9:12 with His own blood. Christ obtained eternal redemption. His sacrifice never has to be repeated because it is perfect.

9:13 ashes of a heifer. These were mixed with water and were used to cleanse a person who had become ceremonially defiled by touching a corpse (Num. 19:11–13). The author of Hebrews points out that these ceremonies could purify only a person's exterior, not a person's heart.

9:14 the eternal Spirit. All three persons of the Trinity are involved in cleansing. The defilement is internal, not external (v. 13). Christ's death has the power to purify a person's mind and soul.

9:15 redemption. Christ paid the price to free us from our own sin. His death substitutes for our death, the penalty of our sins. Like the Israelites, believers receive an inheritance, but our inheritance is eternal (v. 14).

Greatness of Christ's Sacrifice

23 Therefore it was necessary that [k]the copies of the things in the heavens should be purified with these, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. 24 For [l]Christ has not entered the holy places made with hands, which are copies of [m]the true, but into heaven itself, now [n]to appear in the presence of God
for us; 25 not that He should offer Himself often, as [o]the high priest enters the Most Holy Place every year with blood of another— 26 He then would have had to suffer often since the foundation of the world; but now, once at the end of the ages, He has appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself. 27 [p]And as it is appointed for men to die once, [q]but after this the judgment, 28 so [r]Christ was [s]offered once to bear the sins [t]of many. To those who [u]eagerly wait for Him He will appear a second time,
apart from sin, for salvation.

Animal Sacrifices Insufficient

10 For the law, having a [a]shadow of the good things to come, and not the very image of the things, [b]can never with these same sacrifices, which they offer continually year by year, make those who approach perfect. 2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? For the worshipers, once purified, would have had no more consciousness of sins. 3 But in those sacrifices there is a reminder of sins every year. 4 For [c]it is not possible that the blood
of bulls and goats could take away sins.

Christ's Death Fulfills God's Will

5 Therefore, when He came into the world, He said:

[d]"Sacrifice and offering You did not desire,
But a body You have prepared for Me.
6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin
You had no pleasure.
7 Then I said, 'Behold, I have come—
In the volume of the book it is written
of Me—
*To do Your will, O God.'"

8 Previously saying, "Sacrifice and offer- ing, burnt offerings, and offerings for sin
You did not desire, nor had pleasure in them" (which are offered according to the law), 9 then He said, "Behold, I have come
*to do Your will, O God." He takes away
the first that He may establish the second.
10 [e]By that will we have been sanctified
[f]through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

Christ's Death Perfects the Sanctified

11 And every priest stands [g]ministering daily and offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins.
12 [h]But this Man, after He had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down [i]at the right hand of God, 13 from that time waiting [j]till His enemies are made His footstool.
14 For by one offering He has perfected forever those who are being sanctified.

15 But the Holy Spirit also witnesses to us; for after He had said before,

16 [k]"This is the covenant that I will make
with them after those days, says the LORD:
I will put My laws into their hearts, and in *their minds I will write them," 17 then He adds, [l]"Their sins and their lawless deeds
*I will remember no more." 18 Now where there is remission of these, there is no longer an offering for sin.

* 10:7 Psalm 40:6–8 * 10:9 NU-Text and M-Text omit O God. * 10:16 Jeremiah 31:33
* 10:17 Jeremiah 31:34

9:24 Christ has not entered the holy places made with hands. Christ's sacrifice was better than sacrifices made under the Mosaic covenant because Christ did not enter a man-made sanctuary, which was a copy; instead, He entered the true sanctuary, which is in heaven—the very presence of God.

9:26 but now, once. Christ's sacrifice was better than the sacrifices made under the Mosaic covenant because He did not offer an annual sacrifice of animals but offered Himself once for all time.

10:1–4 not the very image of the things. The sacrifices of the Mosaic covenant prefigured Christ's ultimate sacrifice of Himself. Therefore, these imperfect sacrifices of mere animals could not completely purify the person who offered them. If they had been able to, these sacrifices would have ceased. Instead of thoroughly atoning for the sins of the people, the annual sacrifice on the Day of Atonement was a visible reminder of the people's sins.

10:5–7 To do Your will. The Old Testament prophets had warned the Israelites that sacrifices alone would not please God. He desired obedience as well (Ps. 51:16–17; Is. 1:13–17; Mark 12:33). This messianic psalm indicates that Jesus' obedience to God the Father was one of the reasons His sacrifice was better than the Old Testament sacrifices.

10:8–9 He takes away the first that He may establish the second. The author is explaining Psalm 40. The verb translated "takes away" means "abolishes." The imperfect sacrifices were abolished so that the perfect Sacrifice could impart true life.

10:11–12 sat down. Sitting indicates that His work of atonement is finished. His final words on the cross, "It is finished," declare this spiritual reality (John 19:30).

10:16–18 I will remember no more. This phrase does not mean to forget, but not to hold sin against us any longer.

Hold Fast Your Confession

19 Therefore, brethren, having [m]boldness
to enter [n]the Holiest by the blood of Jesus, 20 by a new and [o]living way which He consecrated for us, through the veil, that is, His flesh, 21 and having a High Priest over the house of God, 22 let us [p]draw near with a true heart [q]in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience
and our bodies washed with pure water.
23 Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for [r]He who promised is faithful. 24 And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, 25 [s]not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some,
but exhorting one another, and [t]so much
the more as you see [u]the Day approaching.

The Just Live by Faith

26 For [v]if we sin willfully [w]after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there [x]no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, 27 but
a certain fearful expectation of judgment,
and [y]fiery indignation which will devour
the adversaries. 28 Anyone who has rejected
Moses' law dies without mercy on the testimony of two or three [z]witnesses. 29 [a]Of how much worse punishment, do you suppose,
will he be thought worthy who has trampled the Son of God underfoot, [b]counted
the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified a common thing, [c]and insulted
the Spirit of grace? 30 For we know Him who said, [d]"Vengeance is Mine, I will repay," says the Lord. And again, [e]*"The LORD will judge His people." 31 [f]It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But [g]recall the former days in which,
after you were illuminated, you endured
a great struggle with sufferings: 33 partly while you were made [h]a spectacle
both by reproaches and tribulations, and partly while [i]you became companions of those who were so treated; 34 for you had compassion on me* [j]in my chains, and [k]joyfully accepted the plundering of your goods, knowing that [l]you have a better
and an enduring possession for yourselves
in heaven.* 35 Therefore do not cast away
your confidence, [m]which has great reward.
36 [n]For you have need of endurance, so that after you have done the will of God, [o]you may receive the promise:

37 "For [p]yet a little while,
And [q]He who is coming will come*
and will not tarry.
38 Now [r]the just shall live by faith;*
But if anyone draws back,
*My soul has no pleasure in him."

39 But we are not of those [s]who draw back to perdition, but of those who [t]believe to the saving of the soul.

By Faith We Understand

11 Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence [a]of things not seen. 2 For by it the elders obtained a good testimony.

* 10:30 Deuteronomy 32:35 • NU-Text omits says the Lord. • Deuteronomy 32:36 * 10:34 NU-Text reads the prisoners instead of me in my chains. • NU-Text omits in heaven. * 10:37 Or that which * 10:38 NU-Text reads My just one. • Habakkuk 2:3, 4

10:19 Therefore. The author has spent five chapters explaining the superiority of Christ's priesthood to the Levitical priesthood and the superiority of the new covenant to the Mosaic covenant. Unlike the Israelites, who approached God at Mount Sinai with fear and trembling (Ex. 20:18–21), believers can approach God with boldness (3:6; 4:16; 10:35) because we possess Christ's righteousness and not our own.

10:20 His flesh. The Old Testament high priest passed through a veil to get to the Most Holy Place. Now, believers enter God's presence through Christ's flesh, meaning His sacrificial death.

10:22 our hearts sprinkled . . . our bodies washed. Our consciences can be cleansed through the blood of Christ (9:14). Just as the high priest washed before entering the Most Holy Place (Lev. 16:3–4), so believers are cleansed before they come before the Holy One.

10:24–25 stir up love and good works. The Greek word translated "stir up" means "convulse." In this context the word speaks forcefully of the tremendous impact believers can have on each other. That is why the author exhorts the Hebrews to gather together. Evidently, some believers had stopped attending the worship services of the church, perhaps because they feared persecution.

10:26 sin willfully. The reference here is not to an occasional act of sin (which can be confessed and forgiven) but to a conscious rejection of God. The Old Testament speaks in Numbers 15:30–31 of committing willful sin. A person who sinned presumptuously was to be cut off from the people. To sin deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth is apostasy. If a Christian rejects God's provision for his or her salvation, there is no other remedy for sins, since forgiveness for sins can only be found in Christ's perfect sacrifice.

10:29 Spirit of grace. This is a reference to the Holy Spirit, the agent of God's gracious gift of salvation. A believer who commits these offenses will be judged with a punishment worse than physical death.

10:35 do not cast away your confidence. For the recipients of Hebrews to return to the safety of Judaism would mean a loss of eternal reward at the judgment seat of Christ.

11:1 Now faith is. This verse is not a definition of faith, but a description of what faith does. substance. This means "essence" or "reality." Faith treats things hoped 3By faith we understand that [b]the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that the things which are seen were not made of things which are visible.

Faith at the Dawn of History

4By faith [c]Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts; and through it he being dead still [d]speaks.

5By faith Enoch was taken away so that he did not see death, [e]*"and was not found, because God had taken him"; for before he was taken he had this testimony, that he pleased God. 6But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.

7By faith [f]Noah, being divinely warned of things not yet seen, moved with godly fear, [g]prepared an ark for the saving of his household, by which he condemned the world and became heir of [h]the righteousness which is according to faith.

Faithful Abraham

8By faith [i]Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to the place which he would receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going. 9By faith he dwelt in the land of promise as in a foreign country, [j]dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, [k]the heirs with him of the same promise; 10for he waited for [l]the city which has foundations, [m]whose builder and maker is God.

11By faith [n]Sarah herself also received strength to conceive seed, and [o]she bore a child* when she was past the age, because she judged Him [p]faithful who had promised. 12Therefore from one man, and him as good as [q]dead, were born as many as the [r]stars of the sky in multitude—innumerable as the sand which is by the seashore.

The Heavenly Hope

13These all died in faith, [s]not having received the [t]promises, but [u]having seen them afar off were assured of them,* embraced them and [v]confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. 14For those who say such things [w]declare plainly that they seek a homeland. 15And truly if they had called to mind [x]that country from which they had come out, they would have had opportunity to return. 16But now they desire a better, that is, a heavenly country. Therefore God is not ashamed [y]to be called their God, for He has [z]prepared a city for them.

The Faith of the Patriarchs

17By faith Abraham, [a]when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises offered up his only begotten son, 18of whom it was said, [b]*"In Isaac your seed shall be called," 19concluding that God [c]was able to raise him up, even from the dead, from which he also received him in a figurative sense.

20By faith [d]Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

21By faith Jacob, when he was dying, [e]blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and worshiped, leaning on the top of his staff.

22By faith [f]Joseph, when he was dying, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel, and gave instructions concerning his bones.

The Faith of Moses

23By faith [g]Moses, when he was born, was hidden three months by his parents, because they saw he was a beautiful child; and they were not afraid of the king's [h]command.

for as reality. evidence. This means "proof." Faith itself proves that what is unseen is real, such as the believer's rewards at the return of Christ (2 Cor. 4:18).

11:4 a more excellent sacrifice than Cain. Evidently, Cain offered his sacrifice without faith (Gen. 4). still speaks. Abel still speaks to us because his righteous deeds have been recorded in Scripture.

11:6 comes. This word is used repeatedly in Hebrews to refer to the privilege of drawing near to God (4:16; 7:25; 10:1,22). Here, the author of Hebrews explains that faith is mandatory for those who approach Him. rewarder. God rewards not only those who seek Him, but also those who do good works in the Holy Spirit's power (Rev. 22:12).

11:8 not knowing where he was going. Abraham placed his trust in God. Faith means obediently stepping into the unknown (v. 1). Abraham did this, and God considered him righteous because of it (Gen. 15:6; Rom. 4:1–12).

11:15 opportunity to return. The patriarchs and Sarah did not return to Ur, even though they could have if they had wanted to. The recipients of Hebrews were to follow the patriarchs' example and refuse to return to the religion of their ancestors, a religious system that no longer provided atonement for sin (8:7–13).

11:17–19 Abraham . . . tested. Abraham believed that God could raise Isaac from the dead (Gen. 22:5), if necessary. The incident is figurative of what God has done for us. Isaac was as good as dead, but God provided a ram to sacrifice in his place (Gen. 22:9–14).

24By faith [i]Moses, when he became of age, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, 25choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin, 26esteeming [j]the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in* Egypt; for he looked to the [k]reward.
27By faith [l]he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured as seeing Him who is invisible. 28By faith [m]he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, lest he who destroyed the firstborn should touch them.
29By faith [n]they passed through the Red Sea as by dry land, whereas the Egyptians,
attempting to do so, were drowned.

By Faith They Overcame

30By faith [o]the walls of Jericho fell down
after they were encircled for seven days.
31By faith [p]the harlot Rahab did not perish with those who did not believe, when [q]she had received the spies with peace.
32And what more shall I say? For the time would fail me to tell of [r]Gideon and [s]Barak and [t]Samson and [u]Jephthah, also of [v]David and [w]Samuel and the prophets:
33who through faith subdued kingdoms,
worked righteousness, obtained promises, [x]stopped the mouths of lions, 34[y]quenched
the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong,
became valiant in battle, turned to flight
the armies of the aliens. 35[z]Women received their dead raised to life again.
Others were [a]tortured, not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection. 36Still others had trial of mockings and scourgings, yes, and [b]of chains and imprisonment. 37[c]They were stoned, they were sawn in two, were tempted,* were slain with the sword.
[d]They wandered about [e]in sheepskins
and goatskins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented— 38of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, [f]in dens and caves of the earth.
39And all these, [g]having obtained a good testimony through faith, did not receive the promise, 40God having provided something better for us, that they should not be [h]made perfect apart from us.

The Race of Faith

12 Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, [a]let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and [b]let us run [c]with endurance the race that is set before us, 2looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, [d]who for the joy
that was set before Him [e]endured the cross, despising the shame, and [f]has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

The Discipline of God

3[g]For consider Him who endured such hostility from sinners against Himself, [h]lest you become weary and discouraged
in your souls. 4[i]You have not yet resisted to bloodshed, striving against sin. 5And
you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as to sons:

[j]"My son, do not despise the chastening
of the LORD,
Nor be discouraged when you are rebuked by Him;
6 For [k]whom the LORD loves He
chastens,
And scourges every son whom He *receives."

* 11:26 NU-Text and M-Text read of. * 11:37 NU-Text omits were tempted. * 12:6 Proverbs 3:11, 12

11:26 the reproach of Christ. This phrase refers to the earthly disgrace Christ received. Like Christ, Moses chose to suffer the indignities associated with God's people, instead of embracing the worldly pleasures of Pharaoh's court.
11:28 sprinkling of blood. God told Moses to sprinkle blood on the doorposts. Moses believed God's word and heeded His warning, and, as a result, the firstborn of every Israelite family was saved (Ex. 12:1–13).
11:35 Women received their dead. This is probably a reference to the raising of the son of the widow of Zarephath (1 Kin. 17:17–24) and of the Shunammite woman (2 Kin. 4:32–37). But the author of Hebrews also points out that not all who had faith won victories, at least not in the same hour. tortured. This is usually understood to be an allusion to the heroic martyrs of Maccabean times, who were well known.
11:40 made perfect. This phrase means "made complete." This completion, the realization of all of God's promises in Christ's coming kingdom, awaits all believers.
12:1 cloud of witnesses. This refers to the people of faith mentioned in chapter 11. They are not actually spectators watching us; they are witnesses testifying to the truth of the faith (11:2,4–6).
12:2 finisher. Christ has done everything necessary for us to endure in our faith. He is our example and model. the joy that was set before Him. His attention was not on the agonies of the cross, but on the crown, not on the suffering, but on the reward.
12:3 consider. This thought involves the idea of comparison, as an accountant would compare the various columns of a balance sheet. Believers should compare their sufferings to the torture Christ endured on their behalf (v. 4).

7 [l]If* you endure chastening, God deals with you as with sons; for what [m]son is there whom a father does not chasten? 8 But if you are without chastening, [n]of which all have become partakers, then you are illegitimate and not sons. 9 Furthermore,
we have had human fathers who corrected us, and we paid them respect. Shall we not much more readily be in subjection to [o]the Father of spirits and live? 10 For they indeed for a few days chastened us as seemed best to them, but He for our profit, [p]that we may be partakers of His holiness. 11 Now no
chastening seems to be joyful for the present, but painful; nevertheless, afterward it yields [q]the peaceable fruit of righteousness
to those who have been trained by it.

Renew Your Spiritual Vitality

12 Therefore [r]strengthen the hands
which hang down, and the feeble knees, 13 and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be dislocated,
but rather be healed.

14 [s]Pursue peace with all people, and holiness, [t]without which no one will see the Lord: 15 looking carefully lest anyone [u]fall short of the grace of God; lest any [v]root of bitterness springing up cause trouble, and by this many become defiled; 16 lest there be any [w]fornicator or profane person like Esau, [x]who for one morsel of food sold his birthright. 17 For you know that afterward,
when he wanted to inherit the blessing,
he was [y]rejected, for he found no place for repentance, though he sought it diligently with tears.

The Glorious Company

18 For you have not come to [z]the mountain that* may be touched and that burned
with fire, and to blackness and darkness*
and tempest, 19 and the sound of a trumpet
and the voice of words, so that those who heard it [a]begged that the word should not be spoken to them anymore. 20 (For they could not endure what was commanded:
[b]"And if so much as a beast touches the mountain, it shall be stoned or shot with an arrow."* 21 And so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, [c]"I am exceedingly afraid and trembling."*)

22 But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, to an innumerable company of angels, 23 to the general assembly and church of [d]the firstborn [e]who are registered in heaven, to God [f]the Judge of all, to the spirits of just men [g]made perfect, 24 to Jesus [h]the Mediator of the new covenant,
and to [i]the blood of sprinkling that speaks
better things [j]than that of Abel.

Hear the Heavenly Voice

25 See that you do not refuse Him who speaks. For [k]if they did not escape who refused Him who spoke on earth, much more shall we not escape if we turn away from Him who speaks from heaven, 26 whose voice then shook the earth; but now He has promised, saying, [l]"Yet once more I shake not only the earth, but also heaven."* 27 Now this, "Yet once more," indicates the [m]removal of those things that are being shaken, as of things that are made,
that the things which cannot be shaken
may remain.

28 Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us have grace, by which we may* [n]serve God
acceptably with reverence and godly fear.
29 For [o]our God is a consuming fire.

12:8 then you are illegitimate and not sons. In Roman society an illegitimate son was one who had no inheritance rights.

12:11 the peaceable fruit of righteousness. This phrase suggests that the result of God's discipline is peace and righteousness.

12:18–24 For you have not come to the mountain. In these verses, the author of Hebrews contrasts the Mosaic covenant with the new covenant by contrasting two mountains: Mount Sinai and Mount Zion. At Mount Sinai, the Israelites received the law from God with fear and trembling, for God displayed at that time His awesome power (Ex. 19:10—20:26). In contrast, Christian believers have come to a heavenly Jerusalem on Mount Zion through Jesus' blood. This mountain is a celebration of the Holy One, attended by angels, believers, and righteous people. The author makes the contrast between the two covenants vivid and then once again exhorts his readers not to reject Christ's offer of salvation (vv. 25–29).

12:23 just men made perfect. This phrase refers to all believers who have died. They are just because they have been justified or made righteous and perfect because they are now "complete" in heaven.

12:25 Him who speaks from heaven. This is a reference to Christ, who spoke on earth and is now in heaven.

12:29 our God is a consuming fire. The author concludes his lengthy warning to those who are tempted to abandon the faith (2:1—12:29) with a vivid description of God's judgment (Deut. 4:24). The Lord will judge His people (10:27,30).

Concluding Moral Directions

13 Let [a]brotherly love continue. [2b]Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by so doing [c]some have unwittingly entertained angels. [3d]Remember the prisoners as if chained with them—those who are mistreated—since you yourselves are in the body also.

[4e]Marriage is honorable among all, and the bed undefiled; [f]but fornicators and adulterers God will judge.

[5]Let your conduct be without covetousness; be content with such things as you have. For He Himself has said, [g]*"I will never leave you nor forsake you." [6]So we may boldly say:

[h]"The LORD is my helper;
I will not fear.
*What can man do to me?"

Concluding Religious Directions

[7]Remember those who rule over you, who have spoken the word of God to you, whose faith follow, considering the outcome of their conduct. [8]Jesus Christ is [i]the same yesterday, today, and forever. [9]Do not be carried about* with various and strange doctrines. For it is good that the heart be established by grace, not with foods which have not profited those who have been occupied with them.

[10]We have an altar from which those who serve the tabernacle have no right to eat. [11]For the bodies of those animals, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned outside the camp. [12]Therefore Jesus also, that He might sanctify the people with His own blood, suffered outside the gate. [13]Therefore let us go forth to Him, outside the camp, bearing [j]His reproach. [14]For here we have no continuing city, but we seek the one to come. [15k]Therefore by Him let us continually offer [l]the sacrifice of praise to God, that is, [m]the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to His name. [16n]But do not forget to do good and to share, for [o]with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

[17p]Obey those who rule over you, and be submissive, for [q]they watch out for your souls, as those who must give account. Let them do so with joy and not with grief, for that would be unprofitable for you.

Prayer Requested

[18r]Pray for us; for we are confident that we have [s]a good conscience, in all things desiring to live honorably. [19]But I especially urge you to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

* 13:5 Deuteronomy 31:6, 8; Joshua 1:5
* 13:6 Psalm 118:6 * 13:9 NU-Text and M-Text read away.

13:2 entertained angels. This is a reference to men in the Old Testament who encounter heavenly beings. These men included Abraham (Gen. 18), Lot (Gen. 19), and Gideon (Judg. 6). The idea is that, when you practice hospitality, you may be helping a messenger of God without realizing it.

13:5 I will never leave you nor forsake you. This quotation is one of the emphatic statements in the New Testament. In Greek it contains two double negatives, similar to saying in English, "I will never, ever, ever forsake you." Jesus uses the same technique to express the certainty of eternal life for believers (John 10:28).

13:9 strange doctrines. This implies ideas foreign to the gospel message. Many of the ideas which the author was confronting were Jewish in origin—pertaining to ritual observances, sacrificial feasts, and various laws identifying what was clean and unclean.

13:11 burned outside the camp. The believer has a sacrifice, Jesus Christ. He atoned for the sins of humanity with His death on the cross. But, unlike the high priests from the Old Testament, believers receive their sustenance from Christ in a symbolic way, by believing in Him (John 6:41–58).

13:15–16 sacrifice of praise. Although the Old Testament sacrifices are now obsolete (8:13), believers are to offer spiritual sacrifices which include their praise, their possessions, and even their lives (Rom. 12:1–2).

13:15 Worship—Since worship encompasses thought, feeling, and deed, there are many expressions of it. Worship especially includes praise and thanksgiving which may be expressed privately or publicly, whether by grateful declarations (Heb. 13:15) or by joyful singing (Ps. 100:2; Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). Portions of early Christian hymns of worship have been preserved in the New Testament (Phil. 2:5–11; 1 Tim. 3:16; 2 Tim. 2:11–13). One very important expression of worship for the church is remembering the death of Christ through the Lord's Supper (1 Cor. 11:26). The Lord's Supper was instituted by Christ Himself (Matt. 26:26–28) and judged by Paul to be taken very seriously (1 Cor. 11:28–32). Since worship means giving something to God, the cheerful giving of money to God's work is certainly an act of worship (2 Cor. 9:7). The exercise of one of the spiritual gifts in ministry to the body of Christ constitutes worship as service (1 Cor. 12) as does faithfully occupying a church office (Eph. 4:11; 1 Tim. 3:1–13; Titus 1:5–9). In fact, presenting ourselves (mind and body) to God to serve in any context is described as an act of worship in Romans 12:1. In this manner our whole lives become acts of worship.

Benediction, Final Exhortation, Farewell

20 Now may [t]the God of peace [u]who brought up our Lord Jesus from the dead, [v]that great Shepherd of the sheep, [w]through the blood of the everlasting covenant, 21 make you complete in every good work to do His will, [x]working in you* what is well
pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ,
to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

22 And I appeal to you, brethren, bear with the word of exhortation, for I have written to you in few words. 23 Know that our brother Timothy has been set free, with whom I shall see you if he comes shortly.
24 Greet all those who rule over you, and all the saints. Those from Italy greet you.
25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

13:20 great Shepherd of the sheep. Having laid down His life for them (John 10:15) and now continuing to make intercession for them (7:25), this is another description of Jesus' ministry.

13:22 word of exhortation. This phrase refers to the whole epistle to the Hebrews. It is an exhortation not to depart from the living God (3:12), but to go on to maturity (6:1) and endure in the faith to the end (3:6,14).

13:24 Those from Italy. This phrase may refer to people living in Italy, or else to people from there who were now living elsewhere. Because of its ambiguity, this phrase does not reveal the location of the author or of the recipients.

THE EPISTLE OF JAMES

▶ AUTHOR: Four men are named James in the New Testament, one of which is the Lord's brother (Matt. 13:55; Mark 6:3; Gal. 1:19). Tradition points to this prominent figure as the author of the epistle, and this best fits the evidence of Scripture. The brevity and limited doctrinal emphasis of James kept it from wide circulation, and by the time it became known in the church as a whole, there was uncertainty about the identity of the James in 1:1. Growing recognition that it was written by the Lord's brother led to its acceptance as a canonical book.

▶ TIME: c. A.D. 46–49 ▶ KEY VERSES: James 1:19–22

▶ THEME: James is for the practical person. While most of Paul's epistles have a theological and practical section, there isn't much theoretical or systematic theology in this book. The subject matters covered in James are the issues we face daily if not hourly. How do we respond to trials and temptation? What are we doing with our money? Do we keep our tongues under control? Are we acting on our faith? What are we doing with our prayer lives? The main point of all these questions James raises is that saving faith needs to result in changed behavior.

Greeting to the Twelve Tribes

1 James, [a]a bondservant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ,

To the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad:

Greetings.

Profiting from Trials

[2]My brethren, [b]count it all joy [c]when you fall into various trials, [3][d]knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience. [4]But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing. [5][e]If any of you lacks wisdom, [f]let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and [g]it will be given to him. [6][h]But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea driven and tossed by the wind. [7]For let not that man suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; [8]he is [i]a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

The Perspective of Rich and Poor

[9]Let the lowly brother glory in his exaltation, [10]but the rich in his humiliation, because [j]as a flower of the field he will pass away. [11]For no sooner has the sun risen with a burning heat than it withers the grass; its flower falls, and its beautiful appearance perishes. So the rich man also will fade away in his pursuits.

Loving God Under Trials

[12][k]Blessed is the man who endures temptation; for when he has been approved, he will receive [l]the crown of life [m]which the

1:1 To the twelve tribes. This salutation probably means the letter is for Jewish Christians living outside of Palestine. The letter was not intended for one specific church but was to be passed around among various local assemblies.

1:2 trials. These are outward circumstances—conflicts, sufferings, and troubles—encountered by all believers. Trials are not pleasant and may be extremely grievous, but believers are to consider them as opportunities for rejoicing. Troubles and difficulties are a tool which refines and purifies our faith, producing patience and endurance.

1:3 testing of your faith. The word that is translated into this phrase occurs only here and in 1 Peter 1:7. The term was used for coins that were genuine and not debased. The aim of testing is not to destroy or afflict, but to purge and refine. "Patience" here transcends the idea of bearing affliction; it includes the idea of standing fast under pressure, with a staying power that turns adversities into opportunities.

1:5 wisdom. The starting point for wisdom is a genuine reverence for the Almighty (Ps. 111:10; Prov. 9:10) and a steadfast confidence that God controls all circumstances, guiding them to His good purposes (Rom. 8:28).

1:8 double-minded. This person is literally one with "two souls." If one part of a person is set on God and the other is set on this world (Matt. 6:24), there will be constant conflict within.

1:12 will receive the crown of life. The Bible describes the believer's reward (2 Cor. 5:10; Rev. 22:12)

Lord has promised to those who love Him.
13Let no one say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by God"; for God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does He Himself tempt anyone. 14But each one is tempted when he is drawn away by his own desires and enticed. 15Then, [n]when desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, [o]brings forth death.

16Do not be deceived, my beloved brethren. 17[p]Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, [q]with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning. 18[r]Of His own will He brought us forth by the [s]word of truth, [t]that we might be a kind of first-fruits of His creatures.

Qualities Needed in Trials

19So then,* my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, [u]slow to speak, [v]slow to wrath; 20for the wrath of man does not produce the righteousness of God.

Doers—Not Hearers Only

21Therefore [w]lay aside all filthiness and overflow of wickedness, and receive with meekness the implanted word, [x]which is able to save your souls.

22But [y]be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. 23For [z]if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man observing his natural face in a mirror; 24for he observes himself, goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was. 25But [a]he who looks into the perfect law of liberty and continues in it, and is not a forgetful hearer but a doer of the work, [b]this one will be blessed in what he does.

26If anyone among you* thinks he is religious, and [c]does not bridle his tongue but deceives his own heart, this one's religion is useless. 27[d]Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: [e]to visit orphans and widows in their trouble, [f]and to keep oneself unspotted from the world.

Beware of Personal Favoritism

2 My brethren, do not hold the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, [a]the Lord of glory, with [b]partiality. 2For if there should come into your assembly a man with gold rings, in fine apparel, and there should also come in a poor man in filthy clothes, 3and you pay attention to the one wearing the fine clothes and say to him, "You sit here in a good place," and say to the poor man, "You stand there," or, "Sit here at my footstool," 4have you not shown partiality among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts?

5Listen, my beloved brethren: [c]Has God not chosen the poor of this world to be [d]rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom [e]which He promised to those who love Him? 6But [f]you have dishonored the poor man. Do not the rich oppress you [g]and drag you into the courts? 7Do they not blaspheme that noble name by which you are [h]called?

8If you really fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, [i]*"You shall love your neighbor as yourself," you do well; 9but if you show partiality, you commit sin, and are convicted by the law as [j]transgressors. 10For whoever shall keep the whole law, and yet [k]stumble in one point, [l]he is guilty

under various vivid images, such as precious metals (1 Cor. 3:8–14), garments (Rev. 3:5,18; 19:7–8), and crowns (1 Cor. 9:25; Rev. 2:10; 3:11).

1:13 nor does He Himself tempt anyone. Enticement to sin does not come from God. God will never deliberately lead a person to commit sin because that would not only go against His nature, but it would also be opposed to His purpose of molding His creation into His holy image. Yet, God does sometimes place His people in adverse circumstances for the purpose of building godly character (Gen. 22:1,12).

1:19 swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath. These three exhortations reveal the outline of this letter (1:21—2:26 for "swift to hear"; 3:1–18 for "slow to speak"; 4:1—5:18 for "slow to wrath").

1:21 receive with meekness the implanted word. The believer should have a teachable spirit—without resisting, disputing, or questioning. Receiving God's Word this way will save the believer's soul.

1:22 be doers of the word, and not hearers only. Believers who hear the Word of God (v. 19) must receive it with a teachable spirit (v. 21), applying it to their daily lives. To hear and not obey is to be deceived.

1:25 the perfect law of liberty. Loving God and loving one's neighbor sum up the law (Rom. 13:8–10). But it is Christ's love (Eph. 3:17–19) which frees us from our sins to truly love others (John 8:36–38; Gal. 5:13).

1:27 orphans and widows. These people were among the most unprotected and needy classes in ancient societies (Ezek. 22:7). Pure religion does not merely give material goods for the relief of the distressed; it also oversees their care (Acts 6:1–7).

2:5 heirs of the kingdom. This inheritance means more than entering the kingdom; it also involves ruling with Christ (1 Cor. 6:9; Gal. 5:21; 2 Tim. 2:12).

2:9 if you show partiality, you commit sin. James alludes to Leviticus 19:15, which prohibits favoritism to either the poor or the rich.

2:10 he is guilty of all. God does not allow selective of all. 11For He who said, [m]"Do not commit adultery," also said, [n]"Do not murder." Now if you do not commit adultery, but you do murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. 12So speak and so do as those who will be judged by [o]the law of liberty. 13For [p]judgment is without mercy to the one who has shown [q]no [r]mercy. [s]Mercy triumphs over judgment.

Faith Without Works Is Dead

14[t]What does it profit, my brethren, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can faith save him? 15[u]If a brother or sister is naked and destitute of daily food, 16and [v]one of you says to them, "Depart in peace, be warmed and filled," but you do not give them the things which are needed for the body, what does it profit? 17Thus also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

18But someone will say, "You have faith, and I have works." [w]Show me your faith without your* works, [x]and I will show you my faith by my* works. 19You believe that there is one God. You do well. Even the demons believe—and tremble! 20But do you want to know, O foolish man, that faith without works is dead?* 21Was not Abraham our father justified by works [y]when he offered Isaac his son on the altar? 22Do you see [z]that faith was working together with his works, and by [a]works faith was made perfect? 23And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, [b]*"Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness." And he was called [c]the friend of God. 24You see then that a man is justified by works, and not by faith only.

25Likewise, [d]was not Rahab the harlot also justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out another way?

26For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

The Untamable Tongue

3 My brethren, [a]let not many of you become teachers, [b]knowing that we shall receive a stricter judgment. 2For [c]we all stumble in many things. [d]If anyone does not stumble in word, [e]he is a perfect man, able also to bridle the whole body. 3Indeed,* [f]we put bits in horses' mouths that they may obey us, and we turn their whole body. 4Look also at ships: although they are so large and are driven by fierce winds, they are turned by a very small rudder wherever the pilot desires. 5Even so [g]the tongue is a little member and [h]boasts great things.

See how great a forest a little fire kindles! 6And [i]the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity. The tongue is so set among our members that it [j]defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire by hell. 7For every kind of beast and bird, of reptile and creature of the sea, is tamed and has been tamed by mankind. 8But no man can tame the tongue. It is an unruly evil, [k]full of deadly poison. 9With it we bless our God and Father, and with it we curse men, who have been made [l]in the similitude of God. 10Out of the same mouth proceed blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not to be so.

obedience. We cannot choose to obey the parts of the law that are to our own liking and disregard the rest. Some of the Pharisees were guilty of this. They carefully observed some of the requirements of the law, such as keeping the Sabbath, and ignored others, such as honoring their parents (Matt. 15:1–7). Sin is a violation of the perfect righteousness of God, who is the Lawgiver. James is saying that the whole divine law has to be accepted as an expression of God's will for His people. The violation of even one commandment separates an individual from God and His purposes.

2:14 What does it profit. James is implying in this verse that faith in Christ will demonstrate itself in love for others (John 13:34–35).

2:19 Even the demons believe—and tremble. While they believe, the demons do not love Him (Matt. 8:29). Their kind of belief does not lead to love, submission, and obedience; instead, it leads to hatred, rebellion, and disobedience.

2:21 justified. James is using the word justified to mean "proved." We prove to others our genuine faith in Christ through our works. But the justification that comes through faith is before God, and we do not "prove" ourselves to Him; instead, God declares us righteous through our association with Christ, the One who died for our sins (Rom. 3:28).

2:22 faith . . . works. These two should be together; there is a close relationship between the two. Faith produces works; and works make faith perfect, meaning "mature" or "complete."

3:1 we shall receive a stricter judgment. James does not give the warning of condemnation to others without applying it to himself.

3:7–8 no man can tame the tongue. The instincts of animals can be subdued through conditioning and punishment, but the sinful nature that inspires evil words is beyond our control. Only the work of the Holy Spirit within us can bring this destructive force under control.

3:9 we bless our God and Father. James is pointing out the inconsistency of blessing God while cursing people who are created in His image.

salt water and fresh.*

Heavenly Versus Demonic Wisdom

13 [n]Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show by good conduct that his works are done in the meekness of wisdom. 14 But if you have [o]bitter envy and self-seeking in your hearts, [p]do not boast and lie against the truth. 15 [q]This wisdom does not descend from above, but is earthly, sensual, demonic. 16 For [r]where envy and self-seeking exist, confusion and every evil thing are there. 17 But [s]the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, [t]without partiality [u]and without hypocrisy. 18 [v]Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

Pride Promotes Strife

4 Where do wars and fights come from among you? Do they not come from your desires for pleasure [a]that war in your members? 2 You lust and do not have. You murder and covet and cannot obtain. You fight and war. Yet* you do not have because you do not ask. 3 [b]You ask and do not receive, [c]because you ask amiss, that you may spend it on your pleasures. 4 Adulterers and* adulteresses! Do you not know that [d]friendship with the world is enmity with God? [e]Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. 5 Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, [f]"The Spirit who dwells in us yearns jealously"?
6 But He gives more grace. Therefore He says:

[g]"God resists the proud,
*But gives grace to the humble."

Humility Cures Worldliness

7 Therefore submit to God. [h]Resist the devil and he will flee from you. 8 [i]Draw near to God and He will draw near to you.
[j]Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and [k]purify your hearts, you double-minded.
9 [l]Lament and mourn and weep! Let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy to gloom. 10 [m]Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He will lift you up.

Do Not Judge a Brother

11 [n]Do not speak evil of one another, brethren. He who speaks evil of a brother [o]and judges his brother, speaks evil of the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge. 12 There is one Lawgiver,* [p]who is able to save and to destroy. [q]Who* are you to judge another?*

Do Not Boast About Tomorrow

13 Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will* go to such and such a city,

3:16 confusion. On the other hand, God brings harmony and wisdom (1 Cor. 14:33). Anyone who is involved in envy and strife is confused. This confusion corrupts human relationships. It is likely that the Jewish Christians to whom James was writing were going through turmoil because of sinful acts like the ones mentioned here. James wanted his readers to set aside their petty attitudes and seek reconciliation.

4:1 wars and fights. The source of problems is the conflict between desires for pleasure and the desire for God's will, an attitude that the Holy Spirit has placed within us.

4:3 you ask amiss. Some might have protested James's admonition (vv. 1–2) by claiming that they had not received an answer to their prayers (Matt. 7:7). James responds by suggesting that they were praying for the wrong things. Instead of praying for their sinful desires, they should have been praying for God's good will for them.

4:4 Whoever therefore wants. This verse does not speak of God's attitude toward the believer, but of the believer's attitude toward God. The difference between the world and God is so vast that, as we move toward the world, we alienate ourselves from God. In the world, sin is considered acceptable and pleasurable. Ultimately the world has lost its awareness of sin, and thus sin has become habitual.

4:6 God resists the proud. James quotes from Proverbs 3:34 to prove his point. Those who submit to divine wisdom will receive the necessary grace from God to put into practice the kind of life James describes (3:13–18). On the other hand, those who elevate themselves will face a formidable foe (v. 4). God Himself will fight against their plans, because they are not on His side.

4:9 Lament and mourn and weep. When a believer who has fallen into sin responds to God's call for repentance, he or she should place laughter and joy aside to reflect on the sin with genuine sorrow (2 Cor. 7:9–10). In this verse, laughter seems to refer to the loud revelry of pleasure-loving people. They immerse themselves in a celebration of their sins in an effort to forget God's judgment. A Christian should never laugh at sin. However, Christian sorrow leads to repentance; repentance leads to forgiveness; and forgiveness leads to true joy over one's reconciliation with God (Ps. 32:1; 126:2; Prov. 15:13).

4:13 we will go . . . and make a profit. The problem here is not the plan or the concept of planning; it is leaving God out of the plan (v. 15).

spend a year there, buy and sell, and make a profit"; 14whereas you do not know what will happen tomorrow. For what is your life? [r]It is even a vapor that appears for a little time and then vanishes away. 15Instead you ought to say, [s]"If the Lord wills, we shall live and do this or that." 16But now you boast in your arrogance. [t]All such boasting is evil.

17Therefore, [u]to him who knows to do good and does not do it, to him it is sin.

Rich Oppressors Will Be Judged

5 Come now, you [a]rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming upon you! 2Your [b]riches are corrupted, and [c]your garments are moth-eaten. 3Your gold and silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be a witness against you and will eat your flesh like fire. [d]You have heaped up treasure in the last days. 4Indeed [e]the wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, cry out; and [f]the cries of the reapers have reached the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth.* 5You have lived on the earth in pleasure and luxury; you have fattened your hearts as* in a day of slaughter. 6You have condemned, you have murdered the just; he does not resist you.

Be Patient and Persevering

7Therefore be patient, brethren, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, waiting patiently for it until it receives the early and latter rain. 8You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand.

9Do not grumble against one another, brethren, lest you be condemned.* Behold, the Judge is standing at the door! 10[g]My brethren, take the prophets, who spoke in the name of the Lord, as an example of suffering and [h]patience. 11Indeed [i]we count them blessed who [j]endure. You have heard of [k]the perseverance of Job and seen [l]the end intended by the Lord—that [m]the Lord is very compassionate and merciful.

12But above all, my brethren, [n]do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or with any other oath. But let your "Yes" be "Yes," and your "No," "No," lest you fall into judgment.*

Meeting Specific Needs

13Is anyone among you suffering? Let him [o]pray. Is anyone cheerful? [p]Let him sing psalms. 14Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, [q]anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. 15And the prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise him up. [r]And if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. 16Confess your trespasses* to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. [s]The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much. 17Elijah was a man [t]with a nature like ours, and [u]he prayed earnestly that it would not rain; and it did not rain on the land for three years and six months. 18And he prayed [v]again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth produced its fruit.

Bring Back the Erring One

19Brethren, if anyone among you wanders from the truth, and someone [w]turns him back, 20let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way [x]will save a soul* from death and [y]cover a multitude of sins.

* 5:4 Literally, in Hebrew, Hosts * 5:5 NU-Text omits as. * 5:9 NU-Text and M-Text read judged. * 5:12 M-Text reads hypocrisy. * 5:16 NU-Text reads Therefore confess your sins. * 5:20 NU-Text reads his soul.

5:2–3 your garments. In the ancient world, food, costly clothing, and precious metals were conspicuous signs of wealth. James pronounces judgment and destruction on all three.

5:12–13 do not swear. James is not forbidding a believer from taking an oath in court or invoking God as witness to some significant statement (1 Thess. 2:5). Instead, he is prohibiting the ancient practice of appealing to a variety of different objects to confirm the veracity of one's statement. This practice was extremely close to idolatry, for it implied that such objects contained spirits. The warning in these verses can serve as a reminder to us to watch what we say. We should not use God's name in a reckless manner, and we should be careful to speak the truth.

5:14 anointing him with oil. This may refer to medicinal treatment (Luke 10:34). Yet, in this passage, it most likely refers to the healing power of the Holy Spirit, for verse 15 speaks of prayer saving the person. In either case, there is no indication that calling the elders excludes the use of a physician or medicine.

5:15 the prayer of faith. Whether a believer is healed through medicine or through miraculous means, all healing is ultimately from the Lord. That is why prayers should be consistently offered for the sick.

5:16 The effective, fervent prayer. This can mean that (1) prayer is effective when it is used, or (2) fervent prayer accomplishes great results.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF
PETER

▶ AUTHOR: The early church universally acknowledged the authenticity and authority of 1 Peter. It is likely that Peter used Silvanus as his scribe (5:12). This epistle was addressed to Christians throughout Asia Minor, indicating the spread of the gospel in regions not evangelized when Acts was written. It was written from Babylon (5:13), but scholars are divided as to whether this refers literally to Babylon in Mesopotamia or symbolically to Rome. It is probably the latter as tradition consistently indicates that Peter spent the last few years of his life in Rome.

▶ TIME: c. A.D. 63–64 ▶ KEY VERSES: 1 Pet. 4:12–13

▶ THEME: First Peter was probably written to the Roman provinces of Turkey at the beginning of Nero's persecutions of Christians. Its primary message is one of comfort, hope, and encouragement. He asks the readers to hold fast to the faith in the midst of the coming persecution. In these letters we get a picture of a mature Peter who has incorporated Christ's crucifixion and death and resurrection into his thinking about suffering. He fully understands, and even looks forward to, the glory that is to come after the sufferings of this life.

Greeting to the Elect Pilgrims

1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ,

To the pilgrims [a]of the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, 2 [b]elect [c]according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, [d]in sanctification of the Spirit, for [e]obedience and [f]sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ:

[g]Grace to you and peace be multiplied.

A Heavenly Inheritance

3 [h]Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who [i]according to His abundant mercy [j]has begotten us again to a living hope [k]through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, 4 to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that does not fade away, [l]reserved in heaven for you, 5 [m]who are kept by the power of God through faith for salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

6 [n]In this you greatly rejoice, though now [o]for a little while, if need be, [p]you have been grieved by various trials, 7 that [q]the genuineness of your faith, being much more precious than gold that perishes, though [r]it is tested by fire, [s]may be found to praise, honor, and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ, 8 [t]whom having not seen* you love. [u]Though now you do not see Him, yet

* 1:8 M-Text reads known.

1:1 pilgrims. This term conveys the idea of being dispersed, much like the Jewish exiles of the Old Testament who were not living in their homeland but in Babylon.

1:2 sanctification of the Spirit. Sanctification is the ongoing process whereby the Holy Spirit works in believers, making their lives holy, separated from their old ways and to God in order to be more like Him. sprinkling of the blood. This concept, the second reason why God chooses us, draws our attention to three situations in the Old Testament when the Israelites were sprinkled with the blood of animals: (1) Moses' sprinkling of blood on the Israelites at Mount Sinai to symbolize their initiation into the covenant (Ex. 24:5–8); (2) the sprinkling of Aaron and his sons to be the priests of Israel (Ex. 29:19–21); and (3) the sprinkling of the blood performed by priests over healed lepers to symbolize their cleansing (Lev. 14:1–9). Any of these three cases could be the one that Peter has in mind here.

1:3 according to His abundant mercy. Our salvation is grounded in God's mercy, His act of compassion toward us despite our condition of sinfulness. has begotten us again. God has given believers a new, spiritual life that enables us to live in an entirely different dimension than the one our physical birth allowed.

1:4 inheritance. The Greek word here suggests both a present and a future reality. God has already determined what we will one day experience in its totality. reserved. God has set aside in heaven a wonderful inheritance that is waiting for us even now.

1:7 that the genuineness of your faith. As the purity of gold is brought forth by intense heat, so the reality believing, you rejoice with joy inexpressible and full of glory, 9receiving the end of your faith—the salvation of your souls.

10Of this salvation the prophets have inquired and searched carefully, who prophesied of the grace that would come to you, 11searching what, or what manner of time, [v]the Spirit of Christ who was in them was indicating when He testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ and the glories that would follow. 12To them it was revealed that, not to themselves, but to us* they were ministering the things which now have been reported to you through those who have preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven—things which [w]angels desire to look into.

Living Before God Our Father

13Therefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and rest your hope fully upon the grace that is to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ; 14as obedient children, not [x]conforming yourselves to the former lusts, as in your ignorance; 15[y]but as He who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, 16because it is written, [z]*"Be holy, for I am holy."

17And if you call on the Father, who [a]without partiality judges according to each one's work, conduct yourselves throughout the time of your stay here in fear; 18knowing that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, like silver or gold, from your aimless conduct received by tradition from your fathers, 19but [b]with the precious blood of Christ, [c]as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 20[d]He indeed was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest [e]in these last times for you 21who through Him believe in God, [f]who raised Him from the dead and [g]gave Him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

The Enduring Word

22Since you [h]have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit* in sincere [i]love of the brethren, love one another fervently with a pure heart, 23[j]having been born again, not of corruptible seed but incorruptible, [k]through the word of God which lives and abides forever,* 24because

[l]"All flesh is as grass,
And all the glory of man as the flower of the grass.*
The grass withers,
And its flower falls away,
25 [m]*But the word of the LORD endures forever."

[n]Now this is the word which by the gospel was preached to you.

2 Therefore, [a]laying aside all malice, all deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and all evil speaking, 2[b]as newborn babes, desire the pure [c]milk of the word, that you may grow thereby,* 3if indeed you have [d]tasted that the Lord is gracious.

* 1:12 NU-Text and M-Text read you. * 1:16 Leviticus 11:44, 45; 19:2; 20:7 * 1:22 NU-Text omits through the Spirit. * 1:23 NU-Text omits forever. * 1:24 NU-Text reads all its glory. * 1:25 Isaiah 40:6–8 * 2:2 NU-Text adds up to salvation.

and purity of our faith are revealed as a result of the fiery trials we face. Ultimately the testing of our faith not only demonstrates our final salvation but also develops our capacity to bring glory to the Lord Jesus Christ when He comes into His kingdom and we reign with Him (Rom. 8:17; 2 Tim. 2:12; Rev. 5:9–12).

1:10 the prophets. Peter indicates that the Old Testament prophets knew of the gracious salvation we would one day receive and, as a result, studied it carefully and intensively.

1:12 by the Holy Spirit. Although humans may preach God's message of salvation, ultimately the Holy Spirit is the One who proclaims these great truths. Even the angels are amazed at what a wonderful salvation God has enacted on our behalf (Eph. 3:10).

1:13 gird up the loins of your mind. Just as people in biblical times would gather up their long robes and tie them around their waists so that they could move quickly and freely, we need to do whatever it takes to focus our thoughts on those things that allow us to serve God successfully, all the while eliminating any thoughts that would trip us up (Heb. 12:1). be sober. Peter's concern here is primarily using mentally or spiritually sound judgment. hope fully. We need to exhibit confidence that God will accomplish all that He promised He would do (v. 3; Rom. 8:24–25).

1:17 in fear. For Christians, this phrase should be understood as something between terror and reverential awe. We need to remember that God is both our merciful Savior (vv. 3,18–21) and our holy Judge (vv. 15–17).

1:19 a lamb. Peter describes Christ as the ultimate sacrificial Lamb, who is offered in our place to pay the price for our sins. The analogy here may be a reference either to the Passover lamb (Ex. 12:3–6) or to the many lambs without blemish that were offered as part of the Old Testament sacrificial system (Lev. 23:12; Num. 6:14; 28:3).

1:20 foreordained. God has known (v. 2) the One who would bring salvation, even as He has known those to whom that salvation is offered and secured (Rom. 11:2). but was manifest. This phrase contrasts with the first half of the verse. What was known only to God before the creation of the world is now made known to us.

1:22 purified your souls. We accomplish the purification of our souls by obedience to God's truth.

2:2 that you may grow thereby. The purpose of studying God's truth is not only to learn more, but to become mature in the faith.

The Chosen Stone and His Chosen People

4 Coming to Him as to a living stone, [e]rejected indeed by men, but chosen by God and precious, 5 you also, as living stones, are being built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.
6 Therefore it is also contained in the Scripture,

[f] "Behold, I lay in Zion
A chief cornerstone, elect, precious,
And he who believes on Him will by
*no means be put to shame."

7 Therefore, to you who believe, He is precious; but to those who are disobedient,*

[g] "The stone which the builders rejected
*Has become the chief cornerstone,"

8 and

[h] "A stone of stumbling
*And a rock of offense."

[i] They stumble, being disobedient to the word, [j] to which they also were appointed.
9 But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, His own special people, that you may proclaim the praises
of Him who called you out of [k] darkness into His marvelous light; 10 [l] who once were not a people but are now the people of God,
who had not obtained mercy but now have obtained mercy.

Living Before the World

11 Beloved, I beg you as sojourners and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts [m] which war against the soul, 12 [n] having your conduct honorable among the Gentiles, that when they speak against you as evildoers, [o] they may, by your good works which they observe, glorify God in the day of visitation.

Submission to Government

13 [p] Therefore submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake, whether to the king as supreme, 14 or to governors, as to those who are sent by him
for the punishment of evildoers and for the praise of those who do good. 15 For this is the will of God, that by doing good you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men— 16 [q] as free, yet not [r] using liberty as a cloak for vice, but as bondservants of God.
17 Honor all people. Love the brotherhood.
Fear [s] God. Honor the king.

Submission to Masters

18 [t] Servants, be submissive to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and

* 2:6 Isaiah 28:16 * 2:7 NU-Text reads to those who disbelieve. • Psalm 118:22 * 2:8 Isaiah 8:14

2:4 living stone. This phrase anticipates the Old Testament quotations in verses 6–8. Jesus, as a living stone, is superior to the Old Testament temple.

2:5 stones. Christians are part of God's great spiritual building project. Referenced here are stones that are shaped and ready for use in construction, as opposed to natural rock. a holy priesthood. Unlike the Old Testament priesthood, in which only those who were born into a certain tribe could be priests, all who are reborn into God's family, that is, all believers, are priests who have the privilege and responsibility of offering spiritual sacrifices to God (Rom. 12:1–2; Heb. 13:15–16).

2:6 A chief cornerstone . . . precious. Jesus is the foundation stone from which the placement of all other living stones in the spiritual house (v. 5) is determined (Is. 28:16). In ancient buildings, the cornerstone was first situated on the foundation and then all of the other stones were aligned to it. Thus as part of the house of God, we need to keep our focus on our Cornerstone (Heb. 12:2).

2:9 a chosen generation. God has not left to chance who will be part of a unique body of people, a group who will serve Him. a royal priesthood. Believers are transformed not only internally (v. 5), which describes us as being made into a "holy priesthood" but also externally. We are a priesthood that functions in a ruling capacity, as kings. a holy nation. Believers are a unified group of people who are set apart for God's use. special people. God protects those whom He has adopted into His family.

2:11 sojourners and pilgrims. With these words, Peter reminds believers (1:1) that this earth is not our home. We are foreigners here, traveling to our eternal home, heaven.

2:12 day of visitation. This term probably refers to the final day of judgment when all people, believers and unbelievers alike, will fall on their knees and acknowledge who Jesus Christ is and what He has done through His people.

2:13 every ordinance of man. This phrase suggests that the submission of Christians is not to be exercised solely in relation to civil authorities (v. 14), but to all kinds of rules that Christians encounter (2:18; 3:1).

2:13 Our Responsibility to Human Government—As children of God, our responsibility to human government is threefold:

1. We are to recognize and accept that the powers that be are ordained by God (Rom. 13:1). This truth even applies to governments that are anti-Christian. If a given law is clearly anti-scriptural, the believer is required to obey God rather than man (Dan. 3; 6; Acts 4:18–20).
2. We are to pay our taxes to human governments (Matt. 17:24; 22:21; Rom. 13:7).
3. We are to pray for the leaders in human government (1 Tim. 2:1–3).

2:16 as a cloak for vice. This may be understood either as an excuse made up before the fact, or after the fact.

2:18 be submissive . . . with all fear. Workers are to take their responsibilities seriously, even when serving the worst of bosses.

2:4 [e] Ps. 118:22 2:6 [f] Is. 28:16 2:7 [g] Ps. 118:22 2:8 [h] Is. 8:14 [i] 1 Cor. 1:23 [j] Rom. 9:22 2:9 [k] [Acts 26:18] 2:10 [l] Hos. 1:9, 10; 2:23 2:11 [m] James 4:1 2:12 [n] Phil. 2:15 [o] Matt. 5:16; 9:8 2:13 [p] Matt. 22:21 2:16 [q] Rom. 6:14, 20, 22 [r] Gal. 5:13 2:17 [s] Prov. 24:21 2:18 [t] Eph. 6:5–8

gentle, but also to the harsh. 19For this is [u]commendable, if because of conscience toward God one endures grief, suffering wrongfully. 20For [v]what credit is it if, when you are beaten for your faults, you take it patiently? But when you do good and suffer, if you take it patiently, this is commendable before God. 21For [w]to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us,* [x]leaving us* an example, that you should follow His steps:

22 "Who [y]committed no sin,
*Nor was deceit found in His mouth";

23[z]who, when He was reviled, did not revile in return; when He suffered, He did not threaten, but [a]committed Himself to Him who judges righteously; 24[b]who Himself bore our sins in His own body on the tree, [c]that we, having died to sins, might live for righteousness—[d]by whose stripes you were healed. 25For [e]you were like sheep going astray, but have now returned [f]to the Shepherd and Overseer* of your souls.

Submission to Husbands

3 Wives, likewise, be [a]submissive to your own husbands, that even if some do not obey the word, [b]they, without a word, may [c]be won by the conduct of their wives, 2[d]when they observe your chaste conduct accompanied by fear. 3[e]Do not let your adornment be merely outward—arranging the hair, wearing gold, or putting on fine apparel— 4rather let it be [f]the hidden person of the heart, with the incorruptible beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is very precious in the sight of God. 5For in this manner, in former times, the holy women who trusted in God also adorned themselves, being submissive to their own husbands, 6as Sarah obeyed Abraham, [g]calling him lord, whose daughters you are if you do good and are not afraid with any terror.

A Word to Husbands

7[h]Husbands, likewise, dwell with them with understanding, giving honor to the wife, [i]as to the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life, [j]that your prayers may not be hindered.

Called to Blessing

8Finally, all of you be of one mind, having compassion for one another; love as brothers, be tenderhearted, be courteous;* 9[k]not returning evil for evil or reviling for reviling, but on the contrary [l]blessing, knowing that you were called to this, [m]that you may inherit a blessing. 10For

[n]"He who would love life
And see good days,
[o]Let him refrain his tongue from evil,
And his lips from speaking deceit.
11 Let him [p]turn away from evil and do good;
[q]Let him seek peace and pursue it.
12 For the eyes of the LORD are on the righteous,
[r]And His ears are open to their prayers;
*But the face of the LORD is against those who do evil."

2:20 For what credit. There is no advantage to believers for successfully enduring a deserved punishment for wrongdoing, yet there is great value when we honor God with our actions when we are unfairly condemned by others (3:17). take it patiently. Patience and perseverance in the face of suffering please God.
2:24 who Himself bore our sins. The Greek wording emphasizes Jesus' personal involvement in the act of paying the price for our sins. having died to sins, might live for righteousness. The purpose of Christ's bearing our sins is that we might live to please Him.
2:25 Overseer. No one else is qualified to be the one Shepherd and Overseer of our souls—only Christ is. For this reason the New Testament regularly describes the church and its congregations as having more than one leader (Titus 1:5).
3:1 without a word. A godly wife does not preach to her non-Christian husband with words but with the Christlike beauty of her daily life. The goal is to see that husband become a Christian.
3:3 merely outward. Christians are to spend more time developing their inner character than attempting to make themselves look beautiful on the outside (1 Sam. 16). Peter is not condemning women who wear jewelry. He is emphasizing the importance of a woman's character.
3:4 gentle and quiet spirit. Peter encourages Christian wives to exhibit attitudes that do not demand personal rights, attitudes that are not harsh and grating but are soothing and tranquil.
3:6 calling him lord. Sarah was not worshiping Abraham; she was showing him respect.
3:7 dwell with them with understanding. A Christian husband should be intimately aware of his wife's needs, her strengths and weaknesses, and her goals and desires. He should know as much about her as possible in order to respond in the best way to her.
3:9 evil for evil. Peter encourages Christians to act like the Lord Jesus. He endured suffering and ridicule in silence, entrusting His just cause to the ultimate Judge.
3:12 eyes . . . ears. Peter uses this imagery to remind his readers that God knows everything about believers, especially their suffering, and that He listens and responds to their cries for help (Heb. 4:12–16).

Suffering for Right and Wrong

13 [s]And who is he who will harm you
if you become followers of what is good?
14 [t]But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you are blessed. [u]"And do not be afraid of their threats, nor be troubled." 15But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and always [v]be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the [w]hope that is in you, with meekness and fear; 16 [x]having a good conscience, that when they defame you as evildoers, those who revile your good conduct in Christ
may be ashamed. 17For it is better, if it is the will of God, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil.

Christ's Suffering and Ours

18For Christ also suffered once for sins,
the just for the unjust, that He might bring us* to God, being put to death in the flesh
but made alive by the Spirit, 19by whom also He went and preached to the spirits
in prison, 20who formerly were disobedient, when once the Divine longsuffering waited* in the days of Noah, while the ark
was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water.
21 [y]There is also an antitype which now saves us—baptism [z](not the removal of the filth of the flesh, [a]but the answer of a good conscience toward God), through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, 22who has gone into heaven and [b]is at the right hand of God, [c]angels and authorities and powers
having been made subject to Him.

4 Therefore, since Christ suffered for us*
in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same mind, for he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, 2that he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh for the lusts of men, [a]but for the will of God. 3For we have spent enough of our past lifetime* in doing the will of the Gentiles—when we walked in lewdness,
lusts, drunkenness, revelries, drinking
parties, and abominable idolatries. 4In regard to these, they think it strange that you do not run with them in the same flood of dissipation, speaking evil of you. 5They
will give an account to Him who is ready [b]to judge the living and the dead. 6For this reason [c]the gospel was preached also to those who are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but [d]live according to God in the spirit.

Serving for God's Glory

therefore be serious and watchful in your prayers. 8And above all things have fervent

3:15 sanctify the Lord God in your hearts. Believers should acknowledge the eternal holiness of Christ by revering Him as the Lord of the universe who is in control of all things. to give a defense. Peter assumes that the Christian faith will be falsely accused. He therefore encourages Christians to have rational answers to respond to those false accusations.

3:17 For it is better. Peter is not encouraging believers to seek out situations in which they will experience suffering. Instead, he is saying that believers should make certain that when they suffer, it is the result of having been faithful to God rather than because they have done evil (2:19).

3:19–20 spirits in prison. The Greek term translated spirits can refer to human spirits, angels, or demons. There are three main interpretations: (1) Some interpret these verses as describing Jesus as going to the place where fallen angels are incarcerated and declaring His final victory over evil in His work on the cross; (2) others hold that spirits refers to human spirits; thus Christ preached to human beings who had died in Noah's day and were in the realm of the dead (hell or hades); and (3) another major interpretation understands this passage as describing Christ preaching through Noah to the unbelievers of his day.

4:1 has ceased from sin. Those who serve God faithfully in the midst of suffering take on a different attitude toward sin than what they previously held. Sin no longer holds the same grip on them.

4:3 abominable idolatries. The idea here is that some forms of idolatry may have been detestable even to the civil authorities. Of course, all types of idolatry are hateful to God.

4:5 will give an account. Although unbelievers think they are free to do as they please, they are greatly mistaken. There are consequences to what they do. One day they will stand defenseless before God and give an account of all of their wickedness (Rev. 20:11–15).

4:6 to those who are dead. There are four main interpretations of Peter's meaning here: (1) Some see a connection between the gospel preached in this verse and the proclamation of Christ in 3:19–20; accordingly, they understand this verse to be about Christ offering salvation to those who lived in pre-Christian times; (2) another group of commentators also connects this preaching to 3:19–20, but holds that this verse is speaking of Christ preaching the gospel only to the righteous people of Old Testament times; (3) Peter was speaking of the gospel which was preached to believers who are now dead; and (4) Peter is referring to the spiritually dead; the gospel was being preached to them so that they could come alive spiritually.

4:8 love will cover a multitude of sins. Peter is not suggesting that one Christian's love atones for another Christian's sins. Rather, by introducing this proverb from the Old Testament (Prov. 10:12), he is reminding us that love does not stir up sins. We can demonstrate our love for our fellow believers by truly forgiving them and not talking openly about their past sins.

If anyone ministers, let him do it as with the ability which God supplies, that [m]in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belong the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Suffering for God's Glory

[12]Beloved, do not think it strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened to you; [13]but rejoice [n]to the extent that you partake of Christ's sufferings, that [o]when His glory is revealed, you may also be glad with exceeding joy. [14]If you are reproached for the name of Christ, [p]blessed are you, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you.* On their part He is blasphemed, [q]but on your part He is glorified. [15]But let none of you suffer as a murderer, a thief, an evildoer, or as a busybody in other people's matters. [16]Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in this matter.*

[17]For the time has come [r]for judgment to begin at the house of God; and if it begins with us first, [s]what will be the end of those who do not obey the gospel of God? [18]Now

[t]"If the righteous one is scarcely saved,
Where will the ungodly and the sinner
*appear?"

[19]Therefore let those who suffer according to the will of God [u]commit their souls to Him in doing good, as to a faithful Creator.

Shepherd the Flock

5 The elders who are among you I exhort, I who am a fellow elder and a [a]witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the [b]glory that will be revealed: [2][c]Shepherd the flock of God which is among you, serving as overseers, [d]not by compulsion but willingly,* [e]not for dishonest gain but eagerly; [3]nor as [f]being lords over [g]those entrusted to you, but [h]being examples to the flock; [4]and when [i]the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive [j]the crown of glory that does not fade away.

Submit to God, Resist the Devil

[5]Likewise you younger people, submit yourselves to your elders. Yes, [k]all of you be submissive to one another, and be clothed with humility, for

[l]"God resists the proud,
*But [m]gives grace to the humble."

[6]Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time, [7]casting all your care upon Him, for He cares for you.

[8]Be sober, be vigilant; because* your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. [9]Resist him, steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same sufferings are experienced

4:9 Be hospitable. In New Testament times, hospitality typically meant housing and feeding travelers for two to three days with no expectation of payment in return.

4:10 As each one has received a gift. Every believer is gifted to serve. stewards. These are managers or trustees who will be held accountable for using their gift in the best interest of the One who gave it to them.

4:12 do not think it strange. Apparently Peter's readers were astonished that they had to suffer as Christians, especially to the extent that they were suffering. fiery trial. The Greek word translated here was also used to speak of the intense fire that burned away impurities in metals.

4:17 for judgment to begin. Judgment does not always imply condemnation in Scripture. When used in relation to Christians, it consistently refers to the evaluation of a believer's works for the purpose of reward (1 Cor. 3:10–15).

5:1 partaker. This terms speaks of sharing in Christ's reign in the coming kingdom (Rom. 8:17; Rev. 2:26–28; 5:9–10). Peter considers himself to be already participating partly in the glory that one day he will experience fully.

5:2 Shepherd the flock of God. An ancient Israelite shepherd would go before his sheep to lead them; he would not drive the sheep in front of him. Church leaders should lead the people of God in the same way; feeding, protecting, and guiding them (John 21:15–17). Christian leaders should also remember that they have been given responsibility for tending a flock that belongs to God, not to themselves. not for dishonest gain. Christian leaders need to make certain that their work is not motivated by money, but by a passion for the good of those believers put in their charge (1 Tim. 3:3,8; Titus 1:11).

5:3 nor as being lords over. Echoing a command that Peter heard directly from Jesus during His earthly ministry, Peter reminds all Christian leaders that they need to perform the role of servants, not masters, to those whom God has assigned to their care (Matt. 20:25–28; Mark 10:42–45).

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF
PETER

▶ AUTHOR: No other book in the New Testament poses as many problems of authenticity as does 2 Peter. But in spite of the external and internal problems, the traditional position of Petrine authorship overcomes more difficulties than any other option. This epistle was written just before the apostle's death (1:14), probably from Rome.

▶ TIME: c. A.D. 64–66 ▶ KEY VERSES: 2 Pet. 1:20–21

▶ THEME: While 1 Peter deals with suffering and persecution caused by people outside the church, 2 Peter deals more with the need for the true spiritual knowledge and maturity in the face of false teachers who would distort the faith from inside the church. He gives his readers insight into the thinking of the false teachers and encourages opposition to them. He also urges watchfulness for Christ's return through all the events at the end of the age.

Greeting the Faithful

1 Simon Peter, a bondservant and [a]apostle of Jesus Christ,

To those who have obtained [b]like precious faith with us by the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ:

2 [c]Grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, 3 as His [d]divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him [e]who called us by glory and virtue, 4 [f]by which have been given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, that through these you may be [g]partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

Fruitful Growth in the Faith

5 But also for this very reason, [h]giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue, to virtue [i]knowledge, 6 to knowledge self-control, to self-control perseverance, to perseverance godliness, 7 to godliness brotherly kindness, and [j]to brotherly kindness love. 8 For if these things are yours and abound, you will be neither barren [k]nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 For he who lacks these things is [l]shortsighted,

1:1 apostle. With this term Peter identifies himself as an authorized spokesman for the truth that Christ proclaimed. In verses 1–4 Peter describes the resources his readers have that will make growth in grace and knowledge possible. His apostleship is the first of these resources. like precious faith. Anyone who has faith in Jesus has the same access to God as any other believer. This access is the second great resource that Peter's readers possess.
1:2 the knowledge of God. The Greek word translated knowledge is a key word in this letter. It describes a special kind of knowledge, a kind that is complete. Since our knowledge of Jesus grows as we mature in the faith, we will experience His grace and peace on many different occasions in our Christian walk.
1:3 divine power. This power is identified as the "power of resurrection" (Phil. 3:10; 4:13). This power is the third resource for godly living that Peter lists in this letter. by glory and virtue. These words suggest the qualities of Jesus that attract believers to Him. The glory that John saw in Jesus (John 1:14) was His authority and power.
1:4 exceedingly great and precious promises. This phrase refers to the numerous offers of divine provision found in Scripture. These promises offer us the glory and virtue of Christ as the basis for our growing participation in the divine nature. We have Christ within us, as He promised (John 14:23), to enable us to become increasingly Christlike (2 Cor. 3:18).
1:5 virtue. This term is the same word used in verse 3 in reference to Christ's character. We cannot produce virtue ourselves; but we can choose to obey the promptings of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.
1:6 perseverance. A person who exercises self-control will not easily succumb to discouragement or the temptation to quit. Viewing all circumstances as coming from the hand of a loving Father who is in control of all things is the secret of perseverance.
1:9 blindness. This kind of person is one who looks only at earthly and material values—what is close at hand—and does not see the eternal spiritual realities. Concerned only with this present life, such a person becomes blind to the things of God, forgetting even to blindness, and has forgotten that he was cleansed from his old sins.

10 Therefore, brethren, be even more diligent [m]to make your call and election sure, for if you do these things you will never stumble; 11 for so an entrance will be supplied to you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Peter's Approaching Death

12 For this reason [n]I will not be negligent to remind you always of these things, [o]though you know and are established in the present truth. 13 Yes, I think it is right, [p]as long as I am in this tent, [q]to stir you up by reminding you, 14 [r]knowing that shortly I must put off my tent, just as [s]our Lord Jesus Christ showed me. 15 Moreover I will be careful to ensure that you always have a reminder of these things after my decease.

The Trustworthy Prophetic Word

16 For we did not follow [t]cunningly devised fables when we made known to you the [u]power and [v]coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were [w]eyewitnesses of His majesty. 17 For He received from God the Father honor and glory when such a voice came to Him from the Excellent Glory: [x]"This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." 18 And we heard this voice which came from heaven when we were with Him on [y]the holy mountain.

19 And so we have the prophetic word confirmed,* which you do well to heed as a [z]light that shines in a dark place, [a]until [b]the day dawns and the morning star rises in your [c]hearts; 20 knowing this first, that [d]no prophecy of Scripture is of any private interpretation,* 21 for [e]prophecy never came by the will of man, [f]but holy men of God* spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit.

Destructive Doctrines

2 But there were also false prophets among the people, even as there will be [a]false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Lord who bought them, and bring on themselves swift destruction. 2 And many will follow their destructive ways, because of whom the way of truth will be blasphemed. 3 By covetousness they will exploit you with deceptive words; for a long time their judgment has not been idle, and their destruction does* not slumber.

Doom of False Teachers

4 For if God did not spare the angels who sinned, but cast them down to hell and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be the wonderful sense of cleansing that comes from turning oneself over to Christ.

1:11 entrance . . . abundantly. Peter distinguishes between a just-barely-made-it entrance into the eternal kingdom and a richly abundant one. The Scripture indicates that fruitful and faithful living here will be rewarded by greater privileges and rewards in glory (Rev. 22:12).

1:15 a reminder . . . after my decease. Several early church fathers took these words to be Peter's promise to leave behind a testimony of the truth for his readers, which they considered to be the Gospel of Mark.

1:16 cunningly devised fables. Peter countered the false teacher's faith claims with an eyewitness account. Peter himself had actually seen the power and the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. These are the twin themes of this letter; the power of Jesus available for holy living and the coming of Jesus as the glorious hope of each believer.

1:19 the prophetic word confirmed. As strong as an eyewitness account (vv. 16–18) may be, there is an even stronger confirmation that Jesus is who He said He was. The written Scriptures are even more trustworthy than the personal experience of the apostle Peter.

1:20 of any private interpretation. Although some have taken this phrase to mean that no individual Christian has the right to interpret prophecy for himself or herself, the context and the Greek word for interpretation indicates another meaning for the verse. The Greek word for interpretation can also mean "origin." In the context of verse 21, it is clear that Peter is speaking of Scripture's "origin" from God Himself and not the credentials of the one who interprets it. There is no private source for the Bible; the prophets did not supply their own solutions or explanations to the mysteries of life. Rather, God spoke through them; He alone is responsible for what is written in Scripture.

2:1 destructive heresies. Peter is addressing here the ethical implication of false teaching. The Greek word translated destructive means "shameful" or "deliberately immoral." The false teachers gloried in the privileges of Christianity but treated its moral demands with indifference.

2:3 judgment . . . destruction. Peter turns from the description of the false teachers to a description of their fate. Verses 4–8 provide examples of judgment of false teachers of the past.

2:4 angels who sinned. There are two main interpretations of this passage, depending on one's understanding of Genesis 6:1–6. Some think that Peter is referring to "sons of God" in Genesis 6:2. According to this interpretation, the "sons of God" were angels who rebelled against God and their role in creation. They began to engage in forbidden practices with the daughters of men. Their conduct was met with immediate judgment. A second group of commentators

They are not afraid to speak evil of dignitaries, 11whereas [h]angels, who are greater in power and might, do not bring a reviling accusation against them before the Lord.

Depravity of False Teachers

12But these, [i]like natural brute beasts made to be caught and destroyed, speak evil of the things they do not understand, and will utterly perish in their own corruption, 13[j]and will receive the wages of unrighteousness, as those who count it pleasure [k]to carouse in the daytime. [l]They are spots and blemishes, carousing in their own deceptions while [m]they feast with you, 14having eyes full of adultery and that cannot cease from sin, enticing unstable souls. [n]They have a heart trained in covetous practices, and are accursed children. 15They have forsaken the right way and gone astray, following the way of [o]Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness; 16but he was rebuked for his iniquity: a dumb donkey speaking with a man's voice restrained the madness of the prophet.

17[p]These are wells without water, clouds* carried by a tempest, for whom is reserved the blackness of darkness forever.*

Deceptions of False Teachers

18For when they speak great swelling words of emptiness, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through lewdness, the ones who have actually escaped* from those who live in error. 19While they promise them liberty, they themselves are slaves of corruption; [q]for by whom a person is overcome, by him also he is brought into bondage. 20For if, after they [r]have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are [s]again entangled in them and overcome, the latter end is worse for them than the beginning. 21For [t]it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, balk at the suggestion of sexual relations between angels and women. They consider this verse to simply be a reference to those angels who fell with Satan.

2:5 did not spare the ancient world. Peter's second example of God's judgment is the flood (3:6).

preacher of righteousness. This is a reference to Noah because his righteous life put to shame the immoral lives of his neighbors. Noah's building of the ark would certainly have given him the opportunity to explain the coming judgment and to invite people to repent and believe in God. But the entreaties fell on deaf ears, just as the truth of Christ's atonement fell on the deaf ears of the false teachers of Peter's day. Such indifference and unbelief brought the ungodly of Noah's world to certain destruction.

2:6 Sodom and Gomorrah. These cities are Peter's third example of God's judgment. Genesis 19 makes it clear that sexual perversion was the primary cause of their destruction.

2:9–10 presumptuous, self-willed. These words describe the character and methods of false teachers. Their actions are characterized by boldness; they recklessly defy both God and man. Behind their presumption is a commitment to their own desires.

2:12 like natural brute beasts. False teachers are compared to animals in their behavior because they act in ignorance of the realities of death and judgment. Like animals they also react only to present circumstances, without giving thought to the consequences of their actions.

2:13 carouse in the daytime. Even pagan societies thought it strange and unnatural to hold drunken riots in the daylight. However, the false teachers had no qualms about practicing their erroneous concept of Christian liberty in clear daylight.

2:14 eyes full of adultery. They could not cease from sin because their fantasizing had become habitual. As a consequence, they convinced unstable souls in the church that adultery was acceptable Christian behavior and lured them into sexual immorality.

2:15–16 following the way of Balaam. The account of Balaam in Numbers 22–24 is used here, as well as in Jude 11 and Revelation 2:14, to depict the danger of forsaking the right way and going astray.

2:17 wells . . . clouds. Peter accuses the heretical teachers of awakening false expectations, like wells that contain no water or storm clouds that darken but produce no rain.

2:20 they have escaped. The subject of this phrase is the heretical teachers who are called "servants of corruption" in verse 19. This verse seems to indicate that the teachers had formerly turned from the pollution of the world through a full and experiential knowledge of Christ. Now, however, they have fallen again into immorality, even becoming teachers of sinful than having known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them. 22But it has happened to them according to the true proverb: [u]*"A dog returns to his own vomit," and, "a sow, having washed, to her wallowing in the mire."

God's Promise Is Not Slack

3 Beloved, I now write to you this second epistle (in both of which [a]I stir up your pure minds by way of reminder), 2that you may be mindful of the words [b]which were spoken before by the holy prophets, [c]and of the commandment of us,* the apostles of the Lord and Savior, 3knowing this first: that scoffers will come in the last days, [d]walking according to their own lusts, 4and saying, "Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of [e]creation." 5For this they willfully forget: that [f]by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth [g]standing out of water and in the water, 6[h]by which the world that then existed perished, being flooded with water. 7But [i]the heavens and the earth which are now preserved by the same word, are reserved for [j]fire until the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8But, beloved, do not forget this one thing, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and [k]a thousand years as one day. 9[l]The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but [m]is longsuffering toward us,* [n]not willing that any should perish but [o]that all should come to repentance.

The Day of the Lord

10But [p]the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which [q]the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat; both the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up.* 11Therefore, since all these things will be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be [r]in holy conduct and godliness, 12[s]looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will [t]be dissolved, being on fire, and the elements will [u]melt with fervent heat? 13Nevertheless we, according to His promise, look for [v]new heavens and a [w]new earth in which righteousness dwells.

Be Steadfast

14Therefore, beloved, looking forward to these things, be diligent [x]to be found by Him in peace, without spot and blameless; 15and consider that [y]the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation—as also our beloved brother Paul, according to the wisdom given to him, has written to you, 16as also in all his [z]epistles, speaking in them of these things, in which are some things hard to understand, which untaught and unstable people twist to their own destruction, as they do also the [a]rest of the Scriptures.

17You therefore, beloved, [b]since you know this beforehand, [c]beware lest you also fall from your own steadfastness, being led away with the error of the wicked; 18[d]but grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

[e]To Him be the glory both now and forever. Amen.

lifestyles. the latter end is worse for them than the beginning. This phrase is almost certainly taken from Jesus' words in Matthew 12:45 and probably reflects Peter's memory of that occasion.

2:22 according to the true proverb. Jews considered dogs and pigs among the lowest of animals, so Peter chooses these animals to describe people who have known the truth but have turned away from it.

3:2 words which were spoken before. The only way Peter's readers could recognize the errors of the heretical teachers was to compare their teaching with the teaching of the holy prophets and apostles. As Peter had already reminded his readers in 1:21, "holy men" spoke words given to them by the Holy Spirit, which were therefore utterly reliable.

3:4 fathers fell asleep. This refers to the Old Testament patriarchs. all things continue. The basis for denying the supernatural reappearance of Jesus is that nothing of that nature has occurred in the past.

3:8 a thousand years. God will surely accomplish His purposes and promises, even though it may appear that He is slow in doing so. His timing is always perfect.

3:10 day of the Lord. This phrase describes the end-time events, the second coming (Dan. 9:24–27; 1 Thess. 5:2; 2 Thess. 2:1–12). Peter's description requires the unlimited power of God in dissolving the very elements of the universe, from which He will create a new heaven and a new earth (v. 13; Rev. 21:22).

3:11 what manner of persons. The primary purpose of prophetic teaching is not to satisfy our curiosity but to motivate us to change our lives. Rather than work for things that will ultimately be destroyed, we should work for things that are eternal.

3:16 untaught and unstable people twist. Untaught refers to one whose mind is untrained and undisciplined in habits of thought. Unstable refers to one whose conduct is not properly established.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF
JOHN

▶ AUTHOR: First John was universally accepted without dispute as authoritative by the early church. The internal evidence supports this tradition because the "we" (apostles), "you" (readers), and "they" (false teachers) phraseology places the writer in the sphere of apostolic eyewitness (1:1–3; 4:14). John's name was well known to the readers, and it was unnecessary for him to mention it. The style and vocabulary of 1 John are so similar to those of the fourth Gospel that most scholars acknowledge these books to be by the same hand. First John was probably written in Ephesus after the Gospel of John, but the date cannot be fixed with certainty.

▶ TIME: c. A.D. 89–95 ▶ KEY VERSES: 1 John 1:3–4

▶ THEME: Shortly after the church began, people like the Gnostics continually tried to recast the gospel in their own terms. Gnosticism made a distinction between the material or carnal, which was evil to them, and the spiritual, which was pure. John writes as one who was acquainted with Jesus personally, physically, and spiritually. He wants the reader to take the Christ he knew at face value. John wants his readers to believe the truth of his experience of Jesus and not the philosophical speculation of the Gnostics. In these letters we see the same themes as in John's Gospel—light and darkness, truth and falsehood, life and death, love and hate. John weaves these themes together with a straightforward skill and fatherly care.

What Was Heard, Seen, and Touched

1 That [a]which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have [b]seen with our eyes, [c]which we have looked upon, and [d]our hands have handled, concerning the [e]Word of life— 2[f]the life [g]was manifested, and we have seen, [h]and bear witness, and declare to you that eternal life which was [i]with the Father and was manifested to us— 3that which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is [j]with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ. 4And these things we write to you [k]that your* joy may be full.

Fellowship with Him and One Another

5[l]This is the message which we have heard from Him and declare to you, that [m]God is light and in Him is no darkness at all. 6[n]If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie and do

* 1:4 NU-Text and M-Text read our.

1:1–4 the Word of life. These verses emphasize the personal experience of the apostles with the incarnate Word. The memory of Jesus Christ burned in the mind of John as he reflected on the three and one-half years that he and the other disciples were with the Lord. Now he wanted to be sure that the churches under his care enjoyed fellowship with the resurrected Lord and other disciples.

1:2 life was manifested. The life was not hidden or obscured so that few, if any, could find it. Rather, this life was made known openly and had its origin in God the Father. God had provided truth about Himself in nature and through the prophets of old, but the revelation in His Son (Heb. 1:1–2) is God's finest and clearest presentation of Himself.

1:3 have fellowship. The idea of this word carries both the thought of a positive relationship that people share and participation in a common interest or goal.

1:5 God is light. This is God's nature, in His essential being, just as He is Spirit (John 4:24) and love (4:8). Light refers to God's moral character. no darkness at all. God is holy, untouched by any evil or sin. Because God is light, those who desire fellowship with Him must also be pure.

1:6 fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness. To walk in darkness means to live contrary to the moral character of God, to live a sinful life. To claim fellowship with God without living a moral life or practicing the truth is to live a lie, since God cannot compromise His holiness to accommodate sin.

1:1 [a] [John 1:1] [b] John 1:14 [c] 2 Pet. 1:16 [d] Luke 24:39 [e] [John 1:1, 4, 14] 1:2 [f] John 1:4 [g] Rom. 16:26 [h] John 21:24 [i] [John 1:1, 18; 16:28] 1:3 [j] 1 Cor. 1:9 1:4 [k] John 15:11; 16:24 1:5 [l] 1 John 3:11 [m] [1 Tim. 6:16] 1:6 [n] [1 John 2:9–11]

not practice the truth. 7But if we [o]walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and [p]the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin.

8If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9If we [q]confess our sins, He is [r]faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to [s]cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10If we say that we have not sinned, we [t]make Him a liar, and His word is not in us.

2 My little children, these things I write to you, so that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, [a]we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. 2And [b]He Himself is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but [c]also for the whole world.

The Test of Knowing Him

3Now by this we know that we know Him, if we keep His commandments. 4He who says, "I know Him," and does not keep His commandments, is a [d]liar, and the truth is not in him. 5But [e]whoever keeps His word, truly the love of God is perfected [f]in him. By this we know that we are in Him. 6[g]He who says he abides in Him [h]ought himself also to walk just as He walked.

7Brethren,* I write no new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you have had [i]from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you heard from the beginning.* 8Again, [j]a new commandment I write to you, which thing is true in Him and in you, [k]because the darkness is passing away, and [l]the true light is already shining.

9[m]He who says he is in the light, and hates his brother, is in darkness until now. 10[n]He who loves his brother abides in the light, and [o]there is no cause for stumbling in him. 11But he who [p]hates his brother is in darkness and [q]walks in darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

Their Spiritual State

12 I write to you, little children,
Because [r]your sins are forgiven you
for His name's sake.
13 I write to you, fathers,
Because you have known Him who is [s]from the beginning.
I write to you, young men,
Because you have overcome the wicked one.
I write to you, little children,
Because you have [t]known the Father.

* 2:7 NU-Text reads Beloved. • NU-Text omits from the beginning.

1:8–9 If we confess. To confess is to agree with God, to admit that we are sinners in need of His mercy. If a believer confesses his or her specific sins to God, He will cleanse all unrighteousness from that person. Forgiveness and cleansing are guaranteed because God is faithful to His promises. Those promises are legitimated because God is just. God can maintain His perfect character and yet forgive us because of the perfect and righteous sacrifice of Jesus, His own Son (2:2).

1:10 His word is not in us. A person who denies committing sinful acts does not have the Word of God changing his or her life.

2:1 My little children . . . that you may not sin. John's statements about sin (1:8–10) were designed to make believers aware of sin's ever-present danger and to put them on guard against it. According to Greek grammar, the if before anyone sins carries the added sense of "and it is assumed that we all do." This statement is not an encouragement to sin but a warning to all Christians to be on guard against sinful tendencies.

2:2 propitiation. This act brings about the merciful removal of guilt through divine forgiveness. In the Greek Old Testament, the Greek term for propitiation was used for the sacrificial mercy seat on which the high priest placed the blood of the Israelites' sacrifices (Ex. 25:17–22). This practice indicates that God's righteous wrath had to be appeased somehow. God sent His Son and satisfied His own wrath with Jesus' sacrifice on the cross. Our sins made it necessary for Jesus to suffer the agonies of the crucifixion; but God demonstrated His love and justice by providing His own Son.

2:3 we know Him. The New Testament speaks of knowing God in two senses. One who has trusted Christ knows Him (John 17:3), that is to say, has met Him. One who has previously met the Lord can also come to know Him intimately (Phil. 3:10). In this verse John is talking about knowing the Lord intimately.

2:6 abides in Him. Abiding is habitual obedience. It has the idea of settling down in Christ or resting in Him. It is evidenced by a life modeled after Christ. ought himself also to walk. The admonition to live by the teaching of Jesus reveals that this conformity comes from us. The Christian, as a child of God, ought to obey God because of a sincere desire to do so. It should be a joy to follow in the footsteps of the One who died for us.

2:8 new commandment. This refers to love (v. 10). It may be that John is simply repeating the statement of Christ in John 13:34. The command to love reached its truest and fullest expression in the life of Christ. He demonstrated what true love is by coming into our world and giving His life for us.

2:11 he who hates his brother. Hating one's brother opposes the teaching of Christ to love one another. The idea that one could hate a brother and yet claim fellowship with God shows the utter darkness that has blinded the Christian to the truth.

Because [u]you are strong, and the

And you have overcome the wicked

Do Not Love the World

15 [v]Do not love the world or the things in the world. [w]If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 16 For all that is in the world—the lust of the flesh, [x]the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—
is not of the Father but is of the world.
17 And [y]the world is passing away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides forever.

Deceptions of the Last Hour

18 [z]Little children, [a]it is the last hour; and as you have heard that [b]the* Antichrist is coming, [c]even now many antichrists have come, by which we know [d]that it is the last hour. 19 [e]They went out from us, but they were not of us; for [f]if they had been of us,
they would have continued with us; but they went out [g]that they might be made manifest, that none of them were of us.
20 But [h]you have an anointing [i]from the Holy One, and [j]you know all things.* 21 I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it,
and that no lie is of the truth.
22 [k]Who is a liar but he who denies that [l]Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist who denies the Father and the Son. 23 [m]Whoever denies the Son does not have the [n]Father either; [o]he who acknowledges the Son has the Father also.

Let Truth Abide in You

24 Therefore let that abide in you [p]which you heard from the beginning. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, [q]you also will abide in the Son and in the Father. 25 [r]And this is the promise that He has promised us—eternal life.
26 These things I have written to you concerning those who try to deceive you.
27 But the [s]anointing which you have received from Him abides in you, and [t]you do not need that anyone teach you; but as the same anointing [u]teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you will* abide in Him.

The Children of God

28 And now, little children, abide in Him,
that when* He appears, we may have [v]confidence and not be ashamed before Him at His coming. 29 [w]If you know that He is righteous, you know that [x]everyone who practices righteousness is born of Him.
3 Behold [a]what manner of love the Father has bestowed on us, that [b]we should be called children of God!* Therefore the world does not know us,* [c]because it did

*2:18 NU-Text omits the. *2:20 NU-Text reads you all know. *2:27 NU-Text reads you abide. *2:28 NU-Text reads if. *3:1 NU-Text adds And we are. • M-Text reads you.

2:15 Do not love the world. These words may be rephrased as "stop loving the world." John's readers were acting in a way that was inconsistent with the relationship with Christ. "World" here is the morally evil system opposed to all that God is and holds dear. In this sense, the "world" is the satanic system opposing Christ's kingdom on this earth (v. 16; 3:1; 4:4; 5:19; John 12:31; Eph. 6:11–12; James 4:4).

2:16 lust of the flesh . . . lust of the eyes . . . pride of life. The world is characterized by these three lusts, which have been interpreted as corresponding to the three different ways Eve was tempted in the garden (Gen. 3:6), or the three different temptations Jesus experienced (Luke 4:1–12). However, the correspondences are not close enough to make it certain that John was alluding to either of these. Instead, John was probably making a short list of the different ways believers could be lured away from a loving God. Lust of the flesh refers to desires of sinful sensual pleasure. The lust of the eyes refers to covetousness or materialism. The pride of life refers to being proud about one's position in this world.

2:17 passing away. John highlights the brevity of life. To be consumed with this life is to be unprepared for the next.

2:18 antichrists. This word is a combination of two Greek words: anti, meaning "instead of" or "against"; and christos, meaning "anointed one." Antichrists most likely means those who seek to take the place of Christ.

2:20 anointing. This is a reference to either the Holy Spirit or to Scripture. This unction, or anointing, is the protection that believers have against the false teachers. The true Anointed One, Jesus, also has representatives who are anointed. One of the main heresies the first century church faced was Gnosticism, whose followers claimed to have secret knowledge of the truth that led to salvation. Here John was opposing this teaching by asserting that all believers knew the truth.

2:22–23 that Jesus is the Christ. In John's epistles, denying that Jesus came in the flesh is to deny His status as the Anointed One. A person cannot worship God while denying Jesus' full deity and full humanity.

2:28 ashamed before Him at His coming. The shame is the result of not having had a lifestyle of obedience when Christ returns.

3:1 what manner of love. John stands in amazement of God's love. But the greater amazement and appreciation is for the fact that God's love is expressed to not know Him. 2Beloved, [d]now we are children of God; and [e]it has not yet been revealed what we shall be, but we know that when He is revealed, [f]we shall be like Him, for [g]we shall see Him as He is. 3[h]And everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure.

Sin and the Child of God

4Whoever commits sin also commits lawlessness, and [i]sin is lawlessness. 5And you know [j]that He was manifested [k]to take away our sins, and [l]in Him there is no sin. 6Whoever abides in Him does not sin. Whoever sins has neither seen Him nor known Him.

7Little children, let no one deceive you. He who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous. 8[m]He who sins is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, [n]that He might destroy the works of the devil. 9Whoever has been [o]born of God does not sin, for [p]His seed remains in him; and he cannot sin, because he has been born of God.

The Imperative of Love

10In this the children of God and the children of the devil are manifest: Whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is he who does not love his brother. 11For this is the message that you heard from the beginning, [q]that we should love one another, 12not as [r]Cain who was of the wicked one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his works were evil and his brother's righteous.

13Do not marvel, my brethren, if [s]the world hates you. 14We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love his brother* abides in death. 15[t]Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that [u]no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.

The Outworking of Love

16[v]By this we know love, [w]because He laid down His life for us. And we also ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. 17But [x]whoever has this world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and shuts up his heart from him, how does the love of God abide in him?

18My little children, [y]let us not love in word or in tongue, but in deed and in truth. 19And by this we know* [z]that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before Him. 20[a]For if our heart condemns us, God

human beings and that Christians are included in His family.

3:2 We Have a New Family—One of the primary benefits of becoming a Christian is that we also become part of Christ's family. The Bible refers to this change as being born again (John 3:3). When an individual places his faith in Christ as Savior, he is born again into a new, spiritual, familial relationship with God (Gal. 3:26). He gains God as Father (Eph. 4:6) and other Christians as brothers and sisters (Heb. 3:1). God also adopts us when we become His children (Eph. 1:5). This image implies a dramatic transformation of status from slave to son (Gal. 4:1–5). One is no longer in bondage to the master but becomes a free son possessing all the rights and privileges of sonship. One of these benefits is the right to call God Abba, an affectionate term meaning "Father" (Rom. 8:15). A marvelous relationship is possible when one becomes a part of the family of God. As in any family, there are also responsibilities. The Christian must exhibit the family character and grow into spiritual maturity.

3:3 everyone who has this hope. Knowing that Christ is morally pure helps a person pursue purity even more.

3:4 commits sin. This verse is not referring to occasional sin but a consistent lifestyle of sin. lawlessness. This is active rebellion against the law.

3:5–6 Whosoever abides in Him does not sin. Habitually sinful conduct indicates an absence of fellowship with Christ. Thus, if we claim to be a Christian but sin is our way of life, our status as children of God can legitimately be questioned.

3:8 destroy the works of the devil. A person who sins is of the devil in the sense that he is participating in the devil's activity (2:19). Thus John is indicating that it is possible for believers to do that which is of the devil (Mark 8:31–33; James 3:6).

3:10 children of the devil. Believers who sin are not expressing their nature as children of God; instead, they are following the devil's pattern.

3:14 have passed from death to life. The tense of the verb "have passed" indicates that something experienced in the past has continuing and abiding results in the present. Thus John is saying that Christians, who have experienced Christ's salvation in the past, should demonstrate their salvation by loving their fellow believers in the present.

3:18 love in word or in tongue. This phrase means to speak loving words but to stop short of doing anything to prove that love. The opposite of loving in word is loving in deed and in truth.

3:20 our heart condemns us. This will happen when we recognize that we do not measure up to the standard of love and feel insecure in approaching God. Our conscience may not acknowledge the loving deeds we have done in the power of the Holy Spirit, but God does, and He is superior to our heart. Unlike our conscience, God takes everything into account, including Christ's atoning work for us. God is more compassionate and understanding toward us than we sometimes are toward ourselves.

is greater than our heart, and knows all things. 21Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, [b]we have confidence toward God. 22And [c]whatever we ask we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments [d]and do those things that are pleasing in His sight. 23And this is His commandment: that we should believe on the name of His Son Jesus Christ [e]and love one another, as He gave us* commandment.

The Spirit of Truth and the Spirit of Error

24Now [f]he who keeps His commandments [g]abides in Him, and He in him. And [h]by this we know that He abides in us, by the Spirit whom He has given us.

4 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but [a]test the spirits, whether they are of God; because [b]many false prophets have gone out into the world. 2By this you know the Spirit of God: [c]Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, 3and every spirit that does not confess that* Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God. And this is the spirit of the Antichrist, which you have heard was coming, and is now already in the world.

4You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than [d]he who is in the world. 5[e]They are of the world. Therefore they speak as of the world, and [f]the world hears them. 6We are of God. He who knows God hears us; he who is not of God does not hear us. [g]By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

Knowing God Through Love

7[h]Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God; and everyone who [i]loves is born of God and knows God. 8He who does not love does not know God, for God is love. 9[j]In this the love of God was manifested toward us, that God has sent His only begotten [k]Son into the world, that we might live through Him. 10In this is love, [l]not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son [m]to be the propitiation for our sins. 11Beloved, [n]if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

Seeing God Through Love

12[o]No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God abides in us, and His love has been perfected in us. 13[p]By this we know that we abide in Him, and He in us, because He has given us of His Spirit. 14And [q]we have seen and testify that [r]the Father has sent the Son as Savior of the world. 15[s]Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. 16And we have known and believed the love that God has for us. God is love, and [t]he who abides in love abides in God, and God [u]in him.

The Consummation of Love

17Love has been perfected among us in this: that [v]we may have boldness in the day of judgment; because as He is, so are we in

* 3:23 M-Text omits us. * 4:3 NU-Text omits that and Christ has come in the flesh.

3:24 We Have a Witness—Some of the benefits of being a believer are best described as being spiritual or even mystical. The whole idea of abiding in Christ while He abides in us is one of those concepts. Abide is best understood as "remain with." God doesn't come and go in our lives. He carries on a permanent relationship with us because He is always there for us and in us. We sense His presence primarily through the work of the Holy Spirit, whose role it is to stand beside us and comfort us. It happens in our hearts and minds and is largely invisible. Yet, it is also what most accurately describes the most important aspect of our day-to-day life as Christians. As we abide in Christ, He nourishes us spiritually the same way a vine gives nourishment to its branches (John 15:16).

4:1 false prophets. These persons obey evil spirits. A true prophet is one who receives direct revelation from God. A false prophet claims to have received direct revelation from God but in fact promotes erroneous ideas.

4:2 Christ has come in the flesh. This test seems to be aimed at Docetists. They taught that Christ did not have a physical body. The test may also be aimed at the followers of Cerinthus who claimed that Jesus and "the Christ" were two separate beings, one physical and the other spiritual. In this letter, John is careful to use the name and the title of Jesus Christ together to clearly express the complete union of the two titles in one person.

4:4 he who is in the world. This phrase refers to the devil.

4:8 does not know God. The knowledge of God here refers to an intimate, experiential knowledge (v. 6; 2:3) of God, rather than just information about God. John never says that those who do not love are not born of God (v. 7). Yet it is impossible to know God intimately without loving others, for God is love. Anyone in whom God dwells reflects His character. To claim to know God while failing to love others is to make a false claim (1:6).

4:13 that we abide in Him, and He in us. Mutual abiding refers to the fellowship we have with God as a result of our salvation. The evidence that God abides in us and we in Him is the experience of the Holy Spirit dwelling in us. In the remainder of this passage, John explains how a believer can know that the Spirit is working in his or her life.

4:15 Whoever confesses. To be a Christian, a person must believe that Jesus is the Son of God.

this world. 18There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves torment. But he who fears has not been made perfect in love. 19[w]We love Him*
because He first loved us.

Obedience by Faith

20[x]If someone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can* he love God [y]whom he has not seen? 21And [z]this commandment
we have from Him: that he who loves God must love his brother also.

5 Whoever believes that [a]Jesus is the Christ is [b]born of God, and everyone who loves Him who begot also loves him who is begotten of Him. 2By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and [c]keep His commandments.
3[d]For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments. And [e]His commandments are not burdensome. 4For [f]whatever is born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that [g]has overcome the world—our* faith. 5Who is he who overcomes the world, but [h]he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

The Certainty of God's Witness

6This is He who came [i]by water and blood—Jesus Christ; not only by water,
but by water and blood. [j]And it is the Spirit who bears witness, because the Spirit is truth. 7For there are three that bear witness in heaven: the Father, [k]the Word, and the Holy Spirit; [l]and these three are one. 8And
there are three that bear witness on earth:*
[m]the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree as one.

9If we receive [n]the witness of men, the witness of God is greater; [o]for this is the witness of God which* He has testified of His Son. 10He who believes in the Son of God [p]has the witness in himself; he who does not believe God [q]has made Him a liar, because he has not believed the testimony that God has given of His Son.
11And this is the testimony: that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. 12[r]He who has the Son has life;
he who does not have the Son of God does not have life. 13These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life,* and that you may continue to believe in the name of the Son
of God.

Confidence and Compassion in Prayer

14Now this is the confidence that we have in Him, that [s]if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. 15And if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions
that we have asked of Him.

16If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin
which does not lead to death, he will ask,
and [t]He will give him life for those who commit sin not leading to death. [u]There is sin leading to death. [v]I do not say that he should pray about that. 17[w]All unrighteousness is sin, and there is sin not leading to death.

Knowing the True—Rejecting the False

18We know that [x]whoever is born of God
does not sin; but he who has been born of

* 4:19 NU-Text omits Him. * 4:20 NU-Text reads he cannot. * 5:4 M-Text reads your. * 5:8 NU-Text and M-Text omit the words from in heaven (verse 7) through on earth (verse 8). Only four or five very late manuscripts contain these words in Greek. * 5:9 NU-Text reads God, that. * 5:13 NU-Text omits the rest of this verse.

5:1 born of God. This condition happens when one believes or trusts in Jesus Christ. Only correct, sincere belief produces spiritual birth. This birth is reflected in love for others who also have been born into the family of God (2:3–11).

5:6 by water and blood. This phrase has been interpreted at least four ways: (1) as Jesus' baptism and death; (2) as His incarnation; (3) as the water and blood that flowed from His side on the cross; and (4) as the baptism of the believer and the Lord's Supper. Most scholars favor the first interpretation. John is correcting the false teacher, Cerinthus, who claimed that the Spirit came on Jesus at His baptism but left Him before His death (4:2–3).

5:11 this is the testimony. God's witness or testimony is that He has given us eternal life in His Son. Eternal life is not a wage to be earned, but a gift to be received from God (Rom. 6:23).

5:14–15 according to His will. The key to knowing that God hears is to pray this way.

5:16–17 There is sin leading to death. This phrase may refer to blaspheming the Holy Spirit, rejecting Christ as Savior, rejecting the humanity or deity of Jesus, a specific sin such as murder (3:12,15), or a life of habitual sin. Whatever it is, the sin seems to be a flagrant violation of the sanctity of the Christian community (Acts 5:1–11; 1 Cor. 5:5; 11:30). In other words, John is encouraging us to help fellow believers who are straying; we can be the tools God uses to restore an erring brother or sister to the true fellowship.

5:18–20 We know. This phrase introduces three concluding absolute truths. The general idea of this concluding section is that a proper relationship with God

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF
JOHN

▶ AUTHOR: Second John was not widely circulated at first because of its brevity and subject matter. Its strong resemblance to the tone and style of 1 John and the Fourth Gospel support the early tradition that John was the author of this epistle sometime after A.D. 90.

▶ TIME: c. A.D. 90–95 ▶ KEY VERSES: 2 John 9–10

▶ THEME: The addressee of 2 John is a woman in a local church that apparently had a strong friendship with John. The apostle writes to warn her about showing hospitality to false teachers. He cautions her against unwittingly aiding these teachers who were sowing seeds of heresy and hurting the church.

Greeting the Elect Lady

The Elder,

To the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth, and not only I, but also all those who have known [a]the truth, 2because of the truth which abides in us and will be with us forever:

3[b]Grace, mercy, and peace will be with you* from God the Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

Walk in Christ's Commandments

4I [c]rejoiced greatly that I have found some of your children walking in truth, as we received commandment from the Father. 5And now I plead with you, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment to you, but that which we have had from the beginning: [d]that we love one another. 6[e]This is love, that we walk according to His commandments. This is the commandment, that [f]as you have heard from the beginning, you should walk in it.

Beware of Antichrist Deceivers

7For [g]many deceivers have gone out into the world [h]who do not confess Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh. [i]This is a deceiver and an antichrist. 8[j]Look to yourselves, [k]that we* do not lose those things we worked for, but that we* may receive a full reward.

9[l]Whoever transgresses* and does not abide in the doctrine of Christ does

*3 NU-Text and M-Text read us. *8 NU-Text reads you. • NU-Text reads you. *9 NU-Text reads goes ahead.

1 The Elder. This is probably the apostle John. The title can refer either to an old man, an older person deserving respect, or a church leader. the elect lady. This may be a specific person, or the phrase may be a figurative description of the local church.

4 walking in truth. This phrase means having an authentic relationship with God. Our walk with the Lord, if genuine, must be based upon His word.

6 His commandments. God's love is the basis of His desire for our obedience, and it is the reason He has revealed His will in His word. We prove our obedience to Christ by demonstrating love toward one another. Love is an unlimited resource readily available to us, and it is tremendously effective in furthering the work of Christ.

7 coming in the flesh. These words refer to the Incarnation, the fact that Jesus is the God-man. The humanity of Jesus provides a test by which false teachers can be identified. The Gnostic heresy, against which John wrote in 1 and 2 John, included a denial of the physical body of Christ. People who deny the physical reality of Jesus are not Christians, but antichrists.

8 Look to yourselves. Being seduced by false teachers is one way that Christians can lose their reward at the judgment. With this is mind, John writes that the reason to guard against deceivers is our own desire not to lose our reward at the judgment seat of Christ.

9 transgresses. This phrase has the strong sense of running too far ahead. Departure from Christ into doctrinal error indicates that a person does not have God.

John's Farewell Greeting

12[n]Having many things to write to you, I did not wish to do so with paper and ink; but I hope to come to you and speak face to face, [o]that our joy may be full.

13[p]The children of your elect sister greet you. Amen.

10 this doctrine. Jesus is completely human and completely divine. A Christian should not only refuse to receive false teachers in the sense of supporting them while they visit the community, a Christian should also avoid appearing to endorse their teachings. The proper response to deceivers is to reject them as unbelievers. This shows how seriously we should take the Scriptures and how careful we should be in evaluating the teachings of everyone.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF
JOHN

▶ AUTHOR: Much like 2 John, this letter had a very limited circulation in the early church, but was accepted as authoritative on account of its apostolic authorship. Its style and vocabulary strongly resemble that of John's Gospel and other epistles.

▶ TIME: C. A.D. 90–95 ▶ KEY VERSE: 3 John 11

▶ THEME: Third John has two main purposes. The first is to commend Gaius for being hospitable to itinerant missionaries. The second is to advise Gaius about Diotrephes, a man in the church who refuses to help the same kind of missionaries and who even gossips about them.

Greeting to Gaius

The Elder,

To the beloved Gaius, [a]whom I love in truth:

2Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in health, just as your soul prospers. 3For I [b]rejoiced greatly when brethren came and testified of the truth that is in you, just as you walk in the truth. 4I have no greater [c]joy than to hear that [d]my children walk in truth.*

Gaius Commended for Generosity

5Beloved, you do faithfully whatever you do for the brethren and* for strangers, 6who have borne witness of your love before the church. If you send them forward on their journey in a manner worthy of God, you will do well, 7because they went forth for His name's sake, [e]taking nothing from the Gentiles. 8We therefore ought to [f]receive* such, that we may become fellow workers for the truth.

Diotrephes and Demetrius

9I wrote to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to have the preeminence among them, does not receive us. 10Therefore, if I come, I will call to mind his deeds which he does, [g]prating against us with malicious words. And not content with that, he himself does not receive the brethren, and forbids those who wish to, putting them out of the church.

11Beloved, [h]do not imitate what is evil, but what is good. [i]He who does good is of God, but* he who does evil has not seen [j]God.

12Demetrius [k]has a good testimony from all, and from the truth itself. And we also bear witness, [l]and you know that our testimony is true.

Farewell Greeting

13[m]I had many things to write, but I do not wish to write to you with pen and ink; 14but I hope to see you shortly, and we shall speak face to face.

Peace to you. Our friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

2 may prosper . . . and be in health. John's greeting may imply that Gaius was physically weak though spiritually strong. More probably John is simply following the pattern of greetings common to Greek letters.

4 my children. This is a description Paul uses of those he has led to saving faith in Christ (1 Cor. 4:14–17) and may indicate that Gaius was one of John's converts. It may also be a term John uses to describe those under his pastoral care as reflected in 1 John 2:1,12,18; 3:7,18; 4:4; 5:21.

5–12 you do faithfully. In these verses, John affirms Gaius' responsibility to assist Demetrius despite the opposition of Diotrephes and his expulsion of those who receive traveling missionaries.

7 Gentiles. In this case the term refers to unbelievers, not to Gentile Christians. The majority of Christians in the churches of Asia Minor were Gentile converts rather than Jewish.

11 has not seen God. Our sin is a result of a faulty vision of God. Therefore, the Scriptures encourage us to look at Christ (2 Cor. 3:18; 4:16–18; Heb. 12:2–3), for the day when we see Him perfectly will be the day that we will be like Him (1 John 3:2–3).

12 from the truth itself. Demetrius' life measured up to the teaching of Scripture and Christ's commands. His conduct matched his theology.

THE EPISTLE OF JUDE

▶ AUTHOR: In spite of its limited subject matter and size, Jude was accepted as authentic and quoted by early church fathers. It is unlikely that the author is the apostle Jude (Luke 6:16), but rather Jude the brother of Jesus and James (called Judas in Matthew 13:55 and Mark 6:3). Because of the silence of the New Testament and tradition concerning Jude's later years, we cannot know where or when this epistle was written.

▶ TIME: c. A.D. 66–80 ▶ KEY VERSE: Jude 3

▶ THEME: Jude's letter is hard-hitting, short, and right to the point. False teachers are on the loose in the church and Jude wants to make sure his readers understand the destructive implications of their teaching. He urges Christians to resist these false teachers and to defend the faith and the body of truth received from the apostles that they have come to know and believe. He finishes by reminding them of the hope they have in knowing Christ is coming again.

Greeting to the Called

Jude, a bondservant of Jesus Christ, and [a]brother of James,

To those who are [b]called, sanctified* by God the Father, and [c]preserved in Jesus Christ:

2 Mercy, [d]peace, and love be multiplied to you.

Contend for the Faith

3 Beloved, while I was very diligent to write to you [e]concerning our common salvation, I found it necessary to write to you exhorting [f]you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints. 4 For certain men have crept in unnoticed, who long ago were marked out for this condemnation, ungodly men, who turn the grace of our God into lewdness and deny the only Lord God* and our Lord Jesus Christ.

Old and New Apostates

5 But I want to remind you, though you once knew this, that [g]the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. 6 And the angels who did not keep their proper domain, but left their own abode, He has reserved in everlasting chains under darkness for the judgment of the great day; 7 as [h]Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them in a similar manner to these, having given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after strange flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 [i]Likewise also these dreamers defile the flesh, reject authority, and [j]speak evil

* 1 NU-Text reads beloved. * 4 NU-Text omits God.

2 peace. This is the state of a person who rests in God completely for salvation and protection.

3 common salvation. Jude intended to write a more general doctrinal letter, but the present crisis demanded this short, pointed attack on doctrinal error.

4 turn the grace of our God into lewdness. The teaching of grace can be dangerous when perverted by false teachers or carnal people who believe that because they have been saved by grace they may live as they please (Rom. 6:1–2).

5 destroyed those who did not believe. The Israelites of the Exodus had a magnificent beginning in Egypt but a disastrous ending in the wilderness. That we have begun with the Lord does not mean that we will have the glorious conclusion we might have envisioned at the beginning of our salvation journey. The false believers who had infiltrated God's people would be judged, just like the false believers who rejected God in the wilderness (Num. 25:1–9).

6 angels. These are not holy angels of God. Instead these angels could be those who had previously fallen with Satan. Some think that these angels are "the sons of God" of Genesis 6:2, who took on human form and married women before the flood.

8 reject authority. The false teachers even despised those who were placed in positions of authority in local congregations. They not only preferred error to truth but also demeaned and rejected those who taught the truth.

of dignitaries. 9 Yet Michael the archangel, in contending with the devil, when he disputed about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him a reviling accusation, but said, [k]"The Lord rebuke you!" 10 But these speak evil of whatever they do not know; and whatever they know naturally, like brute beasts, in these things they corrupt themselves. 11 Woe to them! For they have gone in the way [m]of Cain, [n]have run
greedily in the error of Balaam for profit,
and perished [o]in the rebellion of Korah.

Apostates Depraved and Doomed

12 These are spots in your love feasts,
while they feast with you without fear,
serving only themselves. They are clouds
without water, carried about* by the winds;
late autumn trees without fruit, twice dead,
pulled up by the roots; 13 [p]raging waves of
the sea, [q]foaming up their own shame;
wandering stars [r]for whom is reserved the blackness of darkness forever.

14 Now Enoch, the seventh from Adam,
prophesied about these men also, saying,
"Behold, the Lord comes with ten thousands of His saints, 15 to execute judgment
on all, to convict all who are ungodly
among them of all their ungodly deeds
which they have committed in an ungodly way, and of all the [s]harsh things which ungodly sinners have spoken against Him."

Apostates Predicted

16 These are grumblers, complainers, walking according to their own lusts; and they [t]mouth great swelling words, [u]flattering people to gain advantage. 17 [v]But you, beloved, remember the words which were spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ: 18 how they told you that [w]there would be mockers in the last time who would walk according to their own ungodly lusts. 19 These are sensual persons, who cause divisions, not having the Spirit.

Maintain Your Life with God

20 But you, beloved, [x]building yourselves up on your most holy faith, [y]praying in the Holy Spirit, 21 keep yourselves in the love of God, [z]looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

22 And on some have compassion, making a distinction;* 23 but [a]others save with fear, [b]pulling them out of the fire,* hating
even [c]the garment defiled by the flesh.

Glory to God

24 [d]Now to Him who is able to keep you*
from stumbling,
And [e]to present you faultless
Before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy,
25 To God our Savior,*
Who alone is wise,*
Be glory and majesty,
Dominion and power,*
Both now and forever.
Amen.

* 12 NU-Text and M-Text read along. * 22 NU-Text reads who are doubting (or making distinctions). * 23 NU-Text adds and on some have mercy with fear and omits with fear in first clause. * 24 M-Text reads them. * 25 NU-Text reads To the only God our Savior. • NU-Text omits Who … is wise and adds Through Jesus Christ our Lord. • NU-Text adds Before all time.

9 disputed about the body of Moses. Jude's description here is probably taken from an apocryphal book called The Assumption of Moses, written in the first century A.D. There is no record in the Bible itself of the archangel's encounter with Satan, or a detailed account of Moses' body.

11 they have gone in the way of Cain. The heretics are compared to three Old Testament failures. Cain did not place his faith in the Lord. The "way of Cain" is the way of pride and self-righteousness (Gen. 4:3–8; Heb. 11:4; 1 John 3:12). Balaam. He was the epitome of the sin of greed (Num. 31:16). Korah. This was the Levite Korah (Num. 16:1–3,31–35) who resented the prominent positions of Moses and Aaron as God's representatives. The Lord brought judgment on him and his followers for rebelling against those He had placed in authority.

13 raging waves . . . foaming . . . wandering stars. These godless people put on a great show but lacked any substance. They boasted of liberty but placed the people of God in bondage to sin (2 Pet. 2:19). After they had done their evil deeds and made their profits, they, like wandering stars, moved on to other places to exploit God's people again.

15 ungodly. This word is repeated four times, making the verse one of the most striking in the letter. In view of the wicked nature of evil persons, how could the church allow them to stay in their midst?

18 there would be mockers. One of the main tactics that the false teachers used to gain credibility was to tear down godly leaders.

22–23 some have compassion. We have certain obligations to other believers. First, we need to show compassion to those in any kind of spiritual or physical need. Second, we need to use discernment in helping our brothers and sisters in the church. Some will require tender care and patience to help them grow in Christ. With others we may need to use drastic action to rescue them from the temptations of sin. hating even the garment defiled by the flesh. This is a metaphor for staying wary of sin—as Paul says, "considering yourself lest you also be tempted" (Gal. 6:1).

24 faultless. This is a Greek word used of sacrificial animals that had no blemish and thus were fit to be offered to God. Only God can save us, cleanse us from our sins, and present us to Himself as faultless, for God is the Author and Finisher of our faith (Heb. 12:2).

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST

▶ AUTHOR: The style, symmetry, and plan of Revelation show that it was written by one author, four times named "John" (Rev. 1:1,4,9; 22:8). Because of its contents and its address to seven churches, Revelation quickly circulated and became widely known and accepted in the early church. From the beginning, Revelation was considered an authentic work of the apostle John, the same John who wrote the Gospel and Epistles. Revelation was written at a time when Roman hostility to Christianity was erupting into overt persecution. It is likely that John wrote this book in A.D. 95 or 96 when the severe persecution of Christians began under the emperor Domitian.

▶ TIME: c. A.D. 95–96 ▶ KEY VERSES: Rev. 19:11–15

▶ THEME: John wrote this book late in his life while in exile on the island of Patmos off the coast of Asia. It is safe to say that no book of the Bible has generated more theories of interpretation over the last two millennia. In this context probably one of the best approaches to interpreting and understanding Revelation is to concentrate on the major themes such as worship. When the reader does that, one finds great comfort and assurance in the book. Many scholars think the purpose of the book is to provide comfort in the midst of persecution and difficult times, as the form of the book is in the tradition of Jewish apocalyptic literature that is designed to communicate hope through symbolic imagery.

Introduction and Benediction

1 The Revelation of Jesus Christ, [a]which God gave Him to show His servants—things which must shortly take place. And [b]He sent and signified it by His angel to His servant John, 2[c]who bore witness to the word of God, and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, to all things [d]that he saw.
3[e]Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written in it; for [f]the time is near.

Greeting the Seven Churches

4John, to the seven churches which are in Asia:

Grace to you and peace from Him [g]who is and [h]who was and who is to come, [i]and from the seven Spirits who are before His throne, 5and from Jesus Christ, [j]the faithful [k]witness, the [l]firstborn from the dead,
and [m]the ruler over the kings of the earth.

To Him [n]who loved us [o]and washed* us from our sins in His own blood, 6and has [p]made us kings* and priests to His God and Father, [q]to Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

7Behold, He is coming with [r]clouds, and every eye will see Him, even [s]they who

1:1 Revelation. The word "revelation," which means "unveiling," or "disclosure," indicates that this book is a type of literature known as apocalyptic literature, or literature which reveals hidden things. of Jesus Christ. This revelation is both from Jesus Christ and about Him. John. John is the human writer, and Jesus is the divine Author.

1:3 Blessed. The word "blessed" means "spiritually happy." Even though some of the words of this book speak of terrifying and solemn times, it is a blessing to know how thoroughly the Lord holds all time and all times in His hands. Those who take time to read and try to understand this book will find themselves blessed by the hope of heaven and by the nearness of our Lord and Savior.

1:4 the seven churches. The seven churches are in the Roman province of Asia, which today is southwestern Turkey. Their names are given in order going clockwise from the southwest.

1:5 firstborn from the dead. This phrase refers to the resurrection of Christ, the first to come back from the dead. This is the basis of the hope of resurrection held by Christians (1 Cor. 15:20–24).

1:7 coming with clouds . . . every eye. "Coming with clouds" recalls Daniel's vision of the Son of Man (Dan.

Vision of the Son of Man

9I, John, both* your brother and [w]companion in the tribulation and [x]kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was on the island that is called Patmos for the word of God and for the testimony of Jesus Christ. 10[y]I was in the Spirit on [z]the Lord's Day, and I heard behind me [a]a loud voice, as of a trumpet, 11saying, "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last," and,* "What you see, write in a book and send it to the seven churches which are in Asia:* to Ephesus, to Smyrna, to Pergamos, to Thyatira, to Sardis, to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea."
12Then I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. And having turned [b]I saw seven golden lampstands, 13[c]and in the midst of the seven lampstands [d]One like the Son of Man, [e]clothed with a garment down to the feet and [f]girded about the chest with a golden band. 14His head and [g]hair were white like wool, as white as snow, and [h]His eyes like a flame of fire; 15[i]His feet were like fine brass, as if refined in a furnace, and [j]His voice as the sound of many waters; 16[k]He had in His right hand seven stars, [l]out of His mouth went a sharp two-edged sword, [m]and His countenance was like the sun shining in its strength. 17And [n]when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as dead. But [o]He laid His right hand on me, saying to me,* "Do not be afraid; [p]I am the First and the Last. 18[q]I am He who lives, and was dead, and behold, [r]I am alive forevermore. Amen. And [s]I have the keys of Hades and of Death. 19Write* the things which you have [t]seen, [u]and the things which are, [v]and the things which will take place after this. 20The mystery of the seven stars which you saw in My right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: The seven stars are [w]the angels of the seven churches, and [x]the seven lampstands which you saw* are the seven churches.

The Loveless Church

2 "To the angel of the church of Ephesus write,
'These things says [a]He who holds the seven stars in His right hand, [b]who walks in the midst of the seven golden lampstands: 2[c]"I know your works, your labor, your patience, and that you cannot bear those who are evil. And [d]you have tested those [e]who say they are apostles and are not, and have found them liars; 3and you have persevered and have patience, and have labored for My name's sake and have [f]not become weary. 4Nevertheless I have this against you, that you have left your first love. 5Remember therefore from 7:13; Matt. 24:30) and the ascension of Christ (Acts 1:11). "Every eye" indicates that Christ will be universally visible at His second coming.

1:8 the Alpha and the Omega. The Lord's description of Himself as the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet means that He is the beginning and the end of all creation.
1:9 tribulation. The apostle Paul said there would be many tribulations (Acts 14:22), and John identifies both the suffering of others and his own exile on Patmos as part of the "troubles." The great tribulation is the time when the wrath of God is poured out on the earth (Mark 13:14–23); that time is explained in greater detail in this book.
1:12 seven golden lampstands. The seven lampstands represent the seven churches.
1:13 One like the Son of Man. The term "Son of Man" echoes Daniel 7:13. Comparisons of these two passages, along with Jesus' common use of the name "Son of Man" for Himself, indicate that Christ is the subject of verses 12–18.
1:14 white. The white appearance is parallel to the description of the "Ancient of Days" in Daniel 7:9, and of Christ on the Mount of Transfiguration (Matt. 17:2). The similarity of descriptions demonstrates the purity and eternality of both God the Father and God the Son. Overcoming believers will also be "clothed in white garments" (3:5; 19:8) in Christ's presence, symbolizing purity.
1:16 sharp two-edged sword. The sword coming out of Christ's mouth is symbolic of the judging power of the Word of God (Is. 49:2; Heb. 4:12).
1:18 keys of Hades and of Death. Christ has authority over those who have died physically and over their present resting place, which will be emptied and destroyed at the time of the great white throne judgment (20:11–15). Hades is the place where the dead rest.
1:20 angels. Angels are created spirit beings who minister to believers (Heb. 1:14).
2:1 Ephesus. Ephesus was the most important city in Asia Minor when Revelation was written. It was the center of the worship of Artemis (or Diana; Acts 19:28), a goddess of fertility. It was a strategic commercial center and a great seaport.
2:5 Remember. A generation earlier the same church was commended for love (Eph. 1:15; 6:24).

in which Antipas was My faithful martyr,

you, because you have there those who hold the doctrine of [u]Balaam, who taught Balak to put a stumbling block before the

2:6 Nicolaitans. The Nicolaitans were a heretical group that troubled the churches at Ephesus and Pergamos (v. 15). Apparently their teaching and practice were immoral, perhaps even idolatrous (v. 14).

2:7 Paradise. Jesus told the believing thief on the cross that he would be with Jesus in paradise (Luke 23:42). Paul uses the term interchangeably with "the third heaven" (2 Cor. 12:2,4).

2:8 Smyrna. Smyrna was an important seaport 35 miles north of Ephesus. The presence of a Roman imperial cult and a large Jewish population made life difficult for believers in Smyrna. However, the churches of Smyrna and Philadelphia are the only two of the seven not rebuked by Christ in some way.

2:10 crown of life. The Greek crown or garland of green leaves was given to winners in athletic events. James 1:12 also promises the crown of life to believers who persevere under trial.

2:11 second death. The second death refers to the experience of eternal death in the lake of fire (20:14–15). No believer will suffer the second death.

2:12 Pergamos. Pergamos was the ancient capital of the province of Asia. It was said to be the place where parchment was first used. Pergamos means "citadel" in Greek. It was located 50 miles north of Smyrna and was situated on a high hill dominating the valley below. two-edged sword. The two-edged sword is the powerful word of the Lord (1:16; Heb. 4:12).

2:13 Satan's throne. This implies that Satan's authority and power were honored either openly or in effect. Antipas. Antipas (not Herod Antipas) had already suffered martyrdom, thus receiving the promised "crown of life."

2:14 doctrine of Balaam. The background for this teaching is in the Old Testament (Num. 22:1—25:31). Balak hired Balaam to turn the hearts of Israel away from the Lord. Apparently seduction similar to that which Balaam instigated was taking place at the church at Pergamos, especially in relation to idols and sexual immorality (Acts 15:20).

2:18 Thyatira. Thyatira was a city with a large military detachment about 30 miles southeast of Pergamos. Recognized for its wool and dye industries, the city was also noted for its trade guilds. eyes like a flame . . . feet like fine brass. This is essentially the same wording as Daniel 10:6.

2:24 depths of Satan. The deep things may be secrets known by those initiated into the things of the devil. When the apostle Paul addressed the subject of walking in the Light (the revelation of Christ), he not only said not to participate in the unfruitful deeds of darkness, but he went on to say that it is disgraceful even to speak of those things done in secret (Eph. 5:11–12).

2:28 the morning star. The morning star is Christ Himself in 22:16. For the believer, Christ's presence is the light in the dark and difficult times. The morning star (the planet Venus, which can be seen in the sky just before sunrise) is the harbinger of day; it is easy to see how the return of Christ could be paralleled with the morning star. When Satan is referred to as the morning star, that is thought to be a description of what Satan was like before he rebelled (Is. 14:12).

3:1 Sardis. Sardis, located 30 miles southeast of Thyatira, had been the capital of Lydia. The worship of the Roman Caesar and Artemis, goddess of fertility, were active here.

3:3 as a thief. Christ's warning that He will come as unexpectedly as a thief echoes His repeated emphasis in Matthew 24:36—25:13 (see also 16:15).

3:5 Book of Life. The Book of Life is the list of the redeemed (20:11–15; Ex. 32:32–33).

3:7 Philadelphia. Philadelphia, which means "brotherly love" in Greek, was a small city located about 40 miles southeast of Sardis. Its location, vineyards, and wine production made it wealthy and commercially important. key of David. This key represents the authority of the One who opens and shuts the door in the Davidic kingdom (Is. 22:22), a prerogative that is Christ's as the rightful "son of David" (Matt. 1:1).

3:8 an open door, and no one can shut it. The door, in this context, seems to be entrance into heaven and "the New Jerusalem" (v. 12; chs. 21–22).

3:10 keep you from the hour of trial. Christ's promise to keep the believers from the hour of trial is often considered a promise that He will remove them before the period of unparalleled tribulation

The Throne Room of Heaven

4 After these things I looked, and behold, a door standing [a]open in heaven. And the first voice which I heard was like a [b]trumpet speaking with me, saying, "Come up here, and I will show you things which must take place after this."
2Immediately [c]I was in the Spirit; and behold, [d]a throne set in heaven, and One
sat on the throne. 3And He who sat there was* [e]like a jasper and a sardius stone in appearance; [f]and there was a rainbow around the throne, in appearance like an emerald. 4[g]Around the throne were twenty-four thrones, and on the thrones

gold on their heads. 5And from the throne proceeded [i]lightnings, thunderings, and voices.* [j]Seven lamps of fire were burning before the throne, which are [k]the* seven Spirits of God.
6Before the throne *there was [l]a sea of glass, like crystal. [m]And in the midst of the throne, and around the throne, were four living creatures full of eyes in front and in back. 7[n]The first living creature was like a lion, the second living creature like a calf,
the third living creature had a face like a man, and the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle. 8*The* four living creatures, each having [o]six wings, were full of eyes around and within. And they do not rest day or night, saying:

[p]"Holy, holy, holy,*
[q]Lord God Almighty,
[r]Who was and is and is to come!"

ry and honor and thanks to Him who sits

(1 Thess. 4:16–18). Others believe that this means that believers will not be removed, but will be protected during the trial. The "hour of trial" is another way of referring to the unparalleled judgment of the "great tribulation" (7:14) predicted in Daniel 12:1 and Matthew 24:21.

3:14 Laodiceans. Laodicea was 45 miles southeast of Philadelphia and 90 miles east of Ephesus. It was a wealthy city with thriving banks, a textile industry, and a medical school. The city was also known for its sparse water supply. All of these characteristics are played upon in Christ's message to the church.

4:4 clothed in white . . . crowns. The white robes point to those who are confirmed in righteousness. The crowns are for those who possess ruling authority, and possibly also indicate that the elders have already been judged and rewarded.

4:6 four living creatures. These creatures are remarkably similar to the cherubim (angels) that Ezekiel saw close to God's throne (Ezek. 1:4–10).

4:7 lion . . . calf . . . man . . . eagle. This description recalls the four cherubim in Ezekiel 1:4–10.

Him who sits on the throne and worship
Him who lives forever and ever, and cast
their crowns before the throne, saying:

11 "You[u] are worthy, O Lord,*
To receive glory and honor and power;
[v]For You created all things,
And by [w]Your will they exist* and were created."

The Lamb Takes the Scroll

5 And I saw in the right hand of Him who sat on the throne [a]a scroll written inside
and on the back, [b]sealed with seven seals.
2 Then I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, [c]"Who is worthy to open the scroll and to loose its seals?" 3 And no one in heaven or on the earth or under the earth
was able to open the scroll, or to look at it.
4 So I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open and read* the scroll,
or to look at it. 5 But one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep. Behold, [d]the Lion of the tribe of [e]Judah, [f]the Root of David, has [g]prevailed to open the scroll [h]and to loose*
its seven seals."
6 And I looked, and behold,* in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, stood [i]a Lamb as though it had been slain, having seven horns and [j]seven eyes, which are [k]the seven Spirits of God sent out into all the earth. 7 Then He came and took the scroll out of the right hand [l]of Him who sat on the throne.

Worthy Is the Lamb

8 Now when He had taken the scroll, [m]the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each having a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the [n]prayers of the saints.
9 And [o]they sang a new song, saying:

[p]"You are worthy to take the scroll,
And to open its seals;
For You were slain,
And [q]have redeemed us to God [r]by
Your blood
Out of every tribe and tongue and
people and nation,
10 And have made us* [s]kings* and [t]priests to our God;
And we* shall reign on the earth."

11 Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne, the living creatures, and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands, 12 saying with a loud voice:

"Worthy is the Lamb who was slain
To receive power and riches and wisdom,
And strength and honor and glory and blessing!"

13 And [u]every creature which is in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, I heard saying:

[v]"Blessing and honor and glory and power
Be to Him [w]who sits on the throne,
And to the Lamb, forever and ever!"*

14 Then the four living creatures said,
"Amen!" And the twenty-four* elders fell down and worshiped Him who lives forever and ever.*

4:10 cast their crowns before the throne. This act symbolizes the willing surrender of their authority in light of the worthiness of God as Creator. Because no one but God can create, He alone should be worshiped and recognized as sovereign.

5:1 a scroll. The scroll apparently contains the judgments and redemption seen in later chapters. It may also be the book that was sealed in Daniel 12:4. There appears to be an allusion to the scroll the Lord handed Ezekiel (Ezek. 2:9–10). sealed with seven seals. A scroll cannot be unrolled until the seals have all been opened.

5:5 Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David. Both of these titles are messianic titles (Gen. 49:8–10, Is. 11:1,10).

5:7 took the scroll. The Lamb taking the scroll from the Father demonstrates that judgment and authority over the earth is committed to the Son (Dan. 7:13–14). The scroll may be the same one that was sealed in Daniel 12:9.

6:2 white horse . . . conquering. Because the first rider is on a white horse and is conquering, some take it to be Christ (19:11). If so, His full conquest is considerably delayed (19:11—20:6). Another view is

Second Seal: Conflict on Earth

3When He opened the second seal, [g]I heard the second living creature saying, "Come and see."* 4[h]Another horse, fiery red, went out. And it was granted to the one who sat on it to [i]take peace from the earth, and that people should kill one another; and there was given to him a great sword.

Third Seal: Scarcity on Earth

5When He opened the third seal, [j]I heard the third living creature say, "Come and see." So I looked, and behold, [k]a black horse, and he who sat on it had a pair of [l]scales in his hand. 6And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, "A quart* of wheat for a denarius,* and three quarts of barley for a denarius; and [m]do not harm the oil and the wine."

Fourth Seal: Widespread Death on Earth

7When He opened the fourth seal, [n]I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, "Come and see." 8[o]So I looked, and behold, a pale horse. And the name of him who sat on it was Death, and Hades followed with him. And power was given to them over a fourth of the earth, [p]to kill with sword, with hunger, with death, [q]and by the beasts of the earth.

Fifth Seal: The Cry of the Martyrs

9When He opened the fifth seal, I saw under [r]the altar [s]the souls of those who had been slain [t]for the word of God and for [u]the testimony which they held. 10And they cried with a loud voice, saying, [v]"How long, O Lord, [w]holy and true, [x]until You judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?" 11Then a [y]white robe was given to each of them; and it was said to them [z]that they should rest a little while longer, until both the number of their fellow servants and their brethren, who would be killed as they were, was completed.

Sixth Seal: Cosmic Disturbances

12I looked when He opened the sixth seal, [a]and behold,* there was a great earthquake; and [b]the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon* became like blood. 13[c]And the stars of heaven fell to the earth, as a fig tree drops its late figs when it is shaken by a mighty wind. 14[d]Then the sky receded as a scroll when it is rolled up, and [e]every mountain and island was moved out of its place. 15And the [f]kings of the earth, the great men, the rich men, the commanders,* the mighty men, every slave and every free man, [g]hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains, 16[h]and said to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him who [i]sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb! 17For the great day of His wrath has come, [j]and who is able to stand?"

The Sealed of Israel

7 After these things I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, [a]holding the four winds of the earth, [b]that the wind should not blow on the earth, on the sea, or on any tree. 2Then I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God. And he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea, 3saying, [c]"Do not harm the earth, the sea, or the trees till we have sealed the servants of our God [d]on their foreheads."

that this is a spirit of conquest and delusion (Matt. 23:3–6). The bow suggests that the rider is a warrior. The crown suggests that he is a ruler.

6:8 pale. The color of the pale horse is the color of a corpse. It is fitting that this pale horse is ridden by a figure named "Death." This fourth judgment is the inevitable consequence of the first three. sword . . . hunger . . . death. These plagues are the same means that God used to bring the nation of Israel to repentance (1 Kin. 8:33–39; 1 Chr. 21:12), and in Revelation a godly nucleus does arise as a result of these judgments (7:3–8).

6:9 under the altar. Sacrificial blood was poured beside the base of the altar in the temple (Ex. 29:12).

6:12–13 sun . . . moon . . . stars. The effects of the great earthquake on the sun, moon, and stars are worded similarly to Matthew 24:29, placing these events in proximity to the coming of the Son of Man (Matt. 24:30).

6:14 receded . . . rolled up. When the sky is rolled back, the people on earth can see "Him who sits on the throne" (v. 16). They will suddenly see that God is not far away or nonexistent and they will have to be accountable to Him.

6:17 who is able to stand. This rhetorical question is answered in the surrounding context. The unbelievers, no matter how strong, cannot stand. Those who are protected by the Lord are enabled to stand, whether on earth (7:1–8) or in God's presence in heaven (7:9–17).

7:3 sealed. The seal was a mark of ownership or authority. In ancient times a seal was fixed to a document by pressing a carved stamp or signet into a

A Multitude from the Great Tribulation

9 [h]After these things I looked, and behold, [h]a great multitude which no one could number, [i]of all nations, tribes, peoples, and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, [j]clothed with white robes, with palm branches in their hands, 10 and crying out with a loud voice, saying, [k]"Salvation belongs to our God [l]who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!" 11 [m]All the angels stood around the throne and the elders and the four living creatures, and fell on their faces before the throne and [n]worshiped God, 12 [o]saying:

"Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom,
Thanksgiving and honor and power and might,
Be to our God forever and ever.
Amen."

13 Then one of the elders answered, saying to me, "Who are these arrayed in [p]white robes, and where did they come from?"

14 And I said to him, "Sir,* you know."

So he said to me, [q]"These are the ones who come out of the great tribulation, and [r]washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. 15 Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His temple. And He who sits on the throne will [s]dwell among them. 16 [t]They shall neither hunger anymore nor thirst anymore; [u]the sun shall not strike them, nor any heat; 17 for the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne [v]will shepherd them and lead them to living fountains of waters.* [w]And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Seventh Seal: Prelude to the Seven Trumpets

8 When[a] He opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. 2 [b]And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, [c]and to them were given seven trumpets. 3 Then another angel, having a golden censer, came and stood at the altar. He was given much incense, that he should offer it with [d]the prayers of all the saints upon [e]the golden altar which was before the throne. 4 And [f]the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, ascended before God from the angel's hand. 5 Then the angel took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar, and threw it to the earth. And [g]there were lump of clay or wax at the point where the document was opened and closed.

7:4 One hundred and forty-four thousand. Those sealed are all the children of Israel, fulfilling the promise that when the "fullness of the Gentiles has come in" all Israel will be saved (Rom. 11:25–27).

7:5–8 Judah. Judah is placed first in this list of the Israelite tribes because Christ, the Messiah, is the "Lion of the tribe of Judah" (5:5; Gen. 49:8–10). Reuben. Reuben is next as Jacob's firstborn (Gen. 49:3–4). Dan and Ephraim are omitted, perhaps because of their gross idolatry during the period of the judges, demonstrated by the incident in the territory of Dan (Judg. 18). Joseph. Joseph and his son Manasseh are both included, bringing the number of tribes to twelve.

7:14 great tribulation. This vast multitude has come out of the great tribulation, referring to "the hour of trial which shall come upon the whole world" (3:10). In view of the great loss of life during this time period, martyrdom is most likely the means of their escape. Tribulation was already being experienced by the church in John's day (2:10; Acts 14:22). However, the great tribulation, predicted in Daniel 12:1, will be of an intensity "such as has not been since the beginning of the world until this time, no, nor ever shall be" (Matt. 24:21).

8:1 seventh seal. When the seventh seal is broken, the book can finally be opened.

noises, thunderings, [h]lightnings, [i]and an earthquake.
[6]So the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

First Trumpet: Vegetation Struck

[7]The first angel sounded: [j]And hail and fire followed, mingled with blood, and they were thrown [k]to the earth.* And a third [l]of the trees were burned up, and all green grass was burned up.

Second Trumpet: The Seas Struck

[8]Then the second angel sounded: [m]And something like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea, [n]and a third of the sea [o]became blood. [9][p]And a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

Third Trumpet: The Waters Struck

[10]Then the third angel sounded: [q]And a great star fell from heaven, burning like a torch, [r]and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water. [11][s]The name of the star is Wormwood. [t]A third of the waters became wormwood, and many men died from the water, because it was made bitter.

Fourth Trumpet: The Heavens Struck

[12][u]Then the fourth angel sounded: And a third of the sun was struck, a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of them were darkened. A third of the day did not shine, and likewise the night.
[13]And I looked, [v]and I heard an angel* flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, [w]"Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the remaining blasts of the trumpet of the three angels who are about to sound!"

Fifth Trumpet: The Locusts from the Bottomless Pit

9 Then the fifth angel sounded: [a]And I saw a star fallen from heaven to the earth. To him was given the key to [b]the bottomless pit. [2]And he opened the bottomless pit, and smoke arose out of the pit like the smoke of a great furnace. So the [c]sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke of the pit. [3]Then out of the smoke locusts came upon the earth. And to them was given power, [d]as the scorpions of the earth have power. [4]They were commanded [e]not to harm [f]the grass of the earth, or any green thing, or any tree, but only those men who do not have [g]the seal of God on their foreheads. [5]And they were not given authority to kill them, [h]but to torment them for five months. Their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it strikes a man. [6]In those days [i]men will seek death and will not find it; they will desire to die, and death will flee from them.
[7][j]The shape of the locusts was like horses prepared for battle. [k]On their heads were crowns of something like gold, [l]and their faces were like the faces of men. [8]They had hair like women's hair, and [m]their teeth were like lions' teeth. [9]And they had breastplates like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was [n]like the sound of chariots with many horses running into battle. [10]They had tails like scorpions, and there were stings in their tails. Their power was to hurt men five months. [11]And they had as king over them [o]the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, but in Greek he has the name Apollyon.
[12][p]One woe is past. Behold, still two more woes are coming after these things.

* 8:7 NU-Text and M-Text add and a third of the earth was burned up. * 8:13 NU-Text and M-Text read eagle.

8:7 hail . . . fire . . . blood. This blend of destruction and horror sounds like a combination of the first and seventh plagues of God upon Egypt (Ex. 7:19–20; 9:22–25).
8:11 Wormwood. Wormwood is a plant found in the Middle East, known for its bitter taste. Here and elsewhere (Lam. 3:19) the term is figurative for bitterness. Normally wormwood is not poisonous, but the plague of the third trumpet involves effects far more potent than the taste of this bitter plant: many men die from the water.
8:13 Woe, woe, woe. The "woes" refer to the impact of the three remaining trumpet judgments on the unbelieving inhabitants of the earth. The first woe is the fifth trumpet (9:12); the second woe is the sixth trumpet (11:14). The third woe comes quickly and may be the same as the seventh trumpet (11:15–19), although that is not stated. If not, the final woe may be focused on Babylon, the great harlot, because of the climactic use of "woe" in 18:10, 16, and 19.
9:1 star fallen from heaven. The star may be a demon (v. 11), Satan himself (12:9), or an angel serving God (20:1). bottomless pit. The pit is the interim jail for some demons (Luke 8:31). It is also the place of origin of the beast (11:7; 17:8). Furthermore, it will be the place where Satan will be imprisoned during Christ's reign (20:2–3).
9:3 locusts. Locusts, or grasshoppers, were greatly feared in agricultural societies because they devoured crops. In Exodus 10:12–15, a plague of locusts wiped out what was left of Egypt's crops. Joel 1:2 tells of an invasion of locusts that the Lord used to judge unrepentant Judah, which was a foreshadowing of the day of the Lord. scorpions. Scorpions sting with their tails, causing great pain and even death (v. 10).
9:11 angel of the bottomless pit. The angel is demonic and controls the demonic locusts (3:10). If

Sixth Trumpet: The Angels from the Euphrates

13 Then the sixth angel sounded: And I heard a voice from the four horns of the [q]golden altar which is before God, 14 saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound [r]at the great river Euphrates." 15 So the four angels, who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, were released to kill a [s]third of mankind. 16 Now [t]the number of the army [u]of the horsemen was two hundred million; [v]I heard the number of them.
17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision:
those who sat on them had breastplates
of fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow; [w]and the heads of the horses were like the heads of lions; and out of their mouths came fire, smoke, and brimstone. 18 By these three plagues a third of mankind was killed—by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone which came out of their mouths.
19 For their power* is in their mouth and in their tails; [x]for their tails are like serpents,
having heads; and with them they do harm.
20 But the rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, [y]did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship [z]demons, [a]and idols of gold, silver, brass, stone, and wood, which can neither see nor hear nor walk. 21 And they did not repent of their murders [b]or their sorceries* or their sexual immorality or their thefts.

The Mighty Angel with the Little Book

10 I saw still another mighty angel coming down from heaven, clothed with a cloud. [a]And a rainbow was on [b]his head,
his face was like the sun, and [c]his feet like pillars of fire. 2 He had a little book open in his hand. [d]And he set his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land, 3 and cried
with a loud voice, as when a lion roars.
When he cried out, [e]seven thunders uttered
their voices. 4 Now when the seven thunders uttered their voices,* I was about to write;
but I heard a voice from heaven saying to me,* [f]"Seal up the things which the seven thunders uttered, and do not write them." 5 The angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land [g]raised up his hand*
to heaven 6 and swore by Him who lives forever and ever, [h]who created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, [i]that there should be delay no longer, 7 but [j]in the days of the sounding of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, the mystery of God would be finished, as He declared to His servants
the prophets.

John Eats the Little Book

8 Then the voice which I heard from heaven spoke to me again and said, "Go,
take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea
and on the earth."
9 So I went to the angel and said to him,
"Give me the little book."
And he said to me, [k]"Take and eat it; and it will make your stomach bitter, but it will be as sweet as honey in your mouth."
10 Then I took the little book out of the angel's hand and ate it, [l]and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth. But when I had eaten it, [m]my stomach became bitter. 11 And he* said to me, "You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, tongues, and kings."

this angel serves God, this is another instance where the activity of Satan or his demons is under the Lord's sovereign control (2 Cor. 12:7,9).

9:14 great river Euphrates. This river is the eastern boundary of the land promised to Abraham for his descendants (Gen. 15:18), as well as the geographic area from which powerful enemies like Assyria and Babylon came to invade Israel (Is. 8:5–8). It may represent the seat of Satan's former victory (in the garden of Eden).

9:18 a third of mankind. A third of mankind could number in the billions. Coupled with the former destruction of one-fourth of humanity (6:8), over one-half of the world's population will have been killed.

10:1 mighty angel. This mighty angel could be the "strong angel" of 5:2 or the angel "having great authority" of 18:1. It is unlikely that this is Michael, who is referred to by name elsewhere (12:7; Dan. 12:1) or Christ, since He is never called an angel in the New Testament. Furthermore, unlike Christ, this angel comes to earth before the time of tribulation is over.

10:2 little book. The little book is not the same as the book that was unsealed in 6:1—8:1. It is more like the scroll eaten by Ezekiel (Ezek. 2:9—3:3), although this scroll caused John's stomach to become bitter (vv. 9–10), not just his spirit (Ezek. 3:14).

10:10 sweet . . . bitter. The Word of God is always sweet, but the soberness of the judgments and what this will mean to the "peoples, nations, tongues, and kings," to whom John must prophesy is enough to turn John's stomach. It is a terrible thing to contemplate the fate of those who refuse to repent (9:21).

The Two Witnesses

11 Then I was given [a]a reed like a measuring rod. And the angel stood,* saying, [b]"Rise and measure the temple of God, the altar, and those who worship there. 2But leave out [c]the court which is outside the temple, and do not measure it, [d]for it has been given to the Gentiles. And they will [e]tread the holy city underfoot for [f]forty-two months. 3And I will give power to my two [g]witnesses, [h]and they will prophesy [i]one thousand two hundred and sixty days, clothed in sackcloth."

4These are the [j]two olive trees and the two lampstands standing before the God* of the earth. 5And if anyone wants to harm them, [k]fire proceeds from their mouth and devours their enemies. [l]And if anyone wants to harm them, he must be killed in this manner. 6These [m]have power to shut heaven, so that no rain falls in the days of their prophecy; and they have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to strike the earth with all plagues, as often as they desire.

The Witnesses Killed

7When they [n]finish their testimony, [o]the beast that ascends [p]out of the bottomless pit [q]will make war against them, overcome them, and kill them. 8And their dead bodies will lie in the street of [r]the great city which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, [s]where also our* Lord was crucified. 9[t]Then those from the peoples, tribes, tongues, and nations will see their dead bodies three-and-a-half days, [u]and not allow* their dead bodies to be put into graves. 10[v]And those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them, make merry, [w]and send gifts to one another, [x]because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth.

The Witnesses Resurrected

11[y]Now after the three-and-a-half days [z]the breath of life from God entered them, and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell on those who saw them. 12And they* heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here." [a]And they ascended to heaven [b]in a cloud, [c]and their enemies saw them. 13In the same hour [d]there was a great earthquake, [e]and a tenth of the city fell. In the earthquake seven thousand people were killed, and the rest were afraid [f]and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14[g]The second woe is past. Behold, the third woe is coming quickly.

Seventh Trumpet: The Kingdom Proclaimed

15Then [h]the seventh angel sounded: [i]And there were loud voices in heaven, saying, [j]"The kingdoms* of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, [k]and He shall reign forever and ever!" 16And [l]the twenty-four elders who

11:1 reed like a measuring rod. John's measuring rod is much like that used by Ezekiel (Ezek. 40:3–5) in his vision of measuring the temple.

11:3 two witnesses. The two unnamed witnesses are strikingly similar to Elijah (vv. 5–6; 1 Kin. 17; Mal. 4:5) and Moses (v. 6; Ex. 7–11), who appeared together with Christ on the Mount of Transfiguration (Luke 9:29–32). one thousand two hundred and sixty days. Forty-two months (v. 2) is the same length of time as twelve hundred and sixty days (12:6). Almost certainly "a time and times and half a time" (12:14) is also a period of three and a half years made up of 42 thirty-day months. These expressions draw from the prophecies in Daniel (Dan. 12:6–7,11–12). sackcloth. Sackcloth is a sign of mourning.

11:4 two olive trees . . . two lampstands. The witnesses are described as olive trees and lampstands, linking them to the vision in Zechariah 4 of "the two anointed ones, who stand beside the Lord of the whole earth" (Zech. 4:14). The passage in Zechariah refers to Zerubbabel and Joshua the priest. But the overarching principle for these and all other witnesses for the Lord is that their testimony to the truth is "Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit" (Zech. 4:6).

11:6 no rain . . . waters . . . blood . . . plagues. The power to prevent rain identifies the witnesses with Elijah (James 5:17), and turning the water into blood and striking the earth with plagues is reminiscent of Moses in Egypt (Ex. 7:11–21).

11:7 bottomless pit. The beast, who emerges as the satanically empowered world ruler (chs. 13; 17), comes from the bottomless pit, as did the demonic locust plague of the fifth trumpet (9:1–10).

11:8 great city. The great city in Revelation is often Babylon (14:8), which possibly represents Rome (1 Pet. 5:13). But the further description "where also our Lord was crucified" seems to refer to Jerusalem. Sodom and Egypt. Sodom is the prototype for the moral degeneration of this great city (Gen. 19) and Egypt was the prototype for its rampant idolatry.

11:14 second woe. The second woe includes the sixth trumpet (9:12–21) and a second interlude (10:1—11:13). third woe. The third woe is apparently the seventh trumpet (vv. 15–19), since it "is coming quickly" and 8:13 relates the woes to the last three blasts of the trumpet. The final woe may extend further since the word "woe" recurs in 12:12.

sat before God on their thrones fell on their faces and [m]worshiped God, 17saying:

"We give You thanks, O Lord God Almighty,
The One [n]who is and who was and who is to come,*
Because You have taken Your great power [o]and reigned.
18 The nations were [p]angry, and Your wrath has come,
And the time of the [q]dead, that they should be judged,
And that You should reward Your servants the prophets and the saints,
And those who fear Your name, small and great,
And should destroy those who destroy the earth."

19Then [r]the temple of God was opened in heaven, and the ark of His covenant* was seen in His temple. And [s]there were lightnings, noises, thunderings, an earthquake, [t]and great hail.

The Woman, the Child, and the Dragon

12 Now a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a garland of twelve stars. 2Then being with child, she cried out [a]in labor and in pain to give birth.

3And another sign appeared in heaven: behold, [b]a great, fiery red dragon having seven heads and ten horns, and seven diadems on his heads. 4[c]His tail drew a third [d]of the stars of heaven [e]and threw them to the earth. And the dragon stood [f]before the woman who was ready to give birth, [g]to devour her Child as soon as it was born. 5She bore a male Child [h]who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron. And her Child was [i]caught up to God and His throne. 6Then [j]the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that they should feed her there [k]one thousand two hundred and sixty days.

Satan Thrown Out of Heaven

7And war broke out in heaven: [l]Michael and his angels fought [m]with the dragon; and the dragon and his angels fought, 8but they did not prevail, nor was a place found for them* in heaven any longer. 9So [n]the great dragon was cast out, [o]that serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan, [p]who deceives the whole world; [q]he was cast to the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

* 11:17 NU-Text and M-Text omit and who is to come. * 11:19 M-Text reads the covenant of the Lord. * 12:8 M-Text reads him.

11:17–18 We give You thanks. The 24 elders (4:10–11; 5:8–10) praise God's power and wrath, and the corresponding distribution of reward and judgment. This stanza of heavenly thanksgiving seems to reflect on the fulfillment of the great messianic prophecy in Psalm 2.

11:19 ark of His covenant. The ark of the covenant made by Moses disappeared at the time of the Babylonian captivity (2Chr. 36:18–19). The ark represented God's presence, leadership, and protection of Israel (Num. 10:33–36; Josh. 3:3,15–17).

12:1 woman clothed with the sun. The woman is the nation Israel. To Israel belongs the covenant and the promises. If Satan can make even one of those promises fail, he will have "won." This is why the dragon stands over the woman in such a predatory manner (v. 4).

12:3 great, fiery red dragon. The sign of the dragon is interpreted in verse 9 as Satan, who first appeared in Scripture as the serpent in the garden of Eden (Gen. 3). The imagery is in keeping with Old Testament and extrabiblical usage (Is. 27:1). seven heads . . . ten horns . . . seven diadems. The dragon with the seven heads and ten horns refers to Satan and the empire over which he rules during the course of time. The seven heads, ten horns, and seven diadems refer to Satan's brilliance, power, and glory as "god of this age" (2 Cor. 4:4). This description is almost identical to that of the beast from the sea in 13:1.

12:4 a third of the stars. This image may refer to the rebellion of a third of the angelic host following Satan. devour her Child. The attempt of the dragon to devour the newborn Christ Child reveals that the strategy of Herod to kill the baby Jesus (Matt. 2:3–16) was satanically inspired.

12:5 male Child, who was to rule. The male Child who will rule with a rod of iron is the messianic figure of Psalm 2:8–9; however, there is no earthly rule over all nations at this point. From the perspective of this heavenly scene, the Child-ruler is soon caught up to the throne of God, apparently referring to the ascension of Christ (Acts 1:9).

12:6 one thousand two hundred and sixty days. The detailed way in which this same length of time is expressed ("a time and times and half a time," v. 14), suggests half of a literal seven-year tribulation period (Dan. 9:27).

12:7–8 Michael. Michael is an archangel (Jude 9). According to Daniel 12:1, he is a special guardian angel for the nation of Israel. Apparently he commands an army of angels. Michael and the heavenly forces are victorious, making heaven off-limits to Satan and his demons. (In Job 1 and 1 Kings 22:22 it is clear that at one time Satan did have access to heaven.)

12:9 to the earth. The devil's expulsion from heaven to the earth means that this world becomes his base of operations, and that his anger is vented toward the remaining inhabitants of the earth (v. 12). It is likely that the end times will be the greatest period of spiritual warfare (Eph. 6:10–18) in history.

before our God day and night, has been cast down. 11 And [t]they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, [u]and they did not love their lives to the death. 12 Therefore [v]rejoice, O heavens, and you who dwell in them! [w]Woe
to the inhabitants of the earth and the sea!
For the devil has come down to you, having great wrath, [x]because he knows that he has a short time."

The Woman Persecuted

13 Now when the dragon saw that he had been cast to the earth, he persecuted [y]the woman who gave birth to the male Child.
14 [z]But the woman was given two wings of a great eagle, [a]that she might fly [b]into the wilderness to her place, where she is nourished [c]for a time and times and half
a time, from the presence of the serpent.
15 So the serpent [d]spewed water out of his mouth like a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away by the flood. 16 But the earth helped the woman,
and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the flood which the dragon had spewed out of his mouth. 17 And the dragon
was enraged with the woman, and he went to make war with the rest of her offspring, who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.*

The Beast from the Sea

13 Then I* stood on the sand of the sea.
And I saw [a]a beast rising up out of the sea, [b]having seven heads and ten horns,* and on his horns ten crowns, and on his heads a [c]blasphemous name. 2 Now
the beast which I saw was like a leopard,
his feet were like the feet of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. The [d]dragon gave him his power, his throne,
and great authority. 3 And I saw one of his heads [e]as if it had been mortally wounded,
and his deadly wound was healed. And [f]all the world marveled and followed the beast.
4 So they worshiped the dragon who gave authority to the beast; and they worshiped
the beast, saying, [g]"Who is like the beast?
Who is able to make war with him?"

5 And he was given [h]a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, and he was given authority to continue* for [i]forty-two months. 6 Then he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme His name, [j]His tabernacle, and those who dwell in heaven. 7 It was granted to him [k]to make war with the saints and to overcome them.
And [l]authority was given him over every tribe,* tongue, and nation. 8 All who dwell on the earth will worship him, [m]whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb slain [n]from the foundation of the world.

9 [o]If anyone has an ear, let him hear.
10 [p]He who leads into captivity shall go into captivity; [q]he who kills with the sword must be killed with the sword. [r]Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

12:11 blood of the Lamb . . . word of their testimony . . . did not love their lives. The heavenly defeat of Satan (vv. 7–9) is followed by reference to his earthly setbacks, including the crucifixion of Christ, the verbal witness of believers, and the martyrdom of some of the believers. The fact that these witnesses were willing to die for their testimony showed that they knew that Christ had defeated death.

12:14 a time. A "time" probably equals one year, so the period of protection here is three and a half years, which corresponds to the length of the two witnesses' testimony in 11:3. It is also equivalent to the period of the beast's authority ("forty-two months" in 13:5), which includes his ability to "make war with the saints and to overcome them" (13:7; Ps. 122:7; Dan. 7:25).

12:17 the rest of her offspring. The rest of the children are believers in Christ.

13:1–2 beast. The parallel to the four beasts (especially the fourth) in Daniel 7, and the explanation of the beast given in 17:8–11 make it seem that the beast symbolizes both a revived Roman Empire, which exercises universal authority, and a specific ruler, whom John calls the antichrist (1 John 2:18).

13:1 a blasphemous name. The blasphemous name may be the common claim of ancient Roman emperors to be divine, or blasphemy against the name of the true God (vv. 5–6) as Daniel predicted of the willful king during the tribulation period (Dan. 11:36).

13:3 mortally wounded . . . deadly wound. The apparently fatal wound that was healed is a satanic attempt to mimic the wounds of Christ from His crucifixion, which Christ still carries after the resurrection. This is part of the fulfillment of the prophecy of the "power, signs, and lying wonders, and . . . unrighteous deception" that accompany the "lawless one" (2 Thess. 2:8–12).

13:4 worshiped the dragon . . . and . . . the beast. Any false worship or idolatry is ultimately demonic and satanic (1 Cor. 10:20–22).

13:5 forty-two months. Forty-two months is the duration of the beast's worldwide supremacy, in keeping with the prophecy of Daniel 7:25.

13:9 If anyone has an ear, let him hear. This phrase is used frequently in the Bible. It seems to imply that

The Beast from the Earth

11 Then I saw another beast [s]coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb and spoke like a dragon. 12 And he exercises all the authority of the first beast
in his presence, and causes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, [t]whose deadly wound was healed.
13 [u]He performs great signs, [v]so that he even makes fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men. 14 [w]And he deceives those* who dwell on the earth [x]by those signs which he was granted to do in the sight of the beast, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image to the beast who was wounded by the sword [y]and lived. 15 He was granted power to give breath to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak [z]and cause as many as would not worship the image of the beast to be killed. 16 He causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, [a]to receive a mark on their right hand or on their foreheads, 17 and that no one may buy or sell except one who has the mark or* [b]the name of the beast, [c]or the number of his name.

18 [d]Here is wisdom. Let him who has [e]understanding calculate [f]the number of the beast, [g]for it is the number of a man: His number is 666.

The Lamb and the 144,000

14 Then I looked, and behold, a* [a]Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with Him [b]one hundred and forty-four thousand, having* His Father's name [c]written on their foreheads. 2 And I heard a voice
from heaven, [d]like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of loud thunder.
And I heard the sound of [e]harpists playing their harps. 3 They sang as it were a new song before the throne, before the four living creatures, and the elders; and no
one could learn that song [f]except the hundred and forty-four thousand who were redeemed from the earth. 4 These are the ones who were not defiled with women,
[g]for they are virgins. These are the ones
[h]who follow the Lamb wherever He goes.
These [i]were redeemed* from among men,
[j]being firstfruits to God and to the Lamb.
5 And [k]in their mouth was found no deceit,* for [l]they are without fault before the throne of God.*

The Proclamations of Three Angels

6 Then I saw another angel [m]flying in the midst of heaven, [n]having the everlasting gospel to preach to those who dwell on the earth—[o]to every nation, tribe, tongue, and people— 7 saying with a loud voice, [p]"Fear God and give glory to Him, for the hour of what has just been said has a wider context, or a significant present application. The statement is not just for future reference. Therefore, widespread spiritual delusion and blasphemy, as well as persecution and martyrdom, should not surprise believers at any point in history.

13:11 another beast. This beast's actions described in verses 12–17 make it virtually certain that he is the false prophet spoken of in 16:13; 19:20; 20:10. The two beasts may symbolize the intermingling of religious power and of secular, political power during the Roman period and during the last days. lamb. This is the only place in Revelation where "lamb" does not refer to Christ. The lamb with two horns is an emblem of Jewish worship and religious authority.

13:12–15 great signs. Calling fire from heaven and giving speech to the image of the first beast are persuasive signs of power. These signs are similar to those performed by the two witnesses (11:5–6). The performance of great signs and the power of Satan is part of the mass deception prophesied by Paul in 2 Thessalonians 2:8–12.

13:16 to receive a mark. The mark is some sort of identifiable proof of ownership and loyalty, an evil counterfeit of the seal on the foreheads of the servants of God (7:3; 14:1).

13:18 Let him who has understanding calculate . . . 666. No one knows exactly what this means. It is the number of the beast, and the number of a man, so the beast is merely a man, not a god. We can be sure that this "man's number" will someday be understood in relation to the number 666, and that when the people who are living at the time of the fulfillment of the prophecies in this book need to understand this clearly, the Lord will make it plain. In the meantime, the warning is enough for all that will hear.

14:5 they are without fault. This statement is not a reference to sinless perfection, but it is stating that they are considered pure before God. They have been sealed by God because of their belief in Christ (v. 1; 7:4).

14:6–7 angel . . . everlasting gospel. The angel who preaches the gospel to "every nation, tribe, tongue, and people" helps to fulfill God's promise that the gospel "will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations" (Matt. 24:14) before Christ returns. The word "gospel," which literally means "good news," is used in Revelation only once. Even at this late stage in God's judgment He continues to offer everlasting life to the world (John 3:16). The gospel message at this point beseeches unbelievers to fear God and give glory to Him, and to escape the hour of His judgment.

8 And another angel followed, saying, [r]"Babylon* is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because [s]she has made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication."

9 Then a third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, [t]"If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives his [u]mark on his forehead or on his hand, 10 he himself [v]shall also drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is [w]poured out full strength into [x]the cup of His indignation. [y]He shall be tormented with [z]fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb. 11 And [a]the smoke of their torment ascends forever and ever; and they have no rest day or night, who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name."

12 [b]Here is the patience of the saints; [c]here are those* who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus.

13 Then I heard a voice from heaven saying to me,* "Write: [d]'Blessed are the dead [e]who die in the Lord from now on.'"

"Yes," says the Spirit, [f]"that they may rest from their labors, and their works follow [g]them."

Reaping the Earth's Harvest

14 Then I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and on the cloud sat One like the Son of Man, having on His head a golden crown, and in His hand a sharp sickle. 15 And another angel [h]came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to Him who sat on the cloud, [i]"Thrust in Your sickle and reap, for the time has come for You* to reap, for the harvest [j]of the earth is ripe." 16 So He who sat on the cloud thrust in His sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

Reaping the Grapes of Wrath

17 Then another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, [k]who had power over fire, and he cried with a loud cry to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, [l]"Thrust in your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe." 19 So the angel thrust his sickle into the earth and gathered the vine of the earth, and threw it into [m]the great winepress of the wrath of God. 20 And [n]the winepress was trampled [o]outside the city, and blood came out of the winepress, [p]up to the horses' bridles, for one thousand six hundred furlongs.

Prelude to the Bowl Judgments

15 Then [a]I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvelous: [b]seven angels having the seven last plagues, [c]for in them the wrath of God is complete.

2 And I saw something like [d]a sea of glass [e]mingled with fire, and those who have the victory over the beast, [f]over his image and over his mark* and over the [g]number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, [h]having harps of God. 3 They sing [i]the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the [j]Lamb, saying:

> [k]"Great and marvelous are Your works,
> Lord God Almighty!
> [l]Just and true are Your ways,
> O King of the saints!*
> 4 [m]Who shall not fear You, O Lord, and 14:8 Babylon. Babylon is first mentioned in Revelation here, and it becomes the focus of God's judgment in the following sections (chs. 16–18).

14:13 Blessed. "Blessed" signals the second of seven beatitudes in Revelation (1:3; 16:15; 19:9; 20:6; 22:7,14). Six of the seven are clustered in the latter third of the book, perhaps as promises to encourage exemplary Christian response in the extremely difficult circumstances of the end times.

14:16 thrust in His sickle. The power of the Son of Man (Jesus Christ) is shown in that, with one swing of His sickle, the harvest of the earth is reaped. This pictures the events of chapters 16–19 as parts of one rapid succession of judgment, which is experienced by the inhabitants of the entire world.

15:1 another sign. The previous sign was about the woman clothed with the sun (12:1). This sign is "great and marvelous" because it deals with the seven last plagues sent by the Lord. The plagues, "the bowls of the wrath of God" (16:1), are much stronger and more widespread than the trumpet judgments in 8:2—11:19. The wrath of God is complete with the seven last plagues (15:1—19:5). They are immediately followed by the second coming and the marriage supper of the Lamb (19:6–21).

15:3 song of Moses. The song of Moses is a reference to Exodus 15:1–18 in which Israel celebrated its deliverance from Pharaoh's army (Ex. 14). This

5 After these things I looked, and behold,* [p]the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened. 6 And out of the temple came the seven angels having the seven plagues, [q]clothed in pure bright linen, and having their chests girded with golden bands. 7 [r]Then one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God [s]who lives forever and ever. 8 [t]The temple was filled with smoke [u]from the glory of God and from His power, and no one was able to enter the temple till the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

16 Then I heard a loud voice from the temple saying [a]to the seven angels, "Go and pour out the bowls* [b]of the wrath of God on the earth."

First Bowl: Loathsome Sores

2 So the first went and poured out his bowl [c]upon the earth, and a foul and [d]loathsome sore came upon the men [e]who had the mark of the beast and those [f]who worshiped his image.

Second Bowl: The Sea Turns to Blood

3 Then the second angel poured out his bowl [g]on the sea, and [h]it became blood as of a dead man; [i]and every living creature in the sea died.

Third Bowl: The Waters Turn to Blood

4 Then the third angel poured out his bowl [j]on the rivers and springs of water, [k]and they became blood. 5 And I heard the angel of the waters saying:

[l]"You are righteous, O Lord,*
The One [m]who is and who was and who is to be,*
Because You have judged these things.
6 For [n]they have shed the blood [o]of saints and prophets,
[p]And You have given them blood to drink.
For* it is their just due."

7 And I heard another from* the altar saying, "Even so, [q]Lord God Almighty, [r]true and righteous are Your judgments."

Fourth Bowl: Men Are Scorched

8 Then the fourth angel poured out his bowl [s]on the sun, [t]and power was given to him to scorch men with fire. 9 And men were scorched with great heat, and they [u]blasphemed the name of God who has power over these plagues; [v]and they did not repent [w]and give Him glory.

Fifth Bowl: Darkness and Pain

10 Then the fifth angel poured out his bowl [x]on the throne of the beast, [y]and his kingdom became full of darkness; [z]and they gnawed their tongues because of the pain. 11 They blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and did not repent of their deeds.

Sixth Bowl: Euphrates Dried Up

12 Then the sixth angel poured out his bowl [a]on the great river Euphrates, [b]and its water was dried up, [c]so that the way of the kings from the east might be prepared. 13 And I saw three unclean [d]spirits like frogs coming out of the mouth of [e]the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of [f]the false prophet. 14 For they are spirits of demons, [g]performing signs, which go out to the kings of the earth and*

song was sung by Jews in their Sabbath gatherings, as well as by early Christians at Easter. song of the Lamb. The song of the Lamb celebrates the finished work of God, when all of His righteous acts have been revealed, from creation to atonement to judgment.

16:6 saints. Saints are those who are set apart because of their relationship with Jesus Christ. prophets. The prophets are God's spokesmen. Probably this passage is referring both to the saints and prophets (11:3–18) who have been killed and persecuted during the tribulation as well as those from past history. Jesus referred to the pattern of killing prophets (Matt. 23:35) when He spoke to the Pharisees of the coming judgment.

16:8 fourth . . . bowl. The fourth bowl and the fourth trumpet both affect the sun, but in the bowl judgment the sun's heat is intensified instead of diminished.

16:9–10 did not repent. They cannot argue against the existence or power of God, but even so they will not repent and give glory to God. The good news of Christ is still in effect even just before His return (19:11–21), though it is apparently rejected by all unbelievers who are still alive.

16:12 sixth . . . bowl. The sixth bowl involves the Euphrates River, as does the sixth trumpet (9:14). Both judgments deal with demonically inspired military forces. The army of two hundred million (9:16) will kill a third of all humankind (9:18); the army of verses 12–14 will do battle against God (19:19–21).

16:13–14 unclean spirits . . . go out to the kings. The kings of the earth recoil in fear before the judgment of the Lamb (6:15–16), yet because of the deceptive words of the demons, they are willing to wage war

16 [l]And they gathered them together to the place called in Hebrew, Armageddon.*

Seventh Bowl: The Earth Utterly Shaken

17 Then the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air, and a loud voice came out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, [m]"It is done!" 18 And [n]there were noises and thunderings and lightnings; [o]and there was a great earthquake, such a mighty and great earthquake [p]as had not occurred since men were on the earth. 19 Now [q]the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. And [r]great Babylon [s]was remembered before God, [t]to give her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of His wrath. 20 Then [u]every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. 21 And great hail from heaven fell upon men, each hailstone about the weight of a talent. Men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, since that plague was exceedingly great.

The Scarlet Woman and the Scarlet Beast

17 Then [a]one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and talked with me, saying to me,* "Come, [b]I will show you the judgment of [c]the great harlot [d]who sits on many waters, 2 [e]with whom the kings of the earth committed fornication, and [f]the inhabitants of the earth were made drunk with the wine of her fornication."

3 So he carried me away in the Spirit [g]into the wilderness. And I saw a woman sitting [h]on a scarlet beast which was full of [i]names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. 4 The woman [j]was arrayed in purple and scarlet, [k]and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, [l]having in her hand a golden cup [m]full of abominations and the filthiness of her fornication.* 5 And on her forehead a name was written:

[n]MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT,
THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS
AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS
OF THE EARTH.

6 I saw [o]the woman, drunk [p]with the blood of the saints and with the blood of [q]the martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I marveled with great amazement.

The Meaning of the Woman and the Beast

7 But the angel said to me, "Why did you marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns. 8 The beast that you saw was, and is not, and [r]will ascend out of the bottomless pit and [s]go to perdition. And those who [t]dwell on the earth [u]will marvel, [v]whose names are not written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world, when they see the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.*

against God. The difference seems to be their confidence in the power of the beast, since they reason, "Who is able to make war with him?" (13:4). great day of God. The battle of that great day takes place at Armageddon (Mount of Megiddo) (v. 16; 19:17–21).

16:15 Blessed. This is the third of seven beatitudes in Revelation (see note at 14:13). Jesus warned believers to be vigilant because of the unexpected timing of His return (Matt. 24:43–44). The warning to watch is a reminder of the parable of the ten virgins (Matt. 25:1–13): "Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

16:17 It is done. The seventh bowl is the climax of all of Revelation's judgments. This is God's final act of judgment before Christ comes.

16:19 Babylon. Babylon may refer to the rebuilt ancient city, or it may be a symbolic name for Rome (17:9). It may also be a way of referring to any proud human society that attempts to exist apart from God. Babylon's classic manifestations of rebellion against God are the Tower of Babel (Gen. 11:1–9) and the Babylonian Empire under Nebuchadnezzar (Dan. 4:30).

17:1 judgment of the great harlot. Babylon is called "the harlot" in verses 1,5,16, and 19:2. Her habitual immorality was introduced in 14:8, as was her imminent and well-deserved judgment. Both the kings of the earth and the inhabitants of the earth are seduced into committing spiritual adultery with Babylon. The indication is that she made them drunk with power, material possessions, false worship, and pride. The wine of Babylon's immorality (14:8) is judged forcefully and finally by God in the "wine of the fierceness of His wrath" (16:19).

17:9 seven mountains. The word that is translated "mountains" can also be translated "hills." Most interpreters understand this as a reference to the seven hills along the Tiber River, a well-known designation of the city of Rome.

which the woman sits. 10There are also seven kings. Five have fallen, one is, and the other has not yet come. And when he comes, he must [y]continue a short time. 11The [z]beast that was, and is not, is himself also the eighth, and is of the seven, and is going to perdition.

12[a]"The ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have received no kingdom as yet, but they receive authority for one hour as kings with the beast. 13These are of one mind, and they will give their power and authority to the beast. 14[b]These will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will [c]overcome them, [d]for He is Lord of lords and King of kings; [e]and those who are with Him are called, chosen, and faithful."

15Then he said to me, [f]"The waters which you saw, where the harlot sits, [g]are peoples, multitudes, nations, and tongues. 16And the ten horns which you saw on* the beast, [h]these will hate the harlot, make her [i]desolate [j]and naked, eat her flesh and [k]burn her with fire. 17[l]For God has put it into their hearts to fulfill His purpose, to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, [m]until the words of God are fulfilled. 18And the woman whom you saw [n]is that great city [o]which reigns over the kings of the earth."

The Fall of Babylon the Great

18 After[a] these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, [b]and the earth was illuminated with his glory. 2And he cried mightily* with a loud voice, saying, [c]"Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and [d]has become a dwelling place of demons, a prison for every foul spirit, and [e]a cage for every unclean and hated bird! 3For all the nations [f]have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, [g]and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the abundance of her luxury."

4And I heard another voice from heaven saying, [h]"Come out of her, my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues. 5[i]For her sins have reached* to heaven, and [j]God has remembered her iniquities. 6[k]Render to her just as she rendered to you,* and repay her double according to her works; [l]in the cup which she has mixed, [m]mix double for her. 7[n]In the measure that she glorified herself and lived luxuriously, in the same measure give her torment and sorrow; for she says in her heart, 'I sit as [o]queen, and am no widow, and will not see sorrow.' 8Therefore her plagues will come [p]in one day—death and mourning and famine. And [q]she will be utterly burned with fire, [r]for strong is the Lord God who judges* her.

17:10 Five have fallen. The five that have fallen would be past kingdoms, perhaps Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Medo-Persia, and Greece. one is. The Roman Empire was the current power at the time of this writing. has not yet come. People speculate that the future kingdom may be a revived Roman Empire.

17:11 the eighth, and is of the seven. The beast is related to the seventh king, but also has a separate identity. It seems that the eighth world empire may be some form of a revived Roman Empire over which the antichrist establishes the imperial authority of a dictator. He will overcome three horns, or nations (Dan. 7:20), and will claim universal authority.

17:12 one hour. The time frame for these events may coincide with 16:14, in which the preparations for the battle at Armageddon are described.

17:14 make war with the Lamb. The Lamb (Christ) will easily overcome the ten kings at His second coming (19:19–21). The beast and his forces are allowed by God to "make war with the saints and to overcome them" (13:7). Many of those whom the beast defeated and even killed are now numbered in the conquering army of the Lamb. The Lord's army is composed of the called, chosen, and faithful, probably the heavenly soldiers of 19:14.

17:16–17 ten horns . . . will hate the harlot. Since this description is similar to God's judgment on Babylon in 18:8, it seems that the Lord uses the forces of the beast as His instrument of judgment on the kingdom of antichrist (ch. 18) before they themselves are destroyed (19:19–21). With the advent of the beast as a supreme ruler given to self-deification (Dan. 11:36; Matt. 24:15; 2 Thess. 2), Satan has originated an entirely new order. This order is so radically different from the great harlot (vv. 1–6) that the beast, or perhaps the political aspect of Babylon, turns upon and destroys the religious aspect of Babylon.

17:18 that great city. The woman in John's vision is the great city Babylon (16:19), yet she is also the ancient "mother of harlots" (v. 5). The satanic influence of this city over the world's leaders has continued from Babel through Babylon to Rome (vv. 9–10), its classic manifestation in the first century A.D.

18:4 Come out. The command echoes Isaiah 52:11 and especially Jeremiah 51:45, prophecies proclaimed at a time when the Babylonian Empire was ripe for judgment.

18:9–19 weep and lament for her. This section is framed like an ancient lament and is especially similar see the smoke of her burning, 10standing at a distance for fear of her torment, saying, [v]"Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! [w]For in one hour your judgment has come.'

11"And [x]the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their merchandise anymore: 12[y]merchandise of gold and silver, precious stones and pearls, fine linen and purple, silk and scarlet, every kind of citron wood, every kind of object of ivory, every kind of object of most precious wood, bronze, iron, and marble; 13and cinnamon and incense, fragrant oil and frankincense, wine and oil, fine flour and wheat, cattle and sheep, horses and chariots, and bodies and [z]souls of men. 14The fruit that your soul longed for has gone from you, and all the things which are rich and splendid have gone from you,* and you shall find them no more at all. 15The merchants of these things, who became rich by her, will stand at a distance for fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, 16and saying, 'Alas, alas, [a]that great city [b]that was clothed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls! 17[c]For in one hour such great riches came to nothing.' [d]Every shipmaster, all who travel by ship, sailors, and as many as trade on the sea, stood at a distance 18[e]and cried out when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, [f]'What is like this great city?'

19[g]"They threw dust on their heads and cried out, weeping and wailing, and saying, 'Alas, alas, that great city, in which all who had ships on the sea became rich by her wealth! [h]For in one hour she is made desolate.'

20[i]"Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you holy apostles* and prophets, for [j]God has avenged you on her!"

Finality of Babylon's Fall

21Then a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying, [k]"Thus with violence the great city Babylon shall be thrown down, and [l]shall not be found anymore. 22[m]The sound of harpists, musicians, flutists, and trumpeters shall not be heard in you anymore. No craftsman of any craft shall be found in you anymore, and the sound of a millstone shall not be heard in you anymore. 23[n]The light of a lamp shall not shine in you anymore, [o]and the voice of bridegroom and bride shall not be heard in you anymore. For [p]your merchants were the great men of the earth, [q]for by your sorcery all the nations were deceived. 24And [r]in her was found the blood of prophets and saints, and of all who [s]were slain on the earth."

Heaven Exults over Babylon

19 After these things [a]I heard* a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, "Alleluia! [b]Salvation and glory and honor and power belong to the Lord* our God! 2For [c]true and righteous are His judgments, because He has judged the great harlot who corrupted the earth with her fornication; and He [d]has avenged on her the blood of His servants shed by her." 3Again they said, "Alleluia! [e]Her smoke rises up forever and ever!" 4And [f]the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sat on the throne, saying, [g]"Amen! Alleluia!" 5Then a voice came from the throne, saying, [h]"Praise our God, all you His servants and those who fear Him, [i]both* small and great!"

6[j]And I heard, as it were, the voice of a great multitude, as the sound of many waters and as the sound of mighty thunderings, saying, "Alleluia! For [k]the* Lord God Omnipotent reigns! 7Let us be glad and rejoice and give Him glory, for [l]the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready." 8And [m]to her it was granted to be arrayed in fine linen, clean and bright, [n]for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints.

9Then he said to me, "Write: [o]'Blessed are those who are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb!'" And he said to me, [p]"These are the true sayings of God." 10And in content to Ezekiel's lament over the destruction of Tyre (Ezek. 27).

18:20 Rejoice . . . heaven, and you holy apostles and prophets. This call to rejoice is a compressed introduction to the longer praise hymn in 19:1–5. Judgment for killing God's prophets is mentioned in 16:6, but this is the only place in Revelation other than 21:14 where Christ's apostles are mentioned. If specific apostles are in mind here, Peter and Paul's deaths at the hands of the state in Rome probably apply. If Babylon is the symbol of all the enemies of God and His people, and not just the Babylonian or Roman manifestations, even the killing of James in Acts 12:1–2 is being avenged here.

19:9 Blessed. This is the fourth of the seven beatitudes in Revelation (see note at 14:13). marriage supper. The

Christ on a White Horse

11[v]Now I saw heaven opened, and behold, [w]a white horse. And He who sat on him was called [x]Faithful and True, and [y]in righteousness He judges and makes war. 12[z]His eyes were like a flame of fire, and on His head were many crowns. [a]He had* a name written that no one knew except Himself. 13[b]He was clothed with a robe dipped in blood, and His name is called [c]The Word of God. 14[d]And the armies in heaven, [e]clothed in fine linen, white and clean,* followed Him on white horses. 15Now [f]out of His mouth goes a sharp* sword, that with it He should strike the nations. And [g]He Himself will rule them with a rod of iron. [h]He Himself treads the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. 16And [i]He has on His robe and on His thigh a name written:

[j]KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

The Beast and His Armies Defeated

17Then I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the midst of heaven, [k]"Come and gather together for the supper of the great God,* 18[l]that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all people, free* and slave, both small and great."

19[m]And I saw the beast, the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against Him who sat on the horse and against His army. 20[n]Then the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who worked signs in his presence, by which he deceived those who received the mark of the beast and [o]those who worshiped his image. [p]These two were cast alive into the lake of fire [q]burning with brimstone. 21And the rest [r]were killed with the sword which proceeded from the mouth of Him who sat on the horse. [s]And all the birds [t]were filled with their flesh.

But after these things he must be released for a little while.

marriage supper of John's day would begin on the evening of the wedding, but the celebration might continue for days. The marriage supper here is a time of joyous feasting to be enjoyed by the saints.

19:15 sharp sword. The sharp sword that comes out of Christ's mouth is the two-edged sword spoken of in 1:16. rod of iron. Christ will rule with a rod of iron in fulfillment of the messianic prophecies in Psalm 2:8–9 and Isaiah 11:4.

19:20–21 beast . . . false prophet . . . cast alive into the lake of fire. The lake of fire is the eternal destiny of all unbelievers (20:10,14–15). They are apparently the first to suffer the torment of the lake. The rest of the beast's allies are killed by the word from the mouth of the victorious Christ. Apparently all those who now suffer death go to hades (Matt. 16:18), to which Jesus has the keys (1:8), until death and hades are emptied and cast into the lake of fire (20:13–15).

20:1 angel. The angel here may be the same one who had the key to the bottomless pit in 9:1–2.

20:2–3 bottomless pit . . . shut him up . . . till the thousand years. The abyss, or bottomless pit, is presently the place of imprisonment of some demons (Luke 8:31) and will be the place from which the beast ascends (17:8). Thus, it is fitting that the devil will be held there for a thousand years. The dragon of 12:3,9, known as Satan, was in control of the serpent in the garden of Eden (Gen. 3). God has a plan for Satan. He will be shut up in the abyss for a thousand years and then will be briefly released to deceive the nations one final time (vv. 7–9) before being cast into the lake of fire (v. 10). must be released. This phrase indicates that Satan will not escape from the pit but instead will be allowed to go forth from the pit to fulfill God's plan.

20:4 thrones . . . reigned. This may be a partial fulfillment of Daniel 7:18,27. The aspect of judgment in ruling is referred to in 1 Corinthians 6:2–4. At the onset of the kingdom, authority is officially transferred not worshiped the beast [i]or his image, and had not received his mark on their foreheads or on their hands. Satanic Rebellion Crushed 7Now when the thousand years have expired, Satan will be released from his prison 8and will go out [o]to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, [p]Gog and Magog, [q]to gather them together to battle, whose number is as the sand of the sea. 9[r]They went up on the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city. And fire came down from God out of heaven and devoured them. 10The devil, who deceived them, was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone [s]where* the beast and the false prophet are. And they [t]will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

The Great White Throne Judgment

11Then I saw a great white throne and Him who sat on it, from whose face [u]the earth and the heaven fled away. [v]And there was found no place for them. 12And I saw the dead, [w]small and great, standing before God,* [x]and books were opened. And another [y]book was opened, which is the Book of Life. And the dead were judged [z]according to their works, by the things which were written in the books. 13The sea gave up the dead who were in it, [a]and Death and Hades delivered up the dead who were in them. [b]And they were judged, each one according to his works. 14Then [c]Death and Hades were cast into from angels to men (Heb. 2:5,8). Christ, as the second Adam, fulfills God's original purpose for the earth. A new world order is established with the overcoming saints of the church age ruling together with Christ in His kingdom (Rom. 8:17). Incredible as it may seem, with a perfect Ruler who is totally just, totally kind, and totally wise, there will still be men who will rebel (vv. 7–9).

20:5 did not live again. The resurrection of the dead will not encompass all people at the same time (Dan. 12:2; John 5:29). This passage indicates that there will be a first resurrection of dead believers before the thousand years of Christ's reign (1 Cor. 15:23,52) and a final resurrection after the millennium is finished, before the great white throne judgment (vv. 11–13). It is generally considered that this is the time of resurrection of the Old Testament saints as well as those martyred in the great tribulation.

20:6 Blessed. This is the fifth of the seven beatitudes in Revelation (see note at 14:13). All look forward to life with Christ beyond the first resurrection (v. 5). Resurrection is assured for all believers. But the blessedness mentioned here belongs more precisely to those martyrs who will have a part as rulers with Christ in the first resurrection. second death. The second death is the everlasting death of torment in the lake of fire for unbelievers who face the great white throne judgment (vv. 11–15). John has previously stated that the one who overcomes will not be hurt by the second death (2:11).

20:8 Gog and Magog. Gog and Magog was a common rabbinical title for the nations in rebellion against the Lord, and the names recall the prophesied invasion of Israel in Ezekiel 38:39. Some hold that the battle of verses 8–9 is the one spoken of in Ezekiel, but there are major differences as well as similarities in the two passages.

20:9 beloved city. The beloved city may symbolically refer to the home of God's people. However, the New Jerusalem is commonly called "the city of My God" (3:12) and "the holy city" (21:2). The city here may be the renewed earthly Jerusalem, ready to give way to the everlasting sinless glory of the New Jerusalem (21:1—22:5).

20:11 great white throne. The great white throne is a picture of God's holy rule and judgment. The One occupying the throne may be God the Father (1 Cor. 15:24–28) or both the Father and the Lamb (Christ), as in the New Jerusalem (22:1–3). the earth and the heaven fled away. There is no place for this sin-polluted creation in the new heaven and new earth (21:1—22:5). The earth and all of its works will be burned up (2 Pet. 3:10–13).

20:12 the dead. The dead, called "the rest of the dead" (v. 5), are raised and made to stand before God's throne of judgment. books. The books are thought to refer to the record of all works done in this life. Since all have sinned and fall short of God's standard (Rom. 3:23), the opening of these books will certainly lead to eternal sentences in the lake of fire. Book of Life. The Book of Life is God's register of those who have believed in Jesus (17:8). Although no one can be judged acceptable based on works (Eph. 2:8–9) many will be saved by God's grace received by faith in Jesus Christ.

20:14 Death and Hades. Death and Hades refers not only to dying, but to existence beyond the grave (1:18; 6:8). If one considers "death" as a place, it would be the place where the body lies, and Hades would be the place for the soul. The picture here is of all human bodies being given up to God's judgment. While unbelieving humanity is judged according to its works, Death and Hades, the Lord's final enemy (1 Cor. 15:26), is also destroyed by being cast into the

the lake of fire. [d]This is the second death.* 15And anyone not found written in the Book of Life [e]was cast into the lake of fire.

All Things Made New

21 Now [a]I saw a new heaven and a new earth, [b]for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away. Also there was no more sea. 2Then I, John,* saw [c]the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared [d]as a bride adorned for her husband. 3And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying, "Behold, [e]the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people. God Himself will be with them and be their God. 4[f]And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; [g]there shall be no more death, [h]nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away."

5Then [i]He who sat on the throne said, [j]"Behold, I make all things new." And He said to me,* "Write, for [k]these words are true and faithful."

6And He said to me, [l]"It is done!* [m]I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. [n]I will give of the fountain of the water of life freely to him who thirsts. 7He who overcomes shall inherit all things,* and [o]I will be his God and he shall be My son. 8[p]But the cowardly, unbelieving,* abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in [q]the lake which burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death."

The New Jerusalem

9Then one of [r]the seven angels who had the seven bowls filled with the seven last plagues came to me* and talked with me, saying, "Come, I will show you [s]the bride, the Lamb's wife."* 10And he carried me away [t]in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me [u]the great city, the holy* Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, 11[v]having the glory of God. Her light was like a most precious stone, like a jasper stone, clear as crystal. 12Also she had a great and high wall with [w]twelve gates, and twelve angels at the gates, and names written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel: 13[x]three gates on the east, three gates on the north, three gates on the south, and three gates on the west.

14Now the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and [y]on them were the names* of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. 15And he who talked with me [z]had a gold reed to measure the city, its gates, and its wall. 16The city is laid out as a square; its length is as great as its breadth. And he measured the city with the reed: twelve thousand furlongs. Its length, breadth, and height are equal. 17Then he measured its lake of fire. second death. The second death is spiritual and eternal, the just punishment of the wicked. The first death is physical dying. Both are included in the overall meaning of the death that came upon the human race because of Adam and Eve's sin (Gen. 2:16–17; 3:1–19; Rom. 5:12).

20:15 not found written in the Book of Life. Only those who have accepted Jesus Christ as their Savior will be found in the book. The rejection of the eternal gospel results in eternal condemnation (14:6–7).

21:1 new. "New" here suggest freshness, not just a second beginning. This is the fulfillment of the prophecies of Isaiah 65:17; 66:22 and 2 Peter 3:13. Significantly, this eternal renewal has already begun in the life of the believer because, using the same term, Paul says, "if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation" (2 Cor. 5:17). passed away . . . no more sea. The present heaven and earth, including the sea, were burned up in the great white throne judgment (20:11–13). There will be a continuation of some features of the present creation in the new heaven and new earth, yet the drastic difference in the new eternal state is obvious from the fact that there will be no more sea, which was a major part of the original creation (Gen. 1:6–10).

21:2 bride. Christ's bride (v. 9) is the New Jerusalem, the redeemed inhabitants of the holy city (vv. 3–7,24–27).

21:6 It is done. For the third time, it is done. The first statement of "finishing" was on the cross (John 19:30), the second was at the end of God's wrath (16:17), and the third is when there is no more death, a new heaven and a new earth. water of life. The water of life may be recalling Jesus' references to living water in John 4:14 and 7:38, in connection with eternal life and life in the Holy Spirit. This water is further described in 22:1. A similar offer of God's grace to him who spiritually thirsts is repeated in 22:17.

21:12 twelve gates . . . twelve tribes. The description of the high wall and the twelve gates echoes Ezekiel 48:30–35. It is a glorious picture of the place that Israel holds in the New Jerusalem when the new covenant with Israel is at last fulfilled.

21:14 twelve foundations . . . apostles. This picture calls to mind Paul's imagery of the apostles as the foundation of the house of God in Ephesians 2:20.

21:19–20 all kinds of precious stones. The exact color of some of the stones is uncertain, but it is probable that jasper is colorless, sapphire is blue, chalcedony is green or greenish-blue, emerald is bright green, sardonyx has layers of red and white, sardius is blood red, chrysolite is yellow, beryl is blue or blue-green, topaz is golden, and amethyst is purple or violet.

22:2 tree of life. The tree of life in the original creation was in the middle of the garden of Eden (Gen. 2:9), from which all of humanity was excluded after sin entered the world (Gen. 3:22–24). Ezekiel's apocalyptic vision included trees bearing fruit every month with medicinal leaves (Ezek. 47:12). Since only one tree of life is mentioned here, even though it is on both sides of the river, it is probably meant as a parallel to Genesis 2, implying that a new, better, and everlasting Eden has come.

22:3 no more curse. The affliction of sin, especially on the human race and creation (Gen. 3:14–19), will be erased. As God had fellowship with Adam and Eve before their fall into sin (Gen. 3:8), so the Lord will again be with His servants eternally. In turn, His servants will worship and serve Him (Rom. 12:1).

22:4 see His face. The believer's hope today is to see the Lord face to face (1 Cor. 13:12), something neither Moses nor any other human was previously allowed to do (Ex. 33:20).

22:7 Blessed. "Blessed" begins the sixth of seven beatitudes in Revelation (see note at 14:13). And indeed, those who pay attention to this book will be blessed. The Lord has shown the things that must come to pass, the things that His servants must pay attention to, the ultimate fate of unbelievers, and a beautiful glimpse of eternity, which leaves all believers with an eagerness for the return of the Lord.

22:11 unjust . . . filthy . . . righteous . . . holy. This verse, on the surface, seems to be a statement that believers and unbelievers will live out their lives true

Jesus Testifies to the Churches

12 "And behold, I am coming quickly, and [w]My reward is with Me, [x]to give to every one according to his work. 13 [y]I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last."*

14 [z]Blessed are those who do His commandments,* that they may have the right [a]to the tree of life, [b]and may enter through the gates into the city. 15 But* [c]outside are [d]dogs and sorcerers and sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters, and whoever loves and practices a lie.

16 [e]"I, Jesus, have sent My angel to testify to you these things in the churches. [f]I am the Root and the Offspring of David, [g]the Bright and Morning Star."

17 And the Spirit and [h]the bride say, "Come!" And let him who hears say, "Come!" [i]And let him who thirsts come. Whoever desires, let him take the water of life freely.

A Warning

18 For* I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: [j]If anyone adds to these things, God will add* to him the plagues that are written in this book; 19 and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, [k]God shall take away* his part from the Book* of Life, from the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

I Am Coming Quickly

20 He who testifies to these things says, "Surely I am coming quickly."

Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.* Amen.

to their nature until the final judgment (20:12–15). However, because this book is to be read before the events it foretells take place, it is almost certainly an implied, indirect evangelistic appeal based on the continuing offer of the gospel (v. 17; 14:6–7).

22:12–13 My reward is with Me. The rewarding of each believer according to his or her works is taught in 2 Corinthians 5:10. Christ's rewards are meant to provide a powerful incentive for an obedient life. Little wonder that the apostle Paul rigorously disciplined himself so that he would not be disqualified from the prize (1 Cor. 9:24–27; Phil. 3:10–14). The judgment seat of Christ can be a time of great regret (1 Cor. 3:5–10), or it can be an occasion of supreme joy (2 Cor. 5:9–11). After Christ comes again, He will give rewards to His own. This can be counted on because Christ is in control of all history and all eternity.

22:14 Blessed. This is the last of the seven beatitudes in Revelation (see note at 14:13). This beatitude is speaking of those justified by faith who express that faith in obedience (Eph. 2:8–10).

22:15 dogs. According to the context of Deuteronomy 23:18 a "dog" is a male prostitute.

22:16 the Root and the Offspring of David. Jesus is both the Source and Son of David, echoing the words of Isaiah 11:1,10. Jesus is both greater than David and the rightful heir to the throne of David.

22:17 Come. This book, so full of the pictures of the fulfillment of God's righteous judgment, still closes with the sweet and compelling invitation to come to Christ. This is one of the reasons it is "blessed" to read this book.

22:18–19 add to . . . take away. The Book of Revelation was intended to be heard and obeyed (v. 7; 1:3), not tampered with. The person who either adds to or takes away from its contents will receive from God the strictest punishment, a punishment with eternal consequences.

22:20 I am coming quickly. The fact that Jesus is coming quickly within the scope of God's overall plan for this creation is a repeated theme in Revelation (3:11; 22:7–12). John adds the hope of all believers to the declaration of Christ with his prayer, "come, Lord Jesus."

22:21 grace. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ begins and concludes the Book of Revelation (1:4), implying that the message of grace and the free gift of eternal life in Christ (Eph. 2:8–9), not merely the message of judgment upon unbelievers, can be found in this book.
